The Bright Side.

Better to hope, though the clouds hang low, And to keep the eyes still lifted, For the sweet blue sky will soon peep through.

When the ominous clouds are rifted, There was never a night without a day, Or an evening without a morning, And the darkest hour, as the proverb goes, Is the hour before the dawning."

Cotton to-day (Tuesday) 8 3/4 to 8.95. Hold your cotton!

Mrs. J. F. Killebrew is in town on a visit to her relatives.

The Bank of Cambridge of Ninety-Six has been chartered. The capital stock is $40,000.

We are authorized to announce that Mr. Joe Adams will preach at Little Stevens Creek church on the 2nd Sunday in November.

Yes! A. Rosenthal's, 1011 Broad street, Augusta, Ga., is the place to buy your Buggies, Harness, Saddles, etc. He'll treat you right. Give him trial.

Lots of our Edgefield people will leave on the early train Thursday morning for the State Fair. Thursday and Friday will be the big days.

Some drink wine—some drink rum—Others drink from mere habit; But, friends, if in for fun, Don't monkey with White Rabbit.

The general election comes off on Tuesday next, the 6th November. Every democratic voter in Edgefield county should go to the polls that day and vote without fail.

The Ogarita and Hatfield entertainment in the Opera House on Monday night was a howling success, and every one is loud in praise of the beautiful acting of Ogarita and Hatfield.

STATED—From my lot of beef cattle about 13 miles from Edgefield, near Mr. Sam Gardner's, one Brindle Steer about 2 1/2 years old. I will pay liberal reward for recovery of same. C. E. McHugh.

If Mr. Bryan is defeated for President, and the Kansas legislature should be fusion, it is asserted that the chances are ten to one that he will be elected United States Senator. From this it will be seen that Mr. Bryan will not drop out of politics in any event.

The Best Prescriptions for Malaria Chills and Fever is a bottle of Groves' TASTELESS CHILL TONIC. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure—no pay. Price 50c.

The popular Mrs. J. C. Hunter and her charming niece, Miss Martha Glover, who have been visiting friends in our town, are sorry to announce they will leave to-day for Columbia, where they will take in the Fair and the grand state ball, and soon thereafter his way to their happy home in Atlanta.

The Edgefield County Teachers' Association which was to have been held at Harmony on Nov. 2nd-3rd, has been postponed until Nov. 9th and 10th on account of the State Fair. An address and a musical program has been arranged for the night of the 9th, and the regular normal work will be on the 10th.

WANTED—Local or traveling salesman to sell our Oils, Greases, Paints, White Lead, Petroleum, on commission or salary exclusively, or as a side line. PAXY PETROLIUM CO., Oil Refiners, Corsopolis, Pa.

Cotton is still off a little. But that matters not. If you are good grit, you will "hold your cotton." And on or before the first of March next you can, if you wish, sell it readily at 12 cents. And we are a prophet—if not a prophet's son. Remember what we say—"and don't you forget it." And hold your cotton!

This year is certainly a year of trouble and affliction in Texas, and now they do say that one of the most extensive cotton planters in Texas, has gathered statistics from the Brazos and Colorado valleys and declares that the boll weevil has destroyed six million dollars worth of this year's cotton crop.

Rosenthal is with the people. Many dollars saved in your pocket by buying Buggies, Harness, etc., from him. His motto: Satisfaction, Big Business, Small Profits. A. Rosenthal, Augusta, Ga.

We heard a few weeks since that parties concerned in the protection of a game were on the eve of organizing a Game Game Protection Association, and we were gratified to learn that a movement to that end was on foot. And we here make inquiry as to what has been done in the premises. By all means let the project be carried on to completion.

The Orangeburg Patriot says: "The republicans have set themselves to reduce our representation in congress in proportion to the vote cast in the general election. Every man who stays away from the polls on that day will be playing into the hands of republican partisans who would rob us of our just weight in national legislation. Will our own people help this scheme along by neglecting to vote?"

Sad News from Johnston.

On the eve of going to press this (Wednesday) morning, we deeply regret to learn that yesterday evening whilst Rev. Mr. Owens, Methodist pastor at Johnston, and young Walter Smith, son of Mr. Gamewell Smith, were out bird hunting, the latter accidentally shot and severely wounded the former. And the latest tidings this morning is that there is no hope for the recovery of Rev. Owens. Sad, sad, sad indeed!

Worthy of Reflection. The Christian World says: "The church is nothing if it is not missionary. It fails utterly if it fails to save. The lost may be in far-off lands or in our own homes. The business of the church is to reach out and save them."

A Neat Job. Mr. Robert H. Covar, of the Advertiser, has recently printed in pamphlet form the "By-laws of Edgefield Lodge No. 57, I. O. O. F. This Lodge is now in a flourishing condition, and it is well that each member should have a copy of the By-laws of the Lodge. Bob Covar is familiar with this class of work, and when he finishes up a job we all know that it is artistically and well done.

I am now ginning cotton at my gin and guarantee perfect satisfaction. I also buy cotton seed and pay market price for same. D. B. HOLLINGSWORTH.

Our Editor Absent. Our Editor, Col. Adams, is off on a week or ten days pleasure trip to Beaufort—visiting his brother, J. Quincy Adams, the popular County Treasurer of old Beaufort—and beyond a doubt he will have a big time. And further, during his absence, he will attend a grand wedding festival—the marriage of his nephew, young Philip, son of Col. J. P. Phillips, of Ninety-Six, to one of the fair daughters of that county. So don't look for Editor Adams until you see him.

Married in Saluda. A somewhat unexpected marriage took place in Saluda on Thursday of this week, Oct. 25th, 1900, says the Newberry Herald. The contracting parties were John H. Peurifoy, Esq., a prominent young attorney of the Saluda bar, and Miss Emily Wright, one of Newberry's most beautiful and charming young ladies. The ceremony was performed at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Mr. Barget, in the town of Saluda. We join with their many friends in congratulating the happy couple.

Sudden Death of a Little Boy. On Saturday evening last the four-year-old son of Mr. Elijah Timmerman, an employe at the cotton mill, was playing around on the street, bright and happy, but in a few hours after night fall the little fellow was attacked with a severe case of croup, and despite the efforts of all that could be done by anxious physicians, loving parents and friends, in a few hours the darling boy was asleep in death.

"Ere sin could blight or sorrow fade, Death timely came with friendly care. The opening bud to heaven conveyed, And bade it bloom forever there."

Stops the Cough and works off the Cold. Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure, No pay. Price 25 cents.

We Don't Have White Teachers for Negro Schools in Edgefield. The ministers of the Yorkville district of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion church, lately assembled, adopted a series of resolutions protesting against the putting of white teachers in negro schools to teach negro children.

To this whites and blacks should agree. Let the negro schools be black and the white schools white. To mix the one is to threaten the other. The colored Methodists claim 30,000 negro teachers in the United States who are sufficient in number and training to teach their race. White teachers in negro schools have never proved much of a success anywhere.—Anderson Mail.

A Good Man's Resolve. Mr. A. B. Morse of this city is a most circumspect citizen, an excellent business man, and a good allround neighbor and wouldn't make a bet under any consideration. For this reason he is not to be classed with the naughty men in big cities who wager money on presidential elections, but he has quit smoking and will not smoke again until Bryan is elected President. He expects to smoke a cigar in November, which will be a foot or so long. From our own standpoint we are inclined to think that he has quit permanently, and that he will not smoke again in the flesh.—Atlanta Daily News.

YOU KNOW WHAT YOU ARE TAKING When you take Groves' Tasteless Chill Tonic, because the formula is plainly printed on every bottle, showing that it is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No Cure, No Pay, 50c.

Parted Six Hours After Marriage. The divorce suit of Mary Pedigo against Lee M. Pedigo was dismissed today on motion of the attorneys for the petitioner, S. C. Harris and Joseph M. Nealon. The couple were married May 1, 1897 in Aiken county, S. C. In her petition Mrs. Pedigo alleged that "since the said marriage the defendant has treated her in a cruel and inhuman manner, leaving her within six hours after their marriage, refusing to live with her or having anything to do with her, writing her indecent letters, and failing to support her." The petition also charged her husband with unfaithfulness.

Good Roads. We had a talk with a gentleman not long since who lives ten miles from Charlotte on one of the magnificent road leading out from the city, from five to twelve miles, like the spokes of a great wheel.

He told us that before the road was complete the people in his neighborhood draded the fall hauling to town more than any other part of the year's work. Then the great question was to find teams to pull a bale or two of cotton through the mud to town now the trouble is to find wagons strong enough to hold up as much as a pair of "rabbit" mules, as he called them, can pull. To be sure these roads were built at enormous expense to the county, even with the advantage of convict labor, but they have paid a thousand fold.

The city of Charlotte could have afforded to have built the roads for the benefit to the trade of the town; and the farmers after all are the ones most greatly blessed by them. They are worth more to a town than the greatest trunk line railroad in the world would be; and they make life in the country so much brighter and happier.

Along with the other blessings that will come to North Carolina within the first quarter of the new century we earnestly hope the improvement in country roads will be among the most conspicuous. It is the best sign of civilization and progress to be able to ride through a neighborhood in a trol without danger to a broken bone. Every town in the State ought to take especial pride in the roads leading into it from every direction.—Charity and Children.

He was sitting on the side of the bed, and when she had finished the narrative he fell to the floor dead. Davis was thirty-nine years old. Death was due to heart failure.
