Gov. Ellerbe's annual message to the Legislature contains many good suggestions and recommendations, some of which are wise and well stated, and ordinarily should be entitled to consideration by our law-makers. The message contains a review of the finances of the State, which "are still in an unsatisfactory condition," and our penal, charitable and educational inguitions, the "order and dura-courts," the suppression of law, the preservation of the lerate records, the regulaf the pension system, the g of bi-ennial sessions of gislature, the care of the health, and the administrathe dispensary law, which ie comments on at considlength, and recommends adical changes in the said

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. S, 1898. (Confidential.)

DEAR FRANK: In reply to your inquiry, will say, I fully concur in your view as to the best solution of the liquor questiod. After mingling with the people for three months, and thorough consideration, I have come to the conclusion that the dispensary Act should be amended so as to allow each county to settle the liquor question for itself, and have determined to make such recommendation to the General Assembly.

Your friend, W. H. ELLERBE. To Mr. F. H. Weston.

It was well known that Mr. Weston agreed with Mr. Gonzales and was an advocate of local option for choice by the counties between pensary. At the time this pledge was given the contest between Ellerbe and Featherstone was close, and it looked like Featherstone would be elected. In this in lading the 28th day of extremity Gov. But in the message there is no recommendation as to "local option and high license," as the Governor distinctly promised, and was at or Aldrich would explain what so understood by Gonzales, Weston, Duncan and others.

Unless Governor Ellerbe can refute these charges, he has paid a high price for his victory at the polls. The resort to such subtle subterfuges will eventuate in the downfall of any man, and it will work his andoing.

On the Senate committees we notice Mr. Sheppard is chairman committee on Rules, and also chairman committee on Privileges and Elections, and is a member of Finance committee, and on Legislative Library.

In the House the former speaker Frank B. Gary, was unanimously re-elected.

Mr. Cole L. Bleese, of Newberry offered a joint resolution relating to the appointment of an in stigating committee. He asked for its immediate consideration. This was the first bill or measure of any kind to be introduced.

Mr. N. G. Evans, of Edgefield, introduced a bill to extend the time for the payment of taxes for the fiscal year 1898 until the 1st of March, 1899.

On Wednesday, the 12th, the Senate was in session but an hour and very little business was transacted. Senator Graydon introduced several bills and resolutions.

In the House, the Speaker announced the standing committees. N. G. Evans is on the Judiciary. and Legislative Library; W. A. from on Agriculture and Penitentiary, and J. L. Smith on Roads, Bridges and Ferries, and Co. merce and Manufactures.

The Governor's message was read, and certain portions thereof referred to the proper committees. · The resolution to present a sword o Victor Blue was laid over until Thursday, as were No. 2 and No. 3, Mr. Evans'bill to extend the time for the payment of taxes, and Mr. Blease's to authorize the Governor to investigate the State institutions and to define their powers and duties.

bill to cut salaries. He fixes the Governor's salary at $2,400; Gov-General, $960, and other reductions are on the same basis.

Mr. Smith also introduced a bil to require county commissioners to buy and keep blood hounds at county seats.

In the Senate, the Aldrich resolution to extend the time for the payment of taxes then came up for its third reading.

Senator Sheppard moved to amend by striking out the words, 28th day of February, and inserting in lieu thereof March 1. Senator Aldrich opposed the amendment. He thought it would be unfortunate to extend the time beyond the 20th of February and would cause complications.

The Chair submitted the Sheppard amendment and it was adopted, making the time February 28, instead of February 20th, as in the original bill.

There was some fire in the Senate proceedings. It developed in debate whether to adjourn over until Monday or not. The senate adjourned until Monday.

On Saturday, the proceedings in the House were void of interest, and at noon the House adjourned until Monday.

The trade would have been dis graceful if it had been honestly and all other printing office fixperformed.
