

Local News.

Our friend Billie Lott is all smiles—another sweet little girl at his home.

Miss Addie Ouzts, of Johnston, is the guest of Miss Ruth Cogburn this week.

Mrs. Dr. J. H. Self and her sweet little daughter were among the visitors in Edgefield on Monday.

Mrs. Henry Miller of Trenton, and Mrs. Frank Brautley and little daughter, of Ft. Worth, Tex., were the guests of Mrs. Walter S. Adams last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa G. Broadwater now occupy the Edgefield hotel. They are receiving a cordial welcome from their friends in our town.

Chic. Chic.

Mr. Walter E. Holston, the capable traveling representative of the Georgia Cotton Oil Company, made a business trip to our town Friday.

It has been predicted that the first frost of autumn will appear between October 6th and 9th, and that a killing frost will be about October 16th.

Mrs. Martha Strom was a welcomed visitor in Edgefield last week. Besides being affectionately greeted by her children and grand-children, Mrs. Strom was warmly greeted by a host of Edgefield friends.

Mr. S. A. Brunson has moved into the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Canteloni on Main street. Mr. J. Ransom Timmerman, who was recently elected auditor of Edgefield county, has rented the house formerly occupied by Mr. Brunson.

Chic. Chic.

Misses Sophie and Sallie May Tillman, Senator Tillman's daughters, have returned to college, the former to Hollins Institute, Virginia, and the latter to Lander college, Greenwood.

Mr. J. W. Peak, Jr., who won the beneficiary scholarship to the Citadel, left yesterday to matriculate in that institution. Young Mr. Peak is no stranger in Charleston, having attended the College of Charleston last session.

For Sale: Two very fine Rhode Island Red roosters. Geo. F. Mims.

Miss May Roper had several schools offered her for the coming session, and after considering them has decided to accept a school in Spartanburg county about eight miles from the town of Spartanburg.

Chic. Chic.

Have you a picture that you would like to have framed? Bring it to us. Large stock of all sizes and styles of moulding. B. Timmons.

Mr. J. Rubenstein has requested us to announce that on account of the celebration of the Jewish New Year his store will be closed on Monday next.

Chic. Chic.

Mr. Thomas H. Rainsford, Jr., left for Charleston this morning to resume his studies at the Citadel. He is now a member of the senior class and has made a splendid record since he matriculated three years ago. Mr. Rainsford is captain of company A, which is the highest cadet officer.

We always carry complete assortment of fresh drugs and give special attention to all prescriptions sent us. A share of your patronage solicited. B. Timmons.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of the Hotel Edgefield in this issue. Mr. Asa G. Broadwater is the proprietor, and he will leave nothing undone that will contribute to the comfort of his guests. Besides the transient patronage, Mr. Broadwater can accommodate eight or ten regular boarders.

Nunnally's celebrated candies fresh by express every week. PENN & HOLSTEIN, Successors to G L Penn & Son.

The cock of the walk in the Advertiser's poultry yard is a very fine young Rhode Island Red, the gift of our kind friend, Mr. J. H. P. Roper. Mr. Roper's fame has gone abroad as a breeder of fine chickens. The Rhode Island Reds cannot be excelled. Furthermore, Mr. Roper's chickens are strictly pure bred and are as fine as can be had anywhere.

PRESCRIPTIONS our specialty. We solicit your Prescriptions, day or night. WE GUARANTEE pure drugs, accurate compounding, and reasonable prices. W. E. LYNCH & CO.

While visiting relatives in this section, Mr. T. L. Martin has been tuning a number of pianos in Edgefield and vicinity. Having been engaged in this special work a number of years, Mr. Martin never fails to give entire satisfaction. Should your piano need tuning let it be known at this office or drop Rev. P. P. Blalock a card and he will have Mr. Martin call.

Very large stock of trunks, suit cases and traveling bags. Let us supply your needs. Our prices are very reasonable. RAMSEY & JONES

Twin boys—big, bouncing fellows—have arrived at the home of Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Allen, of Johnston.

Hear Edward Elliott in the opera house Friday night. He is one of the most gifted entertainers upon the American platform.

Mr. Watson Sweeny of Ridge Spring was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ouzts on Sunday last.

Mr. J. T. Bryant who graduated from the S. C. C. I. last May has been engaged to teach the Eulalia school in Saluda county near Good Hope.

Let The Advertiser job office do your printing. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Mr. E. C. Winn was in Edgefield on Monday, and we are delighted to state that he and Mrs. Winn are contemplating moving to Edgefield to live among us again.

Attention is directed to new advertisement of Mr. W. A. Hart. He is now showing a very strong line of clothing, shoes, hats, and wants you to call.

Be sure to attend the public meeting of the Farmers' Union to be held in the court house on Monday next. Prominent speakers have been invited to address the meeting.

All the new things in Dress goods at reasonable prices. May & Tompkins.

The first lyceum attraction will be given Friday night. The lyceum managers need your patronage and you need to bear these high-class entertainers; so secure a ticket at once.

We are greatly indebted to Mr. S. Cheatham for a can of beautiful honey. For purity and delightful flavor it is unsurpassed. Mr. Cheatham is authority on bee culture and sells his honey very readily at a reasonable price.

Fresh shipment of Armour's "Gold Band" and Swift's "Premium" hams. B. Timmons.

Mr. William A. Edwards, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Edmunds, is now in the employment of The Advertiser. During the past six months Mr. Edmunds has been employed in printing offices in Seneca and Walhalla. Mr. Edmunds reached home Sunday night.

Miss Christine Tompkins left Saturday to resume her studies at the college in Mont Clair, N. J., which she attended last session. This brave little "Dixie" girl will remain in the North for the entire session, being unable to come home Christmas as the other college girls and boys do.

Get our prices on shoes before buying. We can please you. May & Tompkins.

Mrs. Percy M. Feltham and little Percy left for their home in Greenville on Saturday after spending the summer in Edgefield. They will be greatly missed, especially by the residents of Buncombe.

New Belts, Combs, Collars and Ruchings. May & Tompkins.

The Pleasant Lane-Berea section has sent three bright, sweet girls down to enter the S. C. C. I. to-day. Misses Mary Hughes, Janie Minick and Ida Timmerman. This splendid institution has always received a generous patronage from the people of our county. May it continue to be so.

See our line of table linen, doilies, napkins and towels. May & Tompkins.

We have been requested to announce that the ladies of Republican church will give an ice cream festival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Walls Saturday afternoon, October 10th from 2 to 6 o'clock. The proceeds will be used to further the objects of benevolence that are fostered by the church.

Lost: A gold signet stick pin with "R. L. W." engraved on it. The finder will return the pin to this office.

Little Benjamin Cogburn, the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cogburn gave a delightful birthday party on Friday afternoon, inviting a number of his little friends to share the joys of the occasion with him. After spending several hours romping and playing, the happy little company partook of this elegant refreshments that were provided for the occasion. This delightful afternoon will long be remembered by the little folks.

Just received 100 gallons of Floor Paint. Let us supply your needs. B. Timmons.

SCHOOL BOOKS. We are headquarters for School Books and School Supplies. Penn & Holstein.

We solicit your prescription business. Utmost care is exercised in compounding prescriptions and only pure, fresh drugs are used. Our prices are very reasonable. PENN & HOLSTEIN, successors to G. L. Penn & Son.

White Pearl and several other varieties of Onion Sets just received. PENN & HOLSTEIN, Successors to G L Penn & Son.

For Rent: Two 5-room cottages and 3 rooms in another cottage. Mrs. D. S. DuBose.

October 6th and 7th.

These are dates selected by Mr. J. Rubenstein for his millinery opening. He has a large and carefully selected stock of very stylish hats for ladies, misses and children, also all of the late trimmings. Miss Mobley, the young lady who is in charge of Mr. Rubenstein's millinery department, will have everything in readiness to receive the ladies of Edgefield on the days set for the opening.

Millinery and Tailored Suits.

There are many pretty new things at the Corner Store for the ladies to feast their eyes upon, but all interest this week is centered about the millinery and tailored suit departments. Attention is directed to the Corner Store's advertisement, in which Mr. Turner tells of his very stylish apparel for ladies. If you can be pleased the Corner Store will please you. The latest styles and latest fabrics in all of the popular colors await your inspection.

Gas Light Plant Installed.

Mr. W. J. Hatcher has just installed an up-to-date acetylene gas plant in the college building. Instead of being dimly lighted with kerosene lamps as heretofore, the building will be brilliantly lighted throughout by 120 gas lights. The new plant will not only afford better light for the students to study by but will greatly reduce the fire risk. Col. Bailey is constantly making improvements that not only add to the comfort of the students but enable them to do better work.

Floral Fair Committees.

The members of the Chrysanthemum association held a meeting on Friday afternoon and decided to hold the fair on October 30th and 31st. It is also their purpose to make an exhibit at the Georgia-Carolina fair. The following committees were appointed:

Selection of place for fair: Miss Grace Tompkins and Mrs. A. S. Tompkins.

Parade: Mrs. J. H. Tillman, Mrs. B. B. Jones and Mrs. R. N. Bailey.

Prizes: Mrs. A. E. Padgett and Mrs. C. E. May.

Located at Johnston.

Dr. James A. Doherty, who is in our town on Saturday, this being his first visit since locating at Johnston for the practice of dentistry. Dr. Doherty is an Edgefield young man, son of Mr. Henry W. Doherty, and has only come back home after practicing his profession very successfully in Augusta since his graduation several years ago. Dr. Doherty has been a member of the Georgia Dental Association and was elected chairman of the Clinic committee, which shows how he has been esteemed and honored by his professional brethren in Georgia. His thorough technical training and several years of experience will enable him to quickly establish himself in his new field.

Rives Bros. Millinery Opening.

The millinery opening of Messrs. Rives Bros. that for weeks has been a leading topic of conversation among the ladies of Edgefield will be held Thursday and Friday, October 1st and 2nd. Great boxes of stylish hats and trimmings, fresh from the centres of fashion, have been arriving during the past ten days. The ladies are invited to call, especially on the dates above named, and inspect the newest and most stylish millinery to be found on any market. A cordial reception awaits you, both from Miss Buford, who is in charge of this department, and from the proprietors, Messrs. Rives Bros.

We have just received a large assortment of jewelry and silverware, in the latest designs from the most up-to-date and most reliable manufacturers in the country. We invite you to call and inspect these goods. RAMSEY & JONES

When you need a buggy try a Rock Hill, or Hackney, or Columbus, or a Tyson and Jones. No stronger line of buggies can be found in this section. Large assortment to select from. Ramsey & Jones.

Very Sincerely, Mrs. Joseph Sprout, State President, S. C. W. C. T. U.

Sermon to Edgefield Rifles.

Special services will be held for Company "F" 2nd. Inf. N. G. S. C. at the Baptist church Sunday morning, October 4th, conducted by Rev. C. E. Burt, D. D., chaplain. The company will assemble at the armory at 11 o'clock a. m., wearing the drab uniforms, caps, white gloves, tan shoes. Officers will wear leggins. Further details will be announced at the meeting Thursday night. Every member will be expected to be present that night. Failure to answer to his name will necessitate the sending of a detail to compel the attendance of any absentee.

RUBBER TIRES: I have a machine for retreading your old tires or putting on new ones. Best rubber tires carried in stock. All work guaranteed. W. H. Powell.

Fresh shipment of Harris Luthin Water $1.50 for 5 gallons; Glenn Springs Water $1.75 for 5 gallons. B. Timmons.

Send this advertisement, together with name of paper in which it appears, your address and four cents to cover postage, and we will send you a "Complete Handy Atlas of the World." SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl St., New York

W. A. HART, DENTAL SURGEON, Johnston, S. C.

Office over News-Monitor Office.

Ready for Fall Shoppers.

Mr. J. E. Hart's new fall goods are now arriving daily. Very soon his recent purchases will all be in ready for the shoppers of our town and vicinity. Mr. Hart always displays good taste and good judgment in buying. Furthermore, his goods are always dependable in quality. In his advertisement this week he calls especially attention to his wool blazers.

Good September Garden.

Dr. W. D. Ouzts is not only a man who lives at home, as the expression goes, but he lives well. Furthermore, out of the abundance of his heart and from his abundance of good things, he is constantly sharing with The Advertiser family. Although, if predictions come true, Jack Frost is just over the hill, we feasted last week upon delightful beans and corn that grew in the garden of our thoughtful friend, Dr. Ouzts.

Death of a Sweet Little Babe.

On Sunday, September 20th, God took the spotless spirit of little Mary Elizabeth Long, the ten months old daughter of Prof. and Mrs. G. F. Long, to heaven before she experienced the crosses and temptations of earth. This little darling is now with Jesus awaiting the coming of the fond parents. In their great bereavement Prof. and Mrs. Long have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Patronize the Lyceum.

Four high-class lyceum attractions have been engaged for the present season, the first being Edward Elliott, who will appear in the opera house Friday evening. Mr. Elliott has been before the American public for eighteen years and stands in the forefront of the entertainers of to-day. His time is given chiefly to the large cities, and our people are fortunate in being able to hear him. In justice to yourself, can you afford to miss hearing Edward Elliott?

The Corner Store's Welcome to Little Visitors.

If the Stork should leave a little visitor in any home in the town or county of Edgefield this month (September), the Corner Store will be pleased to have the coupon filled in and returned to us, so we can send the little visitor a token of welcome:

To The Corner Store: Name: Date: Address:

August's Popular Clothing Store.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of E. S. McCreary & Co., one of Augusta's leading clothing stores. Mr. McCreary is an experienced buyer of excellent taste and good judgment, consequently his tables are filled with stylish and dependable garments that will please the most fastidious buyer. All this popular store asks is an inspection of their tremendous stock, feeling assured that you will be pleased. Call at McCreary's when in the city.

College Opens To-day.

Regular work will be resumed at the college to-day. Every member of the faculty is on hand and will be at their respective posts to greet the students, both old and new. A number of students came in yesterday and still others will arrive to-day. The outlook is very bright for a prosperous session. Col. Bailey has during the summer made a number of improvements that will add to the comfort of the students. Edgefield extends cordial greetings to the faculty and student body of the S. C. C. I. With their return the old town will take on new life.

Card From State President of W. C. T. U.

Editor Advertiser: I have just read with much pleasure and pride, for we are all proud of Edgefield, town and county, "Edgefield's" part in the recent convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. Allow me to add something which Edgefield ought to know. Mrs. J. L. Mims, of Edgefield, was nominated by the State President and the nomination unanimously and enthusiastically ratified by the convention for State Vice-President, an honor which she and Edgefield richly deserves. I will thank you to publish this.

Hotel Edgefield, City Pressing Club.

I desire to notify the public that I have just opened a first-class hotel known as the Hotel Edgefield and respectfully solicit the patronage of the public for both transient and regular boarders. Popular prices. Asa G. Broadwater.

Wanted: To purchase three good milk cows, fresh to pair; must be three-gallon cows. I am also in the market for some shoats. F. N. K. Bailey.

A Sure-enough Knocker. J. C. Goodwin, of Reidsville, N. C. says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve is a sure-enough knocker for ulcers. A bad one came on my leg last summer, but that wonderful salve knocked it out in a few rounds. Not even a scar remained." Guaranteed for piles, sores, burns, etc. 25c at W. E. Lynch & Co., Penn & Holstein, successors to G. L. Penn & Son, B. Timmons drug stores.

How To Get Strong. P. J. Daly, of 1247 W. Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong: He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in strength resulted, insomnia has been overcome and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at W. E. Lynch & Co., Penn & Holstein, successors to G. L. Penn & Son, B. Timmons drug stores. 50c.

James A. Doherty, DENTAL SURGEON, Johnston, S. C.

Office over News-Monitor Office.

The Corner Store's NEW FALL MILLINERY. It is our Purpose. To have prices on our hats in the reach of all. A glance through will be convincing as to real Values and Becomingness. We have them in Brown, Toupe, Navy, Green, and Blacks. Trimmed in Satin, Silk, and Velvet, also many interesting novelties in Feathers, Wings and Flowers. Unusual grace adorns the Tailored Suit and Skirt Showings. The artistic director's styles with the semi-fitting shaped jackets, with pointed backs and slashed sides together with their novel flared skirts covered with Big Buttons, Little Buttons and Buttons and Buttons. These with many other graceful conceptions of newness greet you in every nook. Just a few of those Black Petty Skirts left, that swish like the best silk $1.00 up. We want you to know 'tis our purpose to make your dealings, with us satisfactory, and 'tis our ambition to merit your trade. THE CORNER STORE W. H. Turner, Proprietor.

Fall Clothing. We are showing New FALL STYLES. in Clothing, Shoes, Hats, Underwear, Etc. Come in and let us show you through our stock. W A HART

Delicious fish roe. May & Prescott. TIMMONS & CORLEY, SURGEON DENTISTS, Appointments at Trenton on Wednesdays. Crown and Bridge Work a Specialty. Walter C. Miller, Dental Surgeon, 731 Green St., Augusta, Ga. Phone 87. Administrators' Notice. All persons holding claims against the estate of Joseph J. Holland, deceased, are hereby notified to present the same, duly attested, to Sheppard Bros., our attorneys. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make payment to either of the undersigned. Jas. A. Holland, B. S. Holland, Adms. JAS. S. BYRD, SURGEON DENTIST, EDGEFIELD, S. C. Office over Post-Office.

Fall Stock Now Ready. To our customers and the people of Edgefield county: I ask that you inspect our large stock of fall merchandise which surpasses anything ever displayed in Edgefield before. While on my recent visit north, owing to the money panic and the demoralized condition of the manufacturers, I secured some unprecedented bargains that I am giving my customers the benefit of. Come to our store, see the goods, get our prices, and we are satisfied that you will be pleased. On staple dry goods we are offering some very low prices. We are showing all of the Latest Weaves and Colors. in dress goods such as Panama, Poplin, Batiste, Voil, Mohair, Venition and Broad Cloth—all at surprisingly low prices. Beautiful line of shirt waist material. We are offering calicoes, homespun, gingham and sea island from 5c up. Beautiful assortment of Ladies Waists and Ladies Skirts from $1.00 to $3.00. Fine Panama and Broadcloth from $3.50 to $8.50. Ladies long cloaks from $3.00 to $8.50. Silk rain coats $5.00 to $12.50. Full line of men's and children's coats and Reefers. Clothing. We can fit the men in stylish and durable suits from $4.50 to $15.00. Good values in youth's and boys clothing from $1.50 to $10.00. Very strong line of children's clothing at bargain prices. You will make a great mistake if you do not see our stock of clothing before you buy. Very strong line of underwear for ladies, misses, men and boys, the best we have offered. Large stock of stylish hats for men and boys at tempting prices. Shoes. Our shoe department is particularly strong. Fit your children with our school shoes. They look well and wear well. Ladies fine dress shoes in all of the popular leathers. Men's heavy work shoes and stylish dress shoes. Do not fail to see our stock before supplying your needs. Millinery. Ladies, misses and children's ready-to-wear hats in the latest styles and much cheaper than ever. Space will not permit us to mention all of our offerings. Come and inspect them that is all we ask. J. W. PEAK.