WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 23, 1903

The ADVERTISER is issued this week all home print, the entire paper being printed in this office.

Concordia Lodge invites every Mason in the county to participate in the ceremonies incident to laying the corner stone of the college building on Wednesday next.

Court of General Sessions convened at Lexington on Monday with Hon. F. B. Gary, of Abbeville, as presiding judge.

Show us a town that is not concerned about the education of the present and unborn generations and we will show you a town that is inhabited by do-nothing, good-for-nothing people.

Recently a London paper offered a prize for the best definition of "money." The prize was awarded the sender of the following true definition: "An article which may be used as an universal passport to everywhere except heaven, and as an universal provider of everything except happiness."

We salute the Baptist churches of Johnston and Ridge Spring. At the recent Ridge association these two churches voluntarily agreed to contribute to the support of a foreign missionary to the amount of $500.

The one night corn and bun ion cures will now be placed upon the bargain counter at half price, Dame Fashion having decreed that small feet are no longer fashionable.

When a man and woman are willing and anxious that their souls shall have a single thought and their hearts beat as one the "world, flesh and the devil," not to mention parents, can't keep them from getting married.

Who said that a school would not help a town? Since it has been definitely known that the college will be permanently located in Edgefield more property has changed hands at fair prices than during the preceding five years.

The Augusta Chronicle has with one fell swoop made a high dive into the half a hundred low dives of Augusta that are veritable hot-beds of vice and crime.

A large colony of French-Canadians, who are a thrifty and sturdy people and will make excellent citizens, will soon settle near Summerville, S. C.

ACCOMMODATING EYES AND EARS.

Some people have eyes and see not, while others have ears and hear not. Frequently individuals who are known to be eye witnesses to fist-cuffs and other personal encounters go straightway and swear that they know nothing of the affair.

NATIONAL DEPOSITORIES.

The South day-by-day is becoming a more potent factor in national and international affairs. In former years it has been the policy of the Republican administration to keep the government funds in the national banks throughout the north.

INEXPRESSIBLY SAD.

A picture sad enough to make the heart of a strong man sink within him and bring tears to the eyes of angels, could be seen upon the streets Saturday last.

SCHOOL BOOKS.

We are headquarters for all School Books used in the public school and at the S. C. C. I. Our prices are right.

County Treasurer's Notice.

County Treasurer's office. Edgefield, S. C., Sept. 22, 1903. The tax books will be open for collecting State, County and School taxes for 1903 from Oct. 15, 1903, to March 1, 1904.

JOHNSTON.

Miss Louella Norris has a position as billing clerk at the freight depot here. Mr. F. T. Richardson came over from Augusta, and will go to Birmingham on Wednesday.

Charming Miss Hortense Landrum has returned from a protracted visit to Anderson, to the delight of her many friends. The Baptist Association which convened at Dry Creek church, notwithstanding the rain was a grand success.

crease, being $638.00, last year it was $361.00. This was greeted with such enthusiasm that on motion the congregation rose and sang "Praise God from whom all blessings flow."
