1894. Harper's Magazine. ILLUSTRATED.

ILLUSTRATED.

HARPEB'S MAGAZINE for 1804 will maintain the character that has made it the favorite illustrated periodical for the home. Among the results of enterprises undertaken by the publishers, there will appear during the year superbly illustrated papers on India by Edwin Lord Weeks, on the Japanese Seasons by Alfred Parsons, on Germany by Poultney Bigelow, on Paris by Richard Harding Davis, and on Mexico by Frederick Remington.

Among the other notable features of the year will be novels by George du Maurier and Chas. Dudley Warner, the personal reminiscences of W. D. Howells, and eight short stories of Western frontier life by Owen Wister. Short stories will also be contribused by Brander Matthews, Richard Harding Davis, Mary F. Wilkins, Ruth McEnery Stuart, Miss Laurence Alma Tadema, George A. Hibbard, Quesnay de Beaurepaire, Thomas Nelson Page, and others. Articles on topics of current interest will be contributed by distinguished specialists.

HARPER'S PERIODICALS Per Year:

Harper's Weekly, Herper's Bazar, Harper's Young People, Postage free to all subscribers in the Unite States, Canada, and Mexico.

The volumes of the MAGAZINE begin with the Numbers for June and December of each year. When no time is mentioned, subscriptions will begin with the Number carrent at the time of receipt of order. Bound Volumes of HARPER'S MAGAZINE for three years back, in neat cloth binding, will be sent by mail, post-paid, on receipt of $3.00 per volume. Cloth Cases, for binding, 50 cents each—by mail, post-paid.

Remittances should be made by Postoffice Money Order, or Draft, to avoid chance of loss. Newspapers are not to copy this advertisement without the express order of Harper & Brothers.

Address: HARPER & BROTHERS,

894.

Harper's Bazar. ILLUSTRATED.

HARPERS'S BAZAR is a journal for the home It gives the fullest and latest information about Fashions; and its numerous illustrations, Pari designs, and pattern-sheet supplements are in dispensable alike to the home dress-maker and designs, and pattern-sheet supplements are it dispensable alike to the home dress-maker an the professional modiste. No expense is spare to make its artistic attractiveness of the higher order. Its bright stories, amusing comedies an thoughtful essays satisfy all tastes, and its lapage is famous as a bueget of wit and humor. It its issues everything is included which is of it terest to women. The Serials for 1894 will be written by William Black and Walter Besan Short stories will be written by Mary E. Wilkin Written by William Back and Water Besint. Short stories will be written by Mary E. Wilkins, Maria Louise Pool, Ruth McEnery Stuart, Marion Harland, and others. Out-door sports and In-door Games, Social Entertainments, Embroidery, and other interesting topics will receive constant attention. A new series is promised of "Coffee and Repartee."

HARPER'S PERIODICALS.

Harper's Magazine, Harper's Weekly, Harper's Bazar, Harper's Young People, Postage free to all subscribers in the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

Address: HARPER & BROTHERS,

1894.

New York.

Harper's Weekly. ILLUSTRATED.

question the leading journal in America, in its splendid illustrations, in its and in its vast army of readers. In special lines, it draws on the highest order of talent, the men best fitted by position and training to treat the leading topics of the day. In fiction, the to its columns. Superb drawings by the foremast artists illustrate its special articles, its stories, and every notable event of public interest: it contains portraits of the distinguished men and women who are making the history of the time, while special at-Amateur Sport, and Music and the Drama, by distinguished experts. In a word, HARPER'S WEEKLY combines the news features of the daily paper and the artistic and literary qualities of the magazine with the solid critical character of the review.

HARPER'S PERIODICALS

Harper's Magazine, Harper's Weekly, Harper's Bazar, Harper's Young People, 2 00 the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

The Volumes of the WEEKLY begin with the first Number for January of each year. When no time is mentioned, ber current at the time of receipt of Mr. Walsh said:

Bound Volumes of HARPER'S WEEKLY for three years back, in neat cloth binding, will be sent by mail, postage paid, or by express, free of expense (provided the freight does not exceed one dollar per volume,) for $7.00 per Cloth Cases for each volume for binding, will be sent by mail, post-paid, on receipt of $1.00 each. office Money Order or Draft, to avoid vertisement without the express order of Harper & Brothers.

Address: HARPER & BROTHEAS,

10 CENTS COTTO

depot, will do this for you on very reasonable terms. My representative at Edgefield will be glad to give you all the information desired.

GUESTS. AUGUSTA'S

South Carolina Day a Big Success.

WARM WORDS OF WELCOME

Major Wm. T. Gary's Address and Lieut. Gov. Gary's Response.

For the second day in the history of the Augusta Exposition Company have the legislators of South Carolina been its guests. Five years ago the members of the General Assembly of the great old state journeyed from their capital to the city on the banks of the Savannah that is proudito acknowedge that she owes much of her success and her prosperity South Carolina. In the walks public life in Augusta may be seen the son of the yeomanry of South Carolina who has left the quiet of his country home to enter the more exciting strife of city life aud help build up the commercial and industrial prosperity of the great city of the Savannah valley. At many a fireside in old Augusta sits the queen of home won from the sunny hills and shady in the young minds about her the sweet thoughts of religion and the proud spirit of patriotism that are the inheritence of every Southerner. It is no wonder then that the hearts and homes of Augusta were thrown open to the people

W. T. Gary, who will deliver the May we never live to see the day address of welcome.

MAJ. GARY'S ADDRESS. After another selection by the band, Maj. Gary rose, and in earnest words eloquently welcomed all familiar with. Whom God has the Legislature of South Carolina. He said:

"Representutives of the South Carolina Assembly, Ladies and Gentlemen:

"It would indeed be a cold heart that would not be moved by this high testimonial of praise that has just been accorded me by the president of the Augusta Exposition, and it is with sincere grati- the like of whom cannot be found tude I thank him for his kind in any other state in the Union, words, hoping that I may continue join in the welcome that is acto tread that path of life which corded you. What shall I compare will always place me in a position the maidens of Augusta to, the to deserve such praise.

"I welcome you gentlemen of stateliness or the rose with its South Carolina, to our city in behalf of the Agricultural society, in behalf of the city of Augusta, and in behalf of the Exposition Company; we throw open our doors and receive you as one of us, trusting that as of yore we are one people with but one land.

" "Tis an honor to represent the merchants and business men of Augusta, for they are known to you as well as to myself, for their high standard of integrity, honesty and uprightness in all dealings. vales across the river, inculcating Their hospitality is boundless as their great future.

"We welcome you to Augusta and the Empire state of the South knowing that you take a deep and sincere interest in our prosperity and are always ready and willing to extend your hands and hearts of South Caralina and that the whenever your sister state calls welcome extended to them was as upon you. When the Augusta cheery and warm as the bright Exposition was first talked of Legislature of South Carolina sunshine of nature herself which there were nothing but words of Chief Justice of South Carolina, beamed like a benediction upon discouragement from all sides; the stepped forward and made the the mingling of the people, who croakers aid all in their little way following brief response to the though separated by state lines to cast a damper on this great en- address of welcome: are bound by the same destiny, terprise and exert all their

THE WORLD.

EDGEFIELD, S. C., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1893.

when such ties as those that now exist shall be in any way outraged.

use that mandate which we are

"Our people love you and are always delighted when you honor whole city rejoices at your arrival.

lily with all its grandeur and beauty, grace and sweet perfume;

neither one, for with all their beauty and loveliness they have not the maiden's soul. They are the perfect work made in the like-

"Like Dido, on your departure they shall stand with the willow in love, hoping that your may soon

Maj. Gary was frequently ap-

When he had concluded, President Walsh advanced to the front,

LIEUT. GOV. GARY'S RESPONSE.

Lieutenant Governor Gary, who has been elected by the present ness of Him.

plauded.

return to Carthage."

"The fair maidens of our city, asunder.'

The world is a queer old fellow, As you journey along by his side To Make it more forcible I might You had better conceal any trouble

If you want to tickle his pride, No matter how heavy your burdenjoined together let no man put Don't tell him about it, pray; He will only grow colder and shrug his shoulder And hurriedly walk away.

them with your presence and it is But carefully cover your sorrow, a great pleasure that you afford And the world will be your friend, If only you'll bury your woes and be them on this occasion. Our business men welcome you and the

He'll cling to you close to the end, on't ask him to lift one finger To lighten your burden, because le never will share it; but silently bear it. And he will be loud with applause. The world is a vain old fellow;

You must laugh at his sallies of wit. No matter how brutal, remonstrance is futile. And frowns will not change him one

And since you must journey together Down paths where all mortal feet go, his favor.

For he's an unmerciful foe. -Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

The Suffering Editor.

their hand and waive you their "Cap'n, are you the editor of this paper?"

The speaker was a tell, rawbened, middle-aged man, with faded sorrel hair, and a hand that looked like a ham, says the Chicago Tribune.

and said he had the honor of "I am, sir," replied the editor of presenting the Hon. Eugene B. Gary, the distinguished Lieutenant do for you?" Governor of South Carolins, who

"You had a piece in your paper would make reply to the address of this week about a marryin' at Hopkins Run last Thursday, didn't

> "Yes, sir; I believe I did." "The marryin' was at Phil Crumpet's wasn't it?" "I think it was."

"His oldest gal was married to Blum-Harkins. "That right?" "I think so."

FOR THE THOUGHTFUL

If brains could have saved the world Solomon would have done it.

Every man has a religion. Would that every man had a Christ. Be right with God, and it will not take much to make you happy. Many a man's religion boiled down, would be found to be nothing more than notion.

It will not help your own crop any to throw stones at your neighbor's truck patch.

No one can have a deep trust in the help of the spirit.

If noise was religion a Chinese joss house would be one of the holiest places on earth.

know it at the time or not.

It is about as wise to sit on limb of a tree, and saw it off as to worry about things we cannot help.

Tendency forecasts destiny. A tree leaning east never falls west. A tree not only lies as it falls, but strengthening the weaker. it falls as it leans.

in Achilles armor. It is the exposed spot in which Satan lodges architest of Lyons. These bricks the Peaville Bugle. "What can I a poisoned arrow. Put on the whole are hollow, being blown like botarmor of God.

Three Good Strokes.

the course of an address at a frastory. Said he:

a few days ago, and, as he ap- themselves readily to the decora- with these words, pronounced in a peared to be feeling in an un- tion & buildings either by their voice so dect and usually exuberant frame of mind

Scientific Miscellany

EDIBILITY OF ANTS .- The formic acid of ants is said to impart to them an agreeable flavor. An entomologist recollects when himself and boy companions relished a "lemonade" of crushed ants mixed with sugar and water; and a correspondent of Insect Life refers to a man who is in the habit of eating large black ants from rotten wood. Another man traced to little red ants a pleasant acid taste of a piece of pie eaten in the dark.

DUALITY OF THE MIND .- The idea is held by Dr. B. W. Richardson that the two lobes of the cere-God who does not read his word by brum give every person two distinct brains; and that any congregation of human beings must be reckoned at twice its individual number before its mental constitution and strength can be properly The trial that God sends us is appraised. The two brains are Why, life holds more savor to keep in always a blessing, whether we never exactly balanced. They sometimes work together, sometimes diversely; and when one is disordered there may be tendencies to insanity, with lucid intervals if the other is sound. Complete change of personality may result from weakening the stronger or GLASS BRICKS.—Experiments A besetting sin is like the flaw with glass building bricks were begun in 1891 by M. Falconier, an tles, and are given forms-such as cubes, hexagons, etc.,-that permit of ready laying. A bituminous cement, with a base of asphalt, An eminent New York divine, in is used with them. The bricks Everybody was subdued; the auternity dinner recently, told this protection against both cold and est. He was telling the story of "I met a Brooklyn friend of mine humidity and noise; and they lend Presently he ended a ringing period was testroctor. Many appli- of conviction that the

SAM JONES'S REPLY.

Comes Back at Dr. Massey in His Own Peculiar Style.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 6 .- Rev. Sam Jones replies to Parson Massey's letter as follows: "I see he says he will not charge me with slander in what I had written of him. Rev. Mr: Massey is a gentleman, a scholar and a Christian. He is a magnificent debater. He has the respect, love, and confidence of every man, woman, and child in Virginia. Now he can't say I haven't slandered him.

"I thought the old thing was dead (discussionally) and buried. The fact that he lives is proof of the grand doctrine of the resurrection of the dead. He was certainly sown in corruption. I trust he has been raised in incorruption. He was sown in dishonor and I trust raised in honor.

"Talk about misstatements. If I had sat upon the platform during the discussion and swallowed two whopping lies like he did on the day of his and Sam Small's discussion I would let mistakes on the part of other gentlemen pass by unnoticed. His lie was so ridiculous on Sam Small that Sam told him that a minster of the Gospel that would tell such a lie on a brother minster was not fit to hang on the back door of hell."

Beecher's Wit.

Henry Ward Beecher was once lecturing on "Communisn" in the Old Wigwam in Chicago before an audience of ten thousand people. serve as double windows, giving dience was breathless with interheat; they are good insulators of the rise of the power of the people.

have in the common onjoy ment | South Carolina and Georgia nave | we are glad to hear of the nest that of the pleasures of the day.

RECEIVING THE GUESTS. corps of distinguished contributors, of directors of the Augusta Exlegislators decorated with most popular story-writers contribute them to the freedom and the courtesies of the Exposition.

introduced Hon. W. T. Gary, who subscriptions will begin with the Num- delivered the address of welcome.

Remittances should be made by Post- you to the city of Augusta and Newspapers are not to copy this ad- tion is not the work of the people which has contributed an essential part in its completeness. We point with pride to this Exposition as an illustration of the wonderful resources and industrial progress pleasure, because it exemplifies what we can do if we diversify our industries.

jointly accomplished.

Before the special train on the our city, Exposition and state, and the link of friendship will never Port Royal road from Columbia welcome you as Joseph welcomed be broken. When we needed help HARPER'S WEEKLY is beyond all via, the South Bound, had arrived his brothers in Egypt. I know the you came to our assistance, and position Company had all the the Peedee and know that the sunbadge of distinction that entitled braver or truer race of mcn; they city, and know of the true courage At the depot they were met by of peace they have stood by the and her people. Their flag has has commanded the respect and upon us-the fight for the agricul-brave, noble and patriotic men as agricultural display, it fills us with ever represented her. These young spirits knew that she was not to remain as a prisoner and valiantly came forward to see that she should occupy the exalted position which she is entitled to. They are all have made a success of the Exposisaviours of their country and are drserving of the praise that has time is short that we will be with been heapeh upon them.

Carolina when in the hands of such able men and her future is sure to be replete with prosperity and plenty. She is all right and will continue so from now on to the end, hallowed sphere of that patriot, statesmen and scholar, Pickens, and it is now my lot not to be separted entirely from you, for the ties that still are yours are mine, and the patriotic feeling that inspires you truly inspires me. God bind the men of Georgia and Caro-"We throw open the portals of lina together, and we trust that > unparailelled in the history of the you so again I return sincere thanks for the happy remarks made in welcoming Carolina to the Exposition."

Tongue Twisters.

Six thick thistlee sticks. Flesh of freshty fried flying

The sea ceaseth and it sufficeth

A box of mixed biscuit, a mixed iscuit box. The bleak breeze blighthed. the right bloom blossoms.

Strict strong Stephen Strenger mared slickly six sickly silky Swan swam over the sea; swim again well swum swan. It is as hame, Sant. 'Tis all a sham, Sam, and a shame it is to sham so, Sam.

down on the table with a bang that jarred the editor in his chair. "They warn't facts! You said the weddin' passed off quietly. Who told you it passed off quietly?" "No, sir," thundered the man.

"I ought to know. I'm the gal's father! I'm Phil Crumpet! The weddin' passed off sir with the gol-whoppinest shivaree ever got up in our neighborhood, and if you don't put it that way next week an' do the gal justice I'll come back an' break every darned bone

The editor of the Peaville Bugle hastily promised to set the matter right in his next issue, and Mr Phil Crumpet, of Hopkins Run, turned on his heel and clumped heavily out of the office, shaking his head in a threatening manner

His Wit Saved Him.

Although it is a familiar saying that an Irishman is always spoiling for a fight, still there is one kind of fighting to which even the brave sons of Erin are sometimes averse-that is duelling. The following story well illustrates this had been reached, the lame man's seconds asked that he be allowed to lear against a mile-stone which happened to be there. The privilego was allowed, and the lame man took his stand.

A certain Irishman, having been challenged to fight, a duel, acceptted the conditions after much persuasion on the part of his friends, who felt confident of success. His antagonist, a lame man, walked on crutches.

"What is it?" asked the cripple. Pat answered: "I told ye thot ye might lean gin the milepost, and now I would spoiled everybody's desire for a home without a shot being fired.

If you want a nice breakfast

"'But,' said the Brooklyn man, "why do you not have the child baptized?

the fee for baptism is one dollar,' said the woman. "'Whereupon the good Samaritan handed the woman a ten-dollar bill, gave her his address so that which she did return-and went "'That is one good action,' said the doctor. 'Now for the other she could bring back the change-

"'Oh,' Observed the Brooklyn man, 'they are all three in one. First, I relieved the sorrows of a weeping woman; second, I assured third'-here he hesitated. "'Yes,' said the doctor. was the third?'

"'Well,' said the Brooklyn man, the third was that I got rid of that vile counterfeit ten-dollar bill

A man who has called at the White House several times to borrow a quarter from the President. is called a crank. That is the way it cluding Alaska, the United States for instance, and the chimpanzee goes. The youth who wanted to may be said to be non-volcanic, borrow a hundred thousand dol- states Mr. Ralph S. Farr, but it lars in Montreal a short while ago has not been so long. A chain of chimpanzee is Choctaw to the gowas also pronounced a crank. The volcanoes extends from southern rilla. fellow that goes around trying to South America into Mexico, then borrow money in times like these there is a large break, and the ingive good ground for being suspected as a crank.

It is said that the assets of the the World's Faia managers are disappearing mysteriously at the rate of about $10,000 a day. They were counting as assets a lot of property which is claimed by contractors, who are getting with it as fast as they can. They are doing it so effectually that the managers are still harboring the Pat's courage suddenly failed him, hope that in their hustling energy they will not get away with the "I've a small favor to ask of ye, Park in which the Fair was held.

The Oregonians have have the advantage of the rest us this year, for they had one Thanksgiving Day last Tursday and will have another next Thursday. They come rather close together but the Oregonians are able-bodied citizens and can fight, and the whole party went stand it. A State which can stand throes of the country's latest volcan stand almost anything.

saves fuel, and resists hail.

BLEEDING BREAD.—Considerable dismay was caused in England during the recent hot weather by "'Because I have no money, and the appearance of blood stains in bread, and also in boiled potatoes rice, and other farinaceous substances. In superstitious times this somewhat rare phenomenon was regarded as a miracle, but modern science has shown that it is due to the growth of a microscopic plant. The true explanation of the terrifying blotches was first pointed out by a Paduan naturalist in 1819. The same production was seen near Berlin in 1848, at Rouen by Dr. Camille Montagne in the same year, and was first recorded the child of eternal salvation; and in Britain in 1853. About 1886 an epidemic visitation on the Continent was attributed to this source. Carmine-red patches, capable of staining the fingers, appeared on cooked meat during the night, and various articles of food were simi-I had been carrying for more than larly affected until after about three months, the epidemic suddenly ceased on the advent of a lower 'emperature.

VOLCANOES OF THE U. S .- Exterrupted chain begins again in Alaska, curves southward, and joins the chain of Japan. The intermediate non-volcanic area has just emerged from an area of stupendous activity. Future resumption of such activity is not improbable, for in the West are volcanoes so recent as, like Mt Shasta, to retain their conical form, and some of these perhaps are no more dormant than was Vesuvious before the fateful year 79, when it buried Pompeii and Herculaneum beneath the most terrible storm of stones and ashes ever known to man. In the Canon of the Colorado, in the deserts of Nevada and Utah, and in New Mexico, exist small lava flows that must have been erupted in recent years, probably since the white man's discovery of the continent These seem to record the death as unique a Governor as Pennoyer canic giants. The eruptions have played a part in bringing up stores of metals, and the richest mines Subscribe to the Edgefield AD- are found in the volcanic districts Courts. of Tertiary times.

which made the sympathetic crowd > shiver. He certainly was." Looking toward the gallery from whence the crowd came he replied with simple dignity: "I said the voice of the people, not the voice of one man." The response from the audience was a sigh of happy relief rather than an explosion of laughter; but there was so much electric sympathy throughout the Wigwam that an outburst was wanting only for an occasion. And when the drunken fellow staggered to his feet and mumbled something unintelligable, Mr. Beecher paused again, and with his winning, half reproachful smile said: "Will some kind person take our friend out and give him some cold water -plenty of it-within and without?" As two policemen took the disturber away, the tabernacle shook with cheers. They supposed they were cheering Mr. Beecher's wit, instead of that tremendous power which no one need try to > analyze. Prof. Garner says the monkeys talk but they do not all talk the same language, and sometimes require an interpreter. The gorilla, have a different vernacular. The talk of the gorilla is Greek to the chimpanzee and the chat of the Best N. O. Syrup, 50c. gallon. Salt, 65c. sack. Loaded Shells, 40c. box. Powder, 20c pound. Shot, $1.60 sack. Felt Wads, 20c. W. W. ADAMS.

Mrs. E. J. Rowell, Medford, Mass., says her mother has been cared of Scrofula by the use of four bottles of much other treatreduced to quite a low condition of health, as i

Our book on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free. SWIFT SPECIFIC Co., Atlanta, Ga. JAS. H. TILLMAN, Attorney and Counsellor at Law

EDGEFIELD, S. C.

Will practice in State and Federal Office, Norris building, up stairs.

ALL THE SIGNS INDICATE of the South. We point to it with Within Sixty Days. It is the part of wisdom then to story your cotton. The Edgefield Warehouse, right at the Cumberland Gap

Leasee Edgefield Warehouse.

at the union depot the committee the officers and directors of the Exposition Company, and headed tention is given to the Army and Navy, by the Exposition band were escorted to Broadway and from there cars took them to the Exposition. In the Music Hall a crowd gathered to hear the words of welcome and the hearty response. On the stage were Lieutenant Governor E. B. Gary, Hon. Ira Jones, Speaker of the House Maj. W. T. Gary and President Patrick Walsh, besides a large gathering of the senators and representatives. Postage Free to all subscribers in After selections by the band President Walsh received the visitors in a few words and in-

> Ladies and gentlemen, Lieutenant Governor, and Gentlemen of the General Assembly of South Carolina: As President of the Augusta Exposition Company, it is my pleasing duty to welcome to the Exposition. This Exposiof Augusta or of Georgia alone-an equal share of the honor belongs to South Carolina, your state.

I have the pleasure of intro- Almighty has created South ducing to you a gentlemem who Carolina and Georgta side by and though a Georgian by adoption, is thus it shall forever be. Both are proud of his nativity. Our people equal in gradeur, and both have have honored him with place and the same civilization and same preferment, and he has worthily education. Our only difficulty is discharged every public duty en- we do not know where the dividing trusted to him by the people of line begins and where it ends. this county and by the govern- "Did either ever fail to assist or sons of the noble sires who fol- when you needed help we went to lowed Marion in the swamps of your rescue. are ever courageous and intreptd of your men, and the sincere, kind commonwealth in a manner which been furled and new battles are admiration of the whole country. of the world stands the peer of all Empire state of the South. has caused the Italian to leave his feel proud that Augusta has set glorious scenery. Her sone are as we come and see this beautiful finement that the world produces. tured products of this section,

"You need have no fear of South "It was mine to live in the

I am iamiliar somewhat with the light of God never shone on a history of your state and your in the time of war and in the time | feelings they have for Carolina tural and industrial development "South Carolina, one of the and the progress made has disgrandest states in the Union tinguished Georgia. Permit me to whose clime and every natural say, with no invidious comparison aspect vies with the garden spot that our state is the equal of the beautiful sunsets, the German to such an example, and we intend to forget his Faderland, and the improve ourselves by the education Swiss te desert his grand and this grand show affords us. When patriotic as ever breathed and are building, filled with varied exhibits equal to any in culture and re- showing the diversified manufac-"She is to-day represented by as toghether with the magnificent delight, and we will return to our homes with new inspirations. Yes you have accomplished something South. Hard as the times are, you tion. I am admonished that the

A growing gleam golwing green.

wan, swim; swan swam back

Susan shines shoes and socks; socks and shoes shine Susan. She in yer body."

When the place for the shooting

The Irishman and his seconds drew off to the distance agreed upon-one hundred feet. Here and he shouted to the lame man:

the privilege of leaning agin the next one.' The laughter which followed ceaseth shining shoes and socks, try my silver back Mackerel and ment of the United States-Hon. help the other in the time of need? for shoes and socks shock Susan. priced Pigs Feet. W. W. ADAMS.