

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Miss Julia Holstein, of Monetta, is visiting friends in town.

Mr. Albert Nicholson advertises for sale a fine jennet and jack.

Only April fools take off their flannels at this time of the year.

Mr. G. G. Lewis's mill will be ready to grind yur corn the latter part of this week.

Satan would rather have one beautiful woman work for him than 10,000 men.

We regret to hear of the serious illness of Mr. B. F. Sharpton, our late efficient town marshal.

Miss Annie Bee, who has been spending the winter near McLellanville has returned home.

If you promise to meet a man or to do a certain thing at certain moment, honor your engagement.

Never believe all you may hear; for he who believes all that he hears often tells more than he hears.

Man spends his life in reasoning on the past, in complaining of the present, and in trembling respecting the future.

The art of living easily with regard to money is to pitch your scale of living at least one degree below your means.

The best government is not that which renders man the happiest, but that which renders the greatest number happy.

Envy pursues its victims throughout life. It ceases to gnaw only when the grave-worm its brother reptile, begins.

Mr. W. J. Lanham, former clerk of Alvin Hart & Co., now with J. B. White & Co., of Augusta, was in Edgefield on Sunday last.

It is reported, at this writing, that Gov. Tillman has "hung" the Supreme Court of the United States on the railroad tax cases.

The meeting of the County Alliance on last Friday was the largest held in two years or more and seemed to be quite enthusiastic.

In all negotiations of difficulty a man may not look to sow and reap at once, but must prepare business, and so ripen it by degrees.

Rev. L. R. Gwaltney will preach in the Baptist Church to-night, Tuesday, and will continue services for an indefinite period, perhaps a week or more.

Mr. L. L. Bedenbaugh, a scholarly young gentleman of the Clouds Creek section, was in town last week as a delegate to the quarterly meeting of the County Alliance.

Prof. S. J. Derrick, of Ethe-ridge, has returned home from a trip to Texas. He hasn't anything to say against Texas, but is of the opinion that there is no place like South Carolina.

The Fifth Circuit, embracing the counties of Kershaw, Richland, Lexington and Edgefield, will be called in Supreme Court May 10. Four days have been assigned to hearing cases from this Circuit.

A man who gave his name as Home, but who answers the description of Anthony Carter, who killed Mr. James Long in Edgefield Co. in 1891, has been captured in Marion Co., Florida.

Pastors of churches and delegates who expect to attend the Edgefield County Interdenominational S. S. Convention are requested to send their names to B. W. Rushton, Johnston, S. C., at once.

M. C. Butler, Jr., son of Senator Butler, now second lieutenant in the Fifth Cavalry stationed at Fort Supply, Indian Territory, has been detailed to West Point as assistant instructor in the military academy.

It has been discovered that subcutaneous injections of distilled water will render the part so treated insensible to pain, making the use of ether, morphine, etc., unnecessary in performing painful surgical operations.

Sulphide of carbon is said to be an unfeeling destroyer of vermin in poultry and pigeon houses. Small vials are filled with it and hung about the house. When it has partially evaporated and becomes yellow it must be shaken up.

We publish the programme of the Interdenominational Sunday School Convention of Edgefield county on our outside. Give it a perusal, reader, and see if you are not down to do something, or at least if it isn't your duty to be there when the general roll is called.

The large cotton acreage in this section is more apparent than real. The impression comes from the large quantities of fertilizers bought. This is explained by the high price of cotton seed last winter: farmers sold their seed and replaced them with commercial fertilizers.—Newberry Observer.

Mr. Oscar Burnett, who purchased the Dr. Henry Tompkins place where he now lives, proposes to leave out ten acres every year and not cultivate it at all except to sow peas, but changing the pea patch every year so it will be in a different place. In this way in a few years all his lands will be rich in vegetable matter or humus.

"Every hour of time lost, said Napoleon, "is a chance for misfortune."

Money can't save a man, but it can keep him mighty fat until his time comes.

Cotton seed for planting, common varieties, is selling in certain portions of the county at 50 cents per bushel.

It is said that a pinch of salt placed on the tongue, and allowed to dissolve slowly, is a certain cure for sick headache.

Examination of applicants to teach in the public schools of this county will take place Friday and Saturday of this week.

Mr. Albert Nicholson advertises his valuable plantation for sale. See description in the advertisement herewith published.

Capt. Geo. B. Lake reports frost on Monday morning of this week, not enough to do much harm, but the veritable frost was visible.

Mr. John R. Scoury has been elected town marshal by the new council, vice B. F. Sharpton. Young Warren Paul was elected lamp-lighter.

The man who never told an editor how he could get out a better paper has gone out West to marry the woman who never looked in a looking glass.

Rev. J. M. White, who has been down in the neighborhood of Sweetwater and Hardy's Church, reports the corn as well up generally good stands, and quite a large acreage.

On our outside is an article headed "Complete the Rolls," which every old Confederate ought to read and get a move on him and help to hand his name down to posterity.

Mrs. R. D. Duke, accompanied by her daughter, Annie, after spending several days with her sister Mrs. L. P. Covar, left on Saturday for the country to spend several days.

If your neighbor borrows this paper to read, which he surely does if he is not a subscriber, show him this paragraph that he may know he can have the paper a whole year for one dollar and fifty cents.

On Monday morning of this week the thermometer had fallen to 46 degrees, within six degrees of frost, but the danger of killing frosts we may now believe to be over. No more frost this year until persimmons get ripe.

Our genial friend, Sam Colgan, has decided to take a course at the Aiken Keeley Institute. He left for that place on Monday of this week. It requires about three weeks to get a diploma. After Sam's return we shall interview him for the benefit of our readers.

A story is going around about a man whose wife has gone, visiting and would not listen to his appeals to come home before her visit was out. He took a copy of his home paper, carefully clipped out just one item, then sent the paper to her. She wrote and asked what the item was about and he refused to tell her. The scheme worked admirably, and in less than a week she was at home to find out what had happened that her husband did not want her to know.—Ex.

"There is a new organization just formed in Newberry known as the Sons of Rest. The main objects of the new order are to take ease during the coming summer months and not to worry or fret about not having anything to do, for their leading object will be to take ease. The membership is already large, but a few more applications will be received if put in without delay." We have no doubt this organization will be very popular as to the season advances.

Three C's Redivivus. It is reported again that the Three C's Railroad is to be completed very soon. The Herald and News hopes the report is true. The branch of it from Augusta to Blacksburg is very much needed. It would be a great thing for Newberry, but then railroad nor anything else can make a town grow unless the citizens are possessed of some public spirit. Still we would be very glad to see this part of the road built and that speedily, and we hope the report is true.—Newberry Herald and News.

Ridge Spring Crop Prospects. Mr. G. W. Thraillkill, who lives in the Ridge Spring country, was in our office on Tuesday of this week. He reports that the oats in his section are suffering for rain, especially those that are beginning to head. The fruit crop he says promises to be abundant, in fact there are too many peaches on the trees and the peach growers have already commenced thinning out the overlaid boughs; about two-thirds is the rule to take off. Water melon growers are planting largely of this delicious fruit—stimulated by the big prices of last year.

Good News from Upper Choty. Mr. Editor: The farmers are wide-awake in this section and moving their plows with a vim; all seem to be in high spirits and looking forward to a good yield of everything at harvest time. All, however, are planting a big cotton crop, and every one of them denying that he is so doing. But I rejoice to state that while the big cotton crop will be planted a big acreage in corn will also be put in—the biggest since the war. Of course there will be weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth this fall over 5 and 6 cents cotton, empty purses, and unpaid debts—but sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Oats are looking well up to this writing, but they need rain. Mr. Editor, as so much has been said about planting more corn, wouldn't it be well to advise the farmers to work their corn better, and neglect the cotton if any crop has to be neglected. Touch 'em up along this line.

Mr. J. W. J. is the biggest feel-

Rev. J. Wesley Barr. Just as we go to press a telegram has been handed us announcing the sudden death, at his home in Jackson county, Ga., of our old, genial, and kind hearted friend, the Rev. J. Wesley Barr, who removed from this county some seven or eight years ago.

Alvin Hart & Co. That big double column advertisement of Alvin Hart & Co., does not need any notice at our hands, it speaks for itself; only read it, beloveds, and it will do the rest. The bargains are so great and so many that your shekels will be wisely taken from your pockets and dropped into the tills of this popular firm. Let 'em drop.

Spanish Peanuts. Mr. B. L. Rambo's success with Spanish peanuts has put everybody in this region in the notion of planting largely of that variety this spring. You can plant this kind after oats, and it will yield abundantly, and then it is so much less trouble to gather than the other varieties. You simply reach down, catch hold of the vines, give a slight jerk, and lo and behold you have pulled up a peck, more or less, of the little liver invigorating beauties. There is no necessity afterwards to do any digging; that little jerk which pulled up the vine got 'em all.

Revival Services. Will you kindly state that the Rev. Geo. G. Smith, of the North Georgia Conference, will conduct a two weeks revival service in our Methodist Church, beginning about the 5th Sunday in this month. He is an author of considerable prominence, having written most excellent biographies of Bishops Andrew and Pearce, history of Methodism in Georgia, and quite a number of smaller works of decided merit. He is, perhaps, unexcelled as a popular writer for our religious periodicals, and is said to be specially gifted in preaching to children and young people. Let prayer be made continually that a more abundant life may come to our community through this meeting.

Something Progressive. Mr. Giles D. Mims, of our town, the noted architect and contractor, is putting up near the Gumberland Gap depot a three-story building, sixty by seventy feet in size, and later there is to be an addition of twenty by seventy feet for the storage of lumber. This building is to be used by Mr. Mims and his employees as a general work and sales shop for the making and sale of all kinds of furniture, coffins, sash, doors, blinds, house finishing material, etc., and also as a depot of lumber supplies of all grades and sizes. Steam will be used in the shops, for all purposes where it can be used, and a railroad track will connect with the Cumberland Gap and run through the shops for the convenient manipulating and shipment of stocks. There will be an abundance of room, and steam power to spare at this establishment to run a cannery, and Mr. Mims is more than willing that they be used for such purposes. It goes without saying that the smaller industries make the nickels hop.

"Let Us Dispense With Nonsense," So Says a Horse-sensible Anti. Mr. Editor: I am an anti-Tillmanite, but I do not propose to cut off my nose to spite my face, as some anti-Tillmanites are doing by fighting the Dispensary law. This law beyond any question is better than bar-rooms and better than blind tigers, and what is of great moment to us in the town of Edgefield, it will prevent the levy and collection of a big town tax.

I am opposed to Tillman, but I do not hate him bad enough to pay a town tax specially to spite him. In all our gettings let us antis try to get wisdom, how to fight and when to fight; and if we must play the fool, let us play it about something that will not cost us as much as a 5, 6, or 7 mill town tax.

So let's have a Dispensary in Edgefield, and fight Tillman on some other battle field than that of his own choosing, heaven know there are enough of them! A HORSE-SENSIBLE ANTI. Edgefield, S. C.

ing man in all Choty—hits a fine gal. We saw John a few days ago and he appeared to be two inches taller and very happy.

The whooping cough has given the little folks a hard time this spring. Nearly every family in this section has had cases of it.

We hear that the chimes of wedding bells are soon to ring in this bailiwick, and ere this is seen by the eyes of the public your correspondent "Rip Van Winkle" will be made happy. We wish him a long and happy sojourning in this vale of tears.

The Rev. B. O. Berry at Barr's Chapel on last Sunday funeralized the remains of Mrs. Martha Shinnal to a large and attentive congregation. Brother Berry is a fine preacher and a faithful worker in the vineyard.

We met the Hon. W. J. Talbert a day or two since and he promised to lecture at "Our Hall" on the second Saturday in May.

Mr. Editor, if the ground don't get too hard or the mule too lazy, you will hear from us again. Luck and prosperity and all the goods of life to you and the old ADVERTISER.

A CHOTARIAN. Franklin, S. C.
