Edgefield probably has as many organizations as any other town of its size in all of the forty-ode states, but there is one lacking yet: A society for the prevention of cruelty to animals. These organizations are a God-send to the dumb brutes, especially where the members are active. The society in Augusta has turned its atten tion to the enforcement of th city ordinance forbidding the wanton use of check-reins.

Magistrates Sign An Agreement.

The farmers of Newberry county have been greatly annoyed by officials. having laborers violate their contracts. In one instance a negro eutered into contracts with seventeen different farners, most of whom made to him cash advances. The cause for this unusual prevalence of contract violation was found to be due to the fact that so few violators were punished. When a negro was arraigned before a magistrate some farmer would writer has volunteered to personstep up and go on his bond or pay him out. As a result the law had no terrors to them. In order to abate this evil, all of the magistrates of Newberry have signed an allow us to cross the creek with iron-clad agreement not to allow Very respectfully.
