Dots From Upper Choty.

MR. EDITOR: Thinking that a few dots from this section would not be amiss, we ask a short space in your columns.

Christmas has come and gone the snow has about melted, and the farmers are trying to settle on the same day in the afternoon down to their work again. There have been a great many changes mad with Cuffee this year. Some farmers have procured all new Rev. S. L. Wilson, of West Va., hands, and nearly all have made will preach in our village Presby- some change which causes a great

The bad weather has given the croppers and renters a long hallday, and it is hard to get them fairly to work again, but we are all jubilant over the prospects, as the old farmers say "a hard winter, a good crop year" and as snow is the poor man's manure we have had sufficient of both.

New if the farmers can be persuaded to plant largely of corn and all root crops and supply home with plenty of hog and hominy and let the cotton be a surplus, the day is in the near future when the farmers will be a prosperous people. Then, as we all know, the merchants, editors etc. court in the fourth circuit in lieu will all prosper, as when the farmer suffers, all suffer. We think that the newspaper men above all others, being educators of the people should make a long in February; thence he goes to pull, a strong pull, and a pull Bennettsville in Marlboro county; all together to get the acreage thence to Darlington, and lastly to iu cotton reduced and other crops increased. We think that the present price of bacon as well as of all other provisions should cause us to consider and we hope it is a blessing in disguise. So may it be. If you have not paid a visit to Choty lately, you should come down as far as Red Hill, the capital, and see the improvements. Here a fine school will be found and an able and conpetent
