Residence, No. 17.

Miss May Roper came down from Plum Branch to spend Saturday and Sunday at home.

Large fat mackerel—just what you want for breakfast.
B. Timmons.

Mr. J. R. King was received into the Methodist church and Mr. E. G. Tillman united by letter Sunday morning last.

Miss Linie Horde, a beautiful young lady from Trenton, has been spending several days with her aunt, Mrs. W. S. Adams.

We make suits to order from $25.00 up, F. G. MERTIN'S, Augusta, Ga.

The Advertiser's corn contest enrollment grows day by day, but we will make rooms for at least a hundred more names yet.

We saw the first full bloom peach blooms of the season on Saturday last. Dr. J. G. Edwards had plucked them while making his professional rounds.

RIVES BROS. new spring goods and millinery will arrive this week showing all the late novelty of the season.—Adv.

Copy for changes of advertisements must reach this office by noon Mondays. All advertisers will please heed this notice.

Put out your onion sets as soon as the ground is in order. We can supply you with the best.
B. Timmons.

Mr. J. L. Hart is closing out his stock of general merchandise and will devote his entire time to his farming interests.

Every instrument Holland Bros. sell is insured against fire for two years, and should the instrument get burned you will get another just like it in its place.

Miss Bailey, the new Milliner this season at Rives Bros. will arrive tomorrow. She comes from Armstrong Cater & Co., of Baltimore, with highest recommendations.

Mrs. W. S. Cogburn, accompanied by her two bright little sons, spent the early part of this week in Augusta with her sister, Mrs. W. J. Miller.

Another car load of Pittsburgh Perfect Fence just received—any height you want. Now is the time to rebuild your pasture fences. Use Pittsburgh wire and you will have no more fence troubles.
Stewart & Kernaghan.

The store that is now occupied by Mr. J. L. Hart has been leased by William Wates, a young man from Ninety-Six, who will open a candy kitchen. This will be pleasing information for the little folks.

On our first page will be found a concise statement from Mr. B. R. Smith telling his fellow farmers how he made the prize winning yield of corn from an acre last year. Mr. J. W. Marsh, the winner of the second prize, has promised to write-up his acre also for The Advertiser.

Rent contracts, mortgages of personal property, titles to real estate and mortgages of real estate for sale at this office. The legal blanks that The Advertiser sells will stand the test of the courts.

Misses Christine and Enmie Tompkins went to Charlotte last Thursday to be the guest of Mr. D. A. Tompkins. While in Charlotte they will run up to Davidson college for a short stay where their cousins, Messrs. Dozier and Edward Lynch, are students.

Nunnally's celebrated candy by express.
Penn & Holstein.

Dr. A. H. Corley and Mr. C. E. Johnson have returned from a trip to Florida and report having had a "corking" time. Possibly a whiff of the fragrant orange blossoms will be suggestive to these young bachelors and cause them to "get busy."

Mr. H. E. Quarles, the popular young Red Hill merchant, went down to Augusta Friday to consult a specialist concerning his eyes, which have been giving trouble for some time.

Miss Earline Allen has closed her school three miles above Johnston and has come home to remain permanently. Her friends have welcomed her return most cordially.

Have you seen Stuart's clipping machines. Call at our store and examine them—just what you have been wanting.
Stewart & Kernaghan.

Mr. W. S. Cogburn was called to Memphis, Tenn., Monday on business connected with his company, the Western Life Insurance company. The Advertiser was pleased to learn from Mr. Cogburn that while he has for some time contemplated making his headquarters in Augusta or Atlanta he will remain in Edgefield till next fall.

Mr. Lovick Smith, of Augusta, accompanied by his beautiful bride, came to Edgefield for a short time Saturday. They spent last week with Mr. Smith's father, Mr. G. M. Smith.

We have been informed that Mr. Philip Markert is contemplating selling his large farm on the river. Edgefield would extend him and his good wife a very cordial welcome, if he should decide to come and live among us.

Come soon and select your new Easter Hat at RIVES BROS., made by a competent Milliner from Baltimore.—Adv.

Come to us for your valentines—beautiful and comic, sublime and ridiculous—from 1 cent to $2.50
B. Timmons.

Mr. C. E. Quarles' friends are urging him to make the race for County Supervisor. Mr. Quarles is a mighty good man but we do not know whether he will yield to the solicitations of his friends.

We will tell you in our next issue when RIVES BROS., will show their pattern Hat and when they will have their regular Spring Millinery opening. Rives Bros.

We have the best clothes made at reasonable price, ask for the Hart Schaffner & Marx Suit, MERTIN'S the tailors, clothier & furnisher, Augusta, Ga.

We have just received a shipment of Tailored Shirt Waist and Tailored work Suits and a Tailored Skirt for $1.00 worth $1.50. See them at once. Rives Bros.

Hon. J. C. Sheppard went over to Columbia Monday on legal business.

Let every young man carry his best girl to the entertainment to be given Friday night at the college by the ladies of the Civic League.

Notwithstanding the very hard winter, we have already had some real picnic weather. Quite a number of little folks, those of the age of Margaret May and George Burgess, went out on a picnic and search for flowers Saturday last.

Mr. Jasper Parks, of Augusta, spent Saturday and Sunday in Edgefield with his aunt, Mrs. Emeline Cartledge.

Refreshments will be served in the college dining room at the conclusion of the program Friday evening.

Dr. J. A. Dobe, of Johnston, visited the county seat Monday.

Mrs. James D. Mathis was among the Trenton visitors in Edgefield Monday.

Owing to the great number of announcements, attention can not be called to all of the candidates' cards this week. Special notice will be given them in our next issue.

Messrs. Quarles & Mellichamp, of Red Hill, sold 300 bushels of corn last week to be delivered from the car at Edgefield. That speaks well for these hustling young country merchants.

Mrs. A. A. Glover, who has been quite indisposed for some time, has gone down to spend some time at the home of Dr. J. E. Green in Augusta. Her friends hope the change will prove beneficial.

Mr. E. S. Rives has returned from New York, where he has spent the past ten days very pleasantly and profitably. His purchases of spring merchandise for Messrs. Rives Bros. are already arriving.

The Red Hill Sunday school will have a special meeting Sunday morning next and the Baraca class will conduct special exercises in the afternoon. Col. F. N. K. Bailey, accompanied by the editor of The Advertiser or some one else from Edgefield, will attend and address these meetings.

We understand that several residences are being improved in the Colliers section. Mr. J. L. Miller has just completed an "L" to his home. Mr. E. B. Mathis will soon make improvements on his residence and Mr. H. W. McKie's handsome new residence will soon be completed.

The "Wizard of the Bargain Counter" is at Mr. J. Rubenstein's, where he will conduct a clearance sale for the next two weeks, commencing Saturday morning next. Mr. Rubenstein will close out every piece of winter merchandise and many new spring goods will be included. Read Mr. Rubenstein's advertisement in this issue.

Mr. J. E. Hart still says "get your laundry in on Tuesdays."

Mr. W. A. Hart announces this week that his spring styles in oxfords, hats, suits, shirts, ties, etc., are now in ready for inspection. He also represents a steam laundry that does high class work.

Mr. James L. Gilchrist was in town Monday, and on being asked how he liked Georgia, replied: "I'd like it all right, if I had all of the Edgefield people living around me," which is to say he doesn't like it without his home people. He asked if he could enter the corn contest along with a number of his friends, whereupon Newton Broadwater, who was standing near, said no "Georgia Crackers" were allowed to enter.

Mr. R. B. Jones spent Sunday in Columbia.

Miss Ellee Swearingen, one of Trenton's charming young ladies, was the guest of Miss Ruth Mays Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. W. M. Carter, of Columbia, who is now employed by the New York Life Insurance Company as special agent was in Edgefield Monday.

I have cured thousands in worse condition than you? Why not let me cure you.
Oxydonor.

Mr. A. R. Nicholson attended the meeting of the County Superintendents of Education in Columbia on Tuesday that was called by State Superintendent of Education J. E. Swearingen.

I would not exchange my Oxydonor, Victory, for any reasonable consideration.

J. H. Swearingen, Chief police, Johnston, S. C.

Talk up the entertainment that is to be given at the college Friday evening by the ladies of the Edgefield Civic League. It is being held to aid a very worthy cause.

Miss Leila Barnwell, of Charleston, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julian R. Strother. During former visits Miss Barnwell many friends in Edgefield.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Johnstone, of Georgetown, returned yesterday after spending several days with Mrs. Johnstone's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Nicholson.

The enrollment for The Advertiser's corn contest promises to be much larger than last year. More than a dozen representative farmers residing in all parts of the county handed in their names Monday.

Mr. M. DeLoach was in town Saturday, accompanied by Manly, Jr., who is a fine little fellow—a chip off the old block. Our only regret is that Manly is not large enough to join the Boys' Corn Club—but the "old block" can enter The Advertiser's corn contest.

Bail was granted to Mr. W. F. Vance Tuesday afternoon. Application was made by his attorneys, Messrs. Thurmond & Nicholson, before Judge Watts. Bond was fixed at $2,500 and signed by Messrs. S. E. Morgan, J. W. R. DeLaughter, C. E. Quarles and B. L. Holston.

Holland Bros. guarantee all of their goods for a term of ten years. They have always been ready to satisfy their customers in all particulars, and to make good any defect that might arise in any instrument. If a slight trouble should arise in any instrument they sell, they will remedy it and if the trouble is a serious one they will give a new instrument in its place.

Hudnut's Toilet Articles.
We have just added a complete line of Hudnut's celebrated toilet articles such as perfume, violet water, cold cream talcum powder, nail enamel, etc. There is nothing superior to these on the market. We invite the ladies to call.

Negro Killed With An Axe.
James McKie, colored, was delivered to Sheriff Ouzts on Friday last by Magistrate Miller's constable, charged with killing another negro Thursday night on the plantation of Mr. John V. Cooper. From what we can learn, several negroes went to McKie's home in a body with the purpose of administering a flogging. The leader of the band went in the house to bring him out, whereupon McKie seized an axe and dealt a fatal blow.

A 50-cent bottle of
given in half-teaspoon doses four times a day, mixed in its bottle, will last a year-old baby nearly a month, and four bottles over three months, and will make the baby strong and well and will lay the foundation for a healthy, robust boy or girl.

The Oxydonor.

The following are recent testimonials showing the popularity of the Oxydonor as a curative agent:

GRIP QUICKLY CURED.
It gives me pleasure to state that Oxydonor cured me, after two applications, at night, of LaGrippe and chronic kidney trouble. I consider it the most wonderful discovery I ever heard of and believe it will do all that is claimed for it.
D. A. Johnson.
Johnston, S. C., Feb. 5, 1910.

CURED OF SPINAL NEURASTHENIA.

I know of no other discovery whose value approaches Oxydonor, "victor." I have a sure conviction, founded on actual, personal experience, that it is one of the greatest boons within human reach, and it seems to me the most important step toward healing human ills in three thousand years.
George P. Goodale,
Pres. Detroit Free Press.

TEN YEARS EXPERIENCE.

I have been using Oxydonor in my family for ten years, and find it all that is claimed for it.
L. S. Arrington, of Arrington, Bros.
Augusta, Ga.

SIX YEARS EXPERIENCE.

I would not be without Oxydonor for its weight in gold.
E. M. Smith,
Pres. Bank of Thomasville,
Thomasville, Ga.

SEVENTEEN YEARS EXPERIENCE.

I am complete master of all kinds of diseases, under reasonable conditions. Oxydonor is the greatest earthly blessing known to man.
J. J. Threkefeld,
Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. W. Walton Fuller.

Having had ten years experience as a teacher in the public schools of the county, and being fully cognizant of the needs of the schools, Mr. W. Walton Fuller announces his candidacy for the office of county superintendent of education. Besides having large family connections, Mr. Fuller has numbers of friends in all parts of the county who will give him loyal and enthusiastic support. He pledges himself to an earnest discharge of duty if elected.

Rheumatism, LaGrippe and all other aggravating and dangerous ailments are things of the past when you use Oxydonor.

For Rent: Six-room cottage with 1 1/2 acres land in South Edgefield, half mile from court house. For further information apply at Dorn & Mims store.

Entertainment at College.

Friday evening next, beginning at 8 o'clock, the ladies of the Edgefield Civic League will give an entertainment in the college auditorium. The program in detail will be found elsewhere in this issue. An exceedingly pleasant evening will be spent by all who attend. An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged, the proceeds being used by the ladies in the prosecution of their work of civic improvement. Tell your friends about the entertainment and urge them to go.

To Dine the Veterans.

(Contributed.)
The Edgefield Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy voted at its last meeting which was held at the residence of Mrs. Leo. D. Gillespie to entertain the Confederate Veterans on Memorial Day with a nice dinner. Every veteran in the county is invited to attend and he is furthermore expected to attend. It is desired to send each one a special invitation, and in order to do that, the ladies would be very much pleased to get the post office address of every veteran in the county.

Mrs. Julian Mims, Mrs. W. L. Duvant, Mrs. J. W. Peak, Mrs. Jas. H. Tillman and Mrs. Thomas H. Rainsford compose a committee of ladies to find out each name and addresses of Veterans. A card sent to either of the above names with veterans addresses will be appreciated.

Welcomed Visitors

Mr. B. B. Wilson, of Lexington, Ky., the veteran dealer in high-class Kentucky horses, is stopping a few days in Edgefield with Mr. B. Cantelou. Mr. Wilson is accompanied on this trip by Mrs. Wilson, who is very active in religious and benevolent work in her home city. Miss Rosa Lake is very intimately associated with Mrs. Wilson in her duties as city missionary in Lexington. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are both the recipients of much attention.

Stands for Re-election.

Having served the people but little more than a year in the capacity of Auditor, Mr. J. Ransom Timmerman announces his candidacy for re-election. Mr. Timmerman is a very capable young man who is not afraid of work and has spared no pains or efforts to make his administration a credit to himself and to the county.
