JOHNSTON LETTER.

J. R. Tompkins and Mr. and Mrs. Kinnaird of Edgefield, Mr. and Mrs. Smyly Stevens and Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. W. S. Logue, Mrs. Bettie Allen and Mrs. Mary Ashley, of Meeting Street.

Mr. M. T. Turner suffered a loss by fire on Saturday afternoon by the burning of his foundry and machine shop at his lumber yard. The building was not more than 20 feet from the main building, and a high wind blowing the fire away was the only thing that saved it from destruction. Mr. Turner carried no insurance on this building, and his loss was about $3,000.

Miss Lila Rhoden is spending a few weeks in Atlanta purchasing new millinery for her opening.

Mr. A. J. Mobley is at home from a month's stay in Florida.

Miss Mertie Williamson, of Leesville, has been the guest of Miss Winton Lott.

Mrs. O. S. Wertz spent last week in Columbia with her son Mr. H. G. Wertz, and was also there to be with her daughter Mrs. H. W. Crouch who is in the city hospital. Some time ago, Mrs. Crouch had to undergo a facial operation, and it was feared that the same trouble was returning.

Mr. Clyde Owdom has gone to Savannah, and probably will accept a position there.

Mr. Samuel Lott died at his home here on last Wednesday evening about 12 o'clock. He was in his 75th year and had been in feeble health for the past two years. He was loved and honored by all and was a kind neighbor and friend. As a soldier in the civil war, he was one of the first to answer his country's call, and it was a great pleasure to him to be present at the gatherings of these old heroes.

Above all, he was a good Christian. He leaves 3 children, Mesdames Flora Lott Faust, of Ohio, and Chas. Lamb, of this place, and Mr. John Lott, of Columbia. The interment was on Thursday morning at the family burying ground nearby.

Miss Vera Trotter, of Leesville is the attractive guest of her cousin Miss Myrtis Smith.

Mr. Almer Yonce and Miss Seibelle Derrick were married on Sunday afternoon at the Lutheran parsonage by Rev. P. E. Monroe. The marriage was quite a surprise to all their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hendrix, of Leesville, visited relatives here this week.

Miss Annie Waters, of Augusta, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of her father, Capt. P. B. Waters.

At the last meeting of the Mary Ann Buie chapter, it was decided to observe memorial day on May 5th instead of the 10th, and Dr. W. S. Dorset has accepted an invitation to address the assembly.

The remains of Mr. Dantzer Toney, whose death was announced in last issue, arrived here on Wednesday morning, accompanied by his brother Mr. Spann Toney. His death was the result of a fall from the train as it was nearing New Orleans, La. He was carried on to a hospital there and given immediate medical attention but internal injuries had been sustained and he died a few hours before his brother, who had been telegraphed of his condition, could reach him. The body was carried from the train to the cemetery, followed by a large concourse of friends, and the burial services were conducted by Rev. Beckham. Mr. Toney comes of one of the highest families in the state, and his death was learned with regret by many. He leaves two sisters, Mesdames Hampton Kirkland, of Bamberg, and Mrs. Burrell Boatwright, of this place, and three brothers, Messrs. William, Spann and Mark Toney.

Two Collars on a Dog.

Having bought a dog that he admired, a man undertook to buy a dog collar. The dog had a neck nearly as big as his head, and the dealer advised the man to buy two collars.

"What for?" said the man. "He's only got one neck, so I guess he can get along with only one collar, can't he?"

"Maybe so," said the man, so the man went away leading the dog by his new collar and chain. In less than a week he brought the dog back.

"I'm afraid I can't keep him," he said. "He is too obstreperous. I can't keep him tied up. His neck is the biggest part of him, and he is as strong as an ox, therefore it is a cinch for him to slip his collar off."

"That was why I wanted you to take two collars," said the dealer. "Put both on and fasten the chain to the back collar, and he can tug away all night without getting loose. He may commit suicide, but he won't get loose."—New York Sun.

Disappointed in Her.
 "And so your father refuses to consent to our union."

"He does, Rodolphus."

The sad youth swallowed a sob. "Is there nothing left for us, then, but an elopement?" said he.

"Nothing."

The girl was fond, but firm. "Do you think, Clementine, that you could abandon this luxurious home, forget all the enjoyments of great wealth, banish yourself forever from your devoted parents' hearts and go west with a poor young man to enter a home of lifelong poverty and self denial?"

"I could, Rodolphus."

The sad youth rose wearily and reached for his hat.

"Then," said he, "you are far from being the practical girl I have all along taken you to be."

And with one last look around on the sumptuousness that some day he had hoped to share he sobbed and said farewell.—Browning's Magazine.

Had to Take His Own Medicine.
 George Barr McCutcheon was waiting for a train in Chicago, and as he passed through the station he saw one of his latest best sellers displayed on the newsstand counter. He picked it up, wrote his name on the fly leaf and handed it to the boy behind the counter. He was moving away when the boy called excitedly:

"Hey, mister, come back here. You've got to buy this book 'cause you've spoiled it by writing your name in it."

"Yes, but did you see the name?" the author asked.

"That don't make no difference," the lad insisted; "nobody'll want to buy it now."

And, hearing his train called, Mr. McCutcheon was forced to pay real money for one of his own books.—Success Magazine.

Outdone.
 Teacher—Now, boys, I want to see if any of you can make a complete sentence out of two words, both having the same sound to the ear.

First Boy—I can, Miss Smith.
 Teacher—Very well, Robert. Let us hear your sentence.

First Boy—Write right.
 Teacher—Very good.
 Second Boy—Say, Miss Smith, I can beat that. I can make three words of it—write, write right.

Third Boy (excitedly)—Geel! Hear this—write, write rite right.
 Teacher (thrown off her guard)—Whew!—Topeka Journal.

Wanted It to Show.
 A rich old farmer once had his portrait painted. When the portrait was finished the old farmer looked at it, shook his head and said to the artist: "Very good. Very good, indeed. But there is one fault that you must remedy. Please make the right side of the chest bulge out. That is where I carry my wallet."

The Sad Part.
 "Doesn't it make you sad," exclaimed the member of the Audubon society, "to see women wearing on their hats the feathers of the poor little birds?"

"I isn't the feathers that make me sad," replied the practical married man. "It's their bills."—Philadelphia Record.

IRISH POTATO PLANTING.

potato requires it. Barnyard manure greatly increases the yield, as it adds nitrogen, phosphoric acid and potash; also greatly improving the mechanical condition of the soil. It is best, however, to not apply the manure directly to the potato crop, but to have used it on the land the year before. An argument against using it directly is that by so doing the dangers of the disease are greatly increased. If it has not been applied to the previous crop, it would be best to have the manure well rotted before applying.

Where the soil has been for several years treated with barnyard manure and green crops plowed under, commercial fertilizers can be used with advantage. What the grower wants in this time is a general fertilizer—that is, a complete one,—containing nitrogen, phosphoric acid and potash. It has been found that fertilizers should contain a good percentage of potash when used on potatoes; and it is there that the special potato fertilizers hold their secret of success. Sulphate of potash is regarded as the best form.

DO IT NOW.

Edgefield People Should Not Wait Until it is Too Late.

The appalling death rate from kidney disease is due in most cases to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious. The slight symptoms give place to chronic disorders and the sufferer goes gradually into the grasp of diabetes, dropsy, Bright's disease, gravel or some other serious form of kidney complaint.

If you suffer from backache, headaches, dizzy spells, if the kidney secretions are irregular of passage and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. Help the kidneys at once.

Doan's kidney pills are especially for kidney disorders, they cure where others fail. Over one thousand people have recommended them.

Here is one of many cases in this vicinity.

H B Sommer, Main street, Aiken, S. C., says: "I have been using Doan's kidney pills during the past few months and they have freed me from a pain in my back and a dull languid feeling that had clung to me for a long time. I took this remedy after others had failed and the results have been so satisfactory that I heartily recommend it."

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other

A burly negro came to the doctor of a west African missionary settlement, dragging his reluctant wife with him.

"Doctor, pull one of my wife's teeth out," said he. The doctor examined the woman's mouth and found only sound teeth.

"Oh, that makes no difference," said the interested negro. "Pull one anyway. If it doesn't hurt too much you can pull my tooth that is aching."

Plant the Irish Cobbler Potato

They are very early and prolific. Here is what The Advertiser said in its issue of April 21st, 1909:

"The Irish Cobbler is by several weeks the earliest potato ever planted in this section. Mr. J. D. Holstein is exhibiting several new crop potatoes of this variety at his store that are larger than a Plymouth Rock egg. They are the finest we have ever seen at this season—only 40c per peck. Dick in a Crowd.

When a certain mild-mannered representative from a middle western state went to Congress, he left behind a body of constituents who fancied that great personal benefit would come to them through their powerful statesman. A farmer with political designs followed the great man to Washington.

"Well, Tom," a friend asked him on his return, "did you see Washington and Dick Blank, and did you get what you went after?"

"Yes, I seen Washington and, I seen Dick Blank," he replied "but Dick could'n't do nuthin' for me. He was havin' a hard time to keep from gettin' tromped on hisself."

An old darkey was among those Adams county vote sellers. Judge Blair said to him:

"I'll impose on you a fine of $5, six months in the workhouse and disfranchise you for five years. The workhouse sentence is suspended."

Old Mose left very much downhearted. To a friend who asked "how he came out?" he answered: "I come out mighty po'ly. I gits only $2 for ma vote, an' de judge
