While you are talking for GREATER EDGEFIELD speak a word for the EDGEFIELD COLLEGE...

The Edgefield Advertiser says Edgefield dirt is getting dearer every day.

Another Edgefield lawyer of marked ability enters the lists. S. McG. Simkins has announced that he will be in the race for solicitor next year.

Columbia is now making demijohns, South Carolina is filling them and there are hundreds of suckers over the state who are emptying them.

It is stated that Canada wants to purchase the state of Maine. It is not probable, however, that Uncle Sam wants to part with any of his possessions...

A prominent judge recently remarked during the hearing of a divorce case that it was "the peculiarity of women not to be able to love two men at once; while a man can love two women at once."

Commander Peary, the great arctic explorer, is planning to carry Wm. J. Bryan, Theodore Roosevelt and Booker Washington with him?

On account of the illness of Judge Gage Chief Justice Pope has appointed Judge Townsend to preside at the September term of court in Lexington.

Since the recent state encampments quite a number of military companies have been organized throughout the state.

Keep your eyes on Edgefield's cotton market this fall. It is going to be a live one.

If we could make about a crop and a half of cotton this fall, and sell it for about a price and a half, the farmers of this section would get out of the hole.

The Piedmont farmers must be in a pretty deep hole. Most of Edgefield's farmers are coming out of the hole on half a crop at a whole price.

The Texas legislature has appropriated $50,000 to the person inventing the simplest and most effective device for destroying boll weevils.

FACTS FOR FARMERS.

Elizewood, S. C., Aug. 28-'03. Editor ADVERTISER: This communication is prompted by the fact that in your last issue...

Theoretically, the remedy would be to reduce the area in hoed crops, thereby reducing accounts for labor; better ploughing and more use of manure...

As regards the treatment of the solid droppings a barrel or box of road dust or gypsum should be kept convenient and enough sprinkled over them each day to absorb the ammonia.

With proper care and a little energy almost any one horse farmer, who keeps one or two cows, pigs and chickens can make a good living...

When 'cutty makes peace with the year' and takes his final departure to the towns and railroads, and with the advent of the corn shredder there will come a change over the dreams of the Southern planter.

GEM OF THE PIEDMONT.

Gaffney, S. C., September 2, 1903.

Dear ADVERTISER: You see by the caption that I am in the growing, live city of Gaffney, one of the gems of the Piedmont section of South Carolina.

The other indication that points to the up-to-date progress of this city is the system of electric lights that furnish the lights for every portion of the town.

The town is full of doctors and only nine lawyers. It is the county seat of Cherokee county, one of the new counties of the state.

Among the doctors is our home made boy, Dr. Ben Lee Allen, of Fruit Hill, who has entered into active practice of his profession...

And Union county people. The sheriff of the county is a Union raised boy. The Senator and leading lawyer is also from Union.

F. W. P. BUTLER.

JOHNSTON.

Hon John K. Tompkins' tribute to his mother's memory was tender and touching. This little poem "Reveries" was published in the Mobile Register...

Quite a large party of our young people enjoyed a moon light ride on Friday evening. Many of them were horseback. A number of our Masons attended the lodge meeting and dinner at Calvary on last Saturday...

Miss Edith Coleman entertained her friends with a delightful soiree. Miss Sallie Sawyer, in honor of her visitors, entertained her friends with various games, dainty refreshments...

CLARK'S HILL.

The extreme heat of the past few days has made cotton ripen very fast, so that now on every hand may be seen the "pickaniny" and the "fleecy staple" hand in hand...

Messrs. W. O. and R. L. Scott, the two bright sons of our neighbor, Mr. R. H. Scott, left for Clemson college, where the former will resume his studies...

Mrs. M. O. Lauer has been with her sister, Mrs. Meriwether, for a few days visit. Tho' she is almost an invalid, she is a regular sunbeam...

"Fairlawn," the hospitable home of Mrs. Eugenia Middleton, has been full of visitors for the past week. Among them we note Mrs. J. R. Atkinson and three children...
