

Of the few persons present at the anti-convention there was only one who had horns inside of his hands.

Why was the anti-convention last Saturday like angels' visit? Because they were few, and their hacienda far between.

The failure of the anti-convention to materialize caused a good many fence-riders to flop over on Tillman's side.

Governor Tillman is an off-hand speaker—no orator as Brutus is—but if Brutus follows Ben through the briar patches and over the gullies of the Piedmont escarpment to the sand beds and marshes of Coosaw and Goose Creek he will wish he hadn't done it.

For the failure of the anti-convention on last Saturday no blame should be attached to the Edgefield Chronicle, Monitor, or any of the gentlemen who inaugurated the scheme. They did their best, and made every effort to make the thing a success.

THAT LITTLE CROWD.

Pursuant to proclamation in the Edgefield Chronicle and the Edgefield Monitor, the opponents in Edgefield county of Governor Tillman and the administration met in our court house at 12 o'clock sharp on Saturday last to elect delegates to the March Convention of the "antis" and to devise ways and means to compass the defeat of Governor Tillman for renomination.

Capt. James Callison, the Duke of Shatterfield, was made chairman. Governor Sheppard, who was present, was invited to address the meeting.

The Governor didn't say much, but what he did say was to the point; he said: "Fellow citizens, I have seen a bigger crowd than this, a larger gathering, a more numerous assemblage." This was not all the Governor said, but we've got the cream, for the statement that he "had seen a bigger crowd than this" was an admission that the convention and the anti-Tillman movement in Edgefield county was in the nine hole most emphatically.

Now John, are you not apprehensive that the good people will suspect that your vapors are due to this cause? So come, Johnnie, do not injure your digestion and become prematurely old by fretting and fuming because your "gang" have been "downed."

A CONVERSATION.

Bill:—"What do you reckon Governor Sheppard meant in the anti-convention last Saturday, by telling 'em he 'had seed a bigger crowd'?"

Jim:—"The Governor's a truthful man and he simply meant to tell the truth and to say just what he did say, that he 'had seen a bigger crowd'."

Bill:—"But that was a curious way to talk. We all know the Governor went to the convention in position and he 'had seed a bigger crowd'."

He was telling 'em something they know'd already. Jim:—"Well, Bill, to tell you the fact, the Governor meant that he had never seen a littler crowd, but he is a very polite gentleman and didn't want to hurt the little crowd's feelings, so he expressed himself in what the French would call double entendre."

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Our March Court is in session, Judge Izlar presiding. This is the Judge's first appearance at Edgefield and he has made a fine impression on both the bar and the spectators, and without making any extra effort he carries the business of the Court along smoothly and rapidly.

Solicitor Nelson and Stenographer McFeat are at their posts as usual. Up to this writing the following cases on the criminal docket have been heard and disposed of:

In the case of the State against Willis Griffin, charged with horse stealing, the prisoner pleaded guilty and was sentenced to the penitentiary for seven months.

Ed. Davis, indicted for carrying concealed weapons was defended by Jno. B. Lanier, Esq., and acquitted.

Robert Bouknight, indicted for murder and defended by Sheppard Bros. and acquitted.

Wm. Ramey, assault and battery with intent to kill was found guilty and sentenced to the penitentiary for 18 months.

Davis Carpenter, charged with abduction, was found guilty.

In the case of the State against Maroney, indicted for murder, A. S. Tompkins, Esq. secured bail for the prisoner in the sum of $1500.

Davis indicted for rape was defended by Jno. B. Lanier, Esq., and acquitted.

A NEW COTTON GIN.

Mr. J. D. McNulty, of Cabarrus county, N. C., has invented a cotton gin which is likely to revolutionize cotton ginning, and be as far ahead of the present gins as the old Whitney gin was ahead of the cotton hand picking process.

The new gin is a double gin, and will do twice or three times the work of the most improved modern gin. The saws are crescent shaped and clean themselves with each revolution they make.

The method of seeding is entirely different from the present way. Instead of putting the seed cotton in from the top it reaches the saws from the bottom, and all foreign material, sand, nails, or matches, is excluded and drops with the seed instead of going over the saws.

A Liverpool firm has examined the cotton ginned and pronounced it the cleanest ever seen.

It is clear to any man disposed to look with unprejudiced eyes upon the situation that the Democrats of South Carolina are in great danger of disruption and disintegration than at any time in the history of the party since it wrested control of the government from the powers of misrule and corruption.—Greenville Enterprise and Mountain.

EDGEFIELD NEEDS.

Better streets, Better lights, And Protection against fire. Let this be the supreme effort of our town authorities for 1892.

To build much of a town—and that is the kind we want—we must get outside help—people and capital from abroad.

To capture the eye and convince the judgment of outsiders we must show faith in ourselves and the future of our town by some practical, substantial, permanent improvements.

Let us get together on water works for instance. We may have to go slow and rest between whiles, but we mustn't stop. If we do, we'll slip back. Other towns get there, why not Edgefield?

ALL ABOUT COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

In 1890 the people of South Carolina voted an amendment to the State Constitution which abolished the office of county commissioner, but the statute law in reference to that office remains unrevoked, and the best lawyers of the State are in a dilemma as to whether there can be a legal election for county commissioners this year, or whether the present boards will hold over under that omnibus clause of the Constitution or statutes or something else, which provides that "all officers shall hold over until their successors are qualified."

"To run over, or to hold over, that is the question. It is safer, all things considered, to run over, beloved, for if you run over and are elected you'll be there, even though it should transpire that you would have held over if you hadn't run over. But if you don't run over and don't hold over, where will you be?"

Now come, John, come! Did not Governor Tillman beat your brother Independent-Haskell for Governor? and did not Senator Irby beat your father-in-law, clever old Wade Hampton for the United State Senate.

Now John, are you not apprehensive that the good people will suspect that your vapors are due to this cause? So come, Johnnie, do not injure your digestion and become prematurely old by fretting and fuming because your "gang" have been "downed."

Bear in mind that "he that controlleth his own spirit is particularly after he has been beaten down is greater than he that taken a victory."

Bill:—"But that was a curious way to talk. We all know the Governor went to the convention in position and he 'had seed a bigger crowd'."

Jim:—"The Governor's a truthful man and he simply meant to tell the truth and to say just what he did say, that he 'had seen a bigger crowd'."

Bill:—"But that was a curious way to talk. We all know the Governor went to the convention in position and he 'had seed a bigger crowd'."

He was telling 'em something they know'd already. Jim:—"Well, Bill, to tell you the fact, the Governor meant that he had never seen a littler crowd, but he is a very polite gentleman and didn't want to hurt the little crowd's feelings, so he expressed himself in what the French would call double entendre."

Bill:—"Well, I'll be darned! I didn't know the Governor was such a polite and feeling man."

Death of Gen. J. C. Anderson. Gen. John C. Anderson died suddenly yesterday afternoon at his home at Moore, in Spartanburg county. He had been sick for two or three weeks from an attack of grip, but his condition was not considered serious and his sudden taking off was a terrible shock to his family and friends.

Gen. Anderson was a son of Mr. David and Mrs. Harriet Anderson, of Spartanburg county, and was about 50 years of age. He was educated at the Citadel Academy at Charleston, and entering the Confederate army at an early age, served with great gallantry through the late war as Adjutant of the 13th South Carolina Regiment, being severely wounded at the Wilderness. He was with Gen. Lee at the surrender at Appomattox.

He was married in 1866 to Miss Emma, daughter of the late lamented Gov. Dr. E. T. Buist, of this city, as sister of Mrs. S. C. Clyde and Hon. Hugh B. Buist also of this city. He leaves a widow and seven children—two sons and five daughters to mourn his death.

Gen. Anderson was appointed brigadier general of South Carolina Volunteers by ex-Governor Hampton.

He was elected to the Legislature from Spartanburg county in 1878 and served with great distinction, being one of the most active and useful members of that body. He was appointed postmaster at Spartanburg by President Cleveland, and was a model official in every respect.—Greenville Democrat.

(Gen. Anderson was the father of Mrs. W. L. Dupont of our town.—ED. ADVERTISER.)

Orders to County Chairmen. Pursuant to the order of the State Democratic executive committee the respective county executive committees through their chairmen, will issue a call for the reorganization of the Democratic party in their respective counties by calling the subordinate clubs to meet at their usual places of meeting on the second Saturday (the 9day) of April next for the purpose of electing delegates to the respective county conventions. These conventions will meet on the first Monday (the 2d day) in May next to reorganize the party in each county, to elect delegates, a new county executive committee to elect delegate to the State Convention which meets in Columbia on the third Wednesday in May next and to transact such business as may be proper under the constitution.

The representatives of each subordinate club in said county conventions shall be one delegate for every twenty-five members and one delegate for each majority fraction thereof. Only such Democratic clubs as were in existence on the 13th of August, 1890, shall be recognized provided, however, that two clubs in each ward in the cities of Charleston, Columbia, Greenville and Spartanburg may be formed.

No club that was formed or organized after the 13th of Aug., A. D. 1890, by the division of an old club or otherwise, shall be recognized.

Chair. State Dem. Ex. Com. G. DUNCAN BELLINGER, Sec'y. January 14, 1892.

The Vials of His Wrath.

"Se how the mighty are fallen." Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Askelon," that these Haskells and their minions will no more dominate the grand old Palmetto State: "The places that knew them once will know them no more forever." They died hard, but yet they died. The check of that arch free-pass distributor on the floor of the House is monumental, indeed. Although he and his horde were buried deep, with their faces downward, he again bobs up like jack-in-the-box, and pours out the vials of his wrath in an interview in Independent Haskell's Man Friday's newspaper, and he bellows and paws the dust in disgusting profusion. He uses language something like this:

In their opinion of Tillman and Irby and that gang, I fully think they are a disgrace to the State.

Now come, John, come! Did not Governor Tillman beat your brother Independent-Haskell for Governor? and did not Senator Irby beat your father-in-law, clever old Wade Hampton for the United State Senate.

Now John, are you not apprehensive that the good people will suspect that your vapors are due to this cause? So come, Johnnie, do not injure your digestion and become prematurely old by fretting and fuming because your "gang" have been "downed."

Bear in mind that "he that controlleth his own spirit is particularly after he has been beaten down is greater than he that taken a victory."

Bill:—"But that was a curious way to talk. We all know the Governor went to the convention in position and he 'had seed a bigger crowd'."

Jim:—"The Governor's a truthful man and he simply meant to tell the truth and to say just what he did say, that he 'had seen a bigger crowd'."

Bill:—"But that was a curious way to talk. We all know the Governor went to the convention in position and he 'had seed a bigger crowd'."

He was telling 'em something they know'd already. Jim:—"Well, Bill, to tell you the fact, the Governor meant that he had never seen a littler crowd, but he is a very polite gentleman and didn't want to hurt the little crowd's feelings, so he expressed himself in what the French would call double entendre."

Bill:—"Well, I'll be darned! I didn't know the Governor was such a polite and feeling man."

Death of Gen. J. C. Anderson. Gen. John C. Anderson died suddenly yesterday afternoon at his home at Moore, in Spartanburg county. He had been sick for two or three weeks from an attack of grip, but his condition was not considered serious and his sudden taking off was a terrible shock to his family and friends.

Gen. Anderson was a son of Mr. David and Mrs. Harriet Anderson, of Spartanburg county, and was about 50 years of age. He was educated at the Citadel Academy at Charleston, and entering the Confederate army at an early age, served with great gallantry through the late war as Adjutant of the 13th South Carolina Regiment, being severely wounded at the Wilderness. He was with Gen. Lee at the surrender at Appomattox.

He was married in 1866 to Miss Emma, daughter of the late lamented Gov. Dr. E. T. Buist, of this city, as sister of Mrs. S. C. Clyde and Hon. Hugh B. Buist also of this city. He leaves a widow and seven children—two sons and five daughters to mourn his death.

Gen. Anderson was appointed brigadier general of South Carolina Volunteers by ex-Governor Hampton.

He was elected to the Legislature from Spartanburg county in 1878 and served with great distinction, being one of the most active and useful members of that body. He was appointed postmaster at Spartanburg by President Cleveland, and was a model official in every respect.—Greenville Democrat.

(Gen. Anderson was the father of Mrs. W. L. Dupont of our town.—ED. ADVERTISER.)

Orders to County Chairmen. Pursuant to the order of the State Democratic executive committee the respective county executive committees through their chairmen, will issue a call for the reorganization of the Democratic party in their respective counties by calling the subordinate clubs to meet at their usual places of meeting on the second Saturday (the 9day) of April next for the purpose of electing delegates to the respective county conventions. These conventions will meet on the first Monday (the 2d day) in May next to reorganize the party in each county, to elect delegates, a new county executive committee to elect delegate to the State Convention which meets in Columbia on the third Wednesday in May next and to transact such business as may be proper under the constitution.

The representatives of each subordinate club in said county conventions shall be one delegate for every twenty-five members and one delegate for each majority fraction thereof. Only such Democratic clubs as were in existence on the 13th of August, 1890, shall be recognized provided, however, that two clubs in each ward in the cities of Charleston, Columbia, Greenville and Spartanburg may be formed.

No club that was formed or organized after the 13th of Aug., A. D. 1890, by the division of an old club or otherwise, shall be recognized.

Chair. State Dem. Ex. Com. G. DUNCAN BELLINGER, Sec'y. January 14, 1892.

The Vials of His Wrath.

"Se how the mighty are fallen." Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Askelon," that these Haskells and their minions will no more dominate the grand old Palmetto State: "The places that knew them once will know them no more forever." They died hard, but yet they died. The check of that arch free-pass distributor on the floor of the House is monumental, indeed. Although he and his horde were buried deep, with their faces downward, he again bobs up like jack-in-the-box, and pours out the vials of his wrath in an interview in Independent Haskell's Man Friday's newspaper, and he bellows and paws the dust in disgusting profusion. He uses language something like this:

In their opinion of Tillman and Irby and that gang, I fully think they are a disgrace to the State.

Now come, John, come! Did not Governor Tillman beat your brother Independent-Haskell for Governor? and did not Senator Irby beat your father-in-law, clever old Wade Hampton for the United State Senate.

Now John, are you not apprehensive that the good people will suspect that your vapors are due to this cause? So come, Johnnie, do not injure your digestion and become prematurely old by fretting and fuming because your "gang" have been "downed."

Bear in mind that "he that controlleth his own spirit is particularly after he has been beaten down is greater than he that taken a victory."

Bill:—"But that was a curious way to talk. We all know the Governor went to the convention in position and he 'had seed a bigger crowd'."

Jim:—"The Governor's a truthful man and he simply meant to tell the truth and to say just what he did say, that he 'had seen a bigger crowd'."

Bill:—"But that was a curious way to talk. We all know the Governor went to the convention in position and he 'had seed a bigger crowd'."

He was telling 'em something they know'd already. Jim:—"Well, Bill, to tell you the fact, the Governor meant that he had never seen a littler crowd, but he is a very polite gentleman and didn't want to hurt the little crowd's feelings, so he expressed himself in what the French would call double entendre."

Bill:—"Well, I'll be darned! I didn't know the Governor was such a polite and feeling man."

Death of Gen. J. C. Anderson. Gen. John C. Anderson died suddenly yesterday afternoon at his home at Moore, in Spartanburg county. He had been sick for two or three weeks from an attack of grip, but his condition was not considered serious and his sudden taking off was a terrible shock to his family and friends.

Gen. Anderson was a son of Mr. David and Mrs. Harriet Anderson, of Spartanburg county, and was about 50 years of age. He was educated at the Citadel Academy at Charleston, and entering the Confederate army at an early age, served with great gallantry through the late war as Adjutant of the 13th South Carolina Regiment, being severely wounded at the Wilderness. He was with Gen. Lee at the surrender at Appomattox.

He was married in 1866 to Miss Emma, daughter of the late lamented Gov. Dr. E. T. Buist, of this city, as sister of Mrs. S. C. Clyde and Hon. Hugh B. Buist also of this city. He leaves a widow and seven children—two sons and five daughters to mourn his death.

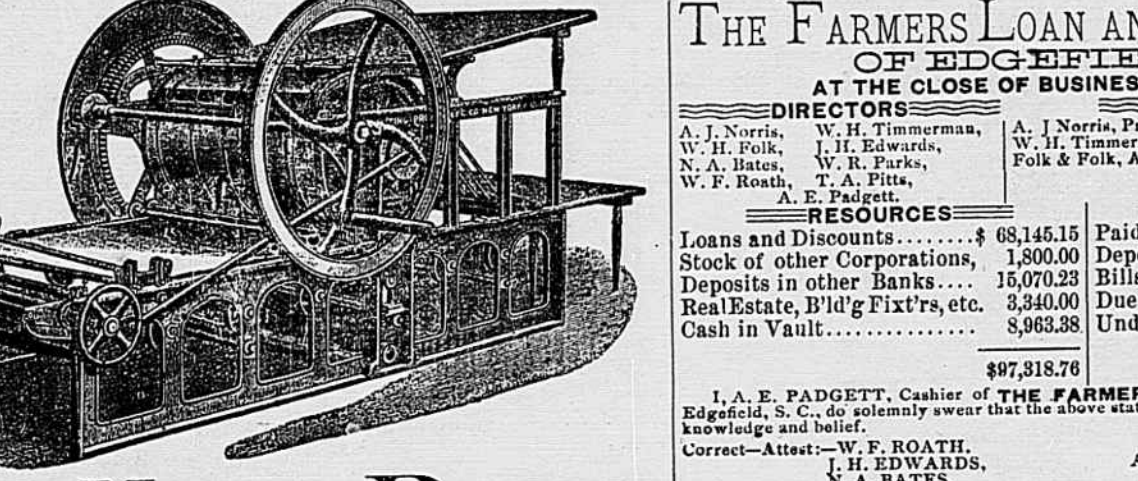

Gen. Anderson was appointed brigadier general of South Carolina Volunteers by ex-Governor Hampton.

He was elected to the Legislature from Spartanburg county in 1878 and served with great distinction, being one of the most active and useful members of that body. He was appointed postmaster at Spartanburg by President Cleveland, and was a model official in every respect.—Greenville Democrat.

(Gen. Anderson was the father of Mrs. W. L. Dupont of our town.—ED. ADVERTISER.)

Orders to County Chairmen. Pursuant to the order of the State Democratic executive committee the respective county executive committees through their chairmen, will issue a call for the reorganization of the Democratic party in their respective counties by calling the subordinate clubs to meet at their usual places of meeting on the second Saturday (the 9day) of April next for the purpose

W. * F. * STRICKLAND. Successor to STROM & STRICKLAND. —THE LEADER IN— Hardware, Stoves, Etc. Good Goods. Cheap for Cash. Call to see me, at the Opera House Corner. W. F. STRICKLAND.

Our New Press.

The above cut is an exact representation of our new press, and is almost a counterpart of the one used before the fire. It is adapted to steam or hand power, and has fixtures for either. For the present, however, it will be run by hand as was the old one. We have also purchased two other presses, one of which is a large Gordon Job Press, upon which it is proposed to do all kinds of job work that the Edgefield public may demand.

STRICKEN RUSSIA. Peasants Dying of Starvation But Doctors Call it by Another Name.

LONDON, March 5.—A special correspondent of the Reuter Telegram Company traveling through the famine stricken district of Russia, sends a long letter under date of Saratov, February 21st. Following are the most striking passages:

The thirty-six pounds of corn which the Zunsloev gives every month hardly suffice to keep the people alive. They are already becoming bloated and ill from the effects of bad food, and the appearance of the children especially is heart-rending. Many deaths have occurred which would in England be set down to starvation, but the order has gone forth that nobody shall die of starvation in Russia, this year at least, and so the doctors put the deaths down to paralysis of the heart and similar causes, when weakness resulting from inanition is the true one. One of the most grievous forms in which the tyranny of the village commune is felt at present is the law upon which the peasants are obliged to carry their own feed for the winter months. This makes the already stricken people more wretched.

Attention, Light Dragoons! Attend, without fail, a call meeting of your troop at Centre Springs, Saturday, 12th of March, 3 o'clock p. m., sharp.

Members will wear carbines and sabres for dress. Fines will be strictly imposed upon all absentees without valid excuse. By order, J. R. BLOCKER, Captain. W. H. COBBURN, O. S.

Tompkins Avenue. —I HAVE OPENED A FIRST-CLASS— Restaurant & Fancy Grocery STORE, No. 1 Tompkins Ave.

Where I will be pleased to receive the patronage of the public. L. E. JACKSON, Ag't.

Ed. Eubanks. FRESH BEEF, PORK, SAUSAGE and MUTTON. Give me a call.

Edgefield Cotton Warehouse. For the storage and safe keeping of COTTON or other produce. Insurance at low rates. Patronage of the public respectfully solicited.

J. S. Moore, EDGEFIELD, S. C. ARISTO PHOTOGRAPHS ARE NOW MADE AT MY STUDIO. Duplicates from the negatives now on hand will be finer and prettier on Aristo paper than those just sent out.

Crayon Portraits Enlarged from small portraits are as popular as ever. I have delivered seventy and they give general satisfaction. PRICES LOW. Children's Photos a Specialty. mch12m R. H. MIMS.

CHEATHAM & McKERALL, EDGEFIELD, S. C. 100 kegs of Nails. 50 barrels of Flour. 500 Dixie Boy Points and Slides. 100 sacks of Salt. Crockery and Glassware. Tinware and Hardware at War Bottom Prices.

Ammoniated Guano. Acid Phosphate and Kainit. Satisfaction in a Shave and a Hair-Cut guaranteed. JOHN WARE, TONSORIAL ARTIST. EDGEFIELD, S. C.

Out-Door * Photography. GROUPS, SCHOOLS, BUILDINGS, ANIMALS. And any other kind of out-door work promptly and carefully done. Orders from the country and neighboring towns solicited. All photos made on the new and beautiful Aristo paper. Write for terms and prices. mch14t GEO. F. MIMS.

W. L. DOUGLAS'S $3 SHOE CENTLEMEN THE BEST SHOE IN THE WORLD FOR THE MONEY! It is seamless, with no laces or wax stitching to hurt the feet; the best in the world, strong and easy, and because we make more shoes of this grade than any other manufacturer, it costs half as much as the best imported shoes.

$5.00 Genuine Hand-sewed, the finest quality, smooth inside, heavy welt, fine calf, imported shoes which cost from $10 to $12. $2.25 and $3.00 Hand-sewed shoes, best quality, smooth inside, heavy welt, fine calf, imported shoes which cost from $10 to $12. $2.25 and $3.00 Hand-sewed shoes, best quality, smooth inside, heavy welt, fine calf, imported shoes which cost from $10 to $12.

By a special arrangement with the publishers we are prepared to furnish free to each of our readers a year's subscription to the popular monthly agricultural journal, the AMERICAN FARM, published at Springfield and Cleveland, O. This offer is made only of our subscribers who will pay no arrears on subscription and one year in advance, and to any new subscribers who will pay one year in advance. The AMERICAN FARM enjoys a large circulation, and ranks among the leading agricultural papers. This arrangement it cost you nothing to receive the AMERICAN FARM for one year. It will be to your advantage to call promptly. ample copies can be seen at our de.

WANTED An intelligent, energetic and trustworthy man for one month on trial. Afterwards if services satisfactory, will make position permanent. Address: ELMER JOHNSON, Manager, No. 67 Fifth Ave., New York City.

J. M. COBB, EDGEFIELD, S. C. CHEATHAM & McKERALL, EDGEFIELD, S. C.

CARPENTERS TO NAILS. BUILDERS HARDWARE. PLOW CASTINGS, SHOVELS, HOES, FORKS, STOVES, TINWARE, &c., &c.

STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE FARMERS' LOAN AND SAVINGS BANK, OF EDGEFIELD, S. C., AT THE CLOSE OF BUSINESS MARCH 2, 1892. DIRECTORS: A. J. Norris, W. H. Timmerman, A. E. Padgett, Cashier. W. H. Folk, W. H. Edwards, W. R. Parks, Folk & Folk, Attorneys. W. F. Roath, A. E. Padgett. RESOURCES: Loans and Discounts, $68,146.15; Stock of other Corporations, 1,800.00; Deposits in other Banks, 16,070.23; Real Estate, Bldg Fix'ts, etc., 3,340.00; Cash in Vault, $963.38. LIABILITIES: Paid up Capital, $41,252.25; Deposits, 41,091.28; Bills Payable, 9,717.60; Due Other Banks, 68.15; Undivided Profits, 4,599.53.

Fancy Grocery, Bakery, Confectionery, No. 3 Tompkins Avenue.

I have just received a line of EXCELLENT, FANCY, FAMILY GROCERIES that I will sell as low as I can, to live.

CONFECTIONERY, BAKERY.

My BAKERY is in successful operation, from which I will send out and deliver at your very doors, every day, Sundays excepted.

MRS. M. A. E. CAMPBELL.

Builders' Material W. J. RUTHERFORD & CO. AUGUSTA, GA.

DURING March, April, and May

I will sell EGGS to persons in Edgefield county at $1.50 per setting of 13. Send for illustrated circular, showing SHOW record. Farmers can do no better than to PLANT a few chickens this year.

HENRY P. COOK, GRANITEVILLE, S. C.

MASTER'S SALE. STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, EDGEFIELD COUNTY. WALTER CHEATHAM, as Adm'n of L. E. Mays, against W. H. BRIGGS, et al., Defendants.

PURE BRED LIGHT BRAHMA EGGS For Sale at $1.50 for 13.

Richmond & Danville Railroad Co. SOUTH CAROLINA DIVISION. Condensed Schedule, in effect January 17, 1892. *Trains run by 7th Meridian Time.

Table with columns: SOUTHBOUND, No. 12, No. 11, No. 10, No. 9, No. 8, No. 7, No. 6, No. 5, No. 4, No. 3, No. 2, No. 1. Rows: Lv Savannah, Lv Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Richmond, Greensboro, Salisbury, Charlotte, Rock Hill, Chester, Winstboro, Columbia, Johnston, Trenton, Graniteville, Ar Augusta, Charleston, Savannah.

J. WM. THURMOND, ATTORNEY AT LAW. EDGEFIELD, S. C. Office on Law Range. 2m

MANLY TIMMONS, DENTAL SURGEON. Office over Bank of Edgefield. Hours from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

JOHN WARE, TONSORIAL ARTIST. EDGEFIELD, S. C. Satisfaction in a Shave and a Hair-Cut guaranteed.

Out-Door * Photography. GROUPS, SCHOOLS, BUILDINGS, ANIMALS. And any other kind of out-door work promptly and carefully done. Orders from the country and neighboring towns solicited. All photos made on the new and beautiful Aristo paper. Write for terms and prices. mch14t GEO. F. MIMS.