The governor and legislature have accepted Charleston's invitation to have the 1897 State fair at that city. The promised attractions are:

Charleston has had to extend an unexpected hospitality to the fleet that of receiving into her innumerable sailors wounded in the engagement between the squadron and the gale.

A demand has been made upon the legislature for the appropriation of $750 to build a new barn at the executive mansion. A slightly extravagant outlay of the people's money to say the least of it.

There is so much opposition in the United States Senate to the general arbitration treaty with England that there is little chance of the measure being ratified at this session of congress.

The United States Senate has unanimously passed a resolution to furnish one of the government's vessels to convey grain to the famine-stricken ones in India. The corn is contributed by California, Oregon and other Western States.

Augusta's business men have decided to have a spring festival, including a trades display, etc., to attract visitors to the city in such crowds as to insure a merry time and the incidental sale of dry goods and groceries. A wise proceeding!

The fire of Greece has been aroused by Turkish atrocities in Crete, and her king has notified the Powers that Greece cannot remain a passive spectator. It is not improbable that this small kingdom will be the means of precipitating the crisis in Turkish affairs.

While en route to Charleston the North Atlantic squadron encountered a gale near Hatteras and ships and men were in great peril for several hours. Four sailors were washed overboard and lost, eight others were injured, and all the vessels damaged, some to a greater extent than others to a less extent.

The torpedo fleet commanded by Prince George, second son of the king of Greece, has sailed for Crete. Before the fleet departed Prince George was given a grand ovation. The prince declared that he would prevent the Turkish troops sent from Smyrna, the news of whose despatch to Crete created intense excitement from debarking in the island. Advice received in Athens state that the town of Retimo, Crete, has been set on fire in several places by Mussulmans.

The North Atlantic squadron has for several days been in position off Charleston bar. The city is blockaded by twenty or more of the largest vessels in the navy, yet on Saturday night the Vesuvius, the ship selected for the purpose, safely ran the blockade into the harbor. Admiral Bruce will have to practice naval tactics longer than the two weeks he proposes, if he expects to intimidate foreign power with his fleet.

The costliest book in the world is the official history of the War of Secession, which is now being issued by the government of the United States. It will consist of one hundred and twelve volumes and an atlas, the cost of each volume being over $28,000, the cost of the whole work being $3,000,000. The material used in the preparation of this history is taken from both Federal and Confederate archives. The government sells the volumes at a price much below the cost upon application to the Secretary of War, and they are given to public libraries.

Dun's Weekly Cotton review of the cotton market for the week ending last Saturday has the following:

There was some strength at the start on heavy transactions in print cloths at Fall River mills, and the British Board of Trade reported an increase of ten million yards in the exports of cotton cloth during January over the same month last year. But Mr. Ellison issued an estimate of the American crop as 8,659,000 bales, which caused some weakness, and the selling movement had only to be started to find liquidation easy. Port receipts were also larger, and accompanied by lighter exports, which together with selling for foreign speculative account discouraged the traders who were attempting to bolster up the market. The weakness is rather remarkable in the face of sales of print cloths which aggregate about 1,200,000 pieces for the week, the largest on record.

Bill to establish a new township and polling precinct in Edgefield county.

judicial and election district from portions of Abbeville and and; Edgefield counties, to be known as Greenwood county.

It was learned yesterday Saturday from a reliable source that the administration would try to make up the deficiency in the funds for running the government by the enactment of an income tax bill, a license bill and an insurance bill fixing a graduated license on the gross premiums earned by companies. By these no profession, trade or industry will be spared. All will have to bear their part of the burden.

These measures have been mentioned before as a means of making up the deficiency, and they have evidently found favor in the sight of a good many. The three measures proposed may be briefly outlined thus:

MILLS AND BANKS INCLUDED. The license bill, as explained, is a graduated one, imposing a small license upon all professions, trades and industries. The cotton mills by this bill are taxed 50 cents upon every $1,000 of capital.

Bagging factories and similar industries including banks are taxed in the same way. A lawyer or any other professional man, whose profession nets him $2,500, say would have to pay about $6; the clerk who gets a salary of $1,290 would pay $3. This estimate for professional and business men applies to only those whose incomes or salaries is $1,000 or more on which one-fourth of one per cent, will be levied.

This bill alone is expected to raise about $70,000 or $80,000 per annum.

THE INCOME TAX.

The graduated income bill begins with an income of $2,500 and imposes a tax of 1 per cent; on $10,000, 2 1/2 per cent; on $15,000 and upwards, 3 per cent. This is intended to reach the man who has an income but no visible property. Property holders whose incomes reach any of the above figures will come within the provision of the act also. It is hoped that from this source $50,000 or $60,000 will be derived.

Senator Gaines has introduced the following bill in the Senate, which if passed gives Edgefield seven judicial districts, each presided over by a magistrate: There shall be in Edgefield County seven judicial districts, as follows, to-wit: The first shall embrace Shaw's Creek. The second shall embrace those portions of Johnston, Mobley and Ward townships remaining in Edgefield County and that part of Shaw township north of Shaw's Creek. The third district shall embrace Merriweather, Gregg and Collier townships. The fourth district shall embrace Washington, Ryan and Collins townships. The fifth district shall embrace Talbert, Moss and Hibbler townships. The sixth district shall embrace Blocker township, that portion of Gray township lying south of the line surveyed for Greenwood County, that portion of Pine Grove township remaining in Edgefield County and that portion of Pickens township lying north of Little Turkey Creek and west of a straight line running from a point on said creek 500 yards above the bridge on road between Capt. J. C. Brook's, and estate of John Harris in a northeasterly direction to the Saluda County line at a point 50 yards north of Calvary Church. The seventh district shall embrace Cooper, township and that portion of Gray township lying north of the line surveyed for Greenwood County. The office of the Magistrate of the first district shall be at Edgefield Court House and his salary shall be one hundred and fifty dollars per annum. The office of the second district shall be at Johnston and his salary shall be one hundred dollars per annum. The office of the Magistrate of the fourth district shall be at Parkersville and his salary shall be one hundred dollars per annum. The salaries of the remaining Magistrates in said County shall be each seventy-five dollars per annum. Provided, however, That the criminal jurisdiction of the Magistrate of the fifth district shall not be confined to the townships of that district, but shall extend over the whole County of Edgefield, except the trial and examination of cases which shall be had before the Magistrate nearest to the defendant, as now prescribed by law.

Mr. Gaines has also introduced the following: There shall be established in Edgefield County a new township and polling precinct to be known as Elmwood township, having the following metes and bounds to-wit: Beginning on the Saluda County line at Sleepy Creek, thence running down said Sleepy Creek to its intersection with Little Turkey Creek, thence up Little Turkey Creek to a point 500 yards above the bridge on road between Capt. J. C. Brook's, and estate of John Harris, thence by a straight line running to a point on the Saluda County line 50 yards north of Calvary Church, thence by a straight line running to a point on the Saluda County line 500 yards above the bridge on road between Capt. J. C. Brook's, and estate of John Harris, and a point on said creek 500 yards above the bridge on road between Capt. J. C. Brook's, and estate of John Harris, and a point on said creek 500 yards above the bridge on road between Capt. J. C. Brook's, and estate of John Harris.

Sec. 2. The voting place for said polling precinct shall be Elmwood. Said Elmwood township is hereby made a part of the Sixth Judicial District of said County.

Sec. 3. That part of Mobley township remaining in Edgefield County is hereby made a part of Johnston township.

Mr. Gage, of Chester, has introduced a home rule county government bill that is exciting much interest and comment all over the State. It proposes a most radical change in the old law by providing for a county board that shall have the power to pass ordinances regulating county governmental affairs just as city councils now govern the city under their charge.

The above is a true and correct apportionment made in accordance with the Teachers' Monthly Reports as are found in this office. I find many pay warrants drawn by teachers and no reports attached. Each warrant must be accompanied by a full and complete report for each month. I also urge that the trustees make a complete annual report to this office on or before the first day of August of each year, according to Section 12 of the School Law, for without such reports it is impossible for me to make a true and correct apportionment. I again urge that such and every trustee appointed by the county board of education come to this office in person, as I wish his signature, and at the same time get the apportionment for the several districts.

I find that several of the school districts during the fiscal year just passed have overdrawn their apportionment, while others have expended balances.

No teachers pay warrant will be approved unless signed personally by at least a majority of the trustees of each district and also accompanied by a teachers' monthly report for the month for which said warrant is drawn.
