Very large stock of trunks, suit cases and traveling bags. Let us supply your needs. Our prices are very reasonable.

RAMSEY & JONES

Mr. L. T. May will leave tomorrow for Chick Springs, thence to the mountains for another week. The only fault The Advertiser finds with Luke's trip is that he will not take a bride with him.

Mrs. E. S. Johnson is at Hot Springs, N. C., under treatment for rheumatism. Her friends are very much gratified that she is rapidly improving.

If we were assured that in Birmingham would in any iriduous to as mark as it did that of our young friend, Dozier L. would forthwith take up our abode in Birmingham.

For Rent: Two 5-room cottages and 3 rooms in another cottage. Mrs. D. S. DuBois.

In less than three weeks the candidates will be thinned out to a "stand." Some will be victorious while others will go down in defeat. After the battle of ballots is over, may the results show that the "fittest" among the candidates have survived!

At a meeting of the town council on Friday afternoon the salary of the marshals was increased from $40 to $50 per month. The increase was made because of the increased cost of living and in recognition of the faithful discharge of the duties devolving upon them.

The following gay and bappy young people who reside near Troy, Greenwood county: Misses Soilla Rush, Alice Clinkscale, Nora Clinkscale, Eva Rush, Bruce Rush and Mr. Foster Clinkscale, were delightfully entertained for several days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Broadwater. They also spent a day very pleasantly with Miss Mellie Russell before returning to their Greenwood home.

We solicit your prescription business. Utmost care is exercised in compounding prescriptions and only pure, fresh drugs are used. Our prices are very reasonable.

PENN & HOLSTEIN, successors to G. L. Penn & Son.

The next session of the S. C. C. I. promises to be the most prosperous in its history. President Bailey will doubtless find it difficult to provide dormitory room for all of the students who will be knocking at the doors of this splendid institution for admission. Capt. P. P. Burns secured stuns application from new students while making a short tour of the lower counties last week.

PRESCRIPTIONS our specialty. We solicit your prescriptions, day or night.

WE GUARANTEE pure drugs, accurate compounding, and reasonable prices.

W. E. LYNCH & CO.

Mr. Clement K. McKie, now of North Augusta, visited his friend and classmate, Mr. Thomas H. Rainsford, Jr., last week. Mr. McKie will return to the South Carolina Military Academy at the opening of the next session. Being a member of the senior class, he will complete the full four years' course next June.

Mrs. C. G. Henderson of Waltherboro, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. T. P. Burgess.

Miss Grace Tompkins is enjoying a northern trip with her brother, Mr. D. A. Tompkins.

Miss Annie May Strom and her brother of the Mountain Creek section were visitors in Edgefield on Monday.

Mr. R. H. Mims has reduced his prices on photographs for fifteen days. Better call upon him at once.

Mrs. Speights of Hendersonville Colleton county, is spending some time with her daughters, Mrs. E. H. Folk and Mrs. S. A. Brunson.

Prof. and Mrs. J. H. Courtney were in Edgefield yesterday. Prof. Courtney says they have had good rains below Trenton.

Every day now is a scorcher, each succeeding day seeming hotter than the one before. According to Mr. J. P. Bates' thermometer, the temperature in Edgefield was 100 degrees at 3:30 on Sunday afternoon last.

The Corner Store is closing out 50 pairs Misses' Oxfords that sold for $1.00, $1.25 now on sale at 50, and 75 cents a pair. 50 pairs Ladies' Oxfords No. 1, 2 and 3 at $2.00 sold for $2.50 and $3.50 to go $2.00 a pair in this sale.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Broadwater left to-day to make a ten days' visit to the parents of Mrs. Broadwater, who reside in Greenwood county. Our young friend has just "laid by" a fine crop and deserves a season of rest.

Spectacles made up to suit your particular need at lowest possible price.

Geo. F. Mims, Edgefield, S. C.

Messrs. Wm. and Spann Toney came to Edgefield on Monday in their new automobile. If they come this way very often in their handsome machine, the automobile fever will soon "break out" in Edgefield. It is already rumored that several of our townspeople contemplate making purchases at an early day.

I have purchased one of the latest improved machines for drilling wells, and solicit the patronage of the public. Parties wanting wells should communicate with me at Pleasant Lane, W. A. Strom.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Jones gave a dance in the opera house last evening in compliment to their fair and very popular young visitor, Miss Julia Walker, of Beaufort. The occasion was a very delightful one and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

When you need a buggy try a Rock Hill, or Hackney, or Columbus, or a Tyson and Jones. No stronger line of buggies can be found in this section. Large assortment to select from. Ramsey & Jones.

Two wagon loads of young people, about fourteen couples, went out to Centre Spring Monday night and enjoyed a moonlight picnic. Mrs. B. B. Jones chaperoned one wagon and Mrs. Dr. J. G. Edwards chaperoned the occupants of the other one. These gay young "night riders"—not like unto Kentucky "night riders"—passed an exceedingly pleasant evening.

Mr. W. H. Turner, the popular and progressive proprietor of the Corner Store has planned to go to New York on Monday next to purchase his fall stock of merchandise. To some it may seem a little early, but Mr. Turner has made many trips to market and understands the advantage of getting first choice of everything that is offered. You can bank upon his knowing when and how to buy.

Mr. J. R. King is now better prepared than ever to repair your harness and shoes. He has recently purchased an improved Bradbury machine for sewing leather, which does very satisfactory work. Mr. King can repair your harness or make your shoes as good as new while you wait. He can be found over the Timmons drug store, and will be glad to serve you, guaranteeing satisfaction on all work done.

Corner Store's Closing Out Sale. Stock taking is over. We find many odds and ends of Dress Goods, Muslins, Lawns, Gloves, Belts, Buttons, Laces and Embroideries that will be sold at almost any old price. Come early, before our buyer leaves next week for the Northern markets. The Corner Store.

She Likes Good Things. Mrs. Chas. B. Smith, of West Franklin, Maine, says: "I like good things and have adopted Dr. King's New Life Pills as our family laxative medicine, because they are good and do their work without making a fuss about it. These painless purifiers sold at W. E. Lynch & Co., Penn & Holstein, successors to G. L. Penn & Son, drug stores, 25c."

Mrs. J. L. Mims, Assoc. Supt.

We have many useful articles on our 5 and 10 cent counters. May & Tompkins.

Superintendent of Education W. D. Holland informed the writer that there are still two Clemson scholarships open, and that he has requested President Mell to allow him to hold another examination to fill them.

We have just received a large assortment of jewelry and silverware, in the latest designs from the most up-to-date and most reliable manufacturers in the country. We invite you to call and inspect these goods.

RAMSRY & JONES

Will Confer With Supervisor. The work of draining the old quarry will doubtless be undertaken at an early day and pressed rapidly to completion. At the meeting of the town council on Friday afternoon Mayor C. E. May and Mr. B. L. Jones were appointed a committee from the council to confer with Supervisor J. R. Blocker concerning putting the convicts at work on the quarry at once.

Mission Barrel Opening. The Edgefield Woman's Mission Society of the Baptist church will have a barrel opening at the home of Mrs. A. E. Padgett, on Tuesday afternoon, August 11th. Small barrels and boxes have been distributed to all members, and the contents will go for foreign and state missions and the training school. Every member is expected to be present. Refreshments will be served and a program rendered.

Mr. T. P. Morgan Elected. The election for cotton wraicher for the town of Edgefield attracted a large number of citizens on Monday. There was considerable interest in the election, but the day passed quietly, the best of order prevailing. The total vote was 427, being cast as follows: T. P. Morgan, 221; W. L. Holston, 91; Bud Bryan, 82, and P. H. Hamilton, 33. Mr. Morgan was declared elected. The very large vote which he received is a strong endorsement of the excellent manner in which he has filled this position during the past year. The total vote a year ago was 543, of which Mr. Morgan received 130.

Outlook Encouraging. One unmistakable indication that the people are in excellent spirits over the crop outlook is the very large attendance upon the picnics this summer. Even the small, neighborhood picnics have been attended by very large crowds of well-dressed people, both young and old. Very little evidence of hard times or traces of the panic can be found anywhere in Edgefield county.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Jones gave a dance in the opera house last evening in compliment to their fair and very popular young visitor, Miss Julia Walker, of Beaufort. The occasion was a very delightful one and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Date Changed. On account of the holding of the second primary election on September 8th, the date for the annual meeting of the Edgefield Association at Mountain Creek has been changed from September 8th and 9th to 10th and 11th. Tell your friends that the association will meet on Thursday and Friday, September the 10th and 11th.

Mr. Hart's Special Sale. In order to close out his ladies', boys' and children's low cut shoes, muslins, lawns, white madras and embroideries, Mr. J. E. Hart has inaugurated a special 15 days' sale. During this sale these goods will be sold at factory cost for cash. When Mr. Hart says cost you can depend upon it that he will offer some very tempting bargains. You can not afford to miss this opportunity. No goods will be charged at cut prices.

Succumbed After Long Illness. On Friday afternoon last, Mrs. Idonia Gray Burgess passed away at the home of her mother, Mrs. Charles Gray. Her illness extended over a period of two months. During this time loved ones ministered to her every want but to no avail. Mrs. Burgess was a member of the Baptist church. The interment was held in the village cemetery Saturday morning. Rev. L. D. Gillespie conducted the funeral.

An Illustrated Lecture. A young Japanese, Mr. Kentaro Shioi, will give a lecture in the opera house on Monday evening on the Russo-Japanese War. The lecture will be illustrated with moving pictures and stereopticon views. The pictures were brought direct from the battle fields of Manchuria, and will prove to be exceedingly interesting; particularly so, as this noted young Japanese lecturer will explain every illustration. Mr. Shioi was educated in America at William Jewell College and Brown University. He was in Edgefield about two years ago, and lectured in the county auditorium. Many of our people heard him with pleasure and profit. The admission charges on Monday evening next will be 35 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

Advertise Your Goods. The other day a local merchant happened to see a farmer with some goods that came from a mail order house. He noticed also that the goods were right in his store for years. He immediately approached the farmer and said: "I could have sold you the very same article you have there for..."

Do You Want A Real Surprise? The general verdict is that our students show a development of Character as well as intellect. In Competitive examinations for West Point, Annapolis and scholarships, our students have always been eminently successful. Patrons and former Students of the S. C. C. I. can be found in every Southern State. Believing that personal attention to the individual pupil is the greatest factor in the training of the young, we take only a limited number of boarding students, thereby making it possible for each student to receive the personal attention of the faculty. Expenses very reasonable. For application blanks, catalog or any information address Pres. F. N. K. BAILEY, EDGEFIELD, S. C.

Do You Want A Real Surprise? If you do, you can have it by looking over the Summe' Fabrics of "Taylor the Tailor". Their beauty will certainly surprise you, but the thing that will take your breath away, is the price they're being sold at. A great number of the most popular weaves are offered at a sweeping cut in price, and EVERY ONE even at the REGULAR PRICE is far above the values you can get elsewhere. Take advantage of this genuine sale of up-to-the-minute made-to-measure clothes, and call while the season is young.
