Line is cheaper than drugs or a doctor's bill. Clean up your premises well and use lime freely. Do it to-day. Do not wait until to-morrow. The disease germs may get in their deadly work before to-morrow.

A horse that balks can be cured by discharging a stick of dynamite under him. That is what a Virginia farmer did recently when his horse balked. The animal was blown into sausage meat.

Our stock of Furniture is always complete. Bed-room Suits from $20 up. We buy in car lots and can make very low prices. Ramsey & Jones.

Messrs Jackson & Johnson are enlarging their store near the depot by adding twenty feet to the rear end. Their business has outgrown the building which they at first erected.

PRESCRIPTIONS our specialty. We solicit your Prescriptions, day or night. WE GUARANTEE pure drugs, accurate compounding, and reasonable prices. W. E. LYNCH & CO.

Farmers M. C. Parker and J. C. Harris sent cotton blooms to our sanctum on Monday morning. It seems that in spite of the unfavorable conditions that have prevailed cotton is very well advanced. In days gone by the old farmers thought cotton was doing well when it bloomed by July 4th.

Mr. W. W. Adams has already let the contract for his new store. The building will be two stories high and thirty feet longer than the old building. In the rear it will be practically three stories, for the basement will serve as a store room from which all heavy groceries will be handled.

The Chrysanthemum ladies may as well meet now and award all the prizes to Mr. Asa Broadwater, for he will win them all next fall. We have heard that he has about 200 chrysanthemums planted, and cultivates them with his own hands every day in the week (Sundays, of course, excepted) from early morn till nightfall.

Mr. M. D. Lyon has let the contract for enlarging and otherwise improving the residence on the Gray place in our western suburbs which he purchased more than a year ago. When completed it will be an ideal suburban home, and it is Mr. Lyon's purpose to move his family thereto. We are pleased to chronicle the fact that this most excellent citizen has planned to cast his lot among us.

Mr. Robert Walker, of Cochran, Ga., is in Edgefield visiting his sister, Mrs. James R. Cantelon. Though young in years, this gentleman already ranks among the celebrities in music, the "divine" of the arts. He has completed special courses in music at several conservatories, always carrying away first honors. Not only is Mr. Walker possessed of a very rare degree of musical talent but he is ambitious also, it being his purpose to study under the masters of the old country. Mr. Walker has had repeated offers of the directorship of music from leading institutions of learning.

Gus Edmunds had better kill a whole drove of Texas steers for his barbecue to-morrow. If all are present—county, state and congressional—there will be about seventy-five candidates here, also a pretty good sprinkling of voters.

Rev. G. T. Asbill was very warmly greeted while visiting in our town Tuesday. During the session recently closed, Mr. Asbill was a student at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary Louisville, Ky. He and his family will be at Johnston for the summer.

Just received a lot of fly nets for horses, also a full line of summer buggy robes. Edgefield Mercantile Co.

Mr. W. H. Harling represents a strong line of fire insurance companies. He carried a policy on the stock of Mr. J. W. Peak, which was recently damaged to some extent, and among the first, if not the first, to send check to cover loss was Mr. Harling's company.

Veterinary Surgeon Comig: I will be in Edgefield June 29th and 30th. Bring in your lame and sick Horses and Mules, and have them treated. No charge for consultation. Dr. A. Dolan, Orangeburg, S. C.

The Methodist parsonage has been greatly beautified by the painter's brush. All honor to the very zealous ladies of the church through whom the work is being done. By the way, we hear that in some of Edgefield's mansees, recitaries or parsonages a bridal chamber is receiving the finishing touches of artists' bands. Can any body tell us about it?

There was a time—but little more than a decade ago—when it was not considered safe or discreet for ladies to attend campaign meetings. However, a change has been wrought. The candidates and voters are saner, more civilized, than they were in time past, and it is now entirely proper for the fair women to grace and dignify these occasions by their presence. Let them attend the meeting to-morrow in large numbers.

Leggett's celebrated Tea, and Roasted Coffee from 10 to 30 cents per pound. TIMMONS BROS.

On Thursday last, June 21st, our young friend Robt. Lee Scott, of Clark's Hill, mailed us a red cotton bloom, the first of the season. Mr. Scott has sixty acres of very fine cotton. We commend the enterprise, push and "get-up-and-go" spirit of the Clark's Hillers. It is that which is transforming those hitherto unproductive hills into a region of great fertility, and it is that alone which has caused the lands of that section to increase from fifty to two hundred per cent in value within the last few years.

Is it not about time strawberries were ripe? At a regular meeting of the Commercial Club some months ago it was unanimously agreed that when strawberries were ripe the members of the Club would give an elegant reception in compliment to their lady friends—wives, sisters, sweethearts, etc. The executive committee let the strawberry season pass, and now the blackberry season is here, with no reception yet. The committee evidently is waiting for the watermelons. Let's have the reception without further delay.

Our comic postal cards are the sensation of the hour. Come in and make your selections. G. L. Penn & Son.

Very Prompt Payment.

Mr. James T. Mims. Ag't L. & L. P. Globe Ins. Co., Edgefield, S. C.

Dear Sir: My store building and stock of merchandise was consumed by fire on the night of June 7th. Your adjuster was here on June 14th and satisfactorily adjusted my loss, and to-day, June 20th, I have checks from your company in full of their liability. This is prompt work and I assure you that I appreciate your promptness and cannot too highly recommend your company for promptness and fairness.

Yours very truly, W. W. Adams.

Ex-Treasurers Smith and Caughman Exonerated.

When ex-treasurers John C. Caughman and R. B. Smith, of Saluda county, were reported short in their accounts by a special committee of the grand jury, knowing of his special fitness for such work, they employed Auditor J. B. Haltiwanger to go over the books and find the discrepancy. After much hard work Mr. Haltiwanger located the error, and notwithstanding the fact that an expert accountant employed by the grand jury differed with him he was confident of the correctness of his finding. A further investigation last week by Messrs. Wilson and Sawyer, expert accountants of the Comptroller General's office, sustained Mr. Haltiwanger's position, exonerating Messrs. John C. Caughman and R. B. Smith completely.

The Colliers Sub-League.

We congratulate the good citizens of Colliers upon their prompt action in organizing and upon the very zealous manner in which they have taken up the work of the Citizens' League. In a letter to the president of the County League Mr. W. G. Wells, the secretary of the Colliers Sub-League, writes as follows:

"We have organized a League at Colliers, and it gives me pleasure to send you the names of 26 good citizens who have come forward and offered their services in putting down lawlessness, and to aid in upbuilding the morals of the county. You can rely on Colliers to come out and show to the public that she is ever ready and willing to put down anything that is detrimental to the welfare of the country. We are heartily in sympathy with the movement."

The officers are: D. T. Mathis, president; J. L. Miller, vice-president; W. G. Wells, secretary and W. H. McKie, treasurer. The members: G. A. Adams, O. J. Prince, J. W. Adams, D. T. Mathis, H. W. McKie, L. R. Hammond, C. T. Mathis, Dr. J. N. Crafton, S. G. Hammond, T. L. Miller, J. E. Hammond, T. M. Hammond, R. L. Prince, E. Hammond, J. R. Hammond, J. L. Miller, J. D. Pardue, W. G. Wells, T. A Timely Admonition.

To Our White Friends: I desire to respectfully call attention to a state of affairs that ought not to exist. Our colored churches are greatly disturbed by the presence of colored men who sell liquor or near the church grounds. These violators of the law are made bold in believing that they will not be punished on account of the fact that some of them have violated the law before, and have got their white friends to pay them out of trouble. I make this appeal to the good white people of the country to help us to put down lawlessness among our race. I beg them to assist us in enforcing the law. I hope that they will not countenance nor protect any colored person who sells whiskey in violation of the law, and that they will help us to punish them. I trust that our white friends will refuse to pay the fines of any of the parties who are convicted of disturbing the peace of a community in this way, and that such parties will not be able to boast that they can disregard the law, and that their white friends will pay them out. This is addressed to our white friends in a most respectful way, for the reason that we wish them to do, as they have always done, and help us to better the condition of our race.

Respectfully, W. H. Oliphant.

Death of Rev. F. W. Thurmond.

Mr. Editor: Please allow me space in your columns to announce the death of the Rev. F. W. Thurmond, who departed this life on the 9th inst., and was buried at Shady Grove Baptist church on the 10th. Long before the appointed hour, the church was packed and the yard was covered; the members of his church and other churches were pouring in from every direction. I think not less than 2,000. The 7th chapter of Job was read, text Job 14th, Job 30th, 23rd, Luke 19th, 13th. Revs. Peterson, Blocker, Oliphant, Weaver, Kanter and others. These servants of God leave a lasting impression on their hearers for honest living and truthfulness. Many tears were shed in the church and in the yard when the body was given over to the Burying Society of Shady Grove; and the Masons then marched out of the church. They marched around the grave and deposited the body. May the Lord bless his family and churches. And may they remember that while it is their loss, it is his Heavenly gain.

Candidates for Cotton Weigher.

Election, August 4th, 1906.

I respectfully announce that I am a candidate for the position of public Cotton Weigher for the town of Edgefield for the term beginning Sept. 1st 1906. I promise the people that if elected I will be at my post ready to serve them every day in the year except Sunday.

W. L. HOLSON, Franklin, S. C.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the position of public Cotton Weigher for the town of Edgefield, for the term beginning Sept. 1st 1906. I hereby pledge myself if elected, to give my entire time, energy and ability in rendering honest, faithful service.

T. P. MORGAN.

Feeling that I am qualified for discharging the duties of the office ably and satisfactorily, I herewith respectfully offer myself as a candidate for Cotton Weigher of Edgefield.

J. A. TIMMERMAN.

I respectfully announce myself as a candidate for Cotton Weigher at Edgefield for the term beginning Sept. 1st 1906, and pledge myself if elected to give my entire time in the effort to discharge my duty.

P. R. WATES.

I respectfully announce myself a candidate for re-election to the office of Cotton Weigher for the town of Edgefield. I have moved to Edgefield so as to give my time and attention to the duties of the office, and pledge myself to render the same honest and faithful service in future, if elected, as I have done in the past.

J. W. CHEATHAM.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the position of public Cotton Weigher for the town of Edgefield, and I pledge myself, if elected, to discharge the duties honestly and faithfully.

How to Break Up a Cold.

It may be a surprise to many to learn that a severe cold can be completely broken up in one or two days time. The first symptoms of a cold are a dry, loud cough, a profuse watery discharge from the nose, and a thin white coating on the tongue. When Chamberlain's cough remedy is taken every hour on the first appearance of these symptoms, it counteracts the effect of the cold and restores the system to a healthy condition within a day or two. For sale by G. L. Penn & Son.

THE GREAT FIRE SALE

Now on at the New York RACKET STORE

Owing to the removal of my Entire Stock of Goods during the recent fire in Edgefield, the entire stock became so badly mixed and tangled, also dusty, that I have decided to
