THE ADVERTISER, Edgefield, S. C.

Some one has started a rumon to the effect that Judge O. W. Buchanan will be a candidate for governor next summer. If it has yet come to the judge's ears, he has made no denial that we have seen .- York Yeoman.

It is expected that Admiral Dewey and bride will spend the winter in Aiken as guests of Hon. W. C. Whitney. Mr. Whitney 18 having eight rooms added to his residence and everything put in shape for his occupancy.

State Treasurer Timmerman says that county treasurers are very slow in turning in their collections and asks the newspapers to say to nah, come here. This gentleman them that "they had better be in a hurry." Dr. Timmerman says the interest on the state debt is due January 1, and he wont't have money available to pay up unless treasurers cash up soon.

Liquor in Politics.

Mr. H. N. Reid said to me yesterday: "Did it ever occur to you that much of the antagonism to the saluon is not based on objections to the wiskey that is sold, but to the political influence that is wielded by the saloon keepers?" I admitted that I had not viewed the question in this light. "Well, it is worthy of your consideration," said Mr. Reid. "Of course, there are many people interested in the moral phase of the question, and this sentiment is untilized by policians who fight the saloon keeper's political ring. The barroom in politics makes itself very offensive to conservative citizens, and many who care nothing about the traffic in liquor become disgusted at the active part which the saloon interest takes in politics and at the influence that is yielded was talking one day with Ben get rid of the blind tigers?' He replied: 'The saloons were what we wanted to get rid of. I do not care a rap about blind tigers. No blind tiger ever shows himself in politics." This is a rather unique view of the question, but it is an interesting one.-Augusta Chron-

Gary Monument.

The South Carolina Marble Works have prepared the design of a handsome monument and submitted it to Col. John T. Sloan and Col. Wilie Jones, the officers of the Gary Monument association, which purposes to erect in Columbia a monument to the memory of Gen. Mart Gary, the "Bald Eagle of Edgefield," who was a gallart Confederate soldier and the leader of the straightoun movement of

The base of the monument will be twelve feet square. The die block will be a polished stone. The shaft will be rustic stone with polished edges. The monolith will rise to a height of 35 feet. Suitable inscriptions will be placed on the die block, with possibly also a brouze bald eagle.

It is to be hoped successess will crown the efforts of the association. -Record.

Value of Cotton' Mills.

Crystal Springs, Miss, Nov. 29 .-Messrs. H. H. Hargrove of The Picayune and D. A. Tompkins, a prominent cotton mil! man of Charlotte, N. C., spoke here last night to a large audience on the value of cotton mills to the south.

These gentlemen came on invitation of the citizens, who are already getting subscriptions to a cotton factory, having realized that it would greatly benefit the town and scientific liniment—and if used before community.

Their addresses were replete with interesting facts and figures regarding the manufacture of cotton and showed to the audience.

the vast difference between a pound of raw cotton and a pound of the manufactured article. Their earnest and able speeches made a great impression upon our business men and there is no doubt before long a sufficient capital will be secured to start a mill.

NORTHERN CURIOSITY. A Massachusetts Man Who

Thought Negroes Never Laugh Bill Arp has been in Meridian, Miss., and while there heard this story. A Boston man who had never been South before said to Mayor Dial that he would especially like to see where the negroes lived and how they lived, so the mayor took him to "nigger town." As they drove up they heard numerous women and children laughing immoderately and talking The Discoverer of Swamp-Root at Work in merrily. "What are they laughing at?" inquiring the stranger. "I thought they never laughed." The mayor replied: "Why, they laugh all the time; they laugh at disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to adanything." "Is it possible?" replied the other, wonderingly. "Suppose you stop and ask them what they are laughing at? My curiosity is excited." The mayor called a woman he knew: "Hancomes from the North—God's and dollar sizes. A sample bottle sent free and dollar sizes. For thirty odd years the people of the South have struggled against want, poverty necessities and luxuries of life. Just at the close of the war, there was real suffering and want of the proper food. Later on our poeple were poor, then there were many of the necessities of life that we had to be deprived of. Later we he had few luxuies. But now the glad light of prosperity is shining for the Southern people and they can begin to have those things that make life worth living. WOMEN IN TROUBLE.

The Approach of Motherhood is the Occasion of Much Anxiety to All. Every woman dreads the ordea! Every woman dreads the ordea! through which she must pass in becoming a mother. The pain and suffering which is in store for her is a source of constant anxiety, fear and dread, to say nothing of the danger which the coming incident entails. The joyous anticipations with which she looks forward to baby's coming gives way to an indescribable dread of the ordeal when she fully realizes the critical and trying she fully realizes the critical and trying event which will soon approach and have to be endured.

Women should hail with delight a remedy which insures to them im-munity from the pain, suffering and danger incidental to child-bearing. Such, a remedy is now offered, and women need not fear longer the hour of childbirth. "Mother's Friend"—is a the body for the great requirements and changes it is undergoing, insures safety to both mother and child, and takes her through the event with comparative ease and comfort. This won-derful remedy is praised by every woman who has used it.

What woman is not interested in "Mother's Friend?" This wonderful remedy has been tested and its priceless value proven by the experience of thousands of happy mothers who have used it during the most critical period of woman's life—the approach and culmination of motherhood.

It has won their everlasting praise, for it gave them help and hope in their most trying hour and when most needed. Every woman may some day need "Mother's Friend." The little book, "Before Baby is Born," telling all about it, and when it should be used, will prove of great interest and The Eminent Kidney and Bladder Specialist.
