

TILLMAN'S RESOLUTIONS. Anent Simonton's dispensary decision Senator Tillman has introduced the following resolutions in the United States Senate: "Whereas, the Supreme Court of the United States declared in the case of Leisy, against Hardin that no state had the right to prohibit the sale of liquor within its own borders in original packages, upon the ground that it was an interference with interstate commerce and...

TILLMAN'S PITCHFORK. It is again Brandished in the Senate. Washington, June 3.—Senator Tillman has moved that the committee on contingent expenses be discharged from the consideration of his resolution for charges in regard to the sugar speculation and bring the resolution before the senate. Senator Gallinger, a member of the committee, said he objected to Mr. Tillman's motion, and added that the committee, in its own good time, would make a report after carefully considering the matter.

It is a Pity. The South Carolina dispensary system has some meritorious features and it is a pity that it has not had a trial under more favorable conditions than those prevailing in that State. The recent exposure of corruption in its management has weakened its probable fate at the Circuit Court's decision, if sustained, will give it its death blow.—Philadelphia Press.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9, 1897.

Citizen Josh Ashley says he has "his mouth wide open for Evans for the senate."

Simonton's decision is not altogether a victory for those who opposed the dispensary, nor altogether a defeat for those who favor that system.

The executive committee of the State Teachers' Association has arranged to hold its next meeting on Paris mountain near Greenville, June 30th to July 5th.

The experiment of employing negroes in a cotton factory is about to be tried in Charleston, not from choice but necessity; the white hands could not be obtained.

The faculty of the South Carolina College has preferred charges against Gen. Watts, and Governor Eilerbe has ordered a "Court of Enquiry," which means, we suppose, a "court martial."

John Gary Evans, M. L. Donaldson, J. L. McLaurin, Geo. S. Mower and G. D. Bellinger are the four gentlemen seriously spoken of as candidates for the United States senate in the expected primary.

Judge Simonton has issued an injunction restraining the State officials and constabulary from interfering with all liquors imported into the State in their original packages, either for personal use or for sale.

North Carolina is proud of Mr. John Scarborough. He is 70 years old, he weighs over 200 pounds, and a few days ago he rode a wheel from Concord to his home in Stanley county—a distance of 50 miles—in nine hours.

Senator M. C. Butler announces that he has no idea of being a candidate for the United States Senate, his own phraseology is: "No; if all the men, women, children, oxen and mules in South Carolina were to ask me to enter politics again with a promise of all the rebates past, present and prospective, I would not be a candidate for the senate or any other office."

State Treasurer Zimmerman announced to borrow money this summer to meet the current expenses of the State government. How much he will have to borrow depends on how much the State dispensary may turn into the State treasury.

Telegraphic advices from the South indicate that the development of the plant has been slow in many sections, as a result of too low a temperature. In Texas beneficial rains have fallen, and aside from cool nights the condition has been favorable.

Spain's Crisis. DeCampos Summoned and May Succeed Weyler. Madrid, June 3.—A cabinet council was held today, the queen regent presiding.

Colorado, Washington and Wyoming papers are seriously discussing the question, "What to do with our horses." One of their papers on this subject says: "Horses have become so worthless that they can be purchased for 50 cents to $2 a head, and nobody wants them at that. They have become so numerous on the ranges of eastern Washington that they are now regarded much as wild animals, which deprive valuable sheep and cattle of the provender needed for them."

COOGLER ON THE RIOT. J. Jordan Coogler sent the following poem to the Atlanta Journal by telegram a few minutes after Gen. Watts ordered the charge of his troops on the college boys. It has a "right smart" truth in it, whatever we may think of the divine affluents:

Our "little" General, Gary Watts, The most conspicuous on the scene, Was chief originator of That row upon the "college green."

But he was high upon his steed, Or else there'd have been many spots, Black and blue and every where On the "tender" form of Gen. Watts.

This extra session is quite likely to kill the Republican party.
