

THE OLD FOLKS AT HOME

Are Never Without Peruna in the House for Catarrhal Diseases.

MR. AND MRS. J. O. ATKINSON, INDEPENDENCE, MO.

UNDER date of January 10, 1897, Dr. Hartman received the following letter: "My wife had been suffering from a catarrh of the bladder for the past 25 years. Her case had baffled the skill of some of the most noted physicians. One of her worst troubles was chronic constipation of several years' standing. "She also was passing through that most critical period in the life of a woman—change of life. In June, 1895, I wrote to you about her case. You advised a course of Peruna and Manalin, which we at once commenced, and have since it completely cured her. She firmly believes that she would have been dead only for these wonderful remedies. "About the same time I wrote you about my own case of catarrh, which had been of 25 years' standing. At times I was almost past going. I commenced to use Peruna according to your instructions, and continued its use for about a year, and it has completely cured me. "Your remedies do all that you claim for them, and even more. Catarrh cannot exist where Peruna is taken according to directions. Success to you and your remedies." John O. Atkinson, Independence, Mo.

In a letter dated January 1, 1900, Mr. Atkinson says, after five years' experience with Peruna:

"I have ever continued to speak a good word for Peruna. In my rounds as a traveling man I am a walking advertisement for Peruna and have induced many people during the past year to use Peruna with the most satisfactory results. I am still cured of catarrh." John O. Atkinson, Independence, Mo.

When old age comes on catarrhal diseases come also. Systemic catarrh is almost universal in old people. This explains why Peruna has become so indispensable to old people. Peruna is the only remedy yet devised that meets these cases exactly. Such cases cannot be treated locally; nothing but an effective systemic remedy could cure them. This is exactly what Peruna is. If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis. Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH
Youth Owe Life to Fellow Workman's Presence of Mind.
A new tenement of houses in Edinburgh, now in course of erection, was the scene the other day of a remarkable incident. The building looked as if completed, but the plumbers were busily engaged touching up the roofs and gutters at the top of the house. An apprentice was working lower down, at the channel of the eaves of the house, was another plumber hammering away and whistling the while, when the apprentice slipped his hold, and sliding headlong down the slates, looked as if he was to be dashed to pieces among the refuse some fifty feet below. Passersby involuntarily shuddered. Fortunately, however, he came right in the direction of his fellow-workman on the edge of the slates, but that individual hammering away did not notice anything amiss till the young man was just on the brink of the house. Being unable at the instant to clutch the lead with his hands, he plunged his head forward and grabbed him by the trousers-leg with his teeth. It was only by a few seconds that the apprentice was thus suspended, hanging as he was suspended bodily over the house, but even the shock might have killed a stronger man.

Remedied.
Women have a resourcefulness that men can never hope to attain. A young lady named Kate was married the other day. When on her honeymoon she had occasion to make some purchases in a shop, and ordered the goods to be sent to her at the Royal Hotel. But in an absent-minded moment she gave her maiden name to the shopkeeper. She had scarcely reached the door, however, when she noted her mistake. With admirable wit she stepped back, and said to the shopman: "Oh, by the way, send that package to Miss Kate, care of Mrs. Royal Hotel," and she swept out of the shop as if she had been married fifteen years—London Tit-Bits.

The Dawn of Love.
Love has come to me on the golden wings of a morning. Coming as the day comes, with roses in her hair; With her lovely locks all the dewy fields Diademed of sunlight, and garmented with air. Very fair is she—could I tell how fair her cheeks are clothed with light, I could tell the wonders of night, and dawn and day. The mystery of dreams, and the spell of the night, and the old immortal story. Come with air of Eden, and pure and perfect still. —R. G. T. Coventry.

EIGHT YEARS OF TORTURE.
No suffering more keen than kidney suffering. Sick kidneys make bad blood; cause weak, stiff and aching backs; cause blind, sick and dizzy headaches; lack of appetite and loss of sleep; keep you all tired out and spoil digestion. To have perfect health you must cure the kidneys. Read how one man was cured by Doan's Kidney Pills after eight years of torture. Henry Seale, of Pittsburg, N. Y., writes: "I suffered constant agony from kidney complaint. I endured the worst torture from gravel and the kidney secretions were excessive and contained sediment like brick dust. I had to get out of bed from ten to twenty times a night and the loss of sleep wore me out. Indigestion came on, and the distress after eating was terrible. Doan's Kidney Pills effected a complete and lasting cure, and after the symptoms of kidney trouble were gone my stomach began to work as it should. This lasting cure, especially in a person of my age, proves the great value of Doan's Kidney Pills more convincingly than could any words of mine." Doan's Kidney Pills sold by all druggists, price, 50 cents per box, or mailed on receipt of price by Post-Office Order, Buffalo, N. Y. Write for free trial.

A PENSION RULING.

A Scheme to Reduce the Expenses of the Department

REGULAR RATES ARE INSTITUTED

It is Claimed the Order Will Save the Government at Least $300,000 a Year.

A Wednesday special from Washington says: Commissioner of Pensions Ware, with the approval of Secretary Hitchcock, promulgated the most important pension ruling that has been issued in a long time. It directs that beginning April 13, next, if there is no contrary evidence and all other legal requirements have been met, claimants for pensions under the general act of June 27, 1890, who are over 62 years old shall be constituted as disabled one-half in ability to perform manual labor and shall be entitled to $5 per month; over 66 years, $8; over 68 years, $10, and over 70 years, $12. The usual allowances at higher rates continuing for disabilities other than age. This order will not be retroactive. Commissioner Ware just before leaving for a trip South for his health said the order would save both the old soldiers and the government a great deal of money and time. He said it was based on the Mexican war pension legislation of 1887, approved by President Cleveland, which placed all the Mexican war veterans on the pension roll 29 years after the close of the war. At the expiration of service a Mexican war soldier was entitled to a pension at 62 years, and no other requisite for granting a pension should exist except age, that to soldiers of the civil war who fought justly more and longer, at least a good rule ought to apply.

"The order could not have been issued earlier because it is only now that the 39 years fixed by the congressional limit has been reached. The civil war nine years would expire on the 13th of next month." Mr. Ware said the order would save the government at least $300,000 a year. He was not able to say what expense the bill would entail in the shape of additional payments. The extent to which it will augment the necessity for further appropriations cannot be told. It will, without doubt, increase the payments to some extent, but no one is able to fix the amount. The bureau has not considered this as the proper element of consideration. I do not think, however, that the increased expense in the long run will be very noticeable, because the death rate is always to be considered, and there is also to be considered the fact that the ones to whom we give the pension without proof other than their age, would have proved themselves anyhow, under former circumstances, as entitled to the pension by reason of their disabilities.

More Refugees Arrive.
New York, Special.—The Hamburg-American liner Blutch, which arrived here, brought 1,765 teenage passengers, the majority of whom were refugees from Russia who fled the country to avoid serving in the army. Many of them gave accounts of their escape across the Russian frontier similar to those related by the men who came last week on the Graf Waldersee. Some of them were camped for two weeks near the frontier waiting for a chance to get away, one of them saying that his party, consisting of 127, waited twelve days in a thicket a short distance from the line while negotiations were in progress with the customs guards to let them cross the frontier. Another said that his party, of twenty-two men, waited for four days in the hay and straw stacks of the frontier post, where they eventually crossed into Prussia. It was said that there are thousands along the frontier waiting for a chance to get across without passports.

Mystery As to Whereabouts.
Tokio, By Cable.—Tokio is undecided regarding the naval plans and movements of the Russians, and is in doubt whether the remnant of their fleet is still at Port Arthur or is en route to Vladivostok. Late Wednesday afternoon a telegram reached the Navy Department saying that seven Russian ships have been reported as passing Port Lazareff. The report was not circumstantial. It did not give the character of the ships or the direction in which they were sailing. It is anticipated that the Japanese, by their activity, will speedily determine the whereabouts and intentions of the Russians.

Cap't. Ivko! Shot.
St. Petersburg, By Cable.—Captain Ivko! of the Manchurian commissariat service, has been summarily court-martialed and shot, for acting as a spy in the pay of the Japanese. When arrested on suspicion of espionage, documents found in Ivko!'s possession led no doubt of the charges that he had long been revealing military secrets to the Japanese. The tragic story became public through a simple announcement in the army organ that Ivko! had been excluded from the service.

E'op'd With His Wife's Sister.
Newbury, Special.—Fred Dominick of Gary's Lane, this county, and son of Mr. Pres Dominick of this city, disappeared Monday of last week, having, it is said, left with the sister of his wife. It was not known until Saturday that he had taken the girl with him, as her parents thought she was spending the week with an uncle in the neighborhood. Dominick left behind a wife and two small children. Until the elopement no intimacy between Dominick and the girl, who is just 16 years old, was suspected. He was escorted as far as Ping Yang by a band from the mines. They were unaccompanied. Near Anju they met two small groups of Comanches. During the party's stay at Ping Yang the Japanese officials requested them to wear badges bearing the American colors, in order that they may be allowed to leave and enter the town freely. The party was stopped five times by Japanese soldiers, of whom the party saw great numbers along the road to the coast. The Japanese treated them very courteously.

Cats Kill Intruding Snake.
A native woman living in Old Cairo, Egypt, was entering her house the other day when she got her great terror she perceived a snake of formidable dimensions, which had taken possession of the hearth during the owner's absence. The woman fled, leaving the door open. Her cat then appeared on the scene, entered, saw the cobra, put up its back and tail, spat and otherwise manifested its hostility, and in turn went out. A few minutes afterward it returned with a second cat. After a similar exhibition both went out and returned with a third, and similarly went away, returning finally with a fourth. Considering that sufficient to kill the snake, the four then fell on the reptile, and after a short but fierce struggle the latter was literally torn to pieces.

It takes bravery to face the city of Inconspicuity. So, it.

PUBLIC SCHOOL LIBRARIES

Rules and Regulations Governing Their Establishment.

The State board of education has passed the following rules and regulations governing the libraries in the public schools of the State to be established in accordance with the recent act of the legislature. It shall be the duty of the board of trustees to provide a substantial bookcase before books are secured, and to require the same to be locked except when in actual use. The county superintendent and teachers shall give aid and advice to the trustees in selecting and ordering the library from the list adopted by the State board of education. The teacher shall be librarian during the school term; and the clerk of the board of trustees or some responsible person designated by the board shall be librarian during the vacation. The library may be moved from the school house during vacation by order of the board of trustees. The librarian shall properly label each volume, giving the number of the book, the name of the school, the name of the county; and shall catalogue the books, showing number, title and cost of each book. The librarian shall keep a record of the name of each borrower and shall also record the number and title of each book loaned, together with dates on which the book was returned. A child attending school shall be entitled to the privileges of the library, but no person shall be allowed to take two books at one time when other children are unprovided.

Persons living in the community, having connection with the school, may take advantage of the library by paying a fee of 50 cents annually in advance. No person shall have the right to loan books outside of his own household, under penalty of 10 cents for each violation. No person shall keep the book longer than two weeks under penalty of 1 cent a day for each day he may so retain it, and only one renewal shall be allowed. The librarian shall designate such books as may be of constant use in the school, as supplementary or reference books, and these shall not be removed from the school during the session. A person returning a book to the library shall be held responsible for any damage, if any, has been sustained by it; and shall charge and collect the amount of fine accordingly. If a book is lost, it shall be paid for in full; and any one refusing to pay a fine hereby forfeits the use of the library. All lost books and other such moneys shall be turned over to the trustees and shall be devoted to the maintenance and improvement of the library. It shall be the duty of the librarian to collect all the books at the close of the session, and to make a report to the trustees and to the county superintendent of education. The report to the county superintendent shall contain the following: The number of volumes purchased during the year. The number of volumes received by gift during the year. The number of volumes loaned during the year (counting each volume once each time it is loaned). The amount of fines, fees, etc., received during the year. Total number of volumes in the library. Total value of books and bookcases.

Want State Constable.
Lancaster, Special.—Sheriff John A. Hunter says that the best of the county of whiskey selling, and that he would be glad if he could always apprehend the violators of the law, but that he cannot neglect his duty. He is perfectly willing to give his spare time to looking after the violations of this as well as all other laws. He says that if a good, active man was appointed State Constable in this county, he would be run out to look after the bill of exchange business, and many other violations of the law would cease.

Palmetto Briefs.
In court at Conway Judge Watts granted bail to W. P. Nelson, charged with complicity in poisoning Sam White, in the sum of $500. White's wife is still in jail, and the voodoo doctor who is wanted is still at large. An autopsy was held and the contents of White's stomach were sent to Clemson for analysis. The case will not be tried at the present term of court. Justice Woods Friday reversed the decision of the circuit court in the case of John B. Moore, Sr., against the Catawba Power Co., of Rock Hill, for damages received from an explosion which occurred at the works last May. Mr. Moore brought suit for $75,000 on the ground of gross negligence and carelessness, alleging that the machinery for the blast was deficient furnished to and for the said work a battery for the purpose of exploding the blast, which battery was imperfect and unsafe. The Seaboard Air Line has let the contract for the erection of a $25,000 or $30,000 passenger depot station in Columbia. A little son of J. A. Campbell, superintendent of the Greenwood Mills, had the misfortune to have one of his legs so mangled that it had to be amputated, while riding on some cars in the Seaboard Air Line yards Friday.

News in Notes.
Senator Tillman's throat trouble has practically disappeared and he has recovered so greatly from his attack of the grippe that it is expected he will leave Washington for the South not later than the end of the week. Chief Justice Clark, of the North Carolina Supreme Court, on Tuesday found V. B. McFay over to carry on a $2,000 justified bond for conspiracy in the A. & N. C. Railroad receivership matter.

Carnegie Library for Winthrop.
Rock Hill, S. C., Special.—President D. B. Johnson of Winthrop College, has been notified by Andrew Carnegie that he would give $20,000 for a school library on Winthrop campus. No definite plans have been made for the site, or in fact, any of the details, but attention has always been paid the library in this institution, and it is now one of the best and most complete in the State, and so the new building will give a prominent place, and it is now an assured thing.

NEWSPAPER CLEANINGS.
Canada is talking of changing the name of Hudson Bay to Canadian Sea. England last year imported $10,000,000 worth of automobiles and exported only $1,700,000 worth. The British Board of Trade has found that the life of the average seaman is twenty-eight years. The Turkish Government has arranged for a loan of $200,000 Turkish through the Ottoman Bank. The first cargo of benzine ever imported to the United States was recently received at Philadelphia, Pa. It is estimated that there are between 15,000 and 20,000 boys who sell newspapers in the streets of New York. The Auditorium Theatre, in Chicago, Ill., was allowed by the Fire Commissioners to reopen, using the whole stage.

PROMINENT PEOPLE.
Secretary of War Taft will deliver Memorial Day address at Topeka, Kan. Mr. Henri Cordier has been elected President of the Paris Geographical Society. The Sultan of Johore is visiting Europe for the first time. The late Sultan died while on a visit to England nine years ago. A new county in Kentucky, made from parts of Carter, Elliott and Lewis counties, is to be named in honor of Governor Beckham. Vice-Admiral Sir Gerald Noel, who commands the British fleet in Chinese waters, has had more thrilling experiences than any other officer in the British Navy. Heinrich Vogel, a well-known German portrait painter, has left his whole property valued at $250,000, for the founding of a charitable institution for artists. Rev. B. F. Beebe, who has been preaching on Long Island for half a century, is about to retire from his pastoral labors and devote the rest of his life to farming. The five-year-old son of Sonang Pao King, the Chinese Ambassador in Paris, speaks French as well as Chinese, fluent, and has already memorized 2,500 of the characters of the Chinese script. King Leopold of Belgium is, according to a German journalist, "the American among the monarchs of Europe." He carefully notes the indications of the rulers on bigger thrones, with the sharp eyes of a shrewd observer. Elihu Root, former Secretary of War, in spite of the temptation of automobiles, used only horses during his official career. The War Department does not own an automobile, and in that respect differs from most of the other departments.

WORLD'S FAIR TOPICS.
There are 147,250 panes of glass, eighteen by twenty-three inches, in the Palace of Agriculture at the World's Fair. Seven thousand insect feet, or nearly a mile and a half of platforms four feet high, are being built for the unloading of exhibits at the World's Fair. Twelve thousand carloads of exhibits are expected by the director of exhibits of the World's Fair. At the Columbian Exposition, at Chicago, 8,000 carloads were received. Night has been turned into day in all of the large exhibit palaces at the World's Fair. Numerous electric arc lights have been put in place and scores of workmen are busy night as well as day in installing the exhibits. Two hundred of Uncle Sam's marines, who have been on duty at Panama, are going to the World's Fair to give exhibition drills. The popularity of this branch of the service is increasing with young men who want to be cosmopolitans. The Belgian Building at the World's Fair, one of the largest and handsomest in the foreign section, is remarkable in that the walls are not broken by a single window. The large structure is well lighted by immense skylights seventy-five feet above the floor. A pack train of twenty-five horses, with all of their accoutrements, will be one of the novelties at the World's Fair. The unusual spectacle will be seen by citizens of Wyoming to many Wyomingites. The horses will all be equipped as if ready to start on the trail. A San Diego (Cal.) woman will exhibit at the World's Fair butter made in 1858. The butter was placed in the spring house in that year and it disappeared in the quicksand. It was recently recovered and was found to be in a remarkably good state of preservation.

Swiss watches, according to a report just published, are becoming popular in China. Those with fantastic designs on the face find the most ready sale.

This British schoolboy may not be so badly posted at first thought as he might be supposed to be. At an examination in one of the national institutions of that country he said: "In the United States people are put to death by execution."

Miss Carnegie's Hairy Lion.
Little Miss Carnegie, who asked that her father give her "the largest and hairiest lion in the world"—which he did, sparing no expense until he had obtained the finest leonine specimen in existence—does not go so often as she did to the Bronx Zoo to look at her protegee. He frightens her, as he does many of the grown-ups, despite the fact that he is caged safely behind steel bars, which the strength of many lions, even if united in bulging effort, could not bend or break. But Miss Carnegie's lion is so superb in his strength and his dignity, and so powerful and in his deep-voiced roar, that it is no wonder he strikes terror to the hearts of the timid, safeguarded as he is. Three schoolgirls in short dresses retreated to the opposite side of the lion house yesterday when the tawny monarch, who had been pacing up and down for an hour, paused, shook his mane, drew in his lips over the white fangs and began to speak. It was a low, guttural rumble at first, and rose gradually to a roar of such depth and volume that even the bars of the cages vibrated—and they are not Common Steel, at that.—New York

An Incongruous Dog.
The intelligence of the dog suffered somewhat by an Athens narrative in which it is told that a dog owned by F. Holcomb recently engaged with a rattler on the low grounds near the town, and was severely bitten. Mr. Holcomb was familiar with the formula for snake bites. He had some of the medicine on hand, consisting of whiskey and quinine mixed in quantities to suit. Opening the dog's jaws he turned a liberal dose down him. Two or three days elapsed during which the animal was unable to walk straight, yet he seemed not to have any pain, and in fact appeared to enjoy himself. But at last he was sicker again. One would naturally think that having been bitten once he would have fought shy of the swamp afterward, but the moment he was able to navigate he was back among the boys again watching for more snakes. This is why he seems unintelligent.—Detroit (Mich.) Tribune.

A friendly druggist advised him to get a bottle of Wine of Cardui for me to try, and he did so. I began to improve in a few days and my recovery was very rapid.
