UNEASY lie the heads that wear the crowns throughout Europe...

GREENVILLE County alone lost $20,000 in bridges as a result of the Piedmont flood.

THE merciless floods swept away not only the superstructure but the foundation stones of some of the Pacolet and Clifton mills...

SPECULATION is rife as to what disposition will be made of the application for a change of venue in the Tillman murder case.

REPORTS from far-off China state that the anti-foot-binding society is liberating the distorted feet of many benighted Chinese women.

CLARK'S HILL. The weather continues warm, with a heavy shower of rain. It has rained here every day this month.

JOHNSTON.

Happenings of Interest from Our Neighboring Town.

Seemingly apropos of nothing, there came "a pang of selfishness" in my last contribution.

This latter entertainment took place Thursday evening and was repeated Friday, being the most laughable play of the season.

Quite a number of our town folks attended the marriage of Miss Lena Smith to Mr. Wiley Ouzts, which took place at Harmony church on Wednesday last.

The marriage of Miss Palm Reames to Mr. Charles Bailey took place at the residence of Mr. L. B. Asbill on Wednesday evening.

Parlor games for prizes have been declared by Williamston Co. Ill., grand jury to be gambling within the law, and citizens urged to prosecute if they are continued.

Francis Rich, daughter of Mrs. M. B. Rich, was playing on a fence and accidentally fell, breaking her arm.

Mrs. Mat Holston, of Modoc, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Umphry McDaniel.

Miss Sadie Meriwether has returned home from Millen, Georgia, where she has been attending school.

Mrs. Eugenia Middleton is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Luke, near Hazen, Ga.

Mrs. Kitty Duckett and her charming daughter, Miss Pearl, of Greenwood, visited relatives here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Gould, of Spartanburg, visited relatives and friends here this week.

Mr. Ben Glanton, of Red Hill, was over Thursday last.

Mrs. W. S. Middleton is visiting relatives in Augusta.

Miss Lizzie Rich is visiting relatives near Trenton.

Mr. J. E. King returned today from Texas.

Mr. W. T. Scott left today for Plumbach where he will visit his daughter, Mrs. J. J. Garzett.

Miss Ida Nelson, of Atlanta, will visit Mrs. W. S. Middleton next week.

I hope "Sol" is not in the mud again. INCOGNITUS. June 13, 1903.

An Election Ordered. According to appointment the county executive committee met in the court house on Saturday morning last for the purpose of selecting a man to be recommended to the governor for appointment to the supervisorship of Edgefield county.

Feels Very Thankful. To the many friends who were so kind to me during my dear husband's last illness, I take this opportunity to express my heart-felt gratitude to my friends and neighbors for the assistance and sympathy tendered me in my hour of trial.

To each and all, please allow me to say, I thank you, and may God bless you. Respectfully, Mrs. SALLIE STROM. Rehoboth, June 15, 1903.

stead on the committee, which was granted.

Capt. John R. Blocker, in well chosen language, pointed out where in the committee had erred in withholding the selection of a supervisor from the people, stating that the action of the committee in arrogating this right to itself was without precedent and contrary to the principles of the Democratic party.

The members of the committee then handed in the names of the managers for their respective clubs, a complete list of which we publish elsewhere.

It was very gratifying to all present that, while there was a difference of opinion as to the wisdom of holding a primary, there was not a ripple of discord to mar the harmony of the meeting.
