

LOCAL BREVITIES.

No tax extension this year, so says the law.

George Evans, Esq., was in Abbeville on business last week.

The grasshopper doesn't sit on the sweet 'tater vine any more now.

Dove Hams are deliciously sweet, try one. W. W. ADAMS.

Rev. B. O. Berry, of the Parksville charge was in town on Friday last.

Nearly all the cotton has been picked in Edgefield, and most of it sold.

Rev. J. B. Campbell, presiding elder, will preach at Parksville on Friday of this week, the 10th of November.

Call on W. W. Adams and get a barrel of Postell's Flour, the finest made for $4.75; second Patents, $4.00; good at $3.50.

The Newberry Observer says: A friend of ours just merely winked at us the other day and in less than two minutes we saw ***.

Rev. J. M. White, of Meriwether, was in town on Saturday and attended divine service in our Baptist Church on Sunday. Making a little talk to the Sunday-school.

Best N. O. Syrup, 50c. gallon. Salt, 65c. sack. Loaded Shells, 40c. box. Powder, 20c. pound. Shot, $1.60 sack. Felt Wads, 20c.

We appreciate every item of news handed us. When a relative or friend is visiting you, or you have anything else of a newsy character we would be glad if you would hand it to us.

Ex-Governor John C. Sheppard, of Edgefield, is spoken of as a probable candidate for United States Senator. He would fill the office with credit to himself and the State.—Walterboro Courier.

Baldwin's Guano is the best. "Make hay while the sun shines" and haul your Baldwin's Ammoniated guano while the roads are good. Supply on hand at W. W. ADAMS'S.

The McCormick News says: There are some widows around McCormick. We believe if the subject was mentioned by the proper parties they would answer favorably. Try it, some of you widowers at a distance.

There were $2,310 paid to 105 Edgefield county pensioners during the fiscal year just ended; all Confederate veterans and widows. Beaufort county had only one pensioner, and Georgetown had two. Spartanburg has the largest list 203.

Rev. W. T. Hundley preached for the students of Clemson College on Sunday last. He was much pleased with the outlook and the inlook at Clemson, and says there are 500 applicants for admission in February to the four hundred now in attendance.

Mr. Henry Mays aged sixty-five years, died at the home of Mr. John M. Proctor, near Dysons in this county, on last Friday, and was buried at Fellowship Church near his old home on the next day. Mr. Mays has been unwell for a number of years previous to his death.

On Tuesday Gov. Tillman commuted the sentence of John Dubois, once of this vicinity, to imprisonment in the county jail at Barnwell for one year, provided he or his friends pay the jail fees monthly in advance. If this is not done he will be sent to the penitentiary.

There is to be a Ferris wheel at the Augusta Exposition. The Evening News of last Friday says: Mr. Henry C. Carroll and Mr. Ashley Howell are up to their eyes in the Ferris wheel business, and they are busy having the castings for an 80 foot cone made at Lombard's. Mr. Carroll is a mover and he will make a success of his wheel as the Exposition to a dead certainty.

If any gentleman within the sound of our voice would like a nice two-dollar-a-day job to drive bob-tail horse cars in Washington, D. C., let him write a letter to B. F. Perry, of that city. He, Perry, is in the horse car business at present, and is very obliging, especially to new converts. Address in your own hand writing, not necessarily for publication, but that the horse car people may judge from the first you write whether you could pull a bell rope under a mule's spine, or not.

As the day approaches for the assembling of the State Conference, our village Methodists, indeed our whole people, are becoming exercised over the loss of Rev. A. B. Watson from the pastorate of this church. Is that law or rule of the Methodist Church that restricts the length of a pastorate at one place to four years immutably? If not, it is hoped that some means may be devised to keep this popular and indefatigable worker among us. It would be invidious to say that Mr. Watson has done more for Methodism in Edgefield in three years than had been done in all the years since the war—and we will not say it. But we will think so all the same. Let the beautiful new Methodist Church in our town—a monument to this reverend gentleman's persevering zeal and piety—do the talking.

Mr. George Wise, a handsome son of Dr. George Wise, of Trenton, is clerking for W. W. Adams.

Mr. Elbert Mundy, of the Old Wells section, sends us a number of magnificent mammoth yams. Mr. Mundy made sixty-five bushels on a quarter of an acre.

If you want a nice breakfast, try my silver back Mackerel and spiced Pigs Feet. W. W. ADAMS.

A cotton boll containing the unusual number of 26 pods is claimed to be in the possession of James F. Williams, of Villa Rica, Ga. Four pods are generally about all that are found in each boll.

When it became known for a certainty that the Sherman bill would be repealed by the Senate stocks and bonds went up while cotton went down. Is this the kind of good times the repeal of that measure is to bring?

Jos. H. Cantelou, Esq., has rented an office in the Chronicle building, up stairs, and his law card appears in this issue of the ADVERTISER. This young gentleman has the grit and the perseverance that prognosticate success in his chosen profession.

The South Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church will convene in Sumter, S. C., on the 6th of December. Members of boards, delegates, and ministers who do not expect to attend, are requested to notify A. J. Stokes, Sumter, at once.

Sam Jones recently preached to the darkies at Dyerburg, Ky. After the sermon, a good old sister came to him, and said: "Brother Jones, God bless you, you is the preacher for me; I understand every word you say. You preaches just like a nigger; you has a white skin, but, thank God, you has a black heart." At another service held for the colored people the preacher who prayed the opening prayer asked the Lord to "bless Brother Jones, and help him to preach; and O Lord, when he stands before Thee a wretch undone, have mercy upon him, and take his feet out of the miry clay, and place them on the Rock, where hope nor mercy can never reach him."

GINHOUSE BURNED.
The ginhouse of Dr. D. P. Lagrone was burned one day last week. It was supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. The loss was about fifteen hundred dollars, with five hundred dollars insurance in the Farmers' Insurance Company.

Advertised Letters.
List of letters remaining in the postoffice at Edgefield, C. H., S. C., Oct. 31st, 1893.—Rev. W. H. Areal, Henry Dobie, James Anders, Jas. P. Harrison, J. E. Harrison, T. P. Harrell, Edward Hall, Tom Jones, J. H. Jones, Jim Jones, Felix Jackson, J. H. McFarlin, Rev. D. Murey, J. W. Mundy, Wash Mackell, Elbert Nobles, W. B. Wise, Phil Weaver, Milledge Wilson, Miss Mattie Black, Miss Nancy Jones, Miss Susan Mitchell, Miss Lilia Robertson.

Devil's Headquarters.
Col. John Terry says that the devil has had his headquarters on Log Creek ever since the revolutionary war, and has not been disturbed except on two occasions; once when Lorenzo Dow in 1785 preached at Moore's meeting house and gave him some hard raps, and again this summer past when Mr. Watson conducted a tent meeting on the bank of this turbid stream. The colonel says that the "old boy" has changed his headquarters since the tent meeting, but wouldn't tell us exactly where he now camps.

Investigate and Report.
While investigating the various county offices, we think it would be well for the grand jury which meets next week to examine the county dispensary at this place and make a report of its workings and management. It is a new feature in our government, and should have the patient and conscientious attention of the grand inquisitors of the county. The people generally are entitled to know, officially, how the dispensary is being run, how it operates as a reform measure, and also of its revenue, if any.

Weather for October.
Weather Observer C. A. Long, of the Trenton station, makes the following report of the weather for the month of October:
Mean temperature, 67.4
Maximum tem., on 1st and 9th, 82
Minimum tem., on 31st, 59
Total rainfall, inches, 5.29
Greatest rainfall, 1 day, 1.3th, 2.90
Number of clear days, 16
Partly cloudy, 11
Cloudy, 4
Prevailing direction of wind, east.
Light frosts on the 15th, 30th, 31st.
Killing frost on the 31st in places.
Total rainfall for six months ending with Oct., inches, 41.04

Missing Word Contest.
The brick building now being erected in Edgefield for Mr. Alvin Hart is about eighty feet long, forty feet wide, has two enormous doors, front and rear, large enough to admit a two-horse wagon, large windows, two front and two rear, and three stove flues on the west side. This building is to be used for a _____.

Any person who will send to this office the correct word to be filled in the above blank space, with 15 cents, will be entitled to one-half the whole amount received from all the guessers. The other half of the gross receipts will be sent to the heathen. Should more than one person make the correct guess we will turn the bag over to them, and the heathen can look out for themselves.

A Hard Winter.
Loren Cushman, an aged farmer of Plymouth, Chenango Co., N. Y., has quite a reputation as a reliable weather prophet, and whenever he makes a prognostication his friends and acquaintances regard it as worthy of credence. Mr. Cushman believes the coming winter will be an unusually severe one, and bases his opinion on the following grounds: First, the husks of corn are much thicker than usual, and of a deep orange tint, instead of a light lemon hue. Second, the hogs' melt runs jagged, instead of smooth. Third, the geese bone taken from a May-raised fowl shows larger and whiter spots than customary, which resemble the canals of Mars. Fourth, the crop of nuts of all kinds is immense, and the squirrels and chipmunks are laying in prodigious stores early in the season. Fifth, the partridges and woodcock are lighting in barns and outhouses, instead of trees, and ducks are flying in U-shaped, instead of V-shaped, flocks toward the South. Sixth, the green frogs are changing their skins and are even now seeking cool wells and springs for their winter quarters. Mr. Cushman believes the coming winter will be the most severe this country has experienced since the winter of 1853.

News Notes from Falfa.
MR. EDITOR: Cotton picking is about over, and most of it has been sold. Some predict a rise in the cotton market after Christmas. But all the same the citizens around Falfa can boast of having more "hog and hominy" for another year than for several years previous.

Mr. M. Timmerman, one of our leading and best farmers, has nine very fine hogs to kill and his barn full of corn. That is nothing new for our friend though.

Mrs. J. B. Timmerman, of Parksville, is on a visit to friends and relatives in this section.

The angel of death has again visited our peaceful community and claimed the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. George Sharpton, on the 31st ult.

Mr. Willie Timmerman, from Langley, is at his father's quite sick. Willie has the heart-felt sympathy of his many warm friends in Edgefield in the loss of his devoted wife.

Master Charlie, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Hammond, who has been suffering with rheumatism for some weeks is improving rapidly under the skillful treatment of Dr. J. N. Crafton.

Miss Sallie Dorn spent last week with Miss Mattie Timmerman. Miss Sallie is a lovable girl and makes friends wherever she goes.

The union meeting of the second division convened with Parksville Baptist Church. There was quite a large crowd in attendance on Sunday. The missionary sermon was preached by Rev. G. W. Bussey.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dorn spent last Thursday at the home of Mr. M. Timmerman. Come again, old neighbors, you are always welcome.

More anon. AARON.

Items from Newberry College.

MR. EDITOR: I am again at Newberry College though not in the Collegiate department, but am plodding my way through theology. The college has more students now than it has had since the war. How is that for success. Some one said the other day that the 'fame of Newberry College was spreading from the rugged shores of the Atlantic to the peaceful shores of the Pacific. I may say it has spread over much of the territory, as we have one student from Pennsylvania in the east, and one from Minnesota in the northwest. The "state" of Edgefield is not behind either. She still has her representation of noble young men, of which Edgefield has many.

We have had some bilious fever among the students, but nothing serious, we are glad to say, as most of the patients are convalescent.

Miss Mary Boyd gave us a candy-pulling some evenings ago, at which we enjoyed ourselves hugely. One of the boys in playing crossquestions asked a young lady, "you look like you could remember thirty years, can you?" Thinking he had by his question outwitted any answer that could be given, all smiled, but when the young lady replied, you look tough 'enough to last forever," the whole house roared with laughter.

The old Excelsior society is still on a boom.

"Excelsior exerts
The Phrenics do well
The Phrenics'll out go
The Phrenics you know."

Prof. A. G. Voigt gave the theological students a supper Thursday evening. He and his highly esteemed wife made everything as pleasant for us as possible. Of them it may be well said. "Those who know them best love them most."

"The young people's luther alliance is still moving along in its usual progrew way.

Mr. Geo. S. Bearden who aided us so effectively in our meeting at Good Hope last summer is supplying a charge in the "Sad Hills" of Lexington county.

Hampton's Manifesto.

The State

"I have waited to ascertain the views of the Democratic press of South Carolina, for these papers represent in my opinion, the only true Democratic sentiment of the State, and this sentiment should be expressed by what are called the Conservative papers. My own judgment is clear that the time has come when the line should be drawn between those who stand on the Ocala platform and those who stand on that of the National Democracy. No man who upholds the former can claim properly to be a Democrat, and unless our people choose to support the fallacies of the Ocala adherents or to be led into the Populist party the true Democrats of the State should organize to maintain the principles of the Democratic party as set forth in the Chicago platform.

"If my Democratic fellow citizens agree with me that this is the true policy to be adopted I shall at once proceed to organize National Democratic clubs throughout the State and I shall exert my utmost efforts to keep the State where it properly belongs in the great Democratic column. I believe that it can be done, for our people will scarcely now in the hour of victory, forsake the flag they followed steadfastly and so faithfully when that flag went down in defeat. Unscrupulous demagogues have by false promises misled many of our most honest men, and they have brought shame upon our proud State.

"I still have an abiding faith in the men who followed the Starry Cross through trials and carnage, who bore with the heroism of martyrs the sufferings of the Reconstruction era, and who, with a devotion and pluck never surpassed, rescued the State in 76. Those men cannot forget the past nor can they forsake the banner under which the victory of '76 was won. If I can in any way give aid to my State I shall gladly enlist in her service, and I shall rejoice to find those who seek to maintain her welfare, to protect her honor against shame and disgrace."

WADE HAMPTON.

The Florence Messenger, speaking of Cleveland's opposition to a compromise on the silver issue, says, "when the news was circulated last Tuesday, the price of cotton immediately rose 16 points, this seems a fair indication of the high price the staple will bring, when the repeal is an assured fact." It is just such reckless promises on behalf of Cleveland's friends, that jeopardize the existence of the Democratic party. To carry out their aims, they have promised heaven and earth, and the inevitable failure of fulfillment that awaits, will meet at the ballot box a people unwilling longer to trust them. Any sensible man knows that neither the repeal of the Sherman law nor free silver, will immediately restore prosperity but since Cleveland has so promised, the people have a right of fulfillment, and if men can't pick up $10 bills in the road after the Sherman law is repealed, it is not because this administration has not indirectly led them to believe so.—Reform Advance.

E. B. HART & CO.,

FOR CLOTHING, SHIRTS, SHOES, HATS & GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS.

We are now ready with the largest and best selected stock of Clothing, Shoes, Hats, and Gents' Furnishing Goods that we have ever shown to the people of Edgefield. We are paying more money for goods to sell at same prices as heretofore, thus giving our customers better value for their money. Having bought our stock of clothing in the market late, and finding houses over-stocked and anxious to sell, we secured many goods at prices which would give you much under value and we propose to give our customers the advantage by selling them suits from $1 to $8 cheaper than same value goods were previously sold. We have 75 to 100 children's suits to be sold for $1 and $1.25 per suit.

SHOES.

We have the largest and most complete stock of Shoes that we have ever offered to the public. We have the agency, at this place, for the Bay State Shoes, a brand of shoes that everybody knows to be good, and which will give perfect satisfaction. We also carry a full line of Hamilton, Brown shoes, which have given general satisfaction to our customers. Call and inspect our stock and we will save you money.

HATS.

This department is complete in all the latest novelties. See our Men's and Boy's 25 cents all solid hats.

Our stock of NECKWEAR is undoubtedly the largest and most complete we have ever received. It was made especially for this season, and it is of the latest shades, styles, and will please the most fastidious.

We sell the celebrated HARRIS WIRE BRUSHE and CRIP BACK SUSPENDERS. We have sold other lines of suspenders but none have given the general satisfaction that this suspender has.

Our stock of UNDER VEST, DRESS, and NEGLIGEE SHIRTS, GLOVES, RUBBER CLOTHING, COLLARS, CUFFS, and such things as are generally kept in a gents' furnishing house, is complete.

We ask our friends to call and see us. We will be glad to show you our stock, and believe we can save you money in buying your fall and winter goods.
