THE BODY GETS ITS LIFE FROM FOOD

Healthy digestion means a sure cure for the body, but stomach troubles arise from carelessness in eating and stomach disorders upset the entire system. Improperly masticated food sours on the stomach, causing distressing pains, belching and nausea. When over-eating is persisted in the stomach becomes weakened and worn out and dyspepsia claims the victim.

The food of the Black-Draught cures dyspepsia. It frees the stomach and bowels of congested matter and gives the stomach new life. The stomach is quickly invigorated and the natural stimulation results in a good appetite, with the power to thoroughly digest food.

You can build up your stomach with this mild and natural remedy. Try Theford's Black-Draught today. You can buy it from your dealer, or if he does not keep it, send the money to The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., and a package will be mailed you.

THEFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

DR. CARR'S SAD END

Prominent Physician Kills Himself in Fit of Despondency

ILL HEALTH THE IMMEDIATE CAUSE

Prominent Durham Physician Puts a Bullet into His Own Head—Gave Intimations of His Intention—Met Death Calmly While at Prayer—A Brother of General Julian S. Carr.

Durham N. C., Special.—All of Durham was horrified early Friday morning when the news spread rapidly over the streets that Dr. A. G. Carr, one of Durham's old and highly honored citizens and one among the best known physicians in the State, had taken his own life. He committed suicide in his elegant home on East Main street at 6:45 o'clock, using a 32-calibre pistol and firing one shot into his brain. The barrel of the pistol was placed in his right ear and the ball reached a vital spot, death following instantaneously.

At the time of the suicide there were but three persons in the house—Dr. Carr, his wife, Mrs. Annie Carr, and the cook. The only son who is now at home, Mr. William Carr, had left but a few minutes before for the Durham Hosiery Mill, where he holds a position. The muffled shot was heard by the cook, who was on the first floor almost immediately under the bathroom, where the tragedy was enacted. She ran up stairs and found Dr. Carr in a small closet, connecting with the bath room, in a kneeling position with blood streaming from his head. She ran back down stairs and told Mrs. Carr and then told the colored man who was at the stable under the house. The latter ran into the bath room and then went to the house of Col. Harper Ervin, just across the street, and told him to come quickly. This he did and just as he ran into the bath room he raised the dead body of the doctor, who he carried to the house of Dr. Ervin, where he was laid out. The doctor had never uttered a word after the leaden messenger of death was fired into his brain. Corner Madry was summoned and examined into the facts surrounding his death, but an inquest was not held, as the body was turned over to the undertaker.

FAILURE OF HEALTH THE CAUSE.

There is no doubt but that falling health and melancholia caused by his physical condition caused him to take the rash step. For three months or more he had been greatly depressed and did not seem like his former self. He was dejected and care-worn. Several times he expressed himself as wishing that the end would come so that he could pass away from his sufferings. No one, however, anticipated that he would take his own life.

The dead man was last seen alive by his son. When Mr. Will Carr started to the hosiery mill about 6:30 o'clock, he saw his father, who was in his night clothes and going towards the bath room.

The position of the dead man when found was such as to leave no doubt but that he knelt in prayer and then fired the fatal shot.

S. A. L. Reorganization.

New York, Special.—The plan to consolidate the different properties of the Seaboard Air Line Railway into a single corporation and to provide additional capital, was made public by the reorganization committee. The committee is composed of Thomas F. Ryan, chairman; James A. Blair, Ernest Thalmann, James H. Dooley, T. Jefferson Coolidge, Jr., C. Sidney Shepard, and S. Davis Warfield. The new plan, as announced is as follows: "The capital of the company is re-arranged. The total authorized stock issues are to aggregate $72,000,000, divided as follows: First preferred 4 per cent. stock authorized $18,000,000, of which only $7,625,000 is to be issued at present; second preferred non-cumulative six per cent. stock, authorized $18,000,000; common stock authorized, $36,000,000."

Steamer Goes Ashore in Fog.

New York, Special.—While feeling her way through the dense fog early Thursday, in an effort to reach this port, the sugar laden steamer Indus, from West India ports, struck Fire Island bar and is now stuck hard and fast. Russian Prisoners Pleaded.

Nagasaki, by Cable.—The Steamers Kagasaki and Kure have arrived here with 1,600 Russian prisoners of war and 50 officers. All the prisoners have been quartered at Inasa, a village near by, where had also been prepared a lodge for General Stoessel, who will arrive next Saturday. The Russian prisoners are allowed much liberty within the bounds of the town, but they are under police escort.

General Stoessel and staff will sail from here for Europe on a French mail steamer, January 16. The Russian prisoners are unfeignedly pleased at the end of the hardship of the siege and the considerate treatment of their victors.

Schooner Beached at Southport to Prevent Sinking.

Wilmington, Special.—The schooner Lizzie E. Dennison, from New York to Jacksonville with a cargo of fertilizer and cement, was towed into Southport January 13, leaking badly after having been buffeted by wind and waves. The condition of the vessel required the constant attention of the crew for two days and nights to prevent her sinking. The crew was exhausted upon arrival at Southport, where the vessel was beached to prevent her filling.

French Cabinet Resigns.

Paris, by Cable.—The ministry of M. Combes, after emerging successfully from its bitter midnight struggle in the Chamber of Deputies has decided to resign. The resignation of the ministry is the result of a vote of no confidence in the field while some portion of it remains, and has signified its intention of resigning. The formal termination of the ministry, after a tempestuous career of three years, only awaits the formal submission of the letters of resignation.

Fifty Goats' Fatal Spree.

Fifty drunken goats caused a great deal of excitement in Old Forge. Some men dumped a quantity of fermented wheat in a vacant lot near where a number of goats were pasturing.

The odor attracted the attention of the goats as being very tempting. They swarmed down the mountain and had a glorious time eating the wheat. The effect on the "butters" proved fatal, as they had eaten so much that they were poisoned. The residents feel the loss severely, as they derived their milk supply from the goats.—Montrose (Pa.) Independent.

Unique Cycling feat.

What is perhaps an unparalleled feat in cycling is reported in a recent Australian mail. A one-legged cyclist has successfully pedaled his way from Rockhampton to Sydney, a distance of about 1,400 miles by road measurement. Not counting delays and stoppages, he did the journey in twenty-eight days on a machine provided with only a single pedal. He achieved over 100 miles on his best day; and on his worst, in bad, rough country, he did not sink below thirty. He is now going to essay the more perilous feat of crossing Australia from Adelaide in the south to Port Darwin in the north, a distance of 2,000 miles, largely uninhabited and waterless.

Getting Rid of Rats.

A farmer tells the Sedalia Capital that he rid his farm of rats in the following manner: "On a very large number of pieces of old shingles, I put about one-half a teaspoonful of molasses, and on that, with my pocket-knife, I scraped a small amount of concentrated lye, and then placed the shingles around under the stable floors and under the cribs. The next morning I found forty dead rats, and the rest vomooed the farm and left for parts unknown. I have cleared many farms of the pests in the same way and have never known it to fail."—Kansas City Journal.

Another club woman, Mrs. Hauke, of Edgerton, Wis., tells how she was cured of irregularities and uterine trouble, terrible pains and backache, by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—A while ago my health began to fall because of female troubles. The doctor did not help me. I remembered that my mother had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on many occasions for irregularities and uterine troubles, and I felt sure that it could not harm me at any rate to give it a trial.

"I was certainly glad to find that within a week I felt much better, the terrible pains in the back and side were beginning to cease, and at the same time my menstruation did not have nearly as serious a time as heretofore, so I continued its use for two months, and at the end of that time I was like a new woman. I really have never felt better to my life, have not had a sick headache since, and weigh 30 pounds more than I ever did, so I unhesitatingly recommend your medicine."

FREAKS OF THE WEATHER.

Warm Wind Makes Entire Change in Climatic Conditions.

It is not generally known that, at certain seasons of the year it is warmer in Greenland than in southern Europe. And this occurs during the long sunless winter of the Polar regions. The cause which leads to it is not unknown in other countries. Thus in Switzerland a warm, dry wind, called the foehn wind, at times blows down from the snow-covered mountains in autumn and winter, and suddenly melts and carries off the snow, drying up the atmosphere.

In the northwestern United States there is a similar wind called the chinook wind. So in Greenland at irregular intervals a warm wind blows down from the snow-covered interior, bringing an extensive thaw in January and February. As a result we have the extraordinary fact that during eight consecutive days in November and December, 1875, it was warmer in Jacksonville, in latitude 30 degrees 20 minutes, than in northern Italy. Unfortunately, another town of Greenland, was, during part of the time, warmer than the south of France.—Montreal Herald.

To Abolish Spectacles.

Optimists believe that Dr. Stephen Smith, surgeon of the eye department of Battersea Park Hospital, Nottingham, England, has discovered a new treatment of the eye which will practically abolish spectacles. It is styled "manipulation of the eye," and is practiced daily, causing no pain and having no injurious effect of any sort. Some patients are cured in a week, and in all cases improvement is rapid.

Thirty patients who had been obliged to wear spectacles for a long time have so far been treated by Dr. Smith, and, with a single exception, all have discarded glasses and can now read, at either long or short distances, as well as people who have never needed assistance.

Takes Children in Pawn.

An Englishman makes an excellent living by receiving children in pawn. The parents of the child are in want of money, perhaps to pay a debt or a fine. Their goods and chattels are practically worthless, and there is nothing upon which they can realize any cash. They accordingly place the child "in pawn"—that is, allow the "pawnbroker" to have the services of the boy or girl for a certain period in return for a sum of money. Of course, the amount paid is nothing near commensurate with the work the child does; but the parents think only of the immediate advance.

How Railroad Men Got Their Engine Off "Dead Center."

A traveling man relates that while riding on the New Orient line between Harper and Anthony a few days ago, one of the side rods of the engine broke, and the other side stopped on a "dead center," so that when the repair was made it was impossible to start the train again. He says: "The engineer, the conductor, and all the passengers took turns going over the thing and trying to devise a way to make it run. Finally a boy came out of the field where he had been plowing to see what was going on. He crawled through the wire fence and sat down on the bank and fanned himself with his straw hat.

"If you'd back that last car up the grade an' let 'er come down kerchunk, that 'ud start 'er," he finally suggested, deliberately.

"The railroad men sniffed contemptuously, but the passengers sided with the boy. Finally the conductor gave orders that the rear car be uncoupled. No less than fifty passengers caught hold and pushed the car up the grade. One at the top of the car was let go. The loose coal gained momentum as it came down the hill, and in spite of the engineer's admonition to let her come down easy, the emergency battering ram crashed into the train with a tremendous thump. The engine was bumped off 'center' all right."—Kansas City Star.

MIGHT HAVE SAVED IT.

A Lot of Trouble From Too Much Starch Food.

A little boy of eight years whose parents did not feed him on the right kind of food, was always nervous and suffered from a weak condition of the stomach and bowels. Finally he was taken down by an appendicitis and after the operation the doctor, knowing that his intestinal digestion was very weak, put him on Grape-Nuts twice a day.

He rapidly recovered and about two months thereafter, his father states, "He has grown to be strong, muscular, and sleeps soundly, weighs 62 pounds, and his whole system is in a fine condition of health." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

It is plain that if he had been put on Grape-Nuts at an earlier period in his life, and kept from the use of foods that he could not digest, he never would have had appendicitis. That disease is caused by undigested food decaying in the stomach and bowels, causing irritation and making for the growth of all kinds of microbes, setting up a diseased condition which is the active cause of appendicitis, and this is more marked with people who do not properly digest white bread.

Grape-Nuts is made of the selected parts of wheat and barley and by the peculiar processes of the cooking at Postum Co. all of the starch is turned into sugar ready for immediate digestion and the more perfect nourishment of all parts of the body, particularly the brain and nerve centers.

"Would you say a flock of fish?" asked a Frenchman.
"No; you would say a shoal of fish," was the American's reply.
"Could you say a flock of oxen?"
"No; a drove of oxen."
"A flock of bees?"
"No; a swarm of bees."
"Really," said the Frenchman, "this is confusing to me."
"I don't wonder that it is," the American returned. "For every different crowd there is a different word of our language. Thus we say a covey of partridges, a bevy of quails, a nip of pheasants, a flight of doves, a brood snipe, a muster of peacocks, a building of grouse, a siege of plovers, a watch of rooks, a stand of plovers, a watch of nightingales, a clattering of hawks, a pack of swine, and so on. In the technical books of sports and hunting you will find that every crowd of birds and of animals has its own special name. These special names well trained sportsmen always use."—New York Press.

THE SOUTHERN MFG. CO., Richmond, Va.

SUFFERED FROM CATARRH OF LUNGS SO COMMON IN WINTER. CURED BY PE-RU-NA.

A COLD ON THE LUNGS THREATENS TO BECOME SERIOUS.

Pe-ru-na Brings Speedy Relief.

Mrs. H. E. Adams, ex-President Palmetto Club, of New Orleans, La., writes from 110 Garfield Court, South Bend, Ind., as follows:

"I am pleased to endorse Peruna, as I took it about a year ago and it soon brought me relief from a cold on my lungs which threatened to be serious.

"The lungs were sore and inflamed, I coughed a couple of hours every night, and I felt that something must be done before my lungs became affected.

"Peruna was suggested by some of my friends who had used it, and acting upon their advice I tried it and found that it was able to bring about a speedy cure. You have my highest endorsement and thanks for the good it did me."

Soaring the Praises of Peruna.

Mrs. Frances Wilson, 32 Nelson St., Clinton, Mass., writes:

"Had you seen me at the time of my illness and now, you would not wonder that I take delight in sounding the praises of Peruna.

"My ailment was a severe cold which attacked the bronchial tubes and lungs.

"I followed your special directions and after using six bottles of Peruna, I was one of my feet again. I think Peruna a wonderful medicine."

KEEP PERUNA IN THE HOUSE.

On a Plain Subject in Plain Language.

The coming winter will cut at least one-half of the women who have catarrh, colds, coughs, pneumonia, or consumption. Thousands of women will lose their lives and tens of thousands will acquire some chronic ailment in which they will never recover.

Unless you take the necessary precautions, the chances are that you (who read this) will be one of the unfortunate ones. Little or no risk need be run if Peruna is kept in the house and at the first appearance of a symptom of catarrh taken as directed on the bottle.

Peruna is a safeguard, a preventive, a specific, a cure for all cases of catarrh, acute and chronic, coughs, colds, consumption, etc.

For free medical advice, address Dr. S. B. Hartman, President of The J. M. Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.
