

CONQUEROR.

On the shining heights he had sought so long. He stood alone at the break of day; The wind about him blew fierce and strong.

Talmage's Talk.

Lessons on the Late National Election.

There was an immense gathering at the Brooklyn Tabernacle last evening when Rev. Mr. Talmage had his usual Friday night talk.

Knocking Evolution Out.

Talmage stands up to it for four rounds. Harbinger of Queensberry Rules.

The Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, in the Baptist ministers' weekly meeting of Murray street, yesterday, answered the question: "Is there such a thing as evolution?"

Accepted theory of the survival of the fittest, it was not true. Garfield died in September and Gaitan survived him until the next June?

Round 4—Finally, there has been no natural progress. Where can we find such horses now-a-days as Job describes? Men once grew 10 feet high; now they reach to 6 1/2 feet.

Republican Responsibility for any Panic Among Colored Men.

The New York Herald, of yesterday, says: "It is manifest by dispatches from the South that the election of Governor Cleveland has occasioned a fear among colored people of something indefinitely terrible to happen to them in consequence, though we do not believe that this fear is so general or so genuine as some of the reports imply."

A Mystery of the Sea.

The Hon. Francis George Hay, who died last week of typhoid fever, was a man of somewhat varied experience of life. He served before the mast for three years in the navy, and at the time of his death was in the service of the British India steam navigation company.

New York millionaire—"Are the girls looked up for the night, wife?" "Yes."

Foreign Drummers.

Foreign drummers have recently made their appearance in this country, and it is said, are rapidly increasing in number. They come chiefly from England and France.

Mary Was Right.

"Mr. Jinks," said the small boy, running into the parlor where his sister Mary and that gentleman were seated, "what would you do if you were out in the street and I came on to rain?"

In order to obtain control of the Senate the Democrats must elect next winter the Senator from Oregon and one from Indiana to succeed Harrison.

The Senator from Illinois to succeed Logan will be a Democrat, and Indiana is now safe for the Democracy for the next decade at least.

Baltimore is excited over the performances of a band of believers in faith cure who claim to heal all diseases by prayer.

Alfred R. Burton, colored, once prominent in county politics before the unpleasantry of 1876, was in town yesterday sweating great drops of ink over the second grade questions in the teachers' examination.

Railroad Schedules.

Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta Railroad.

Table with columns for Southward and Northward routes, listing stations like Statesville, Graniteville, and arrival/departure times.
