

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Go to Fox's for wedding presents.
 Will Penn keeps all kind of turnip seed.
 Our esteemed correspondent "Sem-phonious" is reading law.
 Miss Marie Abney has taken a school near Ridge Spring.
 Go to Dr. W. B. Pann's for fresh turnip seed.
 Bryan is the first candidate for the presidency who stamped the United States.
 Messrs. Hart & May have a new advertisement this week. It will repay perusal.
 The Edgefield cotton factory will not get into operation until after Christmas.
 J. Wm. Thurmond, Esq., will make his debut as solicitor at Camden in February, 1897.
 Dr. Frank Butler has arrived with his bride and they are domiciled at their beautiful home on Sunset Hill.
 Our venerable friend, Mr. J. Milton Bell, of Parkville, worshipped in the Baptist church on last Sunday.
 Judge Luther Bell's clerk is courting over in Georgia. He crosses the Savannah River at Scott's Ferry.
 On shoes and ready-made clothing special prices will be made during our week at the New York Racket.
 Jas. A. DeVore, Esq., and Miss Sallie Dozier both of our town will be married to-day, Wednesday.
 Childrens Reefers, capes and hats, call and see before you buy elsewhere and do worse, at the New York Racket Store.
 A memorial service in memory of Mrs. Gena Shaffer was held last Sunday by the Sunday school of our Baptist church.
 Married on Wednesday Nov. 4th at the residence of John B. Hill Esq., by the Rev. M. M. Brabham, Mr. William Ready to Miss Lilla Hill.
 We have just received our fresh stock Turnip Seed—Landreth's & Bullets. W. E. LYNN.
 When the harvest is all over there will only be five old bachelors left—Will Penn, Bud Russell, Brooks Dumbo, George Younghiold and Col. John Bates.
 Ladies dress goods, trimmings, wraps and capes, best goods and cheaper than Columbia or Augusta, at the New York Racket.
 Miss Sophie Abney is at home for a few days. She is meeting with great and deserved success in her canvassing towns for Chapman's History of Edgefield county.
 McKinley's election and Bryan's defeat will put all classes of merchandise up, but not at the New York Racket. Now is the time to make your purchases there.
 Miss Angell Cheatham is visiting the folks in Edgefield, but will soon leave again to accept a lucrative position as typewriter and stenographer with a firm in Columbia.
 Three of the newly married couples were at church last Sunday, and the congregation was a large one. We knew they would come. Look out next Sunday! There'll be some more out.
 The death of Mrs. Joseph H. Bounknight, who was Miss Emma Bettis, was a shock to her many, many friends. A husband and three small children remain to mourn her departure until the meeting again.
 Mr. G. W. Campbell and wife have opened a first-class restaurant in rear of his store where he will serve meals at all reasonable hours. Mr. Campbell is a most excellent caterer and will serve the public generously and at reasonable figures.
 When a man who has never been able to accumulate a dollar, and whose credit at the store is not good for a pound of coffee, undertakes to lecture us on the money question, and tell us how to vote we feel like—well, better not say it.—Central Methodist.
 Married on Tuesday Nov. 10th at the residence of the bride's parents Cokesbury S. C., by the Rev. S. D. Vaughan, Dr. W. Price Timmerman of Edgefield to Miss Sadie Carolina Moore of Cokesbury. More Timmermans, but we can never have too many in Edgefield county.
 Persons who aspire to office must not take it with bad grace if they are called down when they go wrong. The ADVERTISER makes a practice of criticizing friends as well as enemies where they fly off at tangents or lose their bearings—equilibrium or equipose. We do not mean to hurt anybody's feelings but to keep on the main trunk line.
 Cupid is doing some sly work upon Butler Street, or Columbia road as most people know it; and in a few weeks Dr. Gwaltney will have some official business up in that part of town. We know whereof we write, but you don't. Guess, if you can, Capt. Bill Brunson doesn't know anything about this, so don't ask him, it makes him tired.
 The most sensational and startling wedding to occur in our town this winter will be that one where the bride will wear to church the first Sunday after the nuptials, a calico skirt waist a checked homespun skirt, the groom to wear Kentucky jeans pants and a seer sucker coat—not that they are not abundantly able to do better, but that the state of the county demands re-formation and reform. The reform movement must move on. The ADVERTISER man doesn't go to weddings (although he eats the cake when he can get it) but he will go to this wedding whether invited or not.
 We are now paying 1 1/2 cents a bushel for cotton seed.

News From Antioch.
 Mr. Editor: On Wednesday afternoon Nov. 4th a quiet but happy marriage took place at the residence of Mr. N. D. Robertson. The contracting parties being, Mr. John Haile Holson, and Miss Mattie, eldest daughter of Mr. Robertson. Mr. and Mrs. Holson have many friends in this community who will ever rejoice to know of their happiness and prosperity.

IN MEMORIAM.

We, the Moore Road Sunday School, feeling our irreparable loss in the death of Miss Minnie Abigail Thurmond, one we all loved—and who as a messenger of love visited the sick and afflicted, comforted the distressed, and in every way possible ministered to their wants, and who was ever ready with helping hands to aid in every charitable work. Therefore be it Resolved 1st. That we tender the bereaved family our sincere sympathies, and pray that a just God may comfort them in this sad affliction.
 2nd. That we inscribe a page in our minutes to her memory.
 3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family and a copy to the county papers for publication.

It Stands To Reason that 20,000,000 bottles of a medicine could not be sold unless it was good, honest, and did what was claimed for it. Here are the facts about
DR. CLARK JOHNSON'S INDIAN BLOOD SYRUP
 In 30 years 20,000,000 bottles have been sold to cure Blood Diseases, and it must be a CURE. All the sickness in this world is caused by bad blood: Weakness, Loss of appetite, Dyspepsia, Headaches, Constipation, Liver and Kidney troubles, Scrofula, Pimples, etc. Attack the foundation of disease, cleanse the blood, bring it back to the splendid work intended for it by nature. There may be other ways, but the best is by using the tried and true remedy
