Our talented young friend, E. W. Crouch, of Saluda county, is reading law in the office of Sheppard Bros, of our local bar.

Dr. A. L. Oxner and wife, of Havirville, have moved to Prosperity and are living with their son Mr. J. L. Oxner.

About half the bricks have been hauled to the site of the Edgefield cotton factory. Actual work on the building will not begin until after Christmas.

The best is always the cheapest provided you get the best cheap enough to make it so. You can do this on groceries and drugs always and all the time at W. E. Lynch's.

Capt. B. S. Cogburn, an Edgefield man, has charge of the military department of the University of Virginia, a flourishing school with two hundred students.

All county and State taxes must be paid by January 1st. No authority has been given or can be given to postpone the time after the 1st day has passed.

The horse sale advertised by Mr. Addison took place on last week. The horses brought from $25 to $80. We believe Mr. Addison has not yet disposed of his entire stock. He may be addressed at Ninety-Six.

Cotton farmers will be tempted to put in large crops the next year but it will be a dangerous thing. There is more money in making two bales of cotton at fifty dollars a bale than four bales at twenty-five dollars a bale.

Mr. W. L. McDaniel, of the West side, ex-county commissioner of Edgefield county, was married in his bed on Wednesday morning, Dec. 4. Mr. McDaniel was about sixty-five years of age, and was a most worthy and exemplary citizen. Peace to his memory.

If you want sound peaches and plums next year examine your trees now for the borer. Remove the earth from the base of the tree and where ever gummy exudations indicate the borer is at work, scrape with sharp knife or wire and apply a handful of oak ashes.

The secret of a speedy cure in sickness lies in selecting the proper remedy. It is this that is difficult to do unless one is sure what the ailment is. But one thing is sure, had the liver been active at work sickness could not have come. It is then always safe to take Stimulant Liver Regulator which cures the liver well regulated and all poison expelled from the system.

Since the price of liquor has been reduced there has been a perceptible increase in the number of drunken men on every public occasion hereabouts. Last Monday was one of "the occasions" and the unfortunate men who imbued too freely were of all ages—young, middle aged and old grained veterans.—Hampton Guardian.

W. R. Smith's College, Lexington, Ky., is where hundreds of clerks, farmers boys, and others have invested from $60 to $90 for tuition and board for an education and are now getting $100 and over a month in banks and mercantile offices. Prof. Smith, President of the famous Commercial College of Kentucky University, takes pleasure in assisting his graduates in securing situations. Read his ad; cut this notice out for future reference and write for circulars to Prof. W. R. Smith, Lexington, Ky.

A young man who recently married, sat one evening in the twilight soliloquizing and finally uttered these pathetic words: "Backward, turn backward, turn back, in thy flight; feed me on gruel again, just for to-night; I am so weary of sole leather steak, petrified doughnuts and vulcanized cake, and that sleep in a watery booth and strong as a colander. Give me a piece of praying for what I can't eat, chewing up rubber and calling it meat. Backward, turn backward, for weary I am! Give me a whack at my grand mother's jaw; let me drink milk that has never been skimmed, let me eat butter whose hair has been trimmed; let me once more have an old fashioned pie; then I'll be willing to curl up and die."

SOME PRICES.

—(oo)— We do not think it important to go into a detailed statement of prices, but will quote a few as follows:

Furniture

Nice Oak Suits $10, $15, $18.50, $20, $25 and up to $50 per suit. Beds from $1 each to $5.

Buggies

Finest line ever brought to Edgefield, which we are offering at the following prices: Open Buggies $40, $45, $50, $65, and the famous Rock Hill and Carolina Buggies at $75. Top Buggies, Surreys and Carriages at corresponding figures.

Harness

Largest stock ever brought to this county at prices ranging from $6.50, $8.50 to $15 per set. Double Harness from $15 to $30 per set. Saddles from $2.50 to $12.50.

Hardware

Endless profusion. Blacksmith tools, hubs, spokes, tires, rims, and everything the wheel-wright needs in his business.

Lap Robes

Beautiful, useful and ornamental, at prices ranging from $2 to $8.50.

Coffins

and Caskets. Our undertaking department is perfect in all its details. We merely wish to reiterate the claim that we will not be undersold, and though it is a delicate matter you should consult your own interest even when the eyes are bathed in tears and the heart bowed low in grief.

Wagons

What about wagons? Well, we've got 'em sure, and they are the best. We have sold dozens this season, and never do we hear any complaint from our customers. If the "Old Hickory" don't give satisfaction to the most inveterate kicker, then his inclination to kick will follow him even beyond the grave. We carry a stock of splendid one-horse wagons at $28.50.

Stoves

A beautiful stove which we can sell for $10, will "bake de possum brown," and is very cheap at that price.

In Fact

You are assured that we are thoroughly prepared for the fall trade and will make it to the interest of any one needing goods in our lines to see us before making their purchases.

Your humble servants, Ramsey & Bond, Edgefield and Johnston. Nov. 26—1895.
