

WEDNESDAY, MAR. 26, 1902

Miss McClintock, the lady principal of the Presbyterian college for women, will succeed Dr. Pell as president of that institution.

The Rev. W. B. Gordon, formerly the much beloved rector of the Trinity parish, Edgefield, now of Camden, is enthusiastically laboring for the establishment of a charity hospital in the town where he resides.

A recent issue of the Rome (Ga.) Tribune contained a very complimentary notice of a sermon Dr. L. R. Gwaltney preached in Rome on the subject of Christian education.

The Logomachy club was entertained at the home of Miss Helen Sheppard on Thursday evening.

From April 1st to 7th is educational week at the exposition. The student body of every school in the state should seize upon this opportunity to attend the South's greatest Exposition.

Contractors and builders will do well to get my prices on Brick, Lime and Cement before placing their orders.

"You'll laugh, you'll roar, you'll scream," if you attend the mind reading and oriental mysteries on April 16th in the opera house.

SHIRT WAISTS have come to stay, more popular this season than ever. See our beautiful display of Wash Silks, Mercerized Madras Waist Silks, etc.

Send or telephone us your orders for envelopes, note, bill and letter heads, etc. We guarantee satisfaction and prompt service.

Bear in mind the performance to be given in the opera house by the Boone-Yaki company on the night of April 16th.

When in need of Brick, Lime and Cement, either in large or small quantities, send or telephone us your orders. Full supply always on hand.

Mr. John L. Addison, of the Southern Railway spent Sunday in Edgefield with the home-folk.

Read every word of the new advertisement of the Corner Store. No shopper can afford to miss it.

THE RACKET STORE has Embroidery, world within in end, in new and exclusive patterns and designs.

Our office has been moved from the back room to the front room, opposite our good neighbor, Judge Roath.

A new firm styled H. C. Watson & Co., has made its bow to the public. The firm is composed of H. C. Watson and J. A. Timmerman.

The Osborne Disc Harrow is unsurpassed in pulverizing and preparing your land for planting.

The subscription list of the Advertiser is growing far beyond our expectation. We, however, have room for others.

The book lovers will smile with delight on reading this. A shipment of 28 new books have just been received by the ladies of the library association.

Our stock of Ladies and Misses Easter Hats is complete. All the latest shapes and trimmings are here.

We have the only First-Class Barber Shop in Edgefield. Skilled and courteous barbers always on hand to serve you.

Next door to post-office.

Plant beans on Good Friday.

Mr. M. N. Holstein, of Montetta, spent Sunday in Edgefield.

Mr. G. P. Cobb, Johnston's furniture dealer, paid Edgefield a short visit Sunday.

Our "dearly beloved and longed for" Dr. L. R. Gwaltney will visit his family during April.

Miss Eliza Youngblood is rapidly convalescing after a prolonged attack of grip.

Old gardeners say plant Irish potatoes now—the dark nights in March.

Mr. T. B. Lanham spent several days of last week with relatives in the Collier's section.

Bro. C. J. Terrell, of the Monitor and Saluda Sentinel, was in Edgefield on business last Friday.

We regret that the little child of Mr. Jesse Timmerman, of the Mill village, is very ill.

Pay your taxes. Monday next is the last day the Treasurer can issue receipts without the penalty.

On and after April 1st the office of Griffin & Mims, insurance agents, will be over May & May's store, in the old Burnett office.

The many friends of Mr. Thos. Furne are glad to see him in his store, after an illness of three weeks duration.

Mrs. J. T. Griffin has been spending the past week at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Trapp McManus.

The many friends of Lizzie Lou Jones are happy to know that she improves daily and will soon be restored to health.

Mr. W. H. Dorn, accompanied by his uncle, Mr. D. B. Dorn, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents who reside near Celestia.

Miss Sallie Mobley, one of Johnston's most popular young ladies, visited her sister, Mrs. Orlando Sheppard, Jr., last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Mobley, of Johnston, spent Sunday in Edgefield with their daughter, Mrs. Orlando Sheppard, Jr.

The newly painted front of Mr. Penn's store finished in delicate tints and trimmings, is a suggestive of Springtide as the Easter lily.

Capt. E. H. Youngblood, a gentleman of the old school type, of Winterset, has been spending several days in Edgefield with his daughter, Mrs. Dr. Timmons.

Mrs. R. W. Beaufort has secured the store in the Norris building, next door to Hart's dry goods emporium, in which a first-class millinery is maintained.

Mr. Thos. J. Ad. been sojourning for his brother, Mr. H. Ridgeland, Beaufort turned Sunday after.

Messrs. B. L. Jones & Son received a car load of Tennessee horses on last Saturday.

Mr. Harry Adams has resigned his position with Mr. W. W. Adams to enter the service of the Southern Railway, with headquarters at Asheville, N. C.

The young men of the Cottillion club gave a dance in the opera house on Monday evening, complimentary to Mr. Harry Adams, on the eve of his departure from Edgefield.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Ready and children, of Johnston, spent Saturday and Sunday at Breeze Hill with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Hill.

A charter for a $5,000 Roller Mill has been granted to prominent business men of Ninety-Six. Why not Edgefield build one? The echo answers, why not?

The name of Mr. B. J. Harrison, at Trenton, was burned Monday night. We have not learned the cause of the fire. The property was insured.

A new firm styled H. C. Watson & Co., has made its bow to the public. The firm is composed of H. C. Watson and J. A. Timmerman.

The name of Mr. B. J. Harrison, at Trenton, was burned Monday night. We have not learned the cause of the fire.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

Col. W. J. Talbert has succeeded in having the pension of Anderson Howard increased from $12 to $20 per month.

The many friends of Sheriff Ozuzis will be saddened to know that for some time his health has been failing.

Mr. T. B. Lanham, accompanied by his mother left Monday for his adopted home, Greer, Ky.

Saluda had her first disastrous fire on last Sunday night. It started in Dr. Pitt's office, in the Ethridge building.

The baseball season will soon be on and the S. C. I. boys expect to have one of the strongest teams in the state.

Our stock of Ladies and Misses Easter Hats is complete.

The public eye will miss the beautiful art display of Mr. R. H. Mims in the window of the Norris building.

Next door to post-office.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. W. H. Turner announces special sales for Mondays.

The windows and stores of our dry goods merchants are blossoming.

E. H. Folk, Esq., has succumbed to the grip fiend, having been confined to his bed for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Haltiwanger, of Aiken, delighted their many friends by a visit to Edgefield last Friday.

The Langley correspondent to The State says: "Rev. L. B. White of Edgefield, spent Sunday here visiting his brother, Rev. G. P. White."

The public are invited to attend the Mock court on next Friday night at the S. C. I. chapel.

If you want your linen, collars, cuffs, etc., washed whiter than snow and laundered to perfection,

At a noon luncheon recently served in Aiken Lady Constance McKenzie appeared in trousers, riding coat and boots.

Mr. B. B. Jones, who recently purchased the Bland place, where he has been residing for some time,

The Racket Store will have a Special Embroidery Sale on next Monday.

Dr. J. Q. Adams returned last Thursday to his home in Charlotte.

Mr. J. H. P. Roper has the most promising oats we have seen, not one acre either, but a number of acres.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

Col. W. J. Talbert has succeeded in having the pension of Anderson Howard increased from $12 to $20 per month.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

DEATH OF MR. COLLINS.

On last Saturday afternoon Mr. J. L. Collins died of pneumonia in his sixtieth year.

Baptist Church. Dr. A. C. Wilkins, of Batesburg, preached in our Baptist church on Sunday morning, and also in the evening.

A Woman in Trousers. At a noon luncheon recently served in Aiken Lady Constance McKenzie appeared in trousers, riding coat and boots.

Union Meeting. The Union meeting of the 2nd Division of the Edgefield association will convene with the Moxie Baptist church of Christ on Saturday before the 5th Sunday in March.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

All of last week was consumed with five suits for damages brought by various persons against the Southern Railway company.

In the case of Mrs. Josie Griffin, the jury gave the plaintiff $375.

In the action brought by Marion Griffin, a verdict of $200 was rendered for the plaintiff.

The jury remained in the room all night in the case of Peter Young, coming into court the next morning stating that they were unable to agree upon a verdict.

In the case of Mr. H. H. Stembridge, a verdict of $1,000 was obtained. Evans represented the plaintiff, Abney and Thompson the Southern.

The third week's jury only heard one case, that of E. H. Stone vs. Winchester McDaniel.

The jury was discharged Monday afternoon, and the equity cases were taken up Tuesday morning.

We notice with pleasure and pardonable pride that the personnel of the officers of a new bank (the Farmer's and Merchants) just organized at Walterboro, contains the names of two Edgefield-Saluda young men: John H. Penfroy, Esq., has been elected cashier and Penfroy Bros. have been elected attorneys.

J. PRINTING JOB PRINTING B PRINTING Letter, Bill and Note Heads, Envelopes, Etc.

Southern R. R. Schedule. Trains leave Edgefield for Trenton, Columbia, Augusta, Aiken, etc.

Mr. J. H. P. Roper has the most promising oats we have seen, not one acre either, but a number of acres.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

The colored people of the Baptist faith are building a church two miles east of Edgefield, near Huetter's Cross-roads.

Mr. W. L. Dunovant, our successful farmer-merchant, harvested last year 40 bushels of multiplying or nest onions from 20 rows less than an acre in length.

ELECTION NOTICE

There will be an election held in the Court House at Edgefield, S. C., on Monday, April 14th, 1902, to elect a Mayor and six (7) Aldermen to serve the Town of Edgefield for the next ensuing two (2) years.

Managers of Election: H. P. Lowe, W. H. Bee and N. L. Brunson.

By order of Council. W. W. ADAMS, Mayor.

B. J. CROOKER, Clerk and Treas.

HORSES AND MULES.

We will have at our stable on Saturday, March 22, a car load of fresh-shipped Tennessee horses and mules; the very best that money can buy, and will continue to ship and keep on hand through the Spring season the best of Tennessee horses and mules for this country.

Will not handle branded or unbranded stock. Our aim and object is to please our customers.

B. L. JONES & SON, EDGEFIELD, S. C.

DRESSMAKING ESTABLISHMENT

I take this means of informing my Edgefield friends that I have reopened my dressmaking establishment at 918 Broad St., Augusta, Ga.

MRS. AGATHA WOODSON, 918 BROAD ST., - AUGUSTA.

OWDOM'S SPOT CASH STORE

To be located in the SWEARINGEN BUILDING, with a full and up-to-date stock of Fancy and Heavy

GROCERIES, HARDWARE

and everything which will be at the lowest possible prices.

Call on OWDOM'S SPOT CASH STORE.

at the lowest possible prices.

MASTER'S SALE

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, COUNTY OF EDGEFIELD.

Court of Common Pleas—Willie S Parks, et al, against F M Parks. Pursuant to the decree in this case, I will offer for sale at public outcry, before the Court House, town of Edgefield, and State of South Carolina, on the first Monday in April, 1902, the same being the 7th day of said month, between the legal hours of sale, the following described realty, to wit:

All that lot of land situate at the depot of Plum Branch, S. C., adjoining lands of Martha Blackwell, and bounded on the west by right of way of the railroad, being a small lot purchased by P. O. Cox from Martha Blackwell in January, 1880. Said deed is duly recorded in office of R. M. C. in Edgefield, S. C., in Book 10, Page 209.

Terms of sale—Cash. And if the terms are not complied with, Master is authorized to resell the same within one hour, at the risk of the former purchaser. Purchaser to pay for papers.

W. F. ROATH, Master Edgefield County, March 12, 1902.

THE AUGUSTA SAVINGS BANK, 805 Broad Street, W. B. YOUNG, President, J. G. WEIGLE, Cashier. SAVINGS ACCOUNTS SOLICITED. Interest Paid on Deposits.

PROF. P. M. WHITMAN, 209 7th Street, Augusta, Ga., GIVES FREE EYE TESTS for all defects of sight, gr