Do not fail to hear Mr. Entrioken lecture Friday night. Popular prices.

Miss Ollie Pickle has been spending several days with her sister, Mrs. Luther Paul.

Mrs. C. E. Burts and little Charles have returned after a very pleasant sojourn of a month in Anderson.

Dr. J. H. Burgess, of Seneca, spent a portion of last week in Edgefield visiting his brother, Rev. T. P. Burgess.

For Rent: Five-room house convenient to college. Possession given at once. Apply to J. L. Mims.

The Candy Club was entertained very delightfully at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Hill Saturday night last.

Mr. Entrioken has 200 very fine arctic views and an extremely powerful stereopticon with which to present them.

Married, Friday night, January 7th, by S. M. Smith, Esq., Mrs. Salie Parrish and Mr. John Henry Hill, at the home of Mr. Lewis Wood.

A thirsty individual broke into the depot Friday night and carried away twelve and a half gallons of whiskey and $42.60 in cash. The thief has not yet been apprehended.

Everybody in Edgefield and the surrounding country should seize the opportunity of hearing Mr. Entrioken's polar lecture Friday night.

Rev. Mr. Johns, rector of one of the leading Episcopal churches in Washington, D. C., has arrived in Edgefield to spend several weeks with Rev. R. G. Shannonhouse.

There are several unmarried couples yet left in the Mountain Creek section, but, judging from what we have heard, Rev. J. E. Johnston's services will soon be needed by one or more of these couples.

Mr. Jas Minick, and his two sisters, Misses Janie and Belle, of Aiken, S. C., have returned after a pleasant visit to G. L. Toole.—Aiken Journal.

Students' entertainments given in Edgefield are the highest priced in the entire lycium. Tickets are being sold at 25c and 50c as the others.

Mr. P. R. Wates is now in the field representing The Advertiser as collector and solicitor. He is in the eastern portion of the county this week, and any favors or courtesies shown him will be appreciated by the editor.

Mr. B. R. Smith's receipt for the corn prize which was published last week stated that he grew 90 1/2 bushels of corn on one acre, when it should have been 93 1/2 bushels.

Rev. B. B. Seals who has been teaching at Staverville, Ga., has accepted the pastorate of the Baptist church at Langley. Rev. Mr. Seals' Edgefield and Johnston friends will be pleased to learn that he has located permanently on the Carolina side of the Savannah.

Mr. James T. Mims, the county treasurer, and his faithful assistant, Mr. H. T. Madox, are issuing a greater number of receipts now than in the fall. Most of the corporations have paid up and the individual taxpayers are coming forward before the penalty is added.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Fowler have returned from Carroll, Iowa, where Mr. Fowler was receiver for the First National Bank. Their friends are glad to welcome them back to Aiken. They have been in Carroll for more than a year.—Aiken Journal.

Mr. James C. Walker has resigned as engineer of the Beaver Dam Mills and accepted a like position at Clearwater. Mr. Bean Walker has accepted a position in the machine shops of the mill at Bath. Edgefield gave up these good people with great reluctance.

A strong indication that fourteen cents cotton has put ready cash in somebody's pocket is found in the fact that Messrs. Wilson & Canteloid sold about twenty horses and mules during December, receiving spot cash for every one of them. Heretofore, the demand for stock did not open till after Christmas, and then a large per cent were sold on credit.

Mr. B. J. Day is one of the most successful farmers in the county, and the secret of his success is the adoption of modern methods and improved implements. He brought his wagon to Edgefield last week and carried back a large three-horse Deere turn plow, a stalk cutter and a heavy disk harrow. Mr. Day made 76 bales of cotton on 85 acres last year.

You will doubtless never have an opportunity of hearing vivid accounts of polar expeditions from the lips of Cook or Peary, but Friday night you can hear one who accompanied both of the explorers to the arctic regions.

Mr. P. W. Cheatham, the efficient clerk of the county board of commissioners, has circulated a petition to be presented to Edgefield's delegation to the general assembly asking that the salary of the clerk be increased to $300 per annum, which is much less than some of the other counties pay for the same service. We believe that the increase will be made.

Mr. A. A. Edmunds and Mr. L. T. May, having a decided penchant for good things to eat, have again formed a copartnership for the purpose of opening a restaurant in the store to the rear of the Bank of Edgefield formerly occupied by Miss Ida Covar. Mr. A. A. Edmunds, who is a chef of great renown, will be in active charge. They will tell the public of their good things next week.

Ladies are well pleased Mrs. Hatcher's work: Shampooing, scalp treatment, Massaging, Manicuring, Chiropody, Hair bleach, face bleach and hair dye.

The Honolulu Students.

As previously announced, the next lyceum attraction will be held in the opera house Monday night next, a splendid vocal and instrumental program will be rendered by the Honolulu students, who have been greeted by large audiences in all parts of the country. The Daily Herald had the following to say of their entertainment in Northampton, Mass.:

"The entertainment course given under the auspices of the Home Culture Club opened last evening with the Honolulu Students. To say that they greatly pleased the audience is but stating the fact mildly. They are born entertainers and sang with a vim and snap that carried the audience with them from the start. Too much cannot be said in praise of the Sextette from the Hawaiian Islands. Every number was encored. The entertainers proved themselves to be finished singers and instrumentalists. The illustrated views of the Islands, alone, were worth the price of admission."

News Items From Trenton.

Mr. J. D. Mathis and family leave for Florida on Wednesday of this week.

Senator B. R. Tillman was in town Saturday.

Mrs. George Wise has retired from the hotel business and the Trenton Hotel is now closed to the public.

Mr. A. J. Day of Saluda and Fountain Inn spent Sunday here.

Mrs. Pearce Walker is on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Leila Koper.

The local Lyceum managers have secured Mr. Sidney Landon as an extra attraction, to appear at Wise Hall on Friday night of this week.

Mr. Landon is an Impersonator and Humorist, and comes with A1 endorsement.

Sore throat has appeared here and has become so general that it has even attacked the hogs in large numbers and in numerous cases it has proved fatal.

With apologies to "Occasional." BUTINSKY.

Farmers' Institutes.

The Advertiser has been requested to announce that farmers' institutes will be held at Johnston Wednesday, January 19th, and at Edgefield Thursday, January 20th. Prof. D. N. Barrow of Clemson College will deliver addresses at both places. These institutes should be attended by a large number of farmers. Prof. Barrow is a scientist as well as a practical agriculturalist, and every word that he utters can be listened to with profit.

Lecture By Arctic Explorer.

Through the efforts of the ladies who compose the Civic League, Mr. S. J. Entrioken, who with his bride is spending a short time in Aiken, has been induced to come to Edgefield to deliver a lecture on the Arctic regions. Mr. Entrioken has been on three polar expeditions, having accompanied Cook and Peary both. A very strong indorsement of his integrity as a man and qualifications as a lecturer is found in the fact that some years ago he was chosen by the government as one of the party of eight who composed the Peary relief expedition. Mr. Entrioken will lecture in the opera house Friday night, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Besides appearing in Arctic clothing of heavy furs, he will illustrate his lecture with a very powerful stereopticon, giving in all about 200 views.

For several months you have been reading of the hardships and thrilling experiences of Cook and Peary, neither of whom you will ever see or hear, and now you have the opportunity of hearing one who underwent all of the privations and experienced all of the pleasures of polar expeditions. Do not let the opportunity pass. Take your sweetheart or every member of your family, as the case may be. The ladies have put the price with each of all: 35 cents for reserved seats and 25 cents for general admission. Tickets on sale at Rives Bros. store.

Meeting of County Union.

A meeting of the Farmers' Union of Edgefield county was held in the court house Monday, but as the day was very cold the attendance was small. Practically no business was transacted. The members of the County Union desire to go on record as favoring a small tax on all hunters, say one or two dollars per annum. This meeting was discussed in Monday's meeting. The next matter of the County Union will be held on Tuesday after the first Monday in April.

Special Offer on Pianos.

On January 3rd, Messrs. Holland Bros. of Greenwood, the large and very reliable dealers in musical instruments, received an order for a $300.00 piano, shipping it out the same day. The sale of this instrument was the result of a special proposition which they have on 100 Farrand pianos at $300. each. The person who ordered the piano had investigated the pianos and prices, and knew a good thing when they saw it.

If you want scalp treatment, dandruff cured and your hair to grow, go to see Mrs. W. C. Hatcher at Mrs. N. M. Jones'. This work will be done quickly. If you want braids made, save your combings and take them to Mrs. Hatcher.

Small Number Examined.

Pursuant to the announcement, County Superintendent of Education A. R. Nicholson held the examination for teachers Friday last but owing to the cold weather only two white teachers, Miss Janie Rosenswike, of Cleora, and Mr. F. A. Wise, who has been teaching below Trenton, appeared to be examined. There was only one colored applicant.

County's Roads Good.

Supervisor R. J. Moultrie and his co-workers, the members of the board of commissioners, Mr. J. N. Griffiths and Mr. J. O. Herrin, can not be commended too highly for the excellent condition of the public roads of the county. Notwithstanding the fact that it is now the middle of January, the roads in the main are in better condition than they were in midsummer some years ago. Supervisor Moultrie is having thorough work done a specimen being the recently worked portion of the road between Edgefield and Johnston. The road has been widened in places by opening the old ditches on the sides and the dirt has been dragged to the centre, which keeps high and dry the beaten track made by vehicles.

Statement From Cemetery Association.

The annual dues of members of the Cemetery Association will be called for within the next few days. From this time on it will be necessary to depend upon these for the most part to meet the expenses of the association. Heretofore, these have amounted to less than one hundred dollars. It will take twice that amount to maintain a keeper and meet other expenses. The committee must urge, therefore, that those interested in the cemetery contribute more generally and generously. Shall our cemetery be kept in neat condition, and thus a proper respect be shown the memory of our dead? Your response to this appeal will answer the question. C. E. Burts, For Committee.

Notice.

On the fifth day of February 1910, the undersigned will make a final settlement of the estate of Miss Bessie C. Johnson, deceased, in the office of Judge of Probate at Edgefield, South Carolina, and will at the same time apply for a final discharge from this trust as administrator with the will annexed of said estate.

J. E. JOHNSON.

Universally Complimented.

Edgefield is very proud of Joe Holland's achievements in the athletic field. He is now recognized as one of the foremost base ball players of the south. Everywhere he has played, the press has been unstinted in its praises of his fine plays. The Roanoke Times recently published nearly a half column concerning Joe's record. It was in Roanoke that he made such a fine record last summer. About the middle of February Joe will go to Clemson to coach the team for two months. They are very fortunate in securing his services. He has signed up with Roanoke for another season, which will open about the middle of April.

Delightful Party in Buncombe.

Mariam Norris gave a pretty New Year's party Friday, Jan. 6th 1910. Fourteen girls were present, Florence Mims, Florence Peak, Natalie Padgett, Charlotte Strother, Helen Hattiwanger, Marjorie Tompkins, June Rainsford, Anna Hollingsworth, Julia Folk, Nell Jones, Rosalinda Parker, Thelma Bailey, Helen Tillman and Lizzie Hollingsworth. The parlor and dining room were decorated in green. Red crepe paper was draped from the windows, and green smilax hung over the pictures. This looked very pretty.

The refreshments were chicken and potato salads, pickles, crackers, Charlotte Russe, caramel and fruit cake. After lunch, Harold Norris took our picture under some beautiful trees in the backyard.

We all spent a very pleasant afternoon and hope that parties like that will occur often.

HELEN TILLMAN.

I want to begin the new year in business by thanking my friends and customers for the success which I have had during the year just closed.

In both the watchwork and Optical branches of my business, I am very much gratified to have seen a steady and substantial improvement, which goes to show that the efforts which I have made during the past year 1909 to continually raise the standard of my business wherever possible, has not been overlooked by my patrons.

And now for 1910, with better appliances, better equipment, better methods and new ideas, and with a double soled stock of determination to still raise the standard, if possible. I beg a continuance of the patronage which the public has kindly given me.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE F. MIMS,
Edgefield, S. C.

Nature's Warning.

Edgefield People Must Recognize and Heed it.

Kidney ills come quietly—mysteriously. But nature always warns you. Notice the kidney secretions. See if the color is unhealthy. If there are settlements and sediment.

Passages frequent, scanty, painful. It's time then to use Doan's kidney pills. To ward off Bright's disease or diabetes.

Doan's have done great work in this locality.

J. H. Schwartz, S. Main street., Lexington, S. C., says: "I have been using Doan's kidney pills but a short time but can say that I have received more benefit than from any other remedy. I was annoyed by too frequent passages of the kidney secretions which were also highly colored and contained a sediment. My back pained me severely at times. I finally procured Doan's kidney pills and am pleased to state that they gave me great relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's and take no other.

Fresh Supply of Horses and Mules.

Mr. B. L. Jones has gone west—to the heart of the stock raising region—to make additional purchases of horses and mules. These large dealers announce in their advertisement this week that the fresh shipment will arrive on January 19, and invite all prospective buyers to call at their stables and inspect their stock. They can sell you farm stock, brood mares or horses with speed.

Reliable Southern Company.

In this issue will be found an advertisement of the Southern States Life Insurance Company of Alabama. Mr. J. B. Hattiwanger has accepted the agency for this popular southern company, which was organized in May 1908. Besides the regular or standard contracts, this company issues policies with special features that should appeal to those seeking insurance. The Southern States is distinctly a southern company and while its volume of business is not as large as some of the northern companies it is just as safe, and should receive a liberal support from the southern people. With each succeeding year the company's business has shown a large increase, which is an unmistakable indorsement of its liberal contracts.

A Wild Blizzard Raging.

Brings danger, suffering, often death to thousands, who take colds, coughs and lagrippe that terror of winter and spring. Saved at Death's Door.

The door of death seemed ready to open for Murry W. Ayers, of Transit Bridge, N. Y., when his life was wonderfully saved. I was in a dreadful condition he writes, "my skin was almost yellow; eyes sunken; tongue coated; emaciated from losing 40 pounds, growing weaker daily. Virulent liver trouble pulling me down to death in spite of doctors. Then that matchless medicine Electric Bitters cured me. I regained the 40 pounds lost and now am well and strong." For all stomach, liver and kidney troubles they're supreme. 50c at Penn & Holstein, W. E. Lynch & Co.

Merely a Suggestion.

He had managed to accumulate a lot of money by more or less questionable methods. "I should like to do something for the benefit of the town," he said. "Well," suggested the poor but otherwise honest citizen, "you might move out of it."—Chicago News.

A Wretched Mistake

to endure the itching, painful distress of Piles. There's no need to listen: "I suffered much from piles," writes Will A. Marsh, of Silver City, N. C., till I got a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and was soon cured. Burns, boils, ulcers, fever sores, eczema, cuts, chapped hands, chilblains, vanish before it. 25c at Penn & Holstein's, W. E. Lynch & Co.
