A FRIGHTENED HORSE.

Running like mad down the street dumping the occupants, or a hundred other accidents, are every day occurrences. It behooves everybody to have a reliable safe hand and there's none as good as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Burns, cuts, sores, eczema and piles disappear quickly under its soothing effect. 25 cents at The Penn Drug Store.

Good Prices Paid

For old Iron, Bones, Brass and Copper, Tallow, Hides and Beeswax. Am selling airslacked Lime suitable for whitewashing and disinfectant purposes at 50 cents per bushel. Ice always on hand. M. A. TAYLOR, Edgefield Ware House, My 4th, 1903.

Quarterly Conference

The regular quarterly conference of the Edgefield circuit will be held on Saturday next at McKendree. Rev. J. S. Beasley, the presiding elder of the Columbia district, will be in attendance, accompanied by Rev. G. H. Waddell, of the Christian Advocate. There will be two services on Sunday, The Rev. G. H. Waddell will preach in the afternoon. Farmers are generally up with their work and the conference should and will doubtless be largely attended. McKendree never lacks for a crowd at the Sunday services.

Installation Services.

The Commission of South Carolina Presbytery to install Rev. T. P. Burgess, consists of Rev. S. J. Cartledge and Rev. H. R. Murchison, both of Anderson; with Elders W. L. Dunivant, G. W. Wise and E. M. Hix.

The Commission has appointed next Sunday, July 19th, for the installation and will hold the services at Edgefield at 11 a. m.; at Trenton at 4 p. m. and at Johnston at 8:45 p. m. At Edgefield Mr. Cartledge will preach, and Mr. Murchison will deliver the charges to pastor and people; and this same order will be observed at Johnston; but at Trenton Mr. Murchison will preach and Mr. Cartledge will deliver the charges. Each of these brethren will be cordially welcomed to our midst, and we feel sure our people have a treat in store for them. Let all who can attend.

Reunion of Butler's Brigade.

On July 25th there will be a reunion of the survivors of Butler's Brigade at Edgefield. Many will remember what a pleasant occasion the reunion of last year was. Col. U. R. Brooks, of Columbia, to whom the Confederate cause is as dear today as it was 40 years ago, will be in attendance accompanied by another prominent orator of his own selection. Let all of the veterans and their sons and daughters come and join with the survivors of this historic troop of cavalry in their reunion. The 25th is the day on which the Farmers' Institute will be held, but the hours and programme will be arranged so there will be no conflict between the two. Capt. J. A. White will provide one of his delightful barbecues for the occasion and a good time is promised to all.

Card of Thanks.

Editor ADVERTISER: Please allow me space in your columns to express my thanks to the people of Edgefield county for their kindness shown me in the race for Supervisor. Although beat by 30 votes I have no regrets nor censures to make. Hope the people have made a wise selection. I will do my whole duty to make his administration a success. I fully realize what he has to do as I have found no section of Edgefield county but what is complaining of the conditions of the public roads. So with pleasant recollections for all and trusting that Mr. D. P. Self will be able to bridge all the streams, macadamize around the hills, clay the sand, and sand the clay at some near future day. I am very respectfully, Jno. M. Mays, Edgefield, July 10, 1903.

Another Household Bereaved.

Having known her from infancy to womanhood the writer was made very sad by the death of Miss Velma Lowrey, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lowrey, which occurred on Thursday afternoon last at the home of her parents, thirteen miles north of Edgefield. She was a sister of Mrs. R. E. Morgan of our town, whom she had visited frequently. The deceased was in delicate health for many months but now she is peacefully resting where neither pain nor sorrow can enter, for she loved and trusted Him who gave His life that we might have life more abundantly. The many friends of this amiable, gentle, sweet tempered young lady will miss her bright and happy smiles but they can look forward to a reunion on the other shore. The interment took place on Friday last at McKendree, of which church the deceased was a member, the Rev. Geo. W. Davis officiating. To the grief-stricken family, our near neighbors during childhood and youth, we tender our deepest sympathy.

Death of An Aged Lady.

Mrs. Sarah Parker, wife of Dr. Horace Parker and eldest of the children of the lamented Capt. James Doru, is no more. She calmly and peacefully departed this life at her home in our northern suburbs on Thursday last, in the 69th year of her age. This good woman was but little known by the younger generation, for she cared nothing for the vanities and gaities of society. Her chief purpose in life being to make home and those about her happy. Those who knew her best loved her most. Mrs. Parker was possessed of many virtues and graces of character and having a faithful throughout a long probation on earth she has gone to share heavenly joys with loved ones who have gone before her. Mrs. Parker is survived by a devoted husband and seven affectionate children, all of whom were with her in her last illness except Mrs. Robert Kasterling, of Barnwell. The funeral was conducted Friday afternoon from our Baptist church, of which the deceased was a member, the Rev. P. P. Blalock officiating.

Timely, Tersely, Truly Told To The Thinking Thousands

In order to get rid of the germs in ice cream boil it and serve while hot.

The rains descendeth, the floods cometh, the grass groweth, the crops droveth and the farmers bewaileth.

After a vacation of several weeks Miss Minnie Lanham is again at her post of duty at the Hart dry goods establishment.

Handsome young John Milton Bell, of Parkville, came over on Friday last for his sister, Miss Nettie Bell, who had been attending the summer school.

After spending several weeks in Greenville visiting relatives, Mrs. Ida F. Sheppard returned on Friday last accompanied by her bright and pretty little granddaughter, Florida Miller.

Now is the time to use lime and white-wash. The man who uses the whitewash brush freely about his premises adds fifty percent to their healthfulness and to the beauty of their appearance.

Mrs. David Lopez, a lady of unusual culture and refinement and one of Atlanta's "four hundred," is visiting at the home of Mrs. J. Berrien Walker. Mrs. Lopez is accompanied by two beautiful little children.

Miss Rhett Sheppard has been visiting friends in Newberry where she was entertained in a most charming manner by having parties, dances, etc., given in her honor.

Miss Annie Duriso and Master William Griffin Duriso, daughter and son of Mr. John Duriso, who was born and reared in Edgefield but resides now in Washington, D. C., are visiting Mrs. Nannie Griffin and Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Duriso.

Mrs. Ella S. Tompkins and Miss Grace have gone to Knoxville. They will return via Saluda, N. C., the popular summer resort, where they will spend some time.

We greatly miss the sweet vocal and instrumental music and serenades of the three pretty and accomplished young teachers who boarded near our home in Buncombe while attending the summer school. "Faith," "Hope" and "Love," these three being Misses Mattie Lyon, Nettie Bell and Corrie Elkins.

Mr. D. T. Grice has laid aside business for a ten days rest, having joined Mrs. Grice and the children at Sha on, Ga., the home of Mrs. Grice's parents. So delightful is the climate and country round about Sharon that we shall expect to see them all return with rosy cheeks and with a considerable gain in avoirdupois.

A soap manufacturer, who never used sign boards, etc., as a means of advertising, on being asked why he did newspaper advertising altogether, said: "In my experience I have found that the man who doesn't read the newspaper never uses soap," and we guess he was about right.

Says an exchange: "A young lady wants to know how to make 'not enough' out of the word 'enough.' That is easy. It is done by transposing them into two words. Take the third, second and first letters for the first word, the sixth, fourth and fifth for the second, and you have something that is not enough for any lady."

The many friends of Dr. L. R. Gwaltney and Miss Marie Gwaltney will be pained to know the latter is very critically ill with typhoid fever. She was taken sick at Gainesville where she was attending the summer school but has been removed to their home in Rome. The sympathy and prayers of their Edgefield friends are with them in this trying hour.

The wife of a Wichita, Kansas man makes him wear tucks in his night-gown, trimmed with pink ribbon, so that the baby won't know the difference when he walks the floor with it at night. The Edgefield fathers will say we ought not to have put this new idea into the heads of the Edgefield mothers.

The life of Mr. E. H. Talbert was insured in the New York Life Insurance company, which is represented in Edgefield by Mr. James T. Mims. Within two weeks from the death of Mr. Talbert Mr. Mims received a check for the face of the policy, plus all premiums that had been paid. This very liberal and prompt settlement speaks well for this large and progressive company.

We are deeply concerned about the condition of a certain young lawyer in Edgefield. His cheeks have lost their accustomed rosy tinge; his voice no longer has a merry ring and he now wears a long face and a far-away look. We fear that he has heart trouble. His physician should advise him to take a trip. The climate round about Schenectady, N. Y., is highly recommended.

The senatorial bee is not buzzing around Hon. J. W. DeVore as has been reported. He states emphatically that he will not be in the senatorial race next year. It may be that once upon a time he told a "lettle de rise of de tuff," or, in other words, was "somewhat of a liar himself," but now he tells the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, so you can bank on every word he says in his card which we publish in this issue.

The S. C. C. I. was burned one year ago yesterday—July 14th 1902

Read of Mr. J. E. Hart's special sale in his new advertisement.

Presiding Elder Beasley will preach in our Methodist church on Sunday evening next.

The ladies Mission and Aid society will meet in the Baptist church Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Norris and the children will return to-day from Batesburg where they have been visiting at the home of Mr. Norris' father.

The political pot of 1904 is already beginning to simmer. We hear that Capt. John R. Blocker will be in the supervisor's race and that Dr. J. T. Pattison will be in the treasurer's race next year.

Sunday afternoon at 6 o'clock, July 19th, the Rev. J. L. Seidl, of Aiken, will preach in the Edgefield Catholic church upon the Immortality of the Soul, philosophically considered. All interested in so vital a subject are welcome.

Mr. D. P. Self receive a majority of 30 votes in the second primary and was declared elected. He has been appointed by the governor and will receive his commission as Supervisor in a few days.

Dr. Luther Jones carried several very fine horses to Augusta on Monday for the purpose of selling them. Purchasers can be found in Augusta who know good horses when they see them and who have the money with which to buy them.

The volume of mail that is handled by the Edgefield office continues to increase. There was a time when there was not a demand for all of the first installment of lock boxes. Gradually all were rented and still the demand for others came. In order to meet the needs of the patrons of the office Capt. Brunson has added 21 new boxes and two drawers. The drawers are locked by combinations which does away with the annoyance of losing the key.

Edgefield, S. C. July 11th 1903. Mr. Editor: I desire to state through your paper, that I will not be a candidate for county senator. I am grateful to the people of this county for the place I now have, and will be more than satisfied if they will allow me to hold it, for a second term. I assert most positively that I would rather be a member of the House than a member of the senate.

Respectfully, J. W. DeVore.

Contract Let.

The Contract for the erection of the college building was formally let to Contractor Spencer on Monday. Mr. Spencer is to receive $13,000 for the building, exclusive of heating and plumbing. It is to be completed not later than January 1st but Mr. Spencer expects to finish it by the latter part of November. Actual work will begin next week. Orders have been placed for the material.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED

By Butler Lodge on the Death of Mr. E. H. Talbert. Whereas, God in His infinite wisdom has removed from our midst our friend and worthy brother, E. H. Talbert, and whereas Bro. Talbert was a true, faithful and loyal Odd Fellow, always appreciative of the principles of Odd-fellowship, be it therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of Bro. Talbert this Lodge has sustained a great and heavy loss. Resolved further, That in his death the community has lost an upright, genial and honorable citizen and the Lodge one of its most devoted and useful members, always being responsive and willing in his actions.

Resolved further, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of Butler Lodge, No. 17, and a copy of the same be sent to his bereaved family, to whom we tender our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in this sad hour of their affliction, also that copies be given to the four county papers for publication. G. W. DAVIS, L. E. JACKSON, C. A. GRIFFIN, Committee.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable. Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medical triumph of the twentieth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and one dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

CLARK'S HILL.

On last Thursday afternoon the young folks here gave a sunset picnic in honor of Miss Ida Evelyn Melson of Atlanta. Delightful refreshments were served, then the popular game of "Blinch" was played the remainder of the evening. Miss Melson returned to Atlanta on Saturday last.

The writer had the pleasure of attending the annual picnic of Meriwether Hall on Friday last. The following represented Clark's Hill: Misses Myra and Minnie Butler, Mr. T. M. Butler, Miss Caddie Scott, Messrs R. L. and W. C. Scott. A very large crowd attended. Delightful music was furnished by the "Wiley" band.

Mr. B. F. Glanton has been spending a while with Mr. T. B. Bailey. Mrs. J. O. Nixon, of Charleston, is visiting Mrs. C. N. Nixon Mrs. S. B. Mays, of Edgefield, is spending a while with her sister, Mrs. Eugenia Middleton.

Mrs. W. S. Middleton has been quite sick, but I am glad to say she is much better. Miss Caddie Meriwether is on a visit to Mrs. George Walker, of North Augusta.

We have had abundance of rain during the past week, causing grass to grow, and patches to rot. What has become of "School Boy?" He must be like myself, too lazy to write. INCOGNITUS.
