Edgefield, S. C., December 22, 1881.

WE SCORN THE IMPUTATION BEFORE THE WHOLE STATE, AND WE KNOW THAT THE MEN OF EDGEFIELD WILL BEAR US OUT.

During the heated discussions upon the general Stock Law bill, in both Houses of our General Assembly, painful presages and predictions have fallen from the lips of many members of the opposition in regard to the baleful political results that would flow from the passage of this Act. These gentlemen have mentioned no particular counties; but it any one imagines or says that the loyalty of the citizens of Edgefield County to the Democratic party could be affected by this or any other legislation which is for the benefit of the whole State, then we scorn the imputation, and we know the men of Edgefield will bear us out. A large and very respectable party in our county will have to sacrifice not only their opinions but their interests. And being true sons of old Edgefield, and scions of pure old Edgefield blood, they will be capable of the sacrifice—capable of any sacrifice for the salvation of South Carolina—capable of any sacrifice for the unity of the Democratic party—capable of any sacrifice to prevent the re-prostration of the native white man under the heel of the carpet-bagger and the negro. No, the allegiance of the white men of Edgefield to the Democratic party depends not upon the success of this, or that, or the other measure.

And as regards the Stock Law it self, it will emphatically prove itself to be the poor man's law. It will lower rents, increase incomes and lessen expenses. The crops planted will be gathered. With this law, the fields which now lie idle will be cultivated, the lands for which there is now no market will become valuable. All classes and conditions will be benefitted. It has been said that men would be injured, yes, ruined. How? The question has not been answered. But we judge of the effects by the causes which produce them. The same cause must always produce the same effect. Is the question before us the only instance in which this rule is not true? Surely not. Wherever the law has been tried, it has proved a success; good results have followed in every way. This being the case, may we not take it for granted that the future will be as the past? The evils which the opponents of this law say must follow its passage, are imaginary only. They are not supported by the facts—the history of—all the other counties

PROCEEDINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE FOR THE LAST TEN DAYS.

The State Government to Cost, Next Year, Six Hundred and Eighty-Seven Thousand, Six Hundred and Forty Dollars, and Fifty Cents.

The General Stock Law Bill Becomes a Law, and Edgefield Will Have To Build No Dividing Fence.

On Monday the 13th, Mr. Johnstone, of Newberry, Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, reported the appropriation bill, and on Monday night, the House passed said bill to a third reading.

In its printed form, it appropriated $695,640.50 for the ordinary expenses of the State Government, but amendments cut it down to $687,640 50.

The appropriation for assisting militia companies was changed from "to uniform themselves," to, "to maintain their organization," and was cut from $12,000 to $5,000.

The salary of the Attorney General, was cut from $2,300 to $2,100, and $1,000 instead of $2,000 appropriated "for expenses of litigation."

Mr. Simpson, of Anderson, moved to strike out the $10,00 for the maintenance of schools of the S. C. University, and was backed by Mr. Talbert, of Edgefield, and opposed by Messrs. Haskell, Verner and Murray. The section was sustained by a vote of 73 to 32.

The salary of chaplain of the penitentiary was cut from $600 to $500, and of the clerk from $1,200 to $1,000. The appropriation for purchasing land for the penitentiary was increased from $2,500 to $5,500.

The appropriations are:

Executive Department, $53,309, including Governor's salary, $3,500; Private Secretary $1,500; Messenger $400; contingent fund, $4,000; stationery, etc., $250—Lieutenant Governor, $1,000—Secretary of State, $2,100; clerk, $1,500; contingent, etc., $425—Comptroller General, $2,100; clerks, $3,000; contingent, etc., $450—Treasurer, $2,100; clerks, (3) $4,500; contingent, etc., $750—Sup't of Education, $2,100; clerk, $1,200, contingent, etc., $1,450—Adj't and Inspector Gen'l, $1,200; armorer, purchase of equipments, etc., $3,100.

Judicial Department, $63,050, including $4,000 for Chief, and $3,500 each for Associate Justices; 8 Judges at $3,500 each, and 8 Solicitors at $1,562 each.

Health Department, $6,950

Tax Department, $22 200, including $10,200 for Auditors and $2,000 for books for Auditors and Treasurers.

South Carolina University $12,500

Penal and charitable institutions, $128,783, including $19,500 for the penitentiary, $12,500 for the deaf dumb and blind Asylum, and the balance for the Lunatic Asylum.

$2,500 was appropriated for the Agricultural and Mechanical Society; $800 for the Catawba Indians; $3,450 for salary and expenses of Railroad Commissioner and Clerk (to be refunded when paid up by the roads,) and $280 for deficiency in the Yorktown appropriations.

$398,539 is appropriated to pay interest on the State debt, including the Agricultural College fund.

The Appropriation Bill in the Senate. Callison Votes Against the University.

The Senate passed the general appropriation bill to its third reading lessening the Lunatic Asylum appropriation nine thousand dollars and slightly amending it otherwise.

The University appropriation was sustained by a vote of twenty-eight to three, Senators Perry, Muller and Callison voting against it. Both the Republican senators advocated and voted for it.

Mr. Callison is an honest and an able man, and we honor him highly for his long, unwavering, persistent and effective fight against all unnecessary offices and all increase of taxation. But in opposing what is commonly called "higher education," Mr. Callison, in our opinion, is wrong. The aid is not asked for the purpose of building up an institution for the rich, but for every youth in the State; to meet the wants of the four hundred youths scattered through other States seeking the higher education which, alas! South Carolina cannot afford to give them. We are rejoiced that the Assembly of South Carolina refused to weigh for one moment the money consideration involved in this matter. The truth is, there is nothing in the statement that the tax will be increased in order to make this appropriation. The tax last year was 5 mills, and now, with a smaller appropriation, an increased taxable property, how can there be an increased burden upon the people? The State owes it to the youth to meet this demand, especially as it is simply asked to supplement an already large investment in the appliances for education in order to make them efficient to meet the wants which are forced upon us.

The Stock Law Passes the Senate.

At the night session of the Senate on Friday last, the Stock law passed its third reading, and was sent to the House after further amending the bill so as to exempt Chesterfield and Orangeburg Counties from the operations of the law until October 1, 1882. This exemption was extended to Aiken County, excepting the townships o Schultz and Silverton and so much of Hammond as lies between the Hamburg road and the Savannah River from the benefits of the exemption, so that all the other counties

The Consolidated Roads.

The bill presented by Mr. Callison, for the consolidation of the Atlantic and French Broad Valley Railroad Company with the Aiken and Trenton Railroad Company has passed the Senate, and will, presumably, meet with no opposition in the House.

The Election Law and the Railroad Bill.

These two great measures being still under discussion, we will wait until our next issue to give their status.

A Cold Corpse.

As regards the repeal of the Lien Law, the measure is a cold corpse And we are glad to announce the fact.

Acts Recently Ratified.

On Saturday last, amid a host of others, the following acts were ratified:

An Act to provide artificial limbs for all soldiers of the State who lost their legs or arms, or who have been permanently disabled in their legs or arms, during military service in the years 1861-62-63-64-65, and who have not been supplied under former Acts of the General Assembly.

An Act to allow the State Superintendent of Education to use $1,500 of the sum received from the Charleston Charitable Association of the State of South Carolina for the benefit of the free school fund, for the purpose of conducting Normal Institutes during the year 1882.

An Act to punish any person or persons who shall sell or dispose of any personal property on which a mortgage of any kind may exist without the written consent of the mortgage.

An Act to require owners and keepers of toll bridges within the State to keep sufficient light or lights by night on said bridges so as to enable persons traveling to see their way over said bridges.

An Act to establish and charter McDaniel's Ferry, on Savannah River, in Edgefield County.

An Act to regulate the licensing of physicians and surgeons.

An Act entitled "An Act to provide punishment for wilful or malicious injury to bridges on public roads."

An Act for the prevention of cruelty to animals.

The Legislature Adjourns From the Twentieth of December to the Eleventh of January and Goes to Atlanta to Behold the Great Exposition.

On yesterday, Tuesday, the General Assembly adjourned until the 11th of January, and started in a body to visit the great Exposition in Atlanta. This trip is made in response to a cordial invitation from Director General Kimball. Governor Hagood and other officials accompany the Legislative party. They will remain in Atlanta two days probably, and will there meet the two houses of the Kentucky Legislature round-trip tickets—from Columbia to Atlanta and back—are placed at the remarkably low figure of $3 50.

THE ANNUAL METHODIST CONFERENCE.

The South Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, convened its ninety-sixth session at Union the 14th. The first session was held in Charleston in February, 1787, three years after the organization of the Church in Baltimore. The membership of the Conference at its first session numbered 500; it now numbers 46 618.

Bishop Pierce called the Conference to order and Rev. W. C. Power, secretary of the last conference, called the roll, and 96 clerical and 14 lay delegates answered to their names. The Conference is composed of 159 clerical and 36 lay delegates. Rev. W. C. Power was re-elected secretary, and Rev. W. D. Kirkland and John O. Wilson, assistants. Revs. O. A. Darby, D. D., S. Lander, D. D., H. F. Chrietzberg and W. A. Rogers were chosen statistical secretaries. The usual committees were appointed. The Conference presented a fine appearance. The preachers were well dressed and showed signs of being well fed, notwithstanding the cry of hard times on account of the drought.

The Next State Ticket.

Already through the smoke of legislation and the noise of the conflict of opinion on various measures, can be heard faint rumors of the composition of the State ticket. So far for Governor, Gens. Kennedy and Bratton are prominently spoken of, with hints of a dark horse. For secretary, the present incumbent will have the opposition of Col. J. N. Lipscomb, Capt. Dick Howard, of Marion, and Capt. Rice, of Barnwell. The names spoken of in connection with the office of attorney-general are very numerous. Col. Ed. McCrady and Col. C. R. Miles of Charleston, Col. J. C. Haskell of Richland, Col. John R. Abney of Edgefield, Mr. Jas. Aldrich of Aiken, and Mr. Y. J. Pope of Newberry, are most prominently mentioned. There will, in all probability be no opposition either to Col. H. S. Thompson as superintendent of Education, or Gen. Manigault as adjutant general, or Col. John P. Richar son as State treasurer. Captain W. A. Stoney is very generally mentioned for comptroller-general, and his ability and long experience in the office are used as strong arguments in his favor. He has made many friends, who will at the right time urge his claims to this position. Gen. Gray, of Greenville, is up to this time the only other name prominently spoken of in connection with this office.—Columbia Correspondence of News and Courier.

—ING THE FARM.—The Saluda Argus says: "The present year, which has terminated so disastrously to farming interests, has caused many small farmers who have been engaged in planting on their own account to seek a living in other kinds of labor. The railroads and phosphate works have attracted numbers of the colored of this class. Large numbers who have been regular wages hands have also sought these more lucrative fields of industry. If it continue, without other sources of supply, it promises to work at least local defections in this class of labor."

MALE AND FEMALE COLLEGES.—The Columbia Yeoman says: There are in South Carolina, as shown by the report of the State Superintendent of Education, 17 male and female colleges. Of these Abbeville has two; Anderson one; Charleston two; Greenville four; Newberry one; Spartanburg one; Richland two; York one. Five of these institutions are for males. One of the latter is for colored students. In them are employed 96 instructors, and the number of pupils is set down at 1,810.

The John P. King Manufacturing Company, of Augusta, with a capital of one million dollars, will be organized December 28 The stock has been subscribed—over four hundred thousand dollars in Boston, New York and Philadelphia, and the balance in Augusta. This makes nearly three million dollars subscribed for cotton mills in Augusta inside of three years. All the mills have made over 14 per cent. on their capital within the last year.

On Monday last Mr W. W Fripp, principal of the public schools in Beaufort, severely chastised Jacob Bythewood the little son of the Rev. R F. Bythewood. The boy is of a very delicate organism and was taken with convulsions from which he has suffered with but little intermission ever since, and at times his life has been despaired of. He is not yet out of danger and a fatal termination may yet ensue. Mr. Fripp, has been suspended by the board of trustees.

The President's recommendation to re-build the navy is well enough, if the money so appropriated was sure of being employed for that purpose. Under Grant's administration more than $300,000,000 were appropriated and the navy was nearly extinguished.

Miss Davis, the daughter of the President of the late Confederacy, is a tall young woman, with dark hair and eyes, an extremely pale face, and an expression of intense reserve.

An ex-consul of Great Britain, says the Brooklyn Eagle, related that Mr. Charles Townsend, Sedalia, Mo., was cured of rheumatism of the worst kind by St. Jacobs Oil.—Indianapolis (Ind.) Sentinel.

South Carolina.

No State in the South has so belabored and befouled—so ravaged by robbers—so disgraced by ignorance and general rascality as is South Carolina in the memorable days of Republican rule.

And it is true that no late has made such surprising progress, all things considered, since the happy deliverance from the thieves and negroes. Governor Hagood, in his late message, shows that she is still steadily improving. Her bonded debt is given at $6,647 1. The State is shown to be growing in population. The Charleston Courier notes the fact that there is a surplus in the treasury, and a reflective State tax of less than four mills, and that to appreciate the honesty and wisdom of the State, the expenses of the State Government are less than the amount paid in interest on the debt, and that the appropriations for schools with the interest on the debt amount to more than three times as much as the expenses of the State Government. These are the figures, and they are instructive when compared with the rate of expenditure when carpet-baggers rule d:

1. State Government... $2[illegible]10
2. Interest..... [illegible]5,539
3. Schools..... 4[illegible],000
