Mrs. Margaret Brown who has been making a prolonged visit to her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Hart, returned to her home in Spartanburg on Friday last.

The venerable Dr. T. M. Bailey who is greatly beloved in Edgefield has been spending several days at the college with Col. and Mrs. F. N. K. Bailey.

Evangelist W. P. Yarbrough and Rev. J. R. Copeland will begin a revival meeting at McKendree on March the 5th. There will be two services each day, at 11 o'clock a. m. and 7 p. m. Everybody is invited.

W. W. Sheppard, Esq., arrived from Jacksonville on Saturday last and will return to-day accompanied by Mrs. Sheppard. Mr. Sheppard is delighted with Florida and will make his home there permanently. His Edgefield friends wish him a full measure of success in his new field.

All of the entertainments that have previously been given by the Presbyterian ladies were very delightful, and were largely patronized. The one to be at the home of Hon. and Mrs. Wm. P. Calhoun on Friday evening of this week promises to be the most enjoyable ever yet given, and we trust that this spacious mansion will be filled to overflowing.

BOARDERS WANTED: Apply to Miss Mary Buford at the Bennett house opposite the Presbyterian church.

The members of the athletic club realized about $50 from the minstrel that was given in the college auditorium on Friday evening last. A large audience was in attendance and not one went away disappointed. The boys, as was expected of them, gave an excellent entertainment, meriting the many expressions of praise that have been heard about the minstrel.

Rev. C. E. Buris attended the religious conference at Johnson last week, and on Friday he was invited and urged to go to Americus, Ga., and fill the pulpit of Rev. Mr. Neighbor on Sunday. The latter has been one of the leading spirits in the conference and Rev. L. A. Cooper, the pastor of the Johnson church, was especially anxious to have Mr. Neighbor remain through Sunday. Mr. Buris very kindly consented to go to Americus, having previously invited Rev. Mr. Huddley to preach for him on Sunday morning.

Elsewhere in this issue we publish an announcement from Rev. Marvin Auld, the beloved pastor of our Methodist church, to the effect that a series of revival services will be held in his church, beginning the 3rd Sunday in this month. Rev. B. R. Turnipseed of Aiken, will assist in this meeting. This deeply pious and scholarly gentleman visits Edgefield about a year ago and won the hearts and affections of all who heard him preach. The ministers will do their part toward making the meeting a success. Now it remains for the laymen of all the churches to do their full duty.

Mr. W. H. Turner has returned from New York, where he spent more than two weeks ransacking the factories and wholesale houses to get the best of everything for the patrons of the Corner Store. Mr. Turner says that he was amazed at the cheapness of cotton goods. By going early he not only avoided the rush but secured many bargains before the increased demand, which always comes as the season advances, caused prices to rise. The ladies will be greatly surprised by the very low prices that the beautiful spring merchandise will be sold at by the Corner Store.

Let us sell you Cotton Seed Hulls. Large supply just received. EDGEFIELD MERCANTILE CO.

On Sunday morning last Rev. W. T. Huddley preached a very able sermon in our Baptist church, which was literally overflowing with people. He is now pastor of the First Baptist church of High Point, N. C., and came to Edgefield primarily to attend the Golden Wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Mims, who have been very dear friends of Mr. Huddley since the latter served the Edgefield church as pastor twenty-odd years ago. He is very affectionately greeted by his former parishioners whenever he comes to Edgefield.

The ADVERTISER solves the new firm, Messrs. May & Blalock, which has for its senior member Mr. J. H. May, and Mr. P. P. Blalock, Jr., for its junior member. They will deal in groceries, plantation supplies, etc., making a specialty of fancy groceries. These gentlemen went to Charleston last week and purchased large quantities of goods which are now arriving. They will occupy the corner store that was formerly occupied by Messrs. May & May. Both of these gentlemen are not only courteous and obliging but straight-forward, upright and honest men who believe in giving full 16 ounces to the pound, hence they are certain to prosper by building up a business upon a permanent and paying basis. We bespeak for the new firm that large measure of patronage which it deserves.

The highest test of a wagon is nine years wear. The Mitchell Wagon has been used that length of time without repairs right in Edgefield county. Sold by EDGEFIELD MERCANTILE CO.

Death of Mr. John B. Corley. No mortal ever knows how near or remote is the hour of his departure. Often some disease of which the victim knows nothing is destroying some vital organ and suddenly the collapse comes. On Sunday evening last Mr. John B. Corley fell dead at his home in our town, presumably the cause being heart failure. The major portion of Mr. Corley's life was spent on his farm near Monticello, but moved to Edgefield about five years ago. He was a veteran of the Civil war, having shouldered his musket in response to the call of duty and fought bravely throughout the long four years. The deceased is survived by two sons and four daughters. On Monday the remains were carried to Monticello for interment.

Killed on Saturday Last. While in the discharge of his duties as section foreman on the Charleston and Western Carolina railroad Mr. John C. Bussey was killed on Saturday last at Sneed's Hill, three miles from the Savannah river. In assisting to remove a hand car from the track so as to clear it for a train to pass Mr. Bussey was hurled into eternity, being struck by the engine. He was one of the best foremen on the entire line, always keeping his section of the roadbed in excellent condition. In his death the west-side of our county has lost a good citizen. The deceased is survived by a devoted wife, who before her marriage was Miss Lizzie Heath, and several children. The interment took place at Red Hill on Sunday last, Rev. J. T. Littlejohn officiating at the funeral.

The Presbyterian Program. The programme for the musical entertainment of the ladies of the Presbyterian church at the home of Mr. Wm P. Calhoun on the evening of March 3rd, is as follows: Piano Solo, "The Tower Scene in The Trovatore"—James T. Bacon; Vocal Solo, "Shower Show Swing," Miss Caldwell; Piano duet, "Tilliana"—Mrs. F. N. K. Bailey and Miss Ora Landrum; Recitation—Miss Nickles; Vocal Solo—Mr. Jas. M. Cobb; Piano and Cornet, Rev. P. P. Blalock and Miss Edw. W. B. Blalock; Vocal duet, Mrs. E. J. Norris and Miss Eliza Mims; Fifth Nocturne, Mrs. W. S. C. Burns; Vocal Solo, "Voice of the Sea"—Mrs. Kate W. Unthank; Vocal duet, "Fly Away Birdlings," Mrs. W. K. Bailey and Miss Caldwell; Songs by the S. C. C. Quartette; Piano solo, Miss Hattiwanger; Vocal solo, Mrs. George F. Mims; Piano Solo, Mrs. J. L. Tillman.

Refreshments—"Menu," A salad course, coffee, chocolate, cream. There may be other refreshments. Every thing has been arranged with a view of making all who may attend, have a pleasant evening. Admission, ten cents; Refreshments, fifteen cents.

Again It is G. L. Penn & Son. After selling his farm and moving back to his mansion on Main street, where Mr. and Mrs. J. D. H. Steiner and Capt. W. H. Brunson reside with him, Mr. W. B. Penn was not satisfied to pass his time idly. He has been actively engaged in business. Therefore, he has purchased his former business, the Corner Drug Store, from Mr. R. L. W. W. Penn, and has restored the former title, G. L. Penn & Son, to the business. This very old and profitable establishment, which was first opened its doors for business by Mr. W. B. Penn's father in 1845, has a prestige that clings about very few establishments of the kind. During all of these years it has merited and enjoyed the patronage of a large portion of the Edgefield public. Now Mr. Penn purposes more than ever to make this store the rendezvous of all classes who want honest, dependable drugs and groceries at reasonable prices. Already the interior of the store is being beautified and the stock is being replenished and enlarged. Mr. Penn extends a very cordial invitation to all of his old friends and patrons to call upon him.

Mrs. A. E. Padgett Entertains. The hospitable home of Mrs. A. E. Padgett was the scene of a delightful occasion on Thursday afternoon last. The officers, mission collectors and a number of the older members of the mission society of the Baptist church were entertained at a "Violet Tea," a very novel and beautiful reception. The parlour programme was most enjoyable, consisting of vocal selections and instrumental music on the sweet-tinted Wing piano. This instrument is unique in that it combines the harp, mandolin and piano, and the performers varied the musical programme by using the attachments. Instrumental solos were rendered by Mrs. J. H. Tillman, Mrs. Pamela Holland and Mrs. J. L. Mims and Mrs. F. N. K. Bailey. The vocal selection "Alice where art thou" was sung by Mrs. E. J. Norris and Miss Eliza Mims, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. R. H. Mims.

At five o'clock the guests were invited to the dining room where a spread before them a delightful and appropriate repast, with the tasteful hand of an artist exhibited in the beautiful decorations, all carrying out the color scheme of violet and white. Under the purple chandelier was a skillfully embroidered violet centre piece and arranged thereupon a fragrant and abundant bouquet of white hyacinths. The table cover was of snowy linen with Mexican drawn work pieces lined with the color of the violet and on each end of the table stood white Easter lilies in purple jars. The place cards were decorated with purple violets, and the allied almond receptacles each tied with a bow of violet ribbon. The menu prepared did credit to a cuisinier. The Women's Mission Society is greatly indebted to this one of its members for the kind and courteous compliment, and the event will long be one of grateful remembrance to those so fortunate as to be present.

Veteran of Two Wars. The old land-marks that connect the living present with the dead past of long ago are one by one passing away. Conspicuous among these land-marks in Edgefield county was Mr. Frank Reynolds who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Byrd, on Sunday last. More than eighty eight years ago Mr. Reynolds was born in the house in which he lived elsewhere. The longest time that the deceased spent away from this home which he loved so well was during two wars—the Seminole or Florida war and the war between the states—in both of which he rendered invaluable service to his country.

Not only did he render service during the times of bloody conflict but the deceased has been an active, useful citizen in times of peace. In the earlier years of his life, before he was incapacitated by the weight of years, he was ever ready with a willing hand to aid in those things that contributed to the well-being of his neighbors, his community and county.

The deceased was popular with all ages and classes. Who did not honor and esteem "Uncle" Frank Reynolds, as he was generally called? He was endowed with a vigorous mind and strong constitution. Less than a month ago he rode his pony to Edgefield, visiting at the home of his friend, Dr. J. T. Pattison.

The deceased is survived by two daughters, Mrs. George Broadwater and Mrs. Charles Byrd. Rev. P. P. Blalock conducted the funeral on Monday at Gilgal, where the mortal remains were laid to rest.

Inform Relatives of the Death of a Little Child. Dear Kindred: I avail myself of the sad privilege, through the kindness of the ADVERTISER, to inform the friends and relatives of Mr. R. L. and Mrs. Eleanor Sullivan Foley, of Wayne, West Va., that their eldest child and only precious daughter, Julia Arbutus Foley, on the 2nd inst. was spottedly robed in glory and tenderly borne by the holy angels to blossom for the master in paradise. For over two weeks, dear little Julia, two years, seven months and twenty three days of age, was a painful sufferer, being the victim of lung fever. Other particulars not known.

Lovingly yours,

T.

Series of Revival Services to be held in the Methodist Church.

Mr. Editor: On the 3rd Sunday in March we expect to begin a series of revival services in the Methodist church. There will be two services each day throughout the week following the 3rd Sunday. Rev. B. R. Turnipseed of Aiken, whose visit among us last summer is very pleasantly remembered, will be with us and will do the preaching. If we know our hearts our one great object is to uplift the cause of Christ in Edgefield, to deepen the spiritual life of Christians, and to save those who are out of the fold of Christ. We ask the entire community to pray for an outpouring of God's spirit upon us and we extend a most hearty invitation to our friends of the other churches of the town to meet with us in these services. Our constant prayer is that they may prove a means of grace to us all.

Yours fraternally,

MARVIN AULD.

Impoverished Soil

Impoverished soil, like impoverished blood, needs a proper fertilizer. A chemist by analyzing the soil can tell you what fertilizer to use for different products.

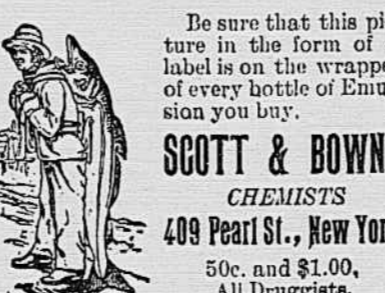

If your blood is impoverished your doctor will tell you what you need to fertilize it and give it the rich, red corpuscles that are lacking in it. It may be you need a tonic, but more likely you need a concentrated fat food, and fat is the element lacking in your system.

There is no fat food that is so easily digested and assimilated as

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil

It will nourish and strengthen the body when milk and cream fail to do it. Scott's Emulsion is always the same; always palatable and always beneficial where the body is wasting from any cause, either in children or adults.

We will send you a sample free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

G. L. PENN AND SON

ARE AGAIN DOING BUSINESS AT THE SAME OLD STAND.

I desire to inform my friends that I have purchased the stock, and business of "The Penn Drug Store" and have restored the old title, G. L. PENN & SON, to the business.

I am deeply grateful to my friends and the public generally for all past favors. Now let us renew the ties of friendship that existed for so many years.

I am now ready to supply your needs in DRUGS and Groceries and will make it to your interest to come to my store.

Cold Spring.

The spring days will soon be here, and why not every household have a flower yard this year? We hear much of our city friends having what they call "city beautiful". It seems to me that every home in our town and country could have its "home beautiful". It is the duty of parents to make home beautiful—beautiful in love, beautiful in words, beautiful in kind deeds, beautiful in spirit and beautiful in flowers. We are like Sam Jones in one particular we "love religion and flowers."

Every family in our town has had some one sick in it last week. For six days did your correspondent tussle with the grip and we are not entirely loosed from it yet.

Our neighbor Mr. F. B. Thomas is still on the sick list.

Our teachers were both sick last week, also many of their pupils, so our school was suspended for several days.

Some of our people sold their cotton last week, eight cents being the price. We have our entire crop yet—two bales—which we are holding for ten and a half cents per pound. We could have sold at one time for ten cents. We want the half cent for interest.

We have some farmers in our community that raise their own meat and corn at home and these farmers are making money. An experienced Missouri corn grower says that when a crop of sixty bushels to the acre is raised the corn costs thirteen cents a bushel to produce it; for fifty bushels it is fifteen cents; for forty bushels eighteen cents; for thirty-five bushels twenty-two cents and for thirty bushels thirty cents. If the above is true, an experienced corn farmer in Kentucky says the figures "are not out of the way", there is no excuse for our farmers having their corn shipped to them from the west.

Last Saturday Mr. John Bussey, son of the late D. C. Bussey, Sr., was killed by a freight train near his home at Evans on the C. W. C. R. R. Mr. Bussey was in the employ of C. W. C. R. R. as section master, and was on his car with a squad of hands. An extra freight train, that Mr. Bussey knew nothing of, ran over him. Mr. Bussey was very popular with the road officials, and was regarded as one of their very best men. He was a member of the Woodman of the world. Mr. Bussey leaves a wife, three children, a mother, three brothers and two sisters, and a host of friends to mourn his loss. He was buried at Red Hill cemetery yesterday, Rev. J. T. Littlejohn conducting the service. We extend our prayers and sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Mr. George Whitley and Miss Carrie Morgan of Falta visited Rose Cottage last week.

Mr. R. A. Wash of Rehoboth was in town last week.

Mr. P. R. Waites of Modoc was on our streets some days ago shaking hands with his many friends.

Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." The Penn Drug Store, W. E. Letter to Dr. W. Luther Jones.

Edgefield, S. C.

Dear Sir: Three gallons saved is $12 to $15 earned.

Mr. Sanford Platt of Bridgeport, Conn, ordered 15 gallons Devoe to paint his house, and returned 3 gallons. His painter said it would take 15; a lead-and-oid painter.

Hubbell & Wade Co. sold it. They say everybody has the same experience there.

The reason is, of course: they are used to poor paint.

What is poor paint? Anything not Devoe: some worse than others. Besides, paints wear about as they cover. Double the $12 to $15.

Yours truly,

F. W. Devoe & Co.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.
