

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Easter Sunday comes on April 5th.

Court adjourned sine die on Tuesday at 11 a. m.

A slight snow on last Thursday night.

Presiding Elder Dickson will preach at Satesburg next Saturday.

India has now become, next to China, the largest tea growing country.

The Advertiser and Southern Cultivator for one year for $2.

Garden seeds at W. E. Lynch's, the old reliable Landreth's.

London has 1,380 miles of streets. Paris has 600 miles of streets.

Seed rice for planting purposes, for sale by W. W. Adams.

Fresh and dainty—heavy and fancy groceries, at W. E. Lynch's.

Marriage is a lottery in which we all draw something—usually a baby carriage.

Maps of Edgefield and Saluda Counties, both in one, for sale at the Advertiser Office.

You can buy N. O. Molasses for 10c a gallon by the barrel, but who in Edgefield county needs any?

You can get the Advertiser and the Columbia Register, Weekly for $2.25 a year.

Life is a tiresome journey, and when a man arrives at the end he is often out of breath.

Bills of sale and liens for rent and advances, also, mortgages of real estate, for sale at this office.

We haven't had any very boisterous winds in March, but they have been pretty well distributed.

The fruit has not been injured at all as yet, nor even the early blooming Leonote pear.

Presiding Elder Harmon, of the Cobden District, will preach at Parksville next Saturday and Sunday.

Gov. Evans has notified the various county dispensers that they must obey the law strictly in the sale of liquors.

The queen of England can declare war without consulting her ministers if she will so to do.

Three hundred and eleven negroes sailed last week from Savannah, Ga., bound for Africa.

Rev. T. D. Clarke, a former pastor of our Baptist church, has resigned the pastorate of the church at Winchester, Va.

Married by Rev. G. W. Bussey, at the bride's home in Parksville, March 11th, at 2 p. m., Mr. E. G. Morgan, Jr., and Miss Lillie DeG.

By the same, March 11th, at 3:30 p. m., at Red Hill, Mr. Thomas Quarles and Mrs. Ella Quarles.

Until further notice, the Langley Manufacturing Company will pay Augusta market prices for cotton delivered at Langley.

The Lynch drug and grocery business will be conducted by J. D. Holstein, as heretofore under the name and style of W. E. Lynch.

Ask at your Dispensary for Private Stock XXX Pure Rye Whiskey. It is a winner and superior in quality to any on the market.

Full moon on the 20th of March, the very time the weather cut up so two years ago, so we advise peach lovers not to bother yet.

L. M. Weerts, Fred Kempson, and James M. Forrest have been appointed members of the Board of Registration for Saluda county.

In the case of Dick Parker against the S. C. R. Co., suit for damages received in the rail road wreck of last July, near our town, the jury brought in a verdict of $2500 for plaintiff.

Walter & Co.'s "Baker" has a national reputation and has been on the market since 1841. Your local Dispensary will supply your wants.

Acid Phosphate, Granby Ammonia, Goods, Kainit, and Cotton Seed Meal on hand and for sale, by J. J. NORRIS, Agt. Columbia Phosphate Co.

Mr. George Sharpton is at home from Atlanta whether he went to study dentistry. He is now entitled to write his name George Sharpton, D. D. S., which means doctor of dental surgery.

When you need a bottle of Pure Rye Whiskey for medicinal purposes, ask at your Dispensary for "Baker's" Pure Rye Whiskey, E. Walter's & Co. proprietors.

Five new subscribers to the Advertiser will entitle the person getting up the club to a copy of Gen Longstreet's book. From Manassas to Appomattox. Apply at the Advertiser's office.

The best is always the cheapest provided you get the best cheap enough to make it so. You can do this on groceries and drugs all ways and all the time at W. E. Lynch's.

Newspapers are often criticised for what they print, but if it were known how much credit they merit for what they do not print, or for the nonsense they whack out of what they do print, they would command a much more generous judgment.

Mr. Campbell, Edgefield's most famous baker, has returned to Edgefield from Augusta, whither he went last year, and already our people are enjoying his delicious bread, rolls, cakes, &c. A full assortment of all these good things may be found, always, at J. M. Jones & Son's grocery store.

"The Way to Liberty," by J. A. Mettfe, is a remarkable pamphlet, containing a platform for Socialists, Populists, Democrats and Republicans. It is a practical plan to revolutionize the Government. For sale at this office. Send 15 cents in stamps.

The annual convention of the South Carolina Division of United Confederate Veterans (name too long) will meet in Charleston on April 22nd. All the Edgefield Camps are requested to send full delegations—not full of men X, but full of patriotic recollections, reminiscences and a fondness for shouldering their crutches and fighting their battles over again.

If you wish to keep subscribed during the coming campaign, please send your year's subscription in advance. You can depend upon what will appear in its columns. There should be no mistake in the choice of officers in the coming election, especially in the choice of those who are to handle public funds.

Mr. Alvin Hart left for New York to-day, buying spring and summer goods for Alvin Hart & Co., and E. B. Hart & Co.

Miss Addie Habiwanger, of Walhalla, after a short absence, is in Edgefield visiting her brother Mr. J. B. Habiwanger.

Never hear more than one kind of trouble in this town. Some people hear three kinds as they have had, all they have now, and all they expect to have.

The Senior member of the firm of Hart & May leaves this week for New York, Baltimore, Philadelphia, and Boston to lay in a stock of spring and summer goods. Watch these columns. Watch!

Rev. Mr. Gordon of the Episcopal church preached a sermon "to men" on Sunday evening of this week. An informal service of this kind is an unusual thing with our Episcopal brethren. Nevertheless we have heard much in commendation of the discourse delivered on that occasion, and we believe it will do much good.

Many friends regret that Mrs. Nanette Griffin and the much esteemed children of Mr. John R. Durisoe, have departed for Washington, where they will reside for the future. Edgefield has never sustained a greater social loss than this, and they will always be welcome back to their native home.

Mr. H. Wood (Ginse) brings in to our town for sale on Saturday last, from the Savannah River various kinds and sizes: Suckers, red-horse, shad, and blue-cats. On last Saturday he brought in a blue cat three and a half feet long that weighed twenty-two pounds, and was called a "tax Executioner" after the Grand Jury had "tanked" him of it.

H. J. Haynsworth Esq., a prominent member of the Greenville firm, was in town on Friday and Saturday of last week. Mr. Haynsworth represents the holders of the bonds voted by sundry townships of this county to the old sun-song road, that was projected to run from Augusta to Greenville and is here in that interest.

Billings of sale and liens for rent and advances, also, mortgages of real estate, for sale at this office.

Wipe 'Em Up Sams.

The County Alliance will meet at this place on Saturday the 4th April. Hon. Jas. L. Keitt, President of the State Alliance and Mr. J. W. Bowdon, late editor of the Cotton Plant, will be present and address the Alliance. These gentlemen, we understand, are willing to break up the Democratic party in the interest of free silver. Edgefield county will not follow any such a lead and we do not believe the Alliance will prosper. And we know Sam Sams and Sam Smith will hold up the flag of Democracy and wipe up the floor with it, and chaw on the "years" of the other fellows who want to split things.

Our Country Cousin. "Xantippe" writes us thus of the recent play in the Opera House: "Our Country Cousin" at the Opera House on Thursday evening was fairly good. Jason was a regular meadow-sweet. The scenes shifting—the farm kitchen—the bustling house-wif—the haymakers—field rakes—pitchforks—laborers—Dorothy and Hickory in the rustic dance. The swell drawing-room—visit of Jason and Hickory—the disgust of the city relatives. The wrecking of the train at midnight—flight of the conspirators—grand finale with ecstasies in the barn—Chinese lanterns—Dorothy—Hickory—Maud Mailers—clowns—fiddlers—new moon hay and clover.

The Rev. Samuel Leard Dead. Rev. Sam'l Leard, the oldest minister of the South Carolina Methodist Conference, died at the home of his son H. S. Leard in Raleigh N. C., on March 5th. Mr. Leard was much beloved in our town and vicinity, not only by those of his own persuasion but by many of a "different faith and order." The Southern Christian Advocate of last week pays a beautiful and loving tribute to his memory, from which we extract the following touching lines: "Sleep, weary and worn pilgrim, sleep the sleep of God's beloved. Toil and trial are all past. Eternal rest is thine. Fold the hands, close the eyes, and let us rest. Let us walk softly—not that we may rouse him—but in reverence of the saintly soul that has fallen on sleep in Jesus. Let us getly kneel in trust submission and surest faith, and let us again pledge ourselves to the watchers say of us—'he is dead!'"

"MAHDI" 3334." This Celebrated Horse at Heggies Stables in Augusta.

Attention of horsemen is called to the announcement that "Mahdi" will make the season at Heggies Stables, Augusta, Ga. "Mahdi" is a choice bred horse, coming from the best blood. His grand sire, General Knox, ranks among the greatest of stallions for siring trotters. On the side of his dam you will find the world renowned Arabian blood. All good horsemen know there is none better than the above. "Mahdi" is a beautiful blood bay, with black points, 16 hands high and has a splendid appearance, fine bone and substance. His action and style are very near perfect. Although only handled for three weeks "Mahdi" showed a mile in 2:28 1/2, which demonstrates his ability. With any sort of developing, he could go along with the fastest. "Mahdi" has a number of colts in Georgia and Carolina that are very promising. There never was a better opportunity to improve the stock of this section. For all information call on or address Heggies Bros., Augusta, Ga.

"Blight"

costs cotton planters more than five million dollars annually. This is an enormous waste, and can be prevented. Practical experiments at Alabama Experiment Station show conclusively that the use of will prevent that dreaded plant disease.

Our pamphlets are not advertising circulars boasting special fertilizers, but are practical works, containing the results of latest experiments in this line. Every cotton farmer should have a copy. They are sent free for the asking.
