ITS FUNNY HOW CANDIDATES TALK.

Facility With Which They Change Their Song to Suit the Different Audiences They Address.

The State.

Conway, July 14.—This is the Independent Republic of Horry and to lay we looked into the honest faces of the industrious people who make it independent. The meeting was held in a tobacco warehouse in which a big opening sale will take place in a few days The stand which the demagogues pounded was a tobacco hogshead It is funny how candidates do talk. At Florence they were all raiload men, at Marion all tobacconists or something of the sort. and today they vied in the attempt to flatter the yeomanry of Horry and to pin themselves to Scarborough. For he is the young orator who is running for congress, and he is idolized by these people of his county.

There were fully 1,000 people here. No drunkenness, and intelligent attention to the spearers The speeches were cut to half the usual time. Patterson protested and threatened the people with a matinee in the evening at which he would grind out more chin music throught his nasal phongraph. But the people must have warned him not to, for he left with the rest of the party.

This is a McSweeney county, but Hoyt is strong.

The meeting today is the last until next Wednesday at Bennettsville, Senator McDermott presided.

Mr. J. P. Derham, comptroller al, was at home and welcomed the candidates for the several offices. Scarbor ough's name was cheered. Derham denied the rumor that he is opposing Scarborough, He could not be so ungrateful.

Gen. Floyd was here again, announcing the truce-armiesteice he calls it-between himself and Capt. Rouse not to attend any meetings until Spartanburg.

Col. Wharton said that they had been having a warm time in this race, but it would get hot when they get to "where the waters run." He entertained the crowd with some jokes. Commented on the poor schedules to Conway.

Barney Evans began by regretting the time limit being reduced. The arrangement of schedules to Conway is a disgrace. Conway had complained, but had gotten no relief. Put the proper men on the Railroad comission and the wrongs will be righted. W. D. Evans is riding on a passs contrary to law, and is liable to arrest and a fine of $500. W. D. had said that he was using the pass to defend his administration. Gov. McSweeney has the right to the same thing then.

Mr. T. N. Berry said that the Independent Republic is indepent because its people pay their debts and are honest. But it lost its tiful as they might be. He is in favor of public schools. They must be fostered and improved or the county cannot prosper.
