RAMSEY & JONES.

MORE RIOTS.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed.

RAMSEY & JONES.

TRAGEDY AVERTED.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved" writes Mrs W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and our darling was saved."

RAMSEY & JONES.

Does not your office or home need a new desk or book case?

RAMSEY & JONES.

Sixteen to One.

At one time on our streets last Saturday we saw sixteen bales of cotton and one load of hay. We trust that this is not a true index to the proportion of the cotton and hay crops of our county.

Cotton Platform Erected.

A commodious platform has been erected near the railroad track opposite the Crim property. This is for cotton and other heavy freight.

Good Order Prevails.

Some towns are complaining of the sidewalks being by the side of the road on Saturday afternoons. Be it said to the credit of our city fathers and efficient marshals that no such complaint can be made in Edgefield.

Shade Trees Needed.

To some it may seem untimely to agitate the shade tree question, for none can be transplanted in the summer. However, to agitate the subject while we can see and feel the need of more trees.

Largest Electric Locomotive.

Mr. Edward Anderson, of Schenectady, N. Y., at whose home his mother and sister, Mrs. E. B. Anderson and Miss Julia, are visiting, and who is also a brother of Messrs W. L. Dunovant, George F. Mims, and Mr. Buist Anderson, is one of the foremost inventors and electricians of this day.

MORPHINE.

Can Morphine and Other Drug Habits Be Cured?

It has been long contended by physicians that there is no cure for the drug habit. This is true so far as the rank and file of the medical profession is concerned.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths. There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because it deceives the life. Many sudden deaths are caused by it--heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.
