WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24, 1903.

LAST Sunday was what might be called "John Wesley Day".

THE board of trustees of Furman university has made a very fortunate selection in electing Dr. E. M. Poteat president of that institution.

IT is said that only four of the sixty graduates from Clemson college this year will follow farming.

THE Town Council has been formally notified by the purchasers of the school bonds that their attorneys, after a thorough investigation of the matter, are satisfied that the law has been complied with and have pronounced the bonds valid.

AN unsuccessful attempt was made in Charlotte last week to form a trust of the southern yarn mills.

JOHNSTON.

Happenings of Interest from Our Neighboring Town.

Miss Hunter D. Lott left for Birmingham, Ala., on Tuesday last. On Friday evening Mrs. Lucas Walker entertained in honor of Miss Spearman, of Newberry.

Mrs. Will Ready entertained in honor of Miss Daniel, of Fruit Hill, and Miss Hill, of Edgefield.

Mrs. Lucia Latimer will leave for Rock Hill in a few days. Plums are unusually fine—some are larger than a guinea egg—and the prices are good.

Candidates are also abundant; when we weigh the salary against the uncertainty of our farmers' revenue, we are only surprised that more are not in the field.

It was our pleasant privilege to dine at the hospitable home of Capt. Clinton Ward on the 13th and witness the mammoth railroad picnic.

The New Century club held its last meeting until October at the lovely home of Mrs. Fanny Courtney.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cogburn, of Edgefield, worshipped in our Baptist church last Sunday.

PARKSVILLE.

Dear ADVERTISER: We have been having some real warm weather for the past week, which has enabled the farmers to kill the grass which grew so rapidly during the recent rains.

Miss Nettie Bell and Carrie Elkins are attending the Summer school at Edgefield.

Mr. J. G. Parks returned from Clemson college last week.

Mr. John Harvley, a telegraph operator who lived at Coronaca, S. C., was killed by a switch engine at Hamlet, N. C., the first of this week.

Mr. N. G. Evans, of Edgefield, was in town several days ago on business.

Mr. J. M. Bell, Jr., a candidate for Supervisor, spent Friday night last in our town.

Change of Venue Wanted.

When the criminal court convened in Columbia on Monday last the first case called was the State vs James H. Tillman, indicted for killing N. G. Gonzales.

Death of a Good Woman.

Mrs. Rachel Broadwater, wife of Mr. A. F. Broadwater, is no more.

REVOLUTION IMMINENT.

A sure sign of approaching revolt and serious trouble in your system is nervousness, sleeplessness or stomach upsets.

A COSTLY MISTAKE.

Blunders are sometimes very expensive. Occasionally life itself is the price of a mistake, but you'll never be wrong if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills for dyspepsia, indigestion, headache, liver or bowel troubles.
