HAY FEVER

'Having used Peruna for catarrh and hay fever, I can recommend it to all who are suffering with the above diseases. I am happy to be able to say it has helped me wonderfully!'

—Mayne E. Smith.

MISS MAYNE SMITH, 444 E. Mound Street, Columbus, Ohio.

Wilwaukee, Special.—The latest returns from Tuesday's primary elections indicate that Governor Davidson, Republican, swept the State winning for the nomination for Governor by 40,000 majority. John A. Aylward, Democrat, for Governor, received the nomination over Merton William J. Carey, Republican, defeated Congressman Oetjen in the fourth district.

SALT FOR CHOLERA. At a meeting of the Kansas Poultry Association Mr. E. Harington discovered that the cholera had appeared among her chickens. I had heard somewhere that there is nothing to beat salt as a disinfectant. I had the hired man clean the henhouse as clean as he could, wash it out thoroughly with just as strong brine as he could make, and fill every crack and crevice with the brine. He did so, and we haven't lost a hen since. I tried the cholera broke out among them, and I am satisfied that I saved a lot of them and prevented a further spread of the disease.

FALL SPRAYING. Bulletin No. 254 of the State Experiment Station, at Geneva, N. Y., holds out a little prospect of relief to the orchardist who finds spring all too short to allow of thorough spraying of his scale-infested trees. The results of extensive tests seem to show that fall spraying with sulphur washes is safe upon harder varieties of fruit trees and as effective as spring spraying, so far as scale destruction is concerned. Some of the washes tested also appear to promise a shortening of time and decrease of trouble in preparation of an effective compound.

STILL ALERT. It was in the jungle restaurant. The leopard had been drinking and the waiter was trying to take advantage of that circumstance. "None of that Mr. Monk!" yelled the feline vigorously. "The leopard may not be able to change his spots, but let me tell you that he is fully competent to spot his change."—Courier Journal.

PERHAPS. "The Chinese do not object to the exclusion law so much as to the manner of its enforcement." "I dare say they'd like to have us enforce it as we enforce our liquor laws."

LUGS. "I see the 'Society News' is taking only millionaires' sons on their board." "Sort of putting on heirs, aren't they?"—Princeton Tiger.

HANDICAPPED. "I've had five families last week" ejaculated Mrs. Housekeep. "That isn't a very good record." "It was the best I could do, mum," responded the applicant. "I was sick two days."—Minneapolis Tribune.

HIS REASON. Solomon explained his magic carpet. "It doesn't show if I forget to wipe my feet," he announced. Considering the number of Mrs. S.'s, this was indeed an advantage.—Harper's Bazar.

Late News In Brief

MINOR MATTERS OF INTEREST

Russian Government Publishes Program. St. Petersburg, By Cable.—An official communication embodying the whole government program was published Friday night. The program embraces courtmartial for political crimes and an increase of the penalties for revolutionary propaganda and expresses a firm determination to preserve order. It also promises a liberal measure of reforms and that useless restrictions on Jews shall be abolished forthwith. Measures are promised in that direction of greater provincial autonomy. Zemstvos will be introduced in Poland and Baltic provinces. An income tax will be instituted. Reforms in the police and other public services are also promised.

The Age of Lead. We are wont to speak of this era as the "age of iron," and there is no gainsaying that, industrially speaking, iron is a "precious metal." Nevertheless, few people realize how useful, if not absolutely necessary, to modern civilization, is that other metal, lead—soft, yielding, pliable, it is so much like its sister metal, but those distinguishing qualities are what give it such a prominent place in the arts and industries. Modern plumbing, requiring many turnings and twistings, but without tight joints, would be almost impossible without lead pipe. The greatest civilizing agent in the world—the printing art—is absolutely dependent on lead. Hand-set type, hottype "slugs," monotype type—all are made of compositions of which lead is the chief component—to say nothing of the bearings in the presses and in all the other kinds of machinery in which "habbit" metal is used. Solder is another lead product—what a field of usefulness that one form opens up.

At Washington, Pa., Elmer Dempsey, the negro charged with murdering Mrs. Samuel Pearce and her three children in Cecil township on July 29, was convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to be hanged.

At York, Pa., while leaning out from a box car to observe a broken wheel on a car ahead, George Mair, a freight conductor in the employ of the Northern Central railroad, struck a fence along the track and was instantly killed.

At Ottawa, O., Mrs. Henry Knippner of Cleveland, cut off the heads of her two children with a butcher knife. She had been in an insane asylum, but was considered cured. The children were aged three and one and one-half years, respectively.

The Moroccan Government having expressed its readiness that Paul O. Stensland, the defaulting Chicago bank president, be taken back to the United States, he will probably be returned in a mercantile vessel.

At Washington the director of the mint opened bids for silver, all of which were declined on account of the price being too high. The lowest offer made was 67 3/4 cents per fine ounce.

At Rutland, Vt., complete returns from State election show that Fletcher D. Proctor, Republican, was elected Governor by 15,676 over Percival W. Clement, of Rutland, Independent and Democratic.

At Madison, Wis., John Madison, Republican, was elected to Congress in the Second District for the unexpired term of Henry C. Adams, deceased.

STOP, WOMAN!

AND CONSIDER THE ALL-IMPORTANT FACT

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private life to a woman whose knowledge covers twenty-five years. The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for many years under her direction, and since her decease her advice has been freely given to sick women.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probable examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation: Women suffering from any of the female weaknesses are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely her advice is worth the price of a good-will, and she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.—Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Following we publish two letters from a woman who accepts this invitation. Note the results.

First Letter. Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—For eight years I have suffered something terribly every month. The pains are excruciating and I can hardly stand them. My doctor says I have a severe female trouble, and I must go through an operation if I want to get well. I do not want it. Please tell me what to do. I hope you can relieve me.—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 20th and E. Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.

Second Letter. Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—After following carefully your advice, and taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I am very anxious to send you my testimonial, that others may know their value and what you have done for me.

AWFUL PSORIASIS 35 YEARS. Terrible Scaly Itch on Patches All Over Body—Skin Cracked and Bleeding—Cured by Cuticura. "I was afflicted with psoriasis for thirty-five years. It was in patches all over my body. I used three cakes of Cuticura Soap, six boxes of Ointment and two bottles of Resolvin. I am now cured. I was completely cured, and I think permanently, as it was about five years ago. The psoriasis first made its appearance in red spots, generally forming a circle, leaving in the center a spot about the size of a silver dollar of some flesh. In a short time the affected circle would form a heavy dry scale of white silvery appearance, and would gradually drop off. To remove the entire scales by bathing or using oil to soften them, the flesh would be perfectly raw, and a light discharge of bloody substance would ooze out. That scaly crust would form again in twenty-four hours. It was worse on my arms and limbs, although it was in spots all over my body, also on my long without removing by bath or otherwise, the skin would crack and bleed. I suffered intense itching, worse at nights after getting warm in bed, or of blood warm by exercise, and it would be almost unbearable. W. M. Chidester, Hutchinson, Kan., April 20, 1905."

ARRESTS ARE MADE TO ENFORCE FOOD LAW

Developments in Connection With Trust Company Wreck

PROSECUTIONS WILL FOLLOW

Promoter Segal and Two Officials of Wrecked Real Estate Trust Company, Treasurer North and Assistant Treasurer Collinwood Arrested, States District Attorney.

Philadelphia, Pa., Special.—District Attorney Bell is authority for the statement that warrants were prepared for the arrest of William F. North treasurer of the Real Estate Trust Company; M. S. Collinwood, assistant treasurer, and Adolf Segal, on charges of conspiring with Frank K. Hipple, the suicide president of the institution, to loot its treasury. Segal is the promoter who borrowed more than $5,000,000 from the bank on flimsy collateral to finance his enterprises. Horace Hill, the aged auditor, will not be arrested. He is 73 years old and broken in health. The district attorney says he was a figure head and a tool used by the looters.

Public interest in the investigation of the defunct bank's affairs now centers in the warrants which District Attorney Bell says will be issued for the arrest of the men implicated with Frank K. Hipple, the suicide president, in looting and wrecking the institution. Abundant evidence of the culpability of others besides the dead president has been obtained, the district attorney says.

Two of the most prominent figures in the investigation appeared before District Attorney Bell and were William F. North, treasurer of the trust company, and Horace Hill, the auditor. Mr. Hill, who is an aged man, was on the verge of collapse when he arrived at the bank and nervously inquired of the newspaper reporters assembled outside as to why the district attorney should send for him. Neither he nor Treasurer North would consent to be interviewed. Receiver Earle announced that Adolf Segal, the promoter, whose extensive borrowings were mainly responsible for the failure of the trust company, had turned over his entire interest in the Pennsylvania Sugar Refinery. The plant is heavily encumbered, however, and Segal's interest will be of little benefit to the depositors.

The investigation of Receiver Earle and District Attorney Bell has established the fact that President Hipple was a partner with Segal in a number of the latter's enterprises, and that F. Wharton Hipple, his son, a clerk in the bank, was the "dummy" for his father.
