More About the Stock Law Fence.

EAST COOPER, EDGEFIELD CO., S. C. April 1st, 1881.

Messrs. Editors: In reply to your inquiry about the "Line Fence," across Gray Township and along the Halfway Swamp: "Has it been built? Is it being built?" It is built, and was inspected and received to-day, by Mr. W. R. McKinny, one of the Abbeville County Commissioners. Mr. McKinny expressed himself as being highly pleased with the fence. No community or set of men ever went into anything with more determination than did the advocates of this fence. They surmounted every obstacle, and to-day a completed and received Fence is their (our) reward.

The first obstacle to overcome was that there was no appropriation made to pay for building the fence. That was overcome by private subscription. Next, opposition sprang up in a section where it was least expected; but that too was overcome. Mr. McKinney says the Stock Law portion of Gray and Cooper is a distinct and separate people from the balance of Edgefield; and Edgefield's only chance to any further claim on us is to have the Stock Law extended throughout the County.

There are eight miles of fence to be let to the lowest bidder, on the 18th inst., at 12 o'clock, M., at the Tom Payne X R'ds. The fence is completed and received; but there is no one responsible for its (the 8 miles—the balance is secured by bond) protection, and therefore it will be let to the lowest bidder, for that purpose.

Yours, X. A.

For the Advertiser.

Major James H. Murrell of Charleston.

Dear Advertiser: To-day, while Edgefield so bitterly bemoans the loss of her great and noble Gary, my thoughts revert to another, who, on this very day, one year ago, crossed the river and entered into the eternal enjoyment of God's smile one whom the Advertiser knew well—and by whom the Advertiser was well beloved—Major James H. Murrell of Charleston. And the hand that writes these memorial lines trembles with a genuine and profound grief, for he who is dead was one of our dearest, truest, noblest friends. James H. Murrell, of the old Charleston Courier, was one of the purest and most elevated men of South Carolina. Gentle, courteous, just and true as he was to the chosen few of the intimate circle he was the very flower of fellowship, the soul of manly devotion. His virtues will live after him like shining stars in the firmament and the sweet influences of his life will long be felt in the lives of those who survive him. For one year, to-day, he has known "the peace of God which passeth all understanding.

AN OLD FRIEND.

April 10th 1881.

The Unwonted Beauties and Attractions of Mr. Alvin Hart's Spring Opening.

Mr. Alvin Hart's spring opening of dry goods &c., is now full in all departments. And for his new announcement, in another column, we beg universal attention. For two months to come, ladies, you can find no prettier or pleasanter place than Hart's. And owing to extraordinary commercial facilities, Mr. Hart is enabled to dispose of his goods not only in quantities and qualities to suit, but at prices which astonish all competitors. It has always been Mr. Hart's aim to increase and retain his custom, and to achieve this he has always pursued a policy of liberality and fair dealing, which when coupled with his energy, his business qualifications, his excellent judgment and his inimitable taste is bound to succeed more and more as the years go by.

Standard Ammoniated Guano and Diamond Mixed Gloss Paint.

These are two specialties which are advertised in our paper this week, by Robert Walton & Co., the popular grocery and commission merchants of Augusta. We hope our agriculturalists generally will take into consideration the Standard Ammoniated Guano; while to all persons wishing paint for houses, fences, or other purposes, we would certainly recommend the "Diamond Mixed Gloss," whose glistening surface is impervious to time, wind and weather.

Gen. Gary's pallbearers in Edgefield were Capt. John C. Swearingen, Capt. Ben Mays, Mr. John L. Addison, Col. O. F. Cheatham, Mr. A. A. Clisby, Mr. W. E. Lynch, Mr. D. R. Durisoe and the Hon. John C. Sheppard.

The Committee of Lawyers.

On Saturday morning a meeting of the Edgefield bar was held, in regard to the death and burial of General Gary. At this meeting, Stanmore B. Griffin, Esq., presided, and the following committee was appointed to attend the body to Cokesbury: John L. Addison, Esq., Hon. Jno. C. Sheppard, and Messrs. Benjamin W. Bettis, Walter D. Ouzts, Benj. L. Abney and James A. Devore. A committee was also appointed to draft suitable resolutions in honor of the distinguished dead which committee is to report at a future meeting.

Burial of Gen. Gary.

The special train which bore the body of Gen. Gary arrived at Hodges Depot at 5 o'clock on Sunday morning; and at 4 o'clock on Sunday afternoon the burial took place, in the old Tabernacle Church cemetery, two miles out of Cokesbury.

Death of Gen. Gary's Mother.

Major W. T. Gary.

Major Wm. T. Gary was in Florida at the time of his brother's death, and is expected to arrive in Cokesbury on Wednesday, the 13th.

Death of Mr. Seddon Morson.

In November last there came to "Edgewood," the home of Mrs. Pickens, on a gentleman of a distinguished Virginia family, and a man of very rare physical and intellectual gifts. He was already far spent with consumption, and soon became too ill to make a move. On Saturday morning last, in the midst of the sleepless kindness and devotion by which he has been surrounded for the past five months, he departed this life at "Edgewood," aged only twenty-six years. His body, accompanied by a sister and Col. Fleming Gardner, was taken to Richmond for interment.

Our Railroad.

President Jones, of the Edgefield, Trenton & Aiken Railroad, informs us that his thirty convicts are now diligently at work immediately on this side of Shaw's Creek, where the labor has been very heavy, and where there is still about one mile of difficult grading to be accomplished. After crossing the creek, the route, until within the near neighborhood of Aiken, is level and easy of management. President Jones seems sanguine of completing the grading of the road by the time his six months lease of the convicts shall have expired.

Who Knows Him?

The following note will explain itself:

ORANGEBURG, April 8 '81.

Sheriff of Edgefield County.—Dear Sir: I have in jail a black negro, about 25 or 30 years old, 5 feet 6 inches in height, and weighs about 140 pounds. He is carred and marked as if he has been a deperate character. I believe he is said to be full of shot. Goes by the name of John Hurd. He claims to be originally from Georgia, says he killed two men in Georgia, and a negro named Ned Glover in Edgefield some time ago, probably one or more years. He is scarred on each sid of his neck, and has rather sharp featios If you know anything of such a negro please give me some informatin concerning him. Yours respectfully

A. M. SALLEY,
Sheriff E. C.

Wire Fence.

Very soon, Gen. Dunovant will have a large stock of Sedgwick's wire fence on hand. Among citizens who have lately purchased it are Rev. J. P. Mealing, Capt. Charlton, Mr. Jeff Whittaker, Capt. E. E. Jefferson, M. John Zimmerman, Mr. Harry Hill.

Poppies and Ostrich Feathers.

It will soon be necessary to carry high stools to places of amusement. A fashion authority says: "Among new spring bonnets, sixteen full blown poppies are seen on one and nine ostrich feathers on another."

The Fredericksburg Sore Full and Overflowing.

The new advertisement of Messrs. V. Richards & Bro., of Augsta, in another column, claims much, but to know the men is to believe strictly what they say. Therefore read very carfully about the spring and summer stock of the Fredericksburg Store. The Mars. Richards can always present splend advantages to purchasers. And their dry goods establishment is one of the most extensive in the whole South.

"The Poor Man's Friend," God Bless Him!

We mean Mr. H. Brooks, of the Oak Hall and Star Clothg Houses, Augusta, than whom a worthier man does not carry on the clothing or an other sort of business. Read Brooks new card in this week's Advertiser. He deals in first-class ready-made clothing and all he says about it you will find strict true. "Nice Cassimere Suits from $9 to $12.00. Diagonal Suits, all wool, on $13 00 to $30.00. Black Cloth Suits, specialty, from $10.00 to $35.00." At Brooks's! Two Houses Numbers 614, 616 and 636, Broad Street. Brooks, the Poor Man's Friend!

Thomson & Nagle have given up, or sold out, their interest in the Columbia Canal job, and like sensible people the monied men of Columbia have taken hold with a start that augurs success. More than $100,000 of stock has already been taken up. Capt. Lewis Jones has been appointed agent for Edgefield, for taking subscriptions to this stock.

National Surgical Institute.

One of the Surgeons of this old and notable Institute will visit Edgefield S. C. April 25th 1881 stopping at the Calhoun House. The object of this visit is to give the afflicted an opportunity for examination at or near their homes, thus saving hopeless cases the expense of a trip to Atlanta. A careful examination will be made, and patients can learn if their cases are curable or can be benefitted, and whether it will be necessary for them to visit the Institute. In such cases as can be cured, or treatment begun a home, arrangements can be made with our visiting Surgeon, and treatment commenced at once.

Cases of Deformities and Chronic Diseases will be examined, such as Club Feet, Diseases of the Hip, Spine and Joints, Paralysis, Piles, Fistula, Catarrh, Female and Private Diseases, and Diseases of the Eye, Ear, etc.

Come early, as the visit is limited to the time stated. For circulars and full particulars, address

DIAMOND MIXED GLOSS PAINT.

MIXED READY for IMMEDIATE USE.

ALL COLORS AND TINTS—ANY PERSON CAN PUT IT ON.

J. W. WALKER'S BROS, & CO.

SOLE MANUFACTURERS,

ST CINCINNATI

THE DIAMOND MIXED GLOSS PAINT is made from the same Materials all Painters claim to use, viz: Best White Lead Zinc and Linseed Oil, but scientifically united with "A Permanent Linseed Oil Gloss," which overcomes the difficulties that have stood in the way of paint mixing, as the gloss is not destroyed by age, and gives the pigments strength and prevents the Lead from chalking off, as it will do in one year's time mixed the old way. The Diamond Mixed Gloss Paint cannot be equaled for outside or inside work. The weather cannot penetrate the Permanent Oil-Gloss Surface, neither is it affected by scrubbing or washing. It is suitable for all purposes, and warranted to stand in any climate. It has been thoroughly tested, being in use over fifteen years, and in all cases has proven its superiority.

One Gallon covers from 200 to 250 square feet—two coats.

The undersigned have been appointed General Agents for the sale of this Paint, and are prepared to furnish dealers on liberal terms. Samples, Cards and Price Lists furnished.

PALMETTO MUTUAL BENEFIT ASSOCIATION,

Of CHARLESTON, S. C.

OFFICERS:

J. ADJER SMYTH, President. ALEX. MELCHERS, Vice-President.
HUTSON LEE, Secretary. R. A. KINLOCH, M. D., Medical Director.
W. M. HUTSON, General Agent.

WE beg to announce to the good people of Edgefield that we have accepted the Agency (for this County) of the PALMETTO MUTUAL BENEFIT ASSOCIATION, of Charleston, S. C. This Association was organized and chartered under the laws of the State of South Carolina, is strictly benevolent in its aim and object, and from its rapidly growing popularity wherever introduced, we feel assured that it will fill a long felt want with our citizens for some plan of mutual protection for their families, based upon equitable principles, and upon rates obtained from the most reliable insurance tables of mortality, whereby SAFETY and PERMANENCY may be secured beyond any contingency, and at LOWER RATES than hitherto offered by Underwriters of Life Insurance, or any of the many orders and societies established for the purpose of affording pecuniary relief when the father or brother, or support of the family, is stricken down by death.

Simple! Safe! Permanent!

The plans of "THE PALMETTO MUTUAL BENEFIT ASSOCIATION" are simple, safe and permanent. The members pay only one small ante mortem assessment at a time, which is held as a sacred trust to make the payment of death claims sure. The mortuary Assessments are calculated upon the American Experience Tables, are strictly equitable, and provide purely mutual protection at actual cost. The amount of assessment increases every year in accordance with the mortality of each particular age, thus equalizing the burdens of the old and young, and providing that permanency which the plans of most other societies have failed to secure.

The mortuary assessments are deposited as they are collected with the "First National Bank, of Charleston, S. C.," and constitute a sacred fund for the payment of Death Claims only. The funds arising from these assessments cannot be loaned or invested in securities of any kind, but must remain on deposit in bank, subject to sight drafts for the payment of Death Claims.

Certificates of Membership will be issued to all acceptable persons, between the ages of twenty (20) and fifty-five (55) years, for amounts of one, two, three, four, or five thousand dollars.

MALE OR FEMALE,

The money collected from members creates two funds which are kept separate and distinct from each other. The one, Mortuary Assessments, being EXCLUSIVELY DEVOTED TO THE PAYMENT OF DEATH CLAIMS; and the other, Membership Fees and Annual Dues, being appropriated to the PAYMENT OF ALL THE EXPENSES of managing the Association.

A Board of Supervisors selected from the prominent citizens of different sections of our State has been organized, who will attend the annual meetings of the directors, examine the receipts and disbursements of the mortuary , and certify to the correctness of all annual statements made by this Associa.. .. The Secretary of the Association is under good and sufficient bond for the faithful deposit of all assessments collected from members. The Officers are well and favorably known in commercial and insurance circles, and it is their determination that the business of this Association shall be judiciously managed, and the interests of its members faithfully guarded.

We cordially commend this Association to the especial attention of the people of Edgefield. It is a good institution, and merits success.
