

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mrs. Mary Durisoe. Departed this life on Thursday morning, February 21st, after a short illness, Mary Durisoe, wife of John R. Durisoe. With our full human judgment, we would have deemed it probable that many in our midst would have been called to pass through the valley of the shadow of death before Mrs. Durisoe, and that she would have been left to minister to the heart and soul needs of her husband and five little children, who are left to the sorrows and heartaches of this earthly pilgrimage...

Walker-Swearings. Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. C. Charles Walker and Miss Ellie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Swearingen, at Ebenezer Baptist church, Trenton, on Wednesday afternoon March 6th prox. Who will be the first teacher in Edgefield County to move in the matter of getting a school library. A word from Commissioner Lott would not be amiss along about now. The rush in the Treasurer's office now beggars description and also the tax-payers. But there is a good time coming, only wait a little longer-blackberries. How can a man suffer in Edgefield for something to eat when he can buy from Luther Jackson bread enough with 5 cents, and from Will Adams or Epps Norris molasses enough with 2 cents to do him two days. Already the New South is disputing the supremacy of Northern manufacturers. Julian Ralph, in the March Harper's Magazine, explains some of the causes and notes the results of the industrial revolution. Miss Lizzie Doherty, of our town, just previous to the recent snows, set a hen on fifteen eggs. Last week the hen came off with fifteen bright, beautiful chickens. We never knew this record surpassed except once, when fifteen eggs hatched out sixteen chickens, but on this occasion the hen had no snow and ice to contend with. A gentleman from the country called at our office last week and subscribed for the Advertiser, informing us that he "had to have some county paper and could not take that other man's paper he is such a villain, and," says he, "you may be as mean a man as he is for all I know, but I'll try you six months." The woman suffragists are soon to make a canvass of this State in the interest of their peculiar tenets. Of course, Bob, Hemphill is very much rejoiced thereat. He says they have some of the finest orators in America. We fancy Bob would not like that fine oratory in the shape of a certain lecture. We have clubbing arrangements with the New York World, which is published twice a week. For $2.25, cash in advance, we will send the Advertiser and the World one year to any address. The World is an excellent paper, and every subscriber will be pleased with it. Now is the time to subscribe. We are under obligations to the Rev. M. M. Brabham for a copy of the "Minutes of the 109th Session of South Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South." It contains a mine of statistical and other information, and other denominations in this State would do well to follow the example given them in this pamphlet. A New Discovery. Dr. V. P. Clayton, of Columbia, has tested cotton seed meal as a food and the Editor of the Register, to whom some of the bread was given, pronounces it splendid. The Doctor used one-third of ordinary cotton seed meal and two-thirds of corn meal. The Value of a Package. The contents of a 25-cent package of Simons Liver Regulator will cure many a Sick Headache. Its the woman's friend. "It cured me permanently of Sick Headache."—C. S. Morris, Brownsville, Va. Take it dry on the tongue, or make a tea. Something New in Edgefield. Miss Helen Morris Lewis, President of the North Carolina Equal Rights Association, will deliver an address in the Edgefield Opera House on Monday night next, March 4th. The subject discussed will be Woman Suffrage. The small sum of 10cts. will be received at the door to defray expenses for building. A Sad Accident. On last Friday morning while playing with a gun in his father's house little Ollie Ouzts, youngest son of Sheriff Ouzts, fatally shot his brother Johnnie, aged about 13 years. The little sufferer was almost instantly killed to the great grief, not only of the friends of Sheriff Ouzts, but the entire community will deeply sympathize with the bereaved ones in this hour of their deep affliction. This makes the fourth son the sheriff has lost within a few years. May He who doeth all things well give comfort and solace to spirits wounded and hearts broken by this last dispensation. Patronize Home Talent. Miss Mims, of Edgefield, has executed a life-size portrait of Mrs. J. M. Bettis, use Natalie Johnston. The picture is from a photograph taken at 19. It is a pastel and as you gaze at the beautiful face you are startled with the wonderful resemblance. The dreamy eyes, the look to the land that is far away, that blessed land where she now is. The picture cost $20 and is a magnificent work of art.—Hampden Guardian. A Long Word. In 1896 Mr. Thad G. Strom of the Duntonsville section went to an old field college presided over by Prof. J. Rus Bodie. Thad says that while in this old field college the professor gave the Seniors the following long word to spell and define: "Chiro-nonthothon-gus-sylo-mandy-brandy-bustifornio." He says the professor told him that this was the longest word in the United States and meant, "I came I saw I conquered," and of course it is when the word Cesar was trying to find out when he sent that memorable message, VENI, VIDI, VICI, to the Roman Senate. Thad also says that he would have graduated but that he quitted college, on account of being invited to a wedding two days before commencement and did not therefore graduate, but did quitate with high honors. Prof. Bodie was, he tells us, an excellent teacher especially of large and advanced boys, could read Latin as if he had roamed with old Raminus and Greek, as though he had sopped with old Sophocles. Prof. Bodie is now Principal of the Red Hill Academy in this county, but has never yet found a longer word than "chirononthothon-gus-sylo-mandy-brandy-bustifornio."

Marries 'em in Poetry. Friend Abe Gilchrist, a new Trial Justice of the Rehoboth section, married his first couple a few days since in poetry. He was sitting a-straddle of the pasture fence when the demand was made for his services. The couple, colored folks, stood in the big road. Abe began as follows: "I'm a settin' on the fence, But have you got the fifty cents?" An affirmative answer having been given and the fifty cents paid he proceeded: "I pronounce you man and wife, Stick together all your life And if heavy be your load Always keep 'de middle er de road" Of those unborn let there be no dearth increase, multiply, and replenish the earth. It is needless to say that we are indebted to Judge Luther G. Bell for a transcript of the ceremony given above. Personal Mention. Mrs. Arthur Youngblood in town this week. Miss Eliza McCullough was in town last Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Sam Timmons of Augusta Ga., is visiting in Edgefield. Miss Mary Adams of Collier's section is visiting Miss Mary Lou Latham. Miss Lillie Cheatham is spending sometime in Edgefield, at the home of Mr. W. J. McKeel. Miss Eliza Youngblood who has been spending sometime with relatives in Batesburg is at home again, to the delight of many friends. Forty Families Wants to Locate in Edgefield County. Secretary Howard Stafford, of the Young Men's Business League announced this morning that he had received a communication this morning that he had received a communication from a farmer in Nebraska stating that he and about forty families from his section, were desirous of locating near Augusta or some other portion of the South. He wrote to inquire about lands in Edgefield County and stated that he would give the matter a thorough investigation. Mr. Stafford says he will make every effort to induce this party of Westerners to locate in this section.—Augusta Evening News. It looks very much as if an effort is to be made to put South Carolina "Reform" schemes into operation in the Hawaiian Islands, under the Provisional Government of those far-away islands in the Pacific. The dispensary law is what the anti-labor people away out here are after. Attorney General Barber received a letter Thursday from one of the political leaders of the island asking that he forward at once copies of the South Carolina dispensary law and furnish them with the necessary explanation of the law. He has consented in his letter that the island people of the Hawaiian Islands want to have the dispensary law by the Legislature at its coming session. Grand Jury 1895. Geo. E. Dorn, L. D. White, G. Atlanta Board of Health. In Baking Powders, "Royal" Leads. 66 Old Capitol Building, Atlanta, Ga., March 1, 1895. I have purchased samples of the Royal and other principal baking powders sold in this city in the open market, and analyzed the same. I find the Royal to contain leavening gas in greater quantity than I have found in any other baking powder I have examined. This powder is composed of wholesome and unobjectionable ingredients and is free from adulteration. JNO. M. McCANDLESS, Chemist Atlanta Board of Health. Economy requires that in every receipt calling for baking powder the Royal shall be used. It will go further and make the food lighter, sweeter, of finer flavor, more digestible and wholesome. PRIZES ON PATENTS. How to Get $100 and Perhaps Make a Fortune. We secure patents and to induce people to keep track of their bright ideas we offer a prize of one hundred dollars to be paid on the first of every month to the person who submits to us the most meritorious invention during the preceding month. We will also advertise the invention free of charge in the "National Recorder," a weekly newspaper, published in Washington, D. C., which has an extensive circulation throughout the United States and is devoted to the interests of inventors. NOT SO HARD AS IT SEEMS. The idea of being able to invent something strikes most people as being very difficult; this delusion the Company wishes to dispel. It is the simple things and small inventions that make the greatest amount of money, and the complex ones are seldom profitable. Almost everybody, at some time or another, conceives an idea, which, if patented, would probably be worth to him a fortune. Unfortunately such ideas are usually dismissed without thought. The simple inventions like the car window which could be easily slid up and down without breaking the passenger's back, the sauce pan, the collar button, the nut lock, the bottle stopper, the snow shovel, are things that almost everyone sees some way of improving upon, and it is these kind of inventions that bring the greatest returns to the author.

Victor Hugo. In speaking to young men, once said "It is the learning acquired at midnight that will make your future bright and dazzling as midday." And in this terse epigram the great Frenchman states a truth that applies equally to struggling, ambitious young men the world over. Inasmuch as you have yet your place to make in the world, and will avail yourself of opportunities to increase your knowledge and improve your mind, so will you make your life successful and happy. A man's brain is a garden given him to cultivate, and whose products will be his support.

Plant That Garden with seed of Knowledge and from the vines will grow the blossoms of financial gain and honorable preferment. Never before in the history of the world have young men had an opportunity to fit themselves for the battle of life as it is now given them. In this, as in everything else, the American youth and public spirit lead the world. All that the college graduate has been taught, and more, can be secured by the young man who gets a set of the Encyclopedia Britannica now offered to the State subscribers on the easy payment of 2 cents a day. But remember that our special introductory offer is for a limited time only.

Harper's Weekly IN 1895. HARPER'S WEEKLY is a pictorial history of the times. It presents every important event promptly, accurately, and exhaustively in illustration and descriptive text of the highest order. The matter in which, during 1894, it has treated the Chicago Railway Strikes and the China-Japanese War, and the amount of light it was able to throw on Korea the instant that war was declared, and the little-known country, are examples of its almost boundless resources. Julian Ralph, the distinguished writer and correspondent, has been sent to the scene of war, and there joined by G. D. Weldon, the well-known American artist, now for many years resident in Japan, who has been engaged to co-operate with Mr. Ralph in sending to HARPER'S WEEKLY exclusive information and illustrations. During 1895, every vital question will be discussed with vigor and without prejudice in the editorial columns, and also in special articles by the highest authorities in each department. Portraits of the men and women who are making history, and powerful and caustic political cartoons, will continue to be characteristic features. This Busy Week, with its keen and kindly comment on the lesser doings of the day, will remain a regular permanent feature. There will be two powerful serials, both handsomely illustrated—"The Red Cockade," a stirring romance of olden days by Stanley J. Weyman, and a novel of New York, entitled "The Son of His Father," by Brander Matthews—stories by popular writers. Send for Illustrated Prospectus.

HARPER'S PERIODICALS: Harper's Magazine, - 1 year - $4.00 Harper's Weekly, - - - - - 4.00 Harper's Bazar, - - - - - 4.00 Harper's Young People, - - - 2.00 Postage Free to all subscribers in the United States, Canada, and Mexico. Address: HARPER & BROS., P. O. Box 658, New York City.

Harper's Bazar IN 1895. Elegant and exclusive designs for Outdoor and Indoor "Toggles from Worth models by Sander and Chapin, are an important feature. These appear every week, accompanied by minute descriptions and details. Our Paris Letter, by Madame de Forest, is a weekly transcript of the latest styles and caprices in the mode. Under the head of New York Fashions, plain directions and full particulars are given as to shapes, fabrics, trimmings, and accessories of the costumes of well-dressed women. Children's Clothing and party frocks guide the most fashionable patterns. Supplement enables readers to cut and make their own gowns. The woman who takes Harper's Bazar is prepared for every occasion in life, ceremonious or informal, where beautiful dress is requisite. An American serial, Doctor Warrick's Daughters, by Rebecca Harding Davis, a strong novel of American life, partly laid in Pennsylvania and partly in the West, will close the last of the year. My Lady Nohoby, an intensely exciting novel by Maureen Maureen, author of "God's Foot" "The Greater Glory," etc., will begin the year. Harper & Brothers, Publishers, 150 N. 3rd St., New York City.

Harper's Magazine IN 1895. "The Simpkins," a new novel by Thomas Hardy, will begin in the December Number, 1895, and continue to November, 1895. Whoever may be one's favorite among English novelists, it will be fancied by all critics that Thomas Hardy stands foremost as a master artist in fiction, and "The Simpkins" may be expected to arouse enthusiasm not inferior in degree to that which has marked "Tribby"—the most successful story of the year. Another leading feature will be the "Personal Recollections of Joan of Arc," by the Marquis de Custe, Her Page and Secretary, and the first of the most popular of living American magazine writers, will present the story of the Maid of Orleans. In the January Number will appear a profusely illustrated serial, "The Story of the South," the first of a series of Southern papers. Northern Africa is attracting attention than at any other time. It was the seat of empire. The next volume of HARPER'S MAGAZINE will contain the first of a series of articles on this region, and three of them will depict the present life. Julian Ralph will prepare for the magazine a series of illustrated articles on the typical phases of "Chinese Life and Manners." Besides the long stories, there will begin in the January Number the first of a series of "Larger Part Novels," by Richard Harding Davis—the longest work yet attempted by this writer. Continued short stories by popular writers will continue to be a feature of the MAGAZINE. Send for Illustrated Prospectus.
