Considering the very heavy rainfall of Thursday last, amounting almost to a cloudburst, the taxpayers were exceedingly fortunate in having only two bridges washed away in the county. One was across Stevens creek on the Long Cane road and the other was across the same creek on the Ninety Six road.

While the yield of cotton will not be what it promised at one time, yet it is a fact that with the staple selling for upwards of twelve cents farmers will realize a handsome sum for their crop. Some days ago Mr. W. D. Holland told us that he received a check for $137.52 for two bales of cotton, and estimating the seed at $18 would make the total receipts $155.52. Farmers wear broad smiles when they receive such returns.

We Speak For Pass No. 1.

We understand that Dr. D. A. J. Bell and Mr. L. F. Dorn are already contending with each other as to which shall be in charge of the first electric car that will run from Parksville to Edgefield after the Twin City harnesses the Savannah and supplies the necessary power. The Advertiser man is anxious for a settlement of this contention to be reached, so we will know to whom to make application for free pass No. 1.

Kindness Appreciated.

The editor of The Advertiser wishes to express his sincere appreciation to Dr. D. A. J. Bell, Mr. J. R. Boddie and Mr. B. D. Kitchings, for the thoughtful courtesies extended, and valuable assistance rendered our representative, Mr. C. M. Mellichamp, in his tour of the west-side last week. The pleasure and profit derived from his trip were greatly increased through the efforts and kindness of these three gentlemen.

"Home of Good Clothes"

No name stands higher in Augusta than that of E. S. McCreary and Co., "the home of good clothes." Attention is directed to McCreary's new advertisement in this issue. The policy of this firm has been the purchasing of garments that possess merit as well as style, and it has been a strict adherence to this policy that has built for them a large and steadily increasing business. When shopping in Augusta do not fail to call at the McCreary store, 742 Broad.

Entertained Beautifully

Miss Eileen Ozuts entertained nearly a half a hundred of her young friends very delightfully Thursday evening last. The brilliantly lighted and beautifully decorated home presented a very enchanting scene on this happy occasion. After a number of games and contests were engaged in, an excellent supper, consisting of several courses, was beautifully served. Miss Eileen made a most charming hostess, seeing that every one of her guests enjoyed the occasion to the fullest extent. It was with great reluctance that adieus were said.

Shows Marked Increase

The Advertiser's subscription list is growing by leaps and bounds. Our representative, Mr. C. M. Mellichamp, wrote us from Plum Branch last week: "On Wednesday I added fourteen new names to the subscription list and Thursday I added twelve and up to two o'clock to-day I have added eight. The majority of the new subscribers paid cash in advance." The people appreciate what The Advertiser is doing for the development of the county along all lines, and are rallying to our support. We feel encouraged to do more and to give them a still better paper.

Popular Both in Georgia and Carolina.

Attention is directed to the new advertisement of the Georgia-Carolina Furniture Company in this issue. This popular and aggressive firm succeeds Fleming and Bowles, the old furniture dealers of Augusta. They call especial attention this week to their iron, brass and enameled beds which should be of interest to every housewife who contemplates purchasing furniture. Every lady who will send her name and address to the Georgia-Carolina Furniture Company will receive a nice case of needles free. It's worth writing for.

A Hurry Up Call.

Quick! Mr. Druggist—Quick!—A box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve—Here's a quarter—For the love of Moss, hurry! The Road to Success has many obstructions, but none so desperate as poor health. Success today demands health, but Electric Bitters is the greatest health builder the world has ever known. It compels perfect action of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, purifies and enriches the blood, and tones and invigorates the whole system. Vigorous body and keen brain follow their use. You can't afford to slight Electric Bitters if weak, run-down or sickly. Only 50c. Guaranteed by W. E. Lynch & Co., Penn & Holstein, successors to G. L. Penn & Son.

The new Talcum Powder, Garwood's pound package of Talcum powder for only 25 cents. Nothing better on the market. Penn & Holstein.

We Need Mr. Edmund's "Rabbit Foot."

Mr. E. N. Edmunds who conducts a first-class blacksmith and repair shop at Parksville stated to The Advertiser's representative a few days ago that he has been doing work on credit, just as a merchant sells goods on credit, and that his losses will not exceed one dollar per year during the last ten years. This indicates two things, that Mr. Edmunds is a good collector and that his patrons are an honest debt-paying people. The writer would like to borrow Mr. Edmund's "rabbit foot" or learn his "collecting secret."

No Place Like Home.

While in Augusta a few days ago we met by chance our friend James L. Gilchrist who though he lives south of the Savannah is not yet a Georgian by any means. As he has suffered greatly from rheumatism since leaving his old home, it is probable that he will in no very remote day sell his Georgia farm and move back to his first love, the banks of Turkey creek and the Rehoboth hills. Mr. Gilchrist has 15 fine cows and finds dairying very profitable but the scarcity of labor and the condition of his health may cause him to come back home.

A Cordial Invitation.

The name of Levy is familiar to the Edgefield people. For years many of them have supplied their needs at the popular store of J. Willie Levy and Co., of Augusta, and in this issue will be found a very cordial invitation to the Edgefield public from these large clothiers and furnishers. In addition to carrying a very large stock of stylish dependable clothing for men, J. Willie Levy Co. have a well equipped ladies' department on their second floor, to which they invite the ladies when they visit Augusta. See their advertisement in this issue.

Do You Get Up

With a Lame Back?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost every one knows of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because of its remarkable health restoring properties. Swamp-Root fulfills almost every wish in overcoming rheumatism, pain in the back, kidney, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book, telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Home of Swamp-Root, Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all druggists. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Night on Bald Mountain.

One lonely night, Alex. Benton of Fort Edward, N. Y., climbed Bald Mountain to the home of a neighbor, tortured by asthma, bent on curing him with Dr. King's New Discovery, that had cured himself of asthma. This wonderful medicine soon relieved and quickly cured his neighbor. Later it cured his son's wife of a severe lung trouble. Millions believe its the greatest throat and lung cure on earth.
