

The 3rd Annual Convention of the Y. M. C. A. of Edgefield County.

HEADQUARTERS EDGEFIELD CO. COMMITTEE OF Y. M. C. A., August 1, 1892.

DEAR BRETHREN: The 3rd annual convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of Edgefield County will be held at Meeting Street on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, the 10th, 11th and 12th of September next.

Although not a full year has elapsed since the last convention, it was thought advisable to hold the next one at the season of the year that would better suit the convenience of the farmers.

Each Association is expected to send a large delegation of active members, and young men's prayer meetings, Sunday Schools, Young People's Societies of Christian Endeavor and like organizations, are urged to send representatives.

Regularly accredited delegates, who will send in their names by September 6th, will be entertained by the Meeting street Association and its friends.

Do You Appreciate The advantage of buying always from a clean, fresh stock of goods? If you do, you can have that advantage by buying shoes, slippers and hats from Mather, Rice & Co., Augusta. Prices are lower than the lowest.

A Laugh at "The State's" Expense.

For a first-class laugh commend us to the noble State. Take its editor in his moods of heaviest tragedy if you would have the essence of comedy.

This puffer and crusher recently published a table showing the tax returns for twenty-two years to overwhelm Tillman and his followers with confusion.

The State seeks to show, in fact does show to its own intense satisfaction, which makes it all the more ludicrous, that Tillman has raised the taxes in the State instead of giving retrenchment as promised.

Come, let us laugh.—Florence Times. Agent—"Here, sir is a book that should be in every family. It contains a receipt for everything, sir—everything."
