Examinations of applicants to teach in the public schools of Edgefield county will be held on the 24th and 25th days of April 1896, the 24th for whites and the 25th for colored, Applicants must furnish their own pen-cils and paper. The examination will open at ten o'clock a. m., and close at o'clock p. m.

In order to vote next November you must show that you have paid your poll and other taxes at least six months before the election. You can register without showing your tax receipt, however, and as the commissioners of registration, Messrs. Townes, Dobey, and Cheatham, are now holding daily sessions in our town, it would be advisable for every voter to get his doc-uments at once—that is, if he is still a democrat, and if you cant be stil', be as still as you can.

IMPROMPTU LINES Inspired by and Dedicated to Miss of Edgefield S. C., by one of her Many Friends.

December 25th, 1894. Merry Christmas to thee, bonnie lassie, And many returns of the day; And may each one be ever still brighter As the on-coming years roll away.

With a spirit as bright as the blossoms Which welcome the dew in the spring, And a nature as sweet as the angels
When comfort to mortals they bring,
Your presence well-laden with bless-

Will light up the way you may go, And carry the "good cheer" kind greet-

To gladden the nildren of woe. You are now but at life's Leginning-Yet led by the hand unseen,

You will travel the pathway of duty And conquer—full well I ween— The cross you may bear, bonnie lassie, But the cross with its burden is blest, And the crown is as sure as the
