

NOTICE.

The County Board of Commissioners of Edgefield County will elect a cotton weaver for the town of Edgefield for the ensuing year, beginning with the 15th day of August next, on Monday, July 18, 1904. Desiring to consult the wishes of the parties interested in the selection of the person to act as cotton weaver, the said Board has decided to receive the ballots of all qualified electors, who reside in Edgefield County and who are growers of cotton and whose cotton market is the town of Edgefield, for the person that they desire to receive the election as cotton weaver, and the said Board will be elected by the result of the said election in their selection of a man for the said position. Persons desiring the position of cotton weaver can make it known to the public by publication or otherwise, and are required to file their application with the Clerk of the Board on or before Monday, July 18, 1904, at 10 o'clock A. M. The election will be held in the office of the County Board of Commissioners, and all persons entitled to vote are requested to appear in person and cast their ballots before two o'clock P. M., at which time the ballots will be counted and the election had.

The successful applicant will be expected to qualify and give bond for the discharge of his duties on the day of election.

(Signed) D. P. SELE, R. C. GRIFFIN, A. A. EDMUNDS, County Board of Commissioners of Edgefield County, S. C.

Attest: J. A. LOTT, Clerk. (Official Seal.)

Cotton Weaver.

I hereby announce that I am a candidate for the position of cotton weaver for the town of Edgefield and will abide the decision of the County Commissioners. J. W. CHEATAAM

I announce myself as candidate for the important position of cotton weaver for the town of Edgefield and if elected will try to perform the duties of said position to the best of my ability as I have always done. M. A. TAYLOR.

I hereby announce that I am a candidate for the position of cotton weaver for the town of Edgefield and will abide the decision of the County Board of Commissioners. HENRY C. WATSON.

Examination for Scholarships.

The county board of Education held the examinations on Saturday last for the Winthrop and Clemson scholarships. The following very bright young ladies were examined for the former: Misses Addie Bell, Nellie Hill, Minnie Ryan, Lizzie Middleton, Lizzie Rich, Marie Sawyer, Fannie Cochran, Eva Wates, Jennie Biggs, Edith Bruce, Sadie Meriwether and Lizzie Burch. The application of the latter will be sent in from Spartanburg county.

The Clemson scholarship was competed for by the following young gentlemen: Messrs. Nixon Bunch, R. L. Scott, W. O. Scott, W. H. Scott and Sam Hughes. Strange to say, no one applied for the So. Car. College scholarship, nor was any one examined for the College of Charleston.

County Medical Association. On Saturday last a goodly number of physicians from the different sections of the county met in our town and re-organized the Edgefield Medical Association by electing the following officers: Dr. J. H. Carmichael, president; Dr. J. M. Rushton, vice president; Dr. J. G. Edwards, secretary, and Dr. J. N. Crafton, treasurer. With this strong corps of officers at the helm we predict a very useful and successful future for the association. It is probable that regular monthly meetings will be held at which papers will be read and discussions engaged in that will prove to be very helpful to these professional gentlemen in treating physical ills. The next regular meeting will be held at Edgefield on the first Monday in August and it is the earnest desire of those in attendance upon the initial meeting that all of the physicians in the county come forward on the day above mentioned and enroll their names as members of the association. Every one of the 18 physicians in the county should become members. Lawyers, dentists, bankers, ministers have their conferences and associations—why not the doctors?

Black-Payne.

In the presence of the immediate family a quiet and pretty marriage in early morning was that of Miss Ethel Blanch Payne to Mr. Oscar D. Black at the pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Payne on west Main street at 8 o'clock Thursday. The Rev. J. B. Black of Louisville Ky., brother of the handsome groom, officiated. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was rendered by Mrs. M. T. Turner, a sister of the pretty little bride.

The bride was attended in a tailor suit of black broadcloth, the front of waist showing a sheer white of alternate rows of pin tucks and embroidered bands. A bouquet of maiden hair fern and bride's roses tied with broad white taffeta ribbon was carried.

The bride and groom left on the 9:05 train for Washington and other northern points. After the 20th they will be at home at Richmond, Va., Mr. Black being a traveling salesman for one of the largest grocery firms of that place, and is a very popular young man, and has plucked from Johnston a maiden of the highest type of young womanhood. She is very intellectual, and was society editor of The Monitor.—Johnston Cor. Columbia State.

The Advertiser wishes Mr. and Mrs. Black a long and happy life, and grieves with Johnston over the loss of one of her most accomplished daughters, also sympathizes with Editor Terrell in having his competent and faithful assistant taken from him. Such are the ways of our Cupid.

Death of an Honored Edgefield—Saluda Citizen.

In the death of Hon. W. S. Allen, at Fruit Hill on Wednesday last, Saluda county—and Edgefield, too, for the latter had never relinquished her claim upon him—has lost a representative and very influential citizen. Capt. Scott Allen, too, for the latter had never relinquished her claim upon him—has lost a representative and very influential citizen. Capt. Scott Allen, too, for the latter had never relinquished her claim upon him—has lost a representative and very influential citizen.

Have you seen our fine assortment of Toilet Soap, Extracts, Cologne, Toilet Powder, Tooth Brushes! They are fine and will please. J. M. COBB.

Six candidates—three farmers and three lawyers—are now out for the House of Representatives, the last to announce being Mr. A. G. Broadwater. This gentleman is the only one who hails from the eastern side of our county. Mr. Broadwater says that his opponents have been running for some time and are broken down, and that he has come in on the home stretch and will win the prize. He will announce his platform, which has some good plank in it, from the stump in due time. Mr. Broadwater solicits the support of the people.

If you call upon Dr. Ernest C. Smith and find him long-faced and utterly cast down, don't think that he is brooding over financial troubles, for he has money to burn; don't imagine that professional matters perplex him, for he mastered thoroughly his profession long ago; don't think that he is grieved over the loss of friends, for everybody is his friend—the key to the situation is that Mr. Smith and the baby and the other children are all at Williston for several week's vacation, and the good doctor imagines, indeed feels, that he is friendless and all alone in this world. Says he, "It isn't so, time does not fly."

Having purchased the interest of Mr. E. J. Mims in the firm of Griffin & Mims, I beg to say that I will continue the Fire and Life Insurance business under the firm name of C. A. Griffin & Co. Thanking my friends for past kindnesses and soliciting continuance of the same, I am very truly C. A. GRIFFIN.

Bishop Joseph S. Key, Southern M. E. Church, writes: "We gave Dr. Moffett's 'TEETHINA' (Teething Powder) to our little grandchild with the happiest results. The effects were almost magical, and certainly more satisfactory than from anything we ever used." "TEETHINA" (Teething Powder) counteracts and Overcomes the Effects of the Summer's Heat.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. Ida F. Sheppard, accompanied by Miss Josie, is visiting relatives in Greenville.

Now that a seedless apple is being grown, will not somebody find a way to grow seedless blackberries?

Miss Sallie Parker, the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Parker, is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. G. Talbert, at Parksville.

Miss Addie Ouzts, the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Ouzts, of Johnston, is visiting Miss Ruth Cogburn.

Mr. J. Trapp McManus attended the District Conference at North Augusta last week. Wonder if he kissed the babies in Aiken county, too?

Messrs. M. A. Taylor, J. W. Rea and H. C. Watson announce this week as candidates for the position of cotton weaver, making four applicants for the place.

The executive committees in some of the counties have been considerate of the candidates, pocket books and will not allow "pay" barbecues to be given at campaign meetings.

Capt. John R. Blocker is a thousand times happier than Alton B. Parker, the Democratic nominee—a big, bouncing boy (John R. Jr.) is now a permanent visitor at his home.

The interior of the Farmers Bank is being beautifully painted. As one enters he is impressed with the newness and brightness of everything—wainscoting, walls, ceiling, desk, tables, furniture and fixtures.

Miss Emma Bettis, accompanied by her younger sister, spent Sunday at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Brusson, making the trip from Treuton in her beautiful new trap, the gift of her father.

Mrs. James B. Tompkins will leave on Friday of this week to spend a month with her aunt, Mrs. Lizzie Sullivan, in Rome, Ga. These annual visits are so pleasant, both to hostess and guest, that they are often, to the sorrow of husband and son at home, prolonged beyond the time planned for the stay.

The "coons" and lots of other folks are happy—watermelons are ripe. Quite a number of home-grown melons were sold on the local market on Saturday last, bringing good prices. The continued dry weather has injured the crop and unless frequent showers come the melons will average below the usual size.

We would urge the cotton growers of the county who market their cotton at Edgefield to come forward on Monday next and vote for a public cotton weigher. The best man who offers for the position should be chosen. Come and, by your ballot, aid in selecting the proper person.

A young man just married, sent his wife to order some things for the house. She called for two tins of paralyzed sugar, two tins of condensed milk, a bag of fresh salt, and a pound of desecrated codfish. She declined a bottle of hors-radish, because they did not keep a horse. Then the grocer fainted.

Contractor C. W. Spencer not only knows how to have work properly done but knows how to have it done with dispatch. Under his supervision the walls to the extension of the Edgefield Mercantile Company store are going up with surprising rapidity. Unless some untoward circumstance retards his progress the large, handsome building will be completed in an incredibly short time. In less than thirty days he will break ground for the county office building, the company that was awarded the contract having secured him to superintend the construction. The county will have a building that the tax payers will be proud of.

The young ladies of our town who have voluntarily taken upon themselves the beautifying of the public square and streets have taken up the work in a businesslike manner. They are seizing every opportunity to raise the funds necessary to make the undertaking a success. Despite the inclement weather, they made about $10 on Friday evening last by selling refreshments at "Oakley Park." Encourage these young ladies. If the public highways are made more attractive it will cause the home owners to see the need of improving and beautifying their yards and premises. Thus the beauty of the entire town will be greatly enhanced. The strangers who come within our gates will be more favorably impressed and will go away singing praises of Edgefield.

Card of Thanks. We take this opportunity to extend our heartfelt thanks to our many friends and neighbors, who so kindly came to our assistance, by contributing money and articles necessary for housekeepers, after our house was burned some weeks ago. We hope ere long to build a new house over the ashes of the old, where our kind friends will always be most heartily welcomed. MR. AND MRS. S. B. STROM.

In this issue of the Advertiser appears the announcement of Mr. John O. Scott as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner. Mr. Scott is one of those genial, generous, large-hearted men whom everybody likes and who makes friends wherever he goes. He is in every sense capable of filling the office to which he aspires and will do his full duty if elected.

Mr. H. M. Pemberton, the popular manager of the Kimmel piano exhibit, at the Timmons drug store, is a very courteous and affable gentleman and cordially welcomes the large crowds that daily attend the concerts. Read his large advertisement in this issue in which he announces some unprecedented bargains in pianos.

Mrs. B. B. Jones' many friends were made happy on Thursday last by her return from the hospital in Baltimore. We are pleased to state that she is steadily improving and we trust will very soon be strong again. While en route to Edgefield Mrs. Jones stopped over a day or two with Rev. and Mrs. J. N. Booth, who reside now at Hertford, N. C. It will be remembered that Rev. Mr. Booth served the Baptist church here as pastor for several years early in the nineties.

Dr. Walter Nicholson says that the disease that is prevalent in certain sections, some miles north of Edgefield, is genuine confluent small-pox. At first he thought it was what is commonly known as elephant's itch but is now fully convinced that it is small-pox, and urges the citizens of the infected region to use every means to suppress it.

The Confederate Veterans and the Edgefield Hussars are invited to attend the picnic of The Edgefield Light Dragoons as guests. A formal invitation has been extended to the Captain of the Hussars for the Company. J. R. BLOCKER, For Committee.

If you have an old abandoned well about your farm it would be the part of wisdom to have it filled or securely fenced. A few days ago a valuable mule fell, rear end foremost into an old well forty feet deep near Gaffney. After tugging away for several hours the somewhat disfigured animal was drawn up with a block and tackle. The mule died from the effects of the fall. A little precaution would have saved the owner of the animal about $150.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Tompkins are giving a delightful house party, their guest being five very charming young ladies who were bridesmaids at their marriage. These very bright and vivacious young visitors are Miss Rosa Bryan, of Haywood, N. C., Miss Leah Perry, Mabel Harris, Carlia Harris and Ruth Harris, of Henderson, N. C., the two last named being sisters of Mrs. Tompkins. Mr. and Mrs. Tompkins entertain royally and we know the sojourn in Edgefield of these young ladies will be exceedingly pleasant.

President Bailey has just issued the annual catalogue of the college, sending it out from Paris-mout where he is passing the time until he begins active canvassing for the school. The catalogue is very attractive and comprehensive, being well printed and giving the entire faculty, courses of study for the different classes, and contains much information for those who contemplate entering the school. The pictures of the new building, as well as the other cuts that are given, are very good. It compares well, from every standpoint, with any other catalogue issued in the state.

The Great Picnic. One week from to-morrow is the day set for one of the greatest social events of the year—the Centre Spring picnic. The young people of our town, and of every other community within a radius of fifteen or twenty miles, can scarcely possess themselves in patience till the great day arrives. Capt. John R. Blocker and his lieutenants and his sergeants and his corporals and his privates will be on the ground early to receive their guests. The farmers are well up with their work, and the people generally are longing for a days outing, hence it is probable, very probable, that the attendance this year will be unprecedentedly great. Lay aside business for one day and help to swell the Centre Spring crowd.
