Special Temperance Services.

On Sunday morning at the Baptist and Methodist churches, being World's Temperance Sunpecial temperance exercises filled up the Sunday school hour. At the Methodist church an address was made by Hon. B. E. Nichol lruggist said of Scott's son. The musi: was appropriate to the occasion, and Miss Lura Mims recited 'The Fair Forest child," a pathetic temperance story. At the Baptist church there were recitations by Florence Peak, and Misses Ruth Tompkins, and Lula McClure. A solo by Miss similar expressions are Eliza Mims was a delightful addition to the program. Miriam Norris sang with her sweet child voice an appeal for total abstineuce. Two addresses were made. The first by Dr. Burts and the other by Hon. T. Garrett Talbert. The addresses made at to h churches were elecquent and were calculated to give the boys who listened more determination to -tand by the right on this subject and must have encouraged in them a spirit which will give them courage to say "no" to those who tempt them.
