The News of South Carolina in Condensed Form

Important Ruling in Insurance Fees.

Columbia, Special.—Commissioner McMaster has received a ruling on the insurance laws from the attorney general which will have an immediate effect upon all South Carolina companies doing a general State business before the acts passed at the last session of the general assembly. The particular act ruled upon is the one requiring South Carolina companies doing business in more than two adjoining counties to deposit a bond of $10,000 or securities to that amount. A difference of opinion arose between the insurance commissioner and one or two companies which had done a general State business, but which did not deposit the bond, and took a license for only two counties, as to the time when they should terminate their business in other counties than those for which they took license. The attorney general holds that under section 2, article 9 of the constitution, and under section 1842 of the code, which gives the general assembly power to alter, amend or repeal the charter of any corporation created under the laws of this State, that the act requiring the deposit of the bond or securities for doing business in more than two adjoining counties, operated as an amendment to the charters of all such companies and they must all cease to do business in counties other than those for which they have taken license. The insurance commissioner, therefore, will take steps to see to it that all South Carolina companies having insurance outside the counties for which they have taken license shall bring this business to an early close.

His young son went with him and as they were in the act of lowering the sash there was a flash of lightning from a cloud overhead and both father and son fell dead. The bodies of the family were taken to the hospital at the time and two slightly shocked. Most of the most severe in the county.

Accident in Cotton Mill.

He was coming down from the top of the building in the elevator and it seems some one let a box of spools fall upon him from the top floor when he was near the bottom. He was considerably mangled and bruised up. An operation was thought necessary and was performed by Drs. W. C. Black of Greenville, C. W. Wyatt and T. E. Russell of this place. The man died, however, Monday night. He leaves a wife and four children.

Abattoir For Greenville.

Greenville, Special.—A committee representing the board of health, after a meeting with the butchers of the city, gave out the statement that the butchers are in favor of a central slaughter pen. A meat inspector will be appointed in a few days to inspect all cattle before killing. A general market is another proposition that the board of health is working hard to get out. The matter will probably be brought before council.

Wofford Trustees to Have Important Meeting.

Spartanburg, Special.—The board of trustees of Wofford College will meet Saturday. It will be an important meeting as a great many matters of interest will be taken up. At this meeting it is expected that the election of Dr. H. N. Snyder to the presidency of the South Carolina University will be taken up, as Dr. Snyder will no doubt make a report of the action of the trustees of the University to the trustees of Wofford. The trustees are very much averse to Dr. Snyder's leaving Wofford and will do everything in their power to keep him. It is also thought that the trustees will take up the matter of having a library building erected. They have in hand about $30,000 for this purpose, $10,000 of which was left the college by Miss Julia Smith. The plans for the library were accepted a year ago.

Dr. Snyder Declines.

Columbia, Special.—President Henry N. Snyder, of Wofford, Saturday afternoon telegraphed the State University trustees declining his election by them to the presidency of the university. There were only two words in the telegram, "I decline." Representatives of the university, who had sounded the situation at Spartanburg before the election, were led to hope Dr. Snyder would accept if elected.

Spartanburg, Special.—At a meeting of the trustees of Wofford College, Dr. H. N. Taking into account the impetus that has been given peach culture in this section it will not be many seasons before the Piedmont region of South Carolina will have a good money crop in peaches at this season. Many orchards will be put out this fall in addition to those put out this spring.

To Curtail Production.

Columbia, Special.—The State association of cotton mill manufacturers at its meeting at Glenn Springs Saturday afternoon entered into an agreement to curtail production for the next three months on account of the unsatisfactory condition of the cloth market. The method of curtailment is left to the individual mills, the agreement not being binding. The resolution suggests a curtailment of ten days or two weeks.

VETERANS' REUNION

Confederate Veterans Gather At Birmingham, Alabama

WITH VERY LARGE ATTENDANCE

Eighteenth Annual Reunion of Confederate Veterans Opens in Birmingham With the Largest Crowd in the History of the Organization.

Birmingham, Ala., Special.—The eighteenth annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans was opened in this city Tuesday at the Hippodrome, Birmingham's largest convention hall, with a record breaking attendance. The day's sessions were devoted to organization and welcome addresses, the real business of the meeting coming up later, when a commander-in-chief to succeed the late General Stephen D. Lee, and the place for holding the next reunion will be chosen. In addition to the first session of the veterans' convention there were meetings of the Sons of Veterans, the Confederate Surgeons' Association, the Confederate Memorial Association and other organizations allied with the veterans.

When the convention was called to order by Major General George P. Harrison, the Hippodrome, which seats 5,000 persons, was crowded to overflowing and many failed to gain admission. The weather was extremely warm and many of the old veterans suffered much discomfort. A gloom was cast over the reunion by the recent death of the commander-in-chief, the late General Stephen D. Lee, who was to have presided over the meetings of the veterans, and whose annual address had already been prepared. This address was printed and distributed to the veterans, but the reading of it was postponed on account of the extreme heat.

The convention proper was opened with a prayer by the chaplain general, Rev. Dr. J. William Jones, which was followed by a children chorus of 200 voices. Mayor Ward, of Birmingham, then welcomed the veterans in behalf of the city and Governor Comer for the State. Other welcoming addresses were made by Representatives of the local veterans association. General E. L. Russell, who was invited by General Lee, to deliver an oration to the veterans, was the next speaker. He paid a high tribute to General Lee and his memory as an able leader. He said that the veterans of the late war were the backbone of the nation. He said that the nation was indebted to them for the preservation of the Union. He said that the nation should honor them for their sacrifices and services. He said that the nation should support them in their old age. He said that the nation should give them the same respect and honor that they gave to the fallen heroes of the war.

Gen. Evans Commander—Second Day

With the selection of Memphis as the place for the next reunion and the election of General Clement A. Evans, of Georgia, the United Confederate Veterans adjourned their annual convention late Wednesday afternoon. The selection of the place of meeting aroused great rivalry between Memphis and Atlanta, these two cities being the only ones put in nomination. Strong speeches were made for each place but when Virginia came over to the side of Memphis the Atlanta supporters realized that the fight was lost.

Restores Stolen Bonds.

Pittsburg, Pa., Special.—Mrs. Frank Lee, once engaged to Cashier William Montgomery, who is now in jail for stealing a million dollars from the Allegheny Bank and running it, has turned in to the receiver, brewery bonds for $125,000 stolen by Montgomery and given to her. She thought he was investing the proceeds of her first husband's life insurance and making her a fortune.

More Votes For Mr. Taft.

Chicago, Special.—The Republican national committee by its work decided contests in two States—large and in fourteen districts, the net result being that 33 full votes and two half votes were added to the number already accredited to William H. Taft, and that two half votes were given to Senator Joseph B. Foraker. The committee has yet to consider contests-at-large in four States and a total of 38 district contests, and two from the Territories, involving a total of 94 votes. Before the meeting of the committee the number of delegates instructed for Primary Vote Consolidated.

Albany, Ga., Special.—The Democratic executive committee of the second congressional district met here and consolidated the vote of the recent primary declaring James M. Griggs, the party nominee for the Sixty-first Congress. H. McIntosh, who has been chairman of the committee for a number of years, declined re-election and W. D. Scott, of Colquitt, was elected to succeed him.

Thaw to Stay in Jail.

New York, Special.—Harry K. Thaw will remain in the Poughkeepsie jail, pending an application of his counsel to Justice Dowling, of the Supreme Court, for a change of the order committing him to the State Hospital for the Insane at Matteawan. This decision was rendered by Justice Morschauser, of Poughkeepsie, after hearing arguments of counsel in this city on a motion to transfer Thaw to a New York State asylum other than an asylum for insane convicts.

PARADE OF VETERANS

With Sprightly Step, Measured to Stirring Airs, Ten Thousand Old Warriors Parade the Streets of Birmingham.

Birmingham, Ala., Special.—The parade of the heroes of the Confederacy was a fitting climax to what is generally pronounced to be one of the most successful reunions of the United Confederate Veterans. With sprightly step, measured to the air of the South, the old warriors, no less than 10,000 strong, traversed the two miles of the parade route between thousands of sympathetic and interested spectators and there was not an accident, no sign of a tottering step.

Loving hands served ice water to the old men as they passed along the route, fans were distributed and everything possible was done to relieve the long tramp of the parade. That the heroes were in excellent spirits was shown by the fact that many of them sang old camp songs as they marched, such as "Buttermilk Cavalry," "Old Time Confederate," "Bonnie Blue Flag."

There were many in the parade who had left a leg or perhaps both legs on some bloody battlefield, but they enjoyed the occasion as much as the others, being carried in wheelchairs. Their appearance drew forth, if anything, greater applause than the sight of the foot soldiers.

The parade formed shortly after 11 o'clock and required one hour and 45 minutes to pass a given point. The route was from Sixth avenue on Ninth street to First avenue, to Twenty-first street to Fifth avenue, to Twentieth street to First avenue, counter-marching on Twentieth street to Capitol Park, where the reviewing stand was located. In the vanguard were eight companies of the local National Guard, including one battery of artillery and one troop of cavalry. Chattanooga had one troop of cavalry in line. Governor B. B. Comer, of Alabama, with his entire staff, was next in line. General Harrison, commander of the Alabama division, was chief marshal, and Col. E. J. McRossin, of Birmingham, was chief aide.

The veterans of the Department of Tennessee headed the line of visitors of honor, these being followed by the trans-Mississippi and the Army of North-Virginia. Among the more conspicuous were the Forester Corps, mounted, and the mounted troop from Nashville, which has attracted a great deal of attention during the reunion. These companies are regular members of the National Guard.

parade attracted more attention than the handsome Miss Tommy Gentry, a full blooded Indian maiden, who accompanied the Indian Territory Department as sponsor. Her escort was Adjutant General I. D. Colman. Gen. Clement A. Evans, the new commander-in-chief, was at the head of the column with his staff, consisting of Gen. J. F. Shipp, Gen. W. E. Mickle, Col. J. H. Bankhead, Col. W. B. Leedy, Col. J. H. Thompson Brown, Col. J. W. Reed and Colonel Bass. The Sons of Veterans followed the veterans and they were accompanied by their sponsors. A notable feature of the parade was the fact that a number of the sponsors preferred to walk with the companies they represented rather than ride in the carriages, which had been provided. Miss Mary Hall, clad in gray, accompanied the Georgia division on foot. Mrs. Kelly, of New Orleans, a lady 79 years of age, went through the march on foot, as did Miss Edna Raub, of Memphis, who had the title of daughter of the company she represented.

Carlin Defeats Gordon.

Richmond, Special.—After one of the bitterest fights in the history of the State Representative Carlin swept the Eighth Congressional district. Practically complete returns received assures his election in the primaries over R. L. Gordon by a large majority.

Deputy Sheriff Steps on Uncle Sam's Toes.

Jacksonville, Fla., Special.—Chain-laying a passenger train of the Valdosta Southern Railroad to the track and standing guard over it with a shotgun, Deputy Sheriff J. C. Hunter, of Florida, Fla., ran amuck with the police laws of the United States by delaying the mails, according to an indictment returned by the Federal grand jury. Hunter was arrested and brought before Commissioner Locke being held under bond for his appearance in the December term of the court.

Blames "Brain Fog" For Many Railroad Accidents.

Boston.—President Tuttle, of the Boston & Maine Railroad, declares that the many railroad accidents are not due to overworking the railroad men nor to lack of safeguards, but to "brain fog," and men guaranteed not to suffer from this psychological disease cannot be obtained. He thinks that this mysterious obsession, which, he says, makes the most competent trainmen temporarily irresponsible at intervals, is one of the greatest problems confronting railroads.

Women in the Day's News.

F. Zimmerman, father of the Duchess of Manchester, denies that his daughter is addicted to Socialism. Jeanne Loele, an advocate of woman's suffrage, contested one of the wards in Paris and was defeated. The Countess of Warwick as a Socialist speaker in America next autumn is the latest announcement extraordinary. Wilbur C. Phillips told the Rainy Daisies that most American mothers can't nurse their children, and that if we want good mothers we must import them.

A TEAM OF WORLD BEATERS CHOSEN TO REPRESENT THE UNITED STATES IN THE OLYMPIC GAMES

By Far the Greatest Aggregation Ever Sent Abroad Will Uphold the Stars and Stripes in London—Expenses of the Big Athletic Trip Will Be $30,000.

New York City.—The team of American athletes that will represent the Stars and Stripes in the Olympic games at London, England, next month, was selected at a joint convocation of the executive and selection committees of the American Olympic Committees. The session took place at the Astor House and all day long those in authority discussed the abilities of each available candidate. After a long list of performers at three different tryouts and two intercollegiate championships had been sifted and culled the final string of 76 men was agreed upon.

The parade formed shortly after 11 o'clock and required one hour and 45 minutes to pass a given point. The route was from Sixth avenue on Ninth street to First avenue, to Twenty-first street to Fifth avenue, to Twentieth street to First avenue, counter-marching on Twentieth street to Capitol Park, where the reviewing stand was located. In the vanguard were eight companies of the local National Guard, including one battery of artillery and one troop of cavalry. Chattanooga had one troop of cavalry in line. Governor B. B. Comer, of Alabama, with his entire staff, was next in line. General Harrison, commander of the Alabama division, was chief marshal, and Col. E. J. McRossin, of Birmingham, was chief aide.

It was decided that a white athletic dress shall be worn by each competitor, the outer seam of the trousers to have a red, white and blue stripe and the chest of the shirt or jersey to be adorned by a national shield of the United States. Each athlete shall wear a blue cap, with a shield on the peak. The team is to sail on the American liner Philadelphia, arriving on the scene of action about ten days before the opening of the games. To finance the trip will mean an expenditure of about $30,000, and though all of this has not been collected the American committee hopes to have that sum at its disposal when the team heads for Sandy Hook. It will cost $25 to send each of the men to London. Every man of the select seventy-six is trained to the hour and will be kept in perfect condition until the team sails away. The fifty-eight substitutes, many of whom just fall short of the charmed circle, are not to be slighted in the calculations, and a glance at the following complete roster

ARE BANK CLERKS UNDERPAID?

New York City.—The question as to whether the great banks pay their clerks sufficient salaries has been discussed with the keenest interest in connection with the suicide of Charles T. Muir, the paying teller of an uptown branch of the Corn Exchange Bank. Muir was receiving a salary of only $1500 a year after twenty years' service, and killed himself because he feared his employers would discover that he had stolen $9068 at various times in order, as alleged, to pay living expenses and doctors' bills. He had just been promoted to the position, and had some of the salaries of their clerks at a result of the admission by many bank officers that the men as a class are much underpaid.

Blames "Brain Fog" For Many Railroad Accidents.

Boston.—President Tuttle, of the Boston & Maine Railroad, declares that the many railroad accidents are not due to overworking the railroad men nor to lack of safeguards, but to "brain fog," and men guaranteed not to suffer from this psychological disease cannot be obtained. He thinks that this mysterious obsession, which, he says, makes the most competent trainmen temporarily irresponsible at intervals, is one of the greatest problems confronting railroads.

AN OLD OUT BUILDING STRUCK

A Party of Youths Out on a Sunday Plum Gathering Take Shelter When a Rainstorm Comes Up in an Old Building, Which Is Struck by Lightning, and Odell Young Is Killed and Four of His Companions Receive Severe Shocks.

Lexington, N. C., Special.—Odell Young, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Young, of this place, was killed Sunday morning about 10:30 o'clock by lightning, and four other boys who were with him were injured but it is thought that all will recover, although two of them were severely shocked. The boys were out gathering wild plums, when a heavy rainstorm came up and they took shelter in a building.

Before King was taken into court he made public one of the bitterest statements ever given to the press. He declared that he was the victim of Odell Young was killed instantly. Of the seven boys in the party two were uninjured and they hurried to a nearby residence and told what had happened. Other boys in the party, and who were shocked were: Ernest Benn, 15, son of Mr. Richard Benn; Mack Andrews, 14, son of Mrs. Frank Andrews; Everett Welborn, 14, son of Mr. William Welborn, and Hollis Craver, son of Mr. J. A. Craver. The last named young man is about grown. The condition of Hollis Craver is regarded as serious; in fact, up to late Sunday afternoon he
