

LOCAL BREVITIES.

During the present and past weeks we have had an abundance of April showers

Gov. Evans has discharged Jack Bladon from the constabulary for drunkenness.

A literary society has been organized at Modoc with Mr. P. R. Waite as president.

A full and beautiful array of artificial flowers, roses, daisies, lilies, violets &c., at the millinery of the Misses Aycock.

How comes on our cotton factory? Gentlemen of the committee of five, Edgefield is waiting to hear from you.

Come and inspect our Bargain Counter, THE EDGEFIELD CASH STORE.

Kerosene oil has advanced 5 cents a gallon during the last week. The probability is that it will remain at this figure for some time.

Miss Blanche Kernaghan, daughter of Mr. W. G. Kernaghan, late of Johnston, was married last week to Mr. M. C. Waddy, of Augusta.

Mr. R. B. Wilson, editor of the Greenville Journal was in town last week. Mr. Wilson is giving Greenville a good paper just now.

Colored crapes in a variety of exquisite shades and colors, at the Misses Aycock.

Read H. Smith's fire insurance advertisement. He represents in this county the New York and Chicago Leveys.

Rev. G. W. Bussey and Mr. L. F. Dorn of the west side, will attend the Southern Baptist convention which meets in Washington in May.

Misses Maggie and Sudie Aycock, recently of Lancaster this State, but natives of our county, have opened a millinery establishment in the store next to Mr. R. L. Fox.

A $5,000 stock company has been organized to erect a factory for the manufacture of oak rot frames in Bamberg. Thirty hands will be employed at the start.

Miss Ida Covar requests us to say that the report that she has sold out her millinery business in Edgefield is untrue. She may still be found at the same old stand.

Beautiful assortment of Crochet Cotton and Silk. Just received at THE EDGEFIELD CASH STORE.

Mr. J. L. Carter, who has been acting as private secretary to Congressman Talbert, has been commissioned as a special State constable to knock the suffraging out of Judge Goff.

Of the three who have died in our town during the past week, Mr. Swearingen, Dr. Butler, and Mr. Barr, all were members of the Knights of Honor and as such the family of each will receive two thousand dollars.

The Greenville cotton mill has this year made a dividend of 16 per cent. Half of this was paid out to stockholders and the other half was laid away as a reserve fund to increase the size of the mill later on.

We have a nice line of Shoes, prices very low. Turkey Red, Indigo Blue and all Standard Prints, going at 5c. yard, at THE EDGEFIELD CASH STORE.

The Graniteville Manufacturing company has a surplus up to March 1st, 1895, of $768,763.92, and at the annual meeting a few weeks ago declared a dividend of ten per cent.

Governor Evans has appointed Judge Earnest Gary to sit on the Supreme Court bench in the case of Francis C. Brown vs George D. Brown, as Associate Justice. Pope is disqualified on account of being counsel in the case.

In another column the committee of corporators publish a notice to the effect that, books of subscription are open at their respective places of business for subscriptions to the capital stock of the Edgefield Cotton Factory.

The Misses Aycock have at their Millinery Store something entirely new in the way of ladies and misses hats and bonnets—new shapes, new styles, new names, and there is a great deal in the name even of a hat.

Thousands of western farmers have settled in South Carolina, North Carolina and Georgia, but as yet none have struck this immediate section. Gov. Northern has recently settled seven thousand families in that State, probably thirty thousand people.

The Wallaha Courier of last week says: "The merry songs of the factory hands make the early morning hours quite melodious, and everybody seems to move with a quicker step. A spirit of enlightened enterprise and business enthusiasm is coming on apace." When can we say this about Edgefield?

Uncle George Tillman remembers, no doubt, with great satisfaction, his enunciation of Cleveland in a speech delivered at Johnston some ten years ago. Time has proven the wisdom of his utterance, and the featherweights at criticized him then now applaud. The following is a short synopsis of that Mr. Tillman said on the occasion to which we allude. "Time will reveal the wisdom of my assault on Cleveland's civil service and financial policies, particularly the latter, which not only wrecking the Democratic party, but is peculiarly hurtful to the south. I pitched into Cleveland in my silver speech at Johnston only after mature reflection, just as I deliberately took prohibition by the throat two years ago. I am only ahead of the crowd fighting Cleveland."

The Cotton Factory is coming, but the beautiful line of Spring and Summer goods has arrived, at THE EDGEFIELD CASH STORE.

On yesterday afternoon Luther Jones, son of B. L. Jones, charged with complicity in the killing of Mr. Jno. C. Swearingen, was committed to jail by Trial Justice J. G. Bell.

Don't forget about the Bargains in Straw Hats, at Jas. M. Cobb's.

"You see, grandma, we perforate an aperture in the apex and a corresponding aperture in the base, and by applying the egg to the lips and forcibly inhaling the breath, the shell is entirely discharged of its contents." "Dear me," exclaimed the old lady, "what wonderful improvements they do make! Now, in my younger days, they just made a hole in each end and sucked."

French Crepons, Napoleon Crepe Cloth, Chambray, Wool Challies, Figured Muslin, beautiful Lawns, &c. Just received at THE EDGEFIELD CASH STORE.

A Happy Husband. DELAWARE, Ohio.—"After four months use of Simmons Liver Regulator my wife is almost entirely relieved of Chronic, Constipated and Bleeding Piles."—W. B. Leeper. Your druggist sells it in powder and liquid; the powder to be taken dry, or made into a tea.

The Way it is in Greenville. The building of the mills has already had its effect on real estate near by. One gentleman sold one acre a short time ago for $500 that could have been bought twelve months ago for $100. Another refused $600 for one acre and $1000 for 10 acres. Don't get too high, gentlemen, or you will turn off business.—Greenville Mountain-eeer.

Breeding for Speed. Genl. Butler has forty-one breeds of hogs on his stock farm in the suburbs of our town. Among others we name the Berkshires, Chesters, Poland Champions, Rhamseuts, and Razorbacks. The General is a great believer in the survival of the fittest and he hopes by mixing up the breeds in this way that a struggle will be produced that will evolve a breed the fittest of all others for this climate and this people. His special aim is to get a plump, rotund body on long slender, deer-like legs so as to be feet of foot, or in plain English, he wants a hog that can outrun a nigger and still be easily fattened. Now, whence comes the report that Genl. Butler is going into the republican party in the face of this fact, that he is ostentatiously breeding up to a species of swine that can outrun the great majority of its voters and the fleetest of its runners.

Personal Mention. —The Hon. W. H. Yeldell was in town on Tuesday of this week.

—Mrs. D. R. Durisee is visiting her son R. A. Tompkins, at Port Royal.

—Rev. John Lake paid a flying visit to our town last Sunday.

—Miss Kate Shaffer of Marion is spending some time with her nephew Mr. W. J. Mckerral.

—Miss Maggie Sue Tannahill of Augusta is visiting Mrs. Captain DuBose.

—Rev. Mr. Gordon attended the funeral services of Dr. Seth Butler in our Baptist church last week.

—Mrs. J. J. Fleming has gone to Atlanta to visit her son Mr. Norwood Fleming of that city.

—Adjutant General Watts will inspect the Edgefield military companies Friday of this week.

—Miss Kate Mims who has been spending sometime with her sister Mrs. Richard Timmons, and who has won for herself so many friends in Edgefield, has returned to her home in Augusta.

Dr. G. Seth Butler. Again has Edgefield to mourn the loss of one of her most prominent citizens. Dr. Seth Butler, after a protracted illness, died at his home in our town on last Wednesday morning. Deceased came of an old and honored Edgefield family, and was a quiet, unobtrusive, law-abiding citizen. His most prominent characteristics were his industry, attention to business, and devotion to his family.

Deceased was buried in our "city of the dead" from the Baptist church, where Dr. Gwaltney preached the funeral sermon. The sympathies of this community are extended to the stricken ones.

Death of Mr. O. Barr. Mr. O. O. Barr, who lived about a mile from our town, died on last Saturday afternoon after a brief illness. On Sunday afternoon his remains were laid away in our village cemetery, his funeral having been preached at the Methodist church by his pastor, the Rev. M. M. Brubham.

Oscar Barr was always genial and warmhearted, and although the struggle with disease and adverse fortune was often heavy and grievous, he never showed signs of weariness or ill-temper. He had many friends because he "showed himself friendly." And in the home circle he was ever tender and thoughtful.

His name was written in the books of the church militant; may it also have been written on the everlasting records of the Church Triumphant! We hope and believe it was.

Next County Interdenominational S. S. Convention. It has been thought best to postpone the annual county convention to June 4th and 5th.

The State Association suggests this date and promise to send us Prof. R. O. Sams their field Secretary who will give some practical instruction in normal Sunday School work.

Efforts are being made to get up an attractive program and we hope for the most inspiring and helpful meeting yet held.

The convention meets at Emory church.

Efforts are being made to get up an attractive program and we hope for the most inspiring and helpful meeting yet held.

Don't lose sleep by trying to get along with an uncomfortable bed. Ramsey & Bland can fit them nicely.

[For the Advertiser.] The Modoc Literary Club Organized—Other News.

EDITOR ADVERTISER: Some three weeks ago the young folk and others of this community who have a literary inclination met at the academy for the purpose of organizing a literary society. The meeting was presided over by Rev. G. H. Burton, who made quite an interesting talk in behalf of literary societies. The following officers were unanimously elected: President, Mr. P. R. Waite, Vice-President, Secretary, Miss F. E. Knight, Critic, Mrs. M. E. Waite, Musical Director, Mr. A. P. Douglas.

Your correspondent had the pleasure of attending the second meeting of this society last Saturday evening and was delighted at the promptness with which the young ladies and gentlemen responded when their names were called for a song or recitation. Every member of the society feels a deep interest in its welfare and will do all within his or her power to keep up an interest in the work so well begun. The members of the society feel justly proud of their President, Mr. P. R. Waite, who always takes a deep interest in everything that is calculated to better the educational, social or financial condition of his town.

ROLL OF MEMBERS. Misses Lucy Bussey, Carrie Bussey, Alice Brodie, Lula Brodie, Ellie Bussey, Nettie McDaniel, Sunnie Douglas, Georgie Freeland, Nettie Freeland, Lula Harvley, Fannie Harvley, Cora Holson, Pashey Holmes, Bessie Howle, Lula Howle, Mamie Holson, Mattie Jennings, Sue Jennings, Lillian Long, Edie Robertson, Etha Thurmond, Mattie Thurmond, Effie Thurmond, Fannie Williams, Eva Waite, Mrs. Mary Waite, Messrs. Ned Bussey, Thomas Bussey, Pope Douglas, Ralph Freeland, W. E. Freeland, Matthew Holson, Capers Holson, Hampton Harvley, Julian Keys, Nuel McDaniel, Claxton McDaniel, Grover McDaniel, Winchester Robertson, Johnnie Shelton, Dan Waite, Coswell Williams, P. R. Waite.

The following committee to draft by-laws to be submitted at the next regular meeting was appointed by the President: Messrs. A. P. Douglas, J. M. Holson, W. E. Freeland. Committee on Program: Miss F. Estelle Knight, Miss Mattie Jennings, Miss Lula Brodie.

The health of this community was never better. A number of Modoc's young folks went boating and fishing down on Savannah River last Saturday and report a fine time.

Mr. Henry Harvley, of Augusta, Ga., is here spending awhile with his parents.

We had the pleasure of listening to some splendid music last Sunday morning by Miss Fannie Harvley who has quite a talent for music.

Everything considered, the farmers in this section are pretty well up with their work. Several young men from this section have joined the recently organized military company at Parksville.

Miss Gertrude Dorn, of Falfa, S. C., is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. A. Harvley of this vicinity.

Mrs. C. Cheatham, of Gainesville, Ga., is here spending awhile with Mrs. Edmunds.

Some fifty or more pupils have attended the Modoc High School this session. The school is in charge of Miss F. Estelle Knight, of Cooper-Limestone Institute and of the Greenville Female College. She is doing a good work here as an educator and is held in high esteem by her pupils and the patrons of her school.

EQUAL AND EXACT JUSTICE EASILY OBTAINED.

Have you a claim against the General Government, either for a pension, for land under the various acts of Congress, for damage done by Federal troops during the late civil war, or do you want a patent upon a practical invention which, though simple, may be the means of making a fortune for you, and perhaps revolutionizing some important branch of industry. If so, write at once to the Press Claims Company, Lock Box No. 588, or 618 F Street N. W., Washington, D. C., and they will tell you all about it, besides sending you without cost, if you are a reader of this paper and mention this fact, a very interesting little booklet containing the history of some important inventions, and how to proceed to obtain a patent. Address all communications to Phillip W. Aviret, Managing Attorney, Press Claims Company, Lock Drawer 588, Washington, D. C.
