A Painful Accident

It was with deep regret that our community received the intelligence of an accident which happened to Mrs. M. N. Holstein, of Moneta, O., Friday last, while walking on a newly scoured floor she slipped and fell, fracturing her left hip.

Two Good Reasons. While the writer was discussing the cotton outlook several days ago with Mr. J. W. Miller, who resides near Trenton, Tenn., whom there is no more successful planter in the county, the latter stated that in his opinion, the south will never again produce a crop of cotton sufficiently large to cause the price to decline much below what it is bringing at present.

Order and System. In accomplishing a given piece of work in a given time nothing is more telling than order and system. This is clearly demonstrated in the erection of the college building.

Mr. Oliver Dobson, Jr., who is achieving success in Augusta in the insurance business, has been at his father's bedside for several days.

Farmers are not dismayed by the partial failure of the grain crop this year. They are going right ahead sowing large quantities.

Dr. A. H. Corley and J. S. Byrd returned to Atlanta on Monday where they will resume their studies at the Atlanta Dental College.

Mr. J. B. Murphy and Miss Kate Tompkins visited Miss Julia Tompkins on Sunday last at the home of Hon. W. A. Strom on Boles mountain.

If you have any pictures that need framing you can have them beautifully and cheaply framed by Mr. W. H. Turner at 822 Broad Street, Augusta, Ga.

The roads of the county, in the main, are in good condition. Would that this could be said of them during the seasons of heaviest hauling—winter and spring.

In every walk of life the unselfish people are the happiest—those who forget themselves. The dissatisfied person is the one who seeks solely his own happiness.

Read the advertisements in the Advertiser closely every week and you will know where to go to find the greatest bargains in fall and winter goods.

The Southern has erected a coal platform near where the depot was burned. Wonder when they will turn their attention toward the erection of a new depot?

There is absolutely no top crop and but little bottom crop of cotton this year. Already farmers in the vicinity of Edgefield are plowing up cotton stalks and sowing oats.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Mission and Aid Society will be held at the Baptist church on Friday afternoon at four o'clock. The meeting will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. C. E. Burt.

Capt. S. M. Rice has succeeded in procuring two brand new coaches for his train. Our people will rise on masses and call him blessed if he will work his "rabbit foot" on the Southern's officials and get us a brand new depot, too.

Treasurer Williams, than whom no county in the state has a more honest, obliging and competent official, will be in his office in the Parker building bright and early on Thursday morning for the purpose of collecting taxes. Who'll be the first to pay up?

After being kept in doors for nearly a year Miss Eliza Youngblood is able to attend church again, and nothing else affords her such genuine pleasure. Her friends share with her the joy that comes with restored health.

Mr. Robert Ranson, the government official who weighs the loaded cars at the quarry, has hoisted a four-by-eight feet United States regulation flag over the works. At a great distance the "stars and stripes" can be seen unfurled to the breeze.

The work upon the college building is progressing very satisfactorily and should no untoward circumstance retard the progress all brick work will be completed and the roof put on by the last of this month. It will require some time to install the heating plant under the contract has been let and it should, and doubtless is, receiving due attention.

TOWN TOPICS

Timely, Tersely, Truly Told To The Thinking Thousands

Always put your best foot foremost if you want to get there with both feet. Rev. B. D. Thames has accepted the call to serve Republican church as pastor next year.

Who could improve upon the beautiful autumn weather that we have been having. Hon. W. A. Strom and Mr. E. C. Winn made a business trip to Augusta on Thursday last.

Mrs. Marie May leaves on Thursday to spend a fortnight in Augusta with her sister, Mrs. W. J. Miller. Assistant Cashier W. Holloway Harling spent Sunday last with his mother at the home of his childhood.

Miss Kellah Farr returned from Beech Island on Monday accompanied by Mrs. Warren Fair and her bright little babe. Some women always have a place for everything and put it there—then proceed to forget the location of the place.

Mrs. Orlando Sheppard, accompanied by Miss Fannie Sheppard, visited relatives at Johnston on Saturday. A man has no right to complain of his wife's military bill as long as his cigar and tobacco bill is five times as great.

Judge J. D. Allen got a nice ass from the noise and din of our city by spending Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Kizard. Mrs. Dr. J. G. Tompkins turned on Saturday last after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Kate Dozier Duncan, of Darwell.

Mrs. W. A. Strom, on learning of the illness of her father, Mr. O. L. Dobson, came down and spent several days with him last week. Mr. Oliver Dobson, Jr., who is achieving success in Augusta in the insurance business, has been at his father's bedside for several days.

Why Famine a Slave When You Can Be Cured at Home.

The Advertiser is turning out some up-to-date job work. Send us your orders for all kinds of printing.

Mr. J. W. Levy has one of the largest stocks of clothing to be found in Augusta. And buying only from reliable manufacturers he has built an enduring reputation.

Mrs. Beatregard Timmons has steadily improved since her stay at the hospital in Charlotte, but having come home before the course of treatment had been completed she returned on Monday last to Charlotte where she will remain for nearly a month.

Several days ago a farmer of Laurens county offered his two sons, aged 13 and 11, a reward if they would pick together, 500 pounds of cotton in a day. When night came the two youngsters had 533. Are there any Edgefield boys with such a record?

W. E. Lynch, Esq., has resumed his law practice in Edgefield. His office can be found in the building of the Bank of Edgefield on the right of the hall, over the store of Messrs. Dorn & Mims. Mr. Calhoun is lending money on farm property on very easy terms. Read his card which appears elsewhere in our columns.

The Odd Fellows, not only in Edgefield but all over the state, are awaiting with a great deal of interest the decision of the committee in charge of receiving bids for the location of the orphanage that is soon to be founded by the Grand Lodge of this state. The committee will meet in Columbia on to-morrow and it is probable that its decision will be announced very soon thereafter.

Mr. O. L. Dobson, who resides in the eastern suburbs of our town, has been declining health for many months. On Tuesday of last week he was stricken with paralysis—being the second stroke that he has received—which has caused total paralysis of his right side. We regret to state that up to this writing his condition has not improved any.

The last window of the Penn Drug Store is piled with beautiful Crepe Paper of every color of the rainbow. Take a peep at it as you pass. There is nothing more beautiful for home decoration of every kind than this beautiful paper. The quality is excellent yet the price is only 10 cents per roll or 3 for 25 cents. Beautify your home with it. The cost will be but a trifle.

The editor of an exchange says: "Let the young man about town, out of a job, try a year on the farm. Plowing behind a mule will give him a new constitution, take the kinks out of his head, the frogs out of his throat, the gas off his stomach, the weakness out of his legs, the corns off his toes, and give him a good appetite, an honest living and a sight of heaven." Are there any in Edgefield who would like to try it?

The Advertiser, like every other paper, gets things mixed sometimes but not so badly as an Arkansas printer who, in making up the forms in a hurry the other day, got a marriage notice and groom's address mixed, reading as follows: "John Brown and Ida Gray were united in holy sacrament by the quart or barrel. Mr. Brown is a well known young cod fish at 10-cent per pound, while the bride, Miss Gray, has some nice pigs feet which will be sold cheaper than any in town."

The beautiful and hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ozuts presented on Friday evening last a scene of brilliancy and gaiety, with good cheer, mirth and merriment abounding. The occasion was a tea and reception in honor of Miss Lucy Watson, daughter of Col. R. B. Watson and cousin of the charming hostess. After the delightful repast was served very novel and amusing games were engaged in, the most unique being that of guessing advertisements. In this contest Misses Hattie Newson and Jamie Carville tied and cut for the first prize, a beautiful box of Huxley's candy, the former winning. The baby prize, a huge stick of streaked, striped candy three yards long, was won by Miss Kate Sheppard. All present were perfectly charmed with the evening's entertainment.
