Death of Mr. Manchester Padgett.

Mr. Manchester Padgett died at his home on Cloud's Creek, at 5 o'clock on Monday morning, aged 70 years. Mr. Padgett was stricken with paralysis many months ago, but partially recovered, although his condition had since then been quite feeble. A false report got out last fall and got into the papers, that he was dead. Before enfeebled as above, Mr. Padgett was one of Edgefield's most enterprising and successful farmers; one who "lived at home" and who enjoyed the fruits of his most excellent system of agriculture. As a citizen and neighbor he was just what might have been expected of the christian man and gentleman that he had ever been. He leaves a widow and several children and grandchildren to mourn his loss.—Monitor 23rd ult.

For the Advertiser

In Memory of Manchester Padgett.

In memory of our highly esteemed and honored friend, Manchester Padgett, who, after years of suffering, departed this life on the 28th July. His was the life of a true Christian, and

Like a mournful wail of music,
Or a tender sad refrain,
Came to him a sweet voice saying,
Loved one leave that world of pain.
Patiently he had awaited
Long the summons from above,
So that he might dwell with Jesus,
In that land of light and love.

Though a light has gone from earth,
There is an angel for the throng,
That round Jehovah's throne gives birth
To harmonies of harp and song.
Ere he reached that cold dark river,
Fanned by Death's mysterious gale,
He saw crossing the stream to meet him,
The aged ferryman, grim and pale.

Life for him with its toils are over,
He is now forever blest;
The Savior's voice has sweetly called him,
To come up there and be at rest.
Gently he called his loved one home.
Finished the task which He had given,
His weary feet no more shall roam,
His work is done, he rests in Heaven.

A Friend.

Wallace & Wallace--And Hall's Gin.

With much pleasure we point our readers—especially our cotton planting ones—to the card of Wallace & Wallace, of Augusta, elsewhere in our issue of this week. As cotton factors and commission merchants, these gentlemen need but few words from us. They are among the most prominent, popular and reliable in Augusta. In Edgefield their following is large. This fall let it become larger still. And they sell the Hall Cotton Gin—one of the best and most thoroughly tested now in use.

Bewildering and Entrancing Furniture Prices.

Such as "an entire walnut bed-room suite, full marble top, 10 pieces, at $39." Who is it that cannot afford to have lovely furniture in these days? If there are any who think they are not able, let them go to Padgett, of Augusta. In the meantime study well Padgett's new card in this week's Advertiser.

Stock Fair.

The Ninety-Six Stock Fair comes off on Thursday of this week.

County Agricultural Society.

This Society will hold its August meeting in our town to-day—Wednesday, the 12th.

At Richland.

The Rev. Mahlon Padgett has lately concluded a very happy meeting at Richland.

The Universal World.

The universal world will be at the great Hussar picnic at Lanham's Spring on Friday of this week.

Johnston Sunday Schools.

The Baptist and Methodist Sunday Schools of Johnston will picnic at Dry Creek to-day—Wednesday 12th.

Returned Home.

Senator Butler has returned home from the North, and will probably speak at the narrow gauge meeting at Denny's.

S. S. S. Convention.

Our Edgefield delegates will not forget that the State Sunday School Convention is to meet in Columbia on Tuesday of next week.

Protracted Meetings.

Protracted Meetings are going on this week at Mountain Creek, at Stevens Creek, and at Spann's—also in the Methodist Church of Ridge Spring.

At Clintonward.

It seems more than probable that before the end of a twelvemonth from this time, a handsome Baptist Church will surmount one of the most beautiful sites at Clintonward.

A Handsome Result.

President Mitchell said in the narrow-gauge railroad meeting a week ago that the Augusta and Sandersville Road cleared 25 per cent. in the month of July upon the investment. Remember that.

Quarterly at Bethany.

The third Quarterly Conference of Saluda Circuit for the current year, will be held at Bethany on Saturday and Sunday next. The Rev. J. Walter Dickson and Presiding Elder Kirkland will both, we presume, be present.

Where Are These Six?

According to the Report of the Grand Jury, six out of our seventeen Trial Justices have not reported. Where are they? And only two or three out of the seventeen have rendered any account of fines collected. How is this?

The N. G. Canvasser.

Senator Callison, official canvasser of the proposed narrow gauge railroad from Augusta to Newberry via Edgefield C. H., arrived in our town on Tuesday, and will spend the remainder of the week in canvassing the country between this and Curryton.

Grand Jury Report.

Foreman Ward and his fellow jurors, with most commendable public spirit and conscientiousness, have probed to the bottom of a good many important matters. Their Report in full stands in another column. They deserve the thanks of the united public.

From Clinton.

We are glad to meet our young friend, Miss America Wood, of Johnston, the granddaughter of our old friend, Mrs. America Mosely, who has just returned from the Female High School of Clinton, where for two terms past her high scholarship has made her one of the very foremost pupils of that popular institution.

From Bennettsville.

Col. O. F. Cheatham, the only one of our Bennettsville delegates we have seen since their return, is very much delighted with the character and results of the late great Agricultural gathering. And as regards the country he has lately visited—Marlboro and Chesterfield Counties—the princely and peerless Pee Dee realm—he is boundlessly, almost tumultuously enthusiastic. This country, he says emphatically, is the garden spot of South Carolina. Its people, and their hospitality and style of living; its soil and mode of farming; its progress, enlightenment and prosperity: all claim his highest admiration.

Remarkable Improvement.

Somewhat more than a year ago one of the brightest, best and handsomest boys in our whole county was stricken with paralysis—of the right side. We allude to Mr. Rufus Dean, widely and warmly beloved. Two months ago this young gentleman went to Atlanta for special and scientific medical treatment; and now he returns home so materially improved as to warrant the expectation that he will soon be restored to vigorous health. We beg him and his friends to consider the advisability of his going to the Hot Springs of Arkansas. These wonderful healing waters are what he needs.

Exodus Westward.

On Monday morning last, a party of as good citizens as Edgefield has within her borders, departed from Batesburg on a prospecting tour to Arkansas and Texas. Capt. Woodruff Holson, Moses Holson, jr., Capt. Craft. Crouch and Mr. James Cullum go to Arkansas—to the neighborhood, we presume, of Mr. Pick Cullum and young Lowman—to look around them; while Davis Corley, a son of West Corley, Esq., of the Mt. Willing country, goes out to Fort Worth, Texas, there to join a brother who has gone before and settled. As regards the prospecting party, we do not hesitate to say that we hope they will see matters clear enough to be thoroughly disappointed, and that they will speedily return to old Edgefield—to live and die—where, all things considered, they will be infinitely happier and better off than anywhere else.

Narrow Gauge Meeting at Denny's.

This meeting at Denny's on Thursday, the 20th, promises to be a great one in numbers, in enthusiasm, and in practical result. Saluda's wisdom, public spirit and money will be there. And God grant that the outcome may be such as to forever nullify all wish and necessity for the sundering of Saluda and Edgefield.

Capt. B. R. Tillman.

This gentleman made the speech of the occasion at the Bennettsville meeting. As it has not been published, and as we have not seen Capt. Tillman since its delivery, we cannot safely comment upon its scope and intents. We earnestly hope that the Executive Committee of the Association will have it published in pamphlet form. They ought to do so.

The Johnston Baptistery.

The baptistery of the Johnston Baptist Church is in progress of erection, and, from the size of the room as one drives along the high road, promises to be a large and of course well-ordered affair. Indeed we have no doubt it will be beautiful. Of all the churches in our county, this one most continually and most liberally exemplifies its zeal.

Studying Law.

We find our highly esteemed and very gifted young friend, Mr. James P. Bean, at Johnston, beginning the study of law. This profession will suit his head and his turn of mind precisely. We are glad to know of his resolve in this respect, and wish him well.

Mrs. Pickens.

Our honored townswoman above named, Vice-Regent for South Carolina of the Mt. Vernon Association, reached home from Mt. Vernon on Saturday last. During her visit to Mt. Vernon, just ended, she completed the rehabilitation of the South Carolina Room, which is now, as regards elegance and historic interest, second to none in the famous mansion.

Atlanta Enterprise.

Atlanta enterprise in Edgefield! That is, we mean enterprise that would become the push and vim of Atlanta. The phenomenal building up of Mr. W. B. Penn's new brick grocery and drug store—on his old site. Thenty-five or thirty men are at work upon it; and, at their present rate of work, G. L. Penn & Son will be magnificently installed in new quarters in less than a month.

The Terrible Homicide at Clintonward.

Before this time, the great majority of our readers know of the terrible homicide which took place at Clintonward on the night of Tuesday, the 4th instant, in which Mattie Isaac, a young negro woman, stabbed to the heart and instantly killed a negro man, named Henry Daniel. These two persons, with others, were returning home at about midnight from a colored church. On Thursday, the 6th, the woman was brought to our jail; and the Grand Jury being still in session quickly found a true bill against her. She is to be tried on Friday of this week, and to be defended by A. S. Tompkins, Esq.

Inasmuch as her trial is so very near at hand, we forbear entering into any of the reported circumstances of the killing.

Where Every Poor Man's Dollar Does Its Double Duty!

Aye, and every poor man's penny too! But where is it? At White's Shoe Store in Augusta. And as White says, in another column, "what's the use of wasting a dollar in these times when even the wealthy cannot afford to waste their money?" But read the card White sends us this week. Like everything that White does, it is a specimen piece of enterprise.

"There Is Nothing So Successful as Success."

To realize this it is only necessary to step in at No. 2, Warren Block, Augusta, and talk awhile with Messrs. Staples and Hackett, and see their good things, and note their success, since they started six months since. They have renovated their store, and now run a fine delivery team, and have built up a first-class city and country trade. They keep only the best goods, have low rent, work hard and can afford to sell cheap. They hope to see all their Edgefield friends when they go down. See their card.

"A First Class Ten Horse Power Engine for Only $495!"

This is one of the many pleasant pieces of information contained in the new card of Geo. R. Lombard & Co., of Augusta, in another column. Read the said card. The farmer or mill man who does not read it, will be neglectful of his own interest.

Proceedings of Court.

We mention the most important cases already disposed of, or to be disposed of: Young Glenn was not tried last week as had been decided upon, but will probably be this week. Joe Moore, the negro fellow accused of arson, was convicted, and recommended by the jury to mercy. In the case of the State against Hinch Hughes, for assault and battery and carrying concealed weapon, the accused was pronounced not guilty. Goode Head, the young white man tried for murder, was found guilty of manslaughter. A young white man named Snipes, accused of assault and battery with intent to kill, was found guilty of assault and battery and sentenced to six months in the county jail or a fine of one hundred dollars. A young white man named Yonce accused of assault and battery, was cleared. Falkner, indicted for aggravated assault, was found guilty, and sentenced to pay $200. He paid it and departed.

In the beginning of the second week, and with the jury of the second week, Sheriff Ouzts was cleared of the charge of allowing prisoners to escape. Or in plainer English, the jury acquitted him of evil intent in allowing certain prisoners too much liberty and too many privileges. Of course we all understand and appreciate the fact that it was simply too much kindness of heart that led our good Sheriff into this error, if error there was. On Friday, Mattie Isaac the reputed Clintonward murderess, is to be tried. The case of the State vs. Joe White and two other negro men for riot and murder—the Dark Corner negroes implicated in the riot at the time of the killing of young Blackwell—has been continued until next term.

Goode Head and Joe Moore have not been sentenced.

The Judge has instructed the Sheriff and his constables to allow none but attorneys and officials of the Court to enter, or at all events frequent, the bar. In such weather as we have now, the said bar often becomes very uncomfortable from being too crowded.

The Courier-Journal publishes a letter written fifty years ago to Geo. D. Prentice, savagely attacking him for objecting editorially to Richard M. Johnson because he had a negro wife. The irate correspondent says:

"Did not the President who gave us our best Administration do the same? Was not Thomas Jefferson charged with keeping a negro wife, and did he not make a good President? I do not see why this fault (if fault it be) in a man's private domestic affairs should be brought into his public life."

These are the scandals that sharpen the pens of the Stowes and Cables—Augusta Chronicle

Notice.

Office of County Commissioners of Edgefield County,
Edgefield C. H., S. C., Aug. 4, 1885.

Notice is hereby given that an election will be held in Shaw Township, in the County of Edgefield, on the 29th day of August, 1885, to determine the question of subscription or no subscription to the capital stock of the Carolina, Cumberland Gap and Chicago Rail Road, by said Township. Said election is to be held at the time and place, and by the managers, and in the manner designated in the resolution of the Board of County Commissioners for Edgefield County, which is hereto annexed. When the Polls are closed, the managers will immediately count the votes, make out a certified return of the result, and then send in a sealed box, by one of their number, the certified statement, the ballots and the poll list, to the office of the County Commissioners for Edgefield County, on or before the first Tuesday in September next.

H. B. GALLMAN,
Chairman Board Co. Com.

State of South Carolina,

EDGEFIELD COUNTY.

Office of County Commissioners of Edgefield County,
August 4, 1885.

Be it Resolved, by the Board of County Commissioners of Edgefield County, now met and in session:

That in pursuance of the provisions of an Act of the Legislature of the State of South Carolina, entitled "An Act to authorize Counties, Townships, Cities and Towns interested in the construction of the Carolina, Cumberland Gap and Chicago Railway Company to subscribe to the capital stock of said Company, approved December 22d, 1883, and upon the written application of a majority of the owners of Real Estate in Shaw Township, in said County of Edgefield, duly received by the Board of County Commissioners of said County and filed in their office, asking that an election be held in said Township to ascertain whether the said Township shall subscribe to the capital stock of the Carolina, Cumberland Gap and Chicago Rail Road Company, according to the provisions of said Act, the following sum in bonds of said Township, to be issued according to the provisions of said Act, to wit: Nine thousand dollars in bonds;

An election is hereby ordered to be held for said Township on Saturday, the 29th day of August, 1885, at Trenton, the same being the regular voting precinct for said Township,—the polls to open at seven o'clock, A. M., and close at six o'clock, P. M. At said election there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of said Township the question whether or not the said Township shall subscribe the following sum to wit: Nine thousand dollars in bonds, according to the provisions of said Act.

That the following persons are hereby appointed managers of said election, with full power to hold and conduct the same, count the votes and declare and certify the result according to the provisions of said Act, to wit:

S. H. Mangot, W. H. Hendricks and S. T. Hughes.

That the voting at said election shall be by ballot, such of the said voters as desire to vote in favor of said Township making the aforesaid subscription, shall vote a ballot having written or printed there n the word "Subscription," and such of the said voters as desire to vote against the said subscription by said Township, shall vote a ballot having written or printed thereon the words "No subscription."

That notice of said election, stating the time, place, purpose and form of ballot to be voted thereat, be published, as by law directed, in the Edgefield Advertiser, a newspaper published at Edgefield C. H., in the County aforesaid, by three weekly insertions next previous to the 29th day of August, 1885.

NOTICE DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.

THE PARTNERSHIP heretofore existing between JOHN W. CLAYTON and B. F. WEBB, merchants at Atlanta, Ga., under the firm name and style of CLAYTON & WEBB, has been this day dissolved by mutual consent. Let all persons interested take due notice. Mr. JOHN W. CLAYTON succeeds to the business, and is alone interested in the assets thereof, and will collect all claims and pay all debts due by said firm.

April 11, 1885. J. W. CLAYTON,
B. F. WEBB.

To the Trade.

Atlanta, Ga., April 11, 1885.

Referring to the above notice of dissolution of the firm of CLAYTON & WEBB, I beg to state that I shall continue the wholesale Wine and Liquor Business in all its branches at the old stand, No. 90 Whitehall street, on my own account.

I take this occasion to kindly thank my friends for their liberal patronage in the past, and respectfully ask a continuance of the same.

With long experience in the trade at the head of the late firm, together with my superior facilities for doing business, and ample capital, I am enabled to do as well by you as any house in the country.

I would be pleased to have your esteemed orders, which will receive my prompt and best personal attention, at bottom prices. Yours, very respectfully,

[may21 3m] J. W. CLAYTON.
