

TERMS:

ONE YEAR $1 50
SIX MONTHS 75

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 24, 1906.

Nothing will give permanent success in any enterprise of life, except native capacity cultivated by honest and persevering effort.

The status of Gen. Wade Hampton will be unveiled in Columbia on November 20th. Gen. M. C. Butler will deliver the address of the occasion.

The keys to the hearts and homes of Edgefield will be turned over to the two hundred and fifty ladies who will come from all parts of the state on Tuesday next to attend the Woman's Missionary Union. A very warm welcome—a real Edgefield welcome—awaits them.

Hon. Tom Watson has severed his connection with the magazine that bears his name, having had some disagreement with the New York publishers. It is probable that this brilliant Georgian will at an early day begin the publication of a monthly magazine entitled the "Jeffersonian."

Very little more need be expected from the Cotton Growers' Association in this state this season. Mr. Ellison Durant Smith, president of the South Carolina Branch of the association, is soon to marry a wife. Hence, he will not care whether the staple sells for five or fifteen cents.

No individual—white or colored—has now a shadow of excuse for idling and loafing. There is a strong demand everywhere for skilled and unskilled labor, and the able-bodied man who has no means of support should be forced to work for the county if he will not work for himself or others. All persons who do not earn a livelihood by honest toil are as many parasites upon a community, living by the sweat of other people's brows.

Usually the individual prays for deliverance from the insistent and persistent insurance agent or policy seeker, but now the policy holders are praying to be delivered from the proxy seekers. The holders of policies in two of the leading companies are being besieged for proxies by warring factions. The "ins" wish to stay in, and the "outs" desire to get in. A complete reorganization, as far as practicable, would conduce to the greatest good of the insured; this will doubtless be the result of the relentless war that is being waged.

That the game law is more rigidly enforced in Edgefield county now than during former years cannot be denied, yet there is room for still better enforcement. It behooves every citizen to exert himself in creating a sentiment that will restrain would-be violators of this and all other laws. The season for shooting birds does not open until November the 15th. All who slaughter the feathered tribe, except on their own premises, prior to that date are violating the law and should pay the penalty.

The very marked honor that has been shown the lamented Sam Jones puts to naught the false standards and notions that have existed in the minds of some, to wit: that in order for a man to be great he must have a long list of military or civic titles affixed to his name. This plain, humble, unpretentious, unassuming son of Georgia was in every sense a great man, one whose shoes many vainglorious, self-esteeming, pompous and so-called great men were not worthy to unlatch. Goodness is the basic element of true greatness.

County Fairs.

Not a few of the leading and most prosperous counties in the state are now holding their annual county fairs, in which the farmers, stock-raisers, florists and horticulturists are taking a very active interest. These occasions not only advertise and attract hundreds of people to a town but arouse and stimulate farmers to higher and greater achievements. The vying with each other in the exhibition of their produce is always attended with excellent and lasting results.

County fairs are good things. Worth the very county—Edgefield included—held its fall fair. Those that were held at Johnston some years ago were profitable and profitable occasions. Let us begin this year, looking to the holding of a better one in 1907. You say that's a long way off? True, it is, but it requires months of preparation, followed by months of arrangement.

Blighting Effects of Whiskey. There is something essentially degrading and contaminating about whiskey. Not only is the man who drinks it injured to some extent, but the seller is frequently more or less demoralized. There are, of course, some honest bar-keepers, but the characters of many are questioned. Recently a fine of $500 (or serve a term of six months on the public works) was imposed upon an Augusta bar-keeper for counterfeiting copyrighted labels of a high-grade whiskey, which he placed on bottles containing inferior whiskey. And were not the dispensary officials guilty of an act close akin to this? Did they not place the official label upon bottles that contained x liquor? It seems that those who sell the stuff for the state are none the less immune to the blighting effects of whiskey than those who sell it for personal gain.

Little Thelma Bailey Entertained Very Scarcely.

The college—a large portion of it, at least—was turned over to the juveniles on Thursday afternoon last. Little Thelma Bailey invited all of her little friends of the town, who are in her room at the graded school, to join her in celebrating her eleventh birthday. The occasion was an exceedingly delightful one. Many games were engaged in by the little folks. One contest was especially interesting and exciting. All of the children were given pencils and paper, and seated in a room. Then a large water, containing a dozen articles such as comb, brush, book, knife, etc., was brought in and shown to each child. The water was at once removed and each child was told to write the names of as many articles on the water as could be recalled, the one writing the greatest number of names to be awarded a prize. After all the papers were collected and examined, it was found that Master Charles Doney, the exceedingly bright little son of Mr. Isaac Doney, was the winner of the prize.

Devil's Island Torture

is no worse than the terrible case of Piles that afflicted me 10 years. Then I was advised to apply Buckle's Arnica Salve, and lo! in less than a box permanently cured me, writes L. S. Napier, of Rogers, Ky. Heals all burns and sores. 25c at G. L. Punn & Son W. E. Lynch & Co.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out. Fill a bottle of common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment will settle to the bottom, indicating an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidney, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells you more about it, both sent absolutely free of mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
