

Office, No. 61.
Residence, No. 17.

Mrs. W. C. Hatcher has gone to Macon, Ga., to make her home.

Mr. S. Cheatham spent several days in southern Georgia last week on business.

Mrs. J. C. Long and Mrs. Posey came up from Trenton and spent Sunday with Mrs. W. B. Cogburn.

Shoes, suits and pants to sell at 10 per cent reduction for cash.
Dunovan & Co.

Mr. William Griffin Durisoe of Washington is visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Mays spent Sunday at Ouztsville with Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Ouzts, Mrs. Mays' parents.

President F. N. K. Bailey will take the corps of S. C. C. I. cadets to the Aiken fair on Wednesday, November 15.

Mrs. A. A. Glover, Miss Kathleen and sweet little Evelyn came over from North to attend the county fair.

Mr. R. G. Jeffries, a large hardware merchant of Knoxville, has arrived to spend a vacation of a week here with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. D. Jeffries.

We were unable to secure the awards of prizes in the Field Crops department of the fair in time to publish this week. List of awards in that department will appear next week.

After being on the road for seven days, Mr. J. G. Holland arrived from San Francisco Monday. He made a brilliant base ball record on the Pacific coast during the season just closed.

Messrs. Wilson & Cantelou are showing at their stables some of the finest mules ever shipped to Edgefield. Two large mules that are under three years old are particularly fine.

The next regular meeting of the Edgefield chapter, U. D. C., will be held at the home of Mrs. Abner Broadwater the first Tuesday afternoon in November at 3:30 o'clock.

Misses Flossie Lamb, Kate Samuel, Lizzie and Susie Morgan were among those from Edgefield who attended the union meeting at Gilgal last Sunday.

Miss Mattie Lyon has entered upon her duties as teacher of the Long Branch school. The trustees and patrons were fortunate in securing her as teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warren are spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Warren. During the past year they have been living in Pennsylvania, but will in the future make their home in Florida.

This evening at half past six o'clock Miss Lillie May Bailey and Dr. Charles Calhoun Fuller will be married at the Baptist church and a reception will be held in the parlors of the S. C. C. I. immediately after the ceremony.

Miss Sophie Abney had the misfortune to fall Sunday afternoon while ascending the stair-steps, breaking one bone in her right arm just above the wrist. While regretting the painful injury, Miss Abney's friends rejoice that it was not more serious. She will be able to resume her school duties in about a week.

Attention is directed to the following advertisements this week: W. A. Hart, Wilson & Cantelou, Adams Warehouse Company, Edgefield Mercantile Company, W. A. Strom, S. Cheatham, Corner Store, J. B. White & Co., Smith Marsh Company and Beaver Dam Mills.

Special attention is directed to the advertisement of Wilson & Cantelou in which they announce the arrival of their first car of Kentucky horses and mules. A large assortment of dependable stock stock to select from. They will be glad to show you these high-class arrivals.

Sunday morning last the following united with the Baptist church: Miss Hattie Reese presented herself as a candidate for baptism. Misses Josephine, Bessie and Hortense Woodson united by letters from the First Baptist church of Augusta. Dr. and Mrs. M. D. Jeffries and their daughters, Misses Anna and Rose, united by letters from the Baptist church of Jefferson City, Tenn.

For Sale: The Barker place where I reside containing 275 acres, $18 per acre; also the Jack Cheatham place 75 acres $18 per acre, and Dunton place 75 acres, $15 per acre. Crops on all places this year will make nearly a bale of cotton and from 40 to 50 bushels of corn to acre.
Terms easy.

Crosses of Honor.
Mrs. J. D. Holstein, the president of the Edgefield chapter, U. D. C., has requested The Advertiser to announce that she has on hand four crosses of honor belonging to Messrs. C. M. Horn, J. C. Buzhardt, O. J. Prince and B. F. Shanpton. They are requested to call for the crosses or send postage to pay for registration through the mails.

Cancelled Engagement.
On account of sickness Rev. P. P. Blalock could not fill the engagement which he made to preach in the First Baptist church at Orangeburg Sunday. He was taken sick Friday and his physician advised him to cancel the engagement, stating that it would be exceedingly unwise and imprudent to go to Orangeburg.

Trenton's Floral Fair.
The annual floral fair will be held at Trenton Saturday next in the old Methodist church. Turkey dinner will be served as heretofore for the benefit of the cemetery. The Trenton ladies are noted for both their fine flowers and sumptuous feasts, so all who go will enjoy the day thoroughly. The Advertiser bespeaks for these good ladies a generous patronage.

New Firm Progressive.
Had not the rain interfered with his plans, Mr. Lovick Smith, the popular manager of the Smith-Marsh Company, would have had a beautiful float in the parade for his firm. The float was partially built but the inclement weather made it unwise to expose the expensive merchandise that was to be used in the decorations. Mr. Smith says his firm will have a place in next year's parade. He realizes that it is a splendid opportunity to do some effective advertising, as well as contributing to the success of the fair.

The Amateur Races.
The amateur races that were held at the fair (these being altogether devoid of objectionable features) Friday afforded pleasant diversion for those who like to see "fleet-footed horse flesh in action."
The first was Cantelou & Wilson's "Free Giver" against Mr. B. B. Jones' bay. The former won.
The second was Dr. J. H. Carmichael's horse against Dr. A. H. Corley's gray, the latter being declared the winner.
The third was Mr. B. L. Miras' horse against Col. P. B. Mayson's thoroughbred, the latter winning.
The fourth was Col. Mayson's against Dr. Corley's gray, the gray being the winner.

A Series of Sermons.
Dr. M. D. Jeffries announced Sunday morning that he has planned to preach a series of Sunday evening sermons on ten young men of the Bible. The first of the series upon "Jacob, the grasping young man," was preached Sunday evening last and has been very favorably commented upon. Dr. Jeffries' subject for next Sunday night will be "Esau, the easy-going young man." The Sunday evening service may be varied from time to time by occasionally using other themes than one from the series above mentioned. Dr. Jeffries very earnestly desires that the young people of the town hear these special sermons. Much will be said also that will be of value to the older people.

The Annual Parade.
That the almost continuous down-pour last Friday made the holding of the parade impossible that afternoon was very generally regretted. Some who had planned floats and rigs had to give them up altogether on account of the unfavorable weather, and it appeared for a time that the parade would have to be abandoned entirely. But, undaunted by rebuffs, discouragements and adverse conditions, the ladies who had labored so assiduously from the outset for its success would not let it fail. Announcing the parade for Saturday afternoon, the ladies of the parade committee got together all of the rigs, floats, school wagons, etc., that had not been injured by the rain and held an exceedingly creditable parade, one that would do credit to a much larger place than Edgefield.
With Capt. W. A. Collett as marshal of the day the parade was formed in the Evans grove in the following order:
Mounted squad from Edgefield Rifles. Commissioned officers of the S. C. C. I. mounted. Horse back riders, Miss Bessie Woodson with Master James Hart, 1st prize; Miss Mamie Cheatham with Master Oscar Cheatham. The Advertiser's decorated vehicle. Trades display of Beaver Dam Mill, 1st prize. Lott school wagon, 2nd prize. Beaver Dam school, 1st prize. Decorated rigs, Misses Edwardina Blalock and Josephine Woodson 1st prize, Miss Janie Harris and Dr. A. H. Corley. Child's rig, Master Irvin Padgett and Miss Ouida Pattison, representing "Uncle Sam" and "Miss Columbia" 1st prize. Wagon of owners; Float of U. D. C., and float of Dixie Chapter, auxiliary of U. D. C. 1st prize. A prettily decorated automobile representing Capt. Bright's moving picture show was the last to enter the parade.
Although they were not awarded a prize on their exquisitely beautiful rig, Miss Harris and Dr. Corley were showered with compliments.
The child's rig was also a centre of admiration. Not only was the little turn-out decorated in the best of taste but the costumes and demeanor of the occupants were faultless.
The fair association is under lasting obligations to the members of the parade committee for the valuable services which were so unselfishly rendered.
Comment upon the exhibits and fair generally will have to be postponed until next week on account of the crowded conditions of our columns.

Furniture, buggies, Whips, Lap Robes, Wagons and Harness

In these lines we claim to be awfully strong. We feel that we can save you money. We purchase in car lots direct from the very best factories, getting thereby the best possible prices and discounts.

We save high clerk hire, rents, license, town and city tax, water and light bills. We have in our department, suits ranging in price from $18.50 to $85 each. Full line of chairs, center tables, hall racks, extension tables, lounges and sofas. All we ask is to let us show you the quality of goods we are offering and the prices we are making will convince you that we can give you more goods for the same money.

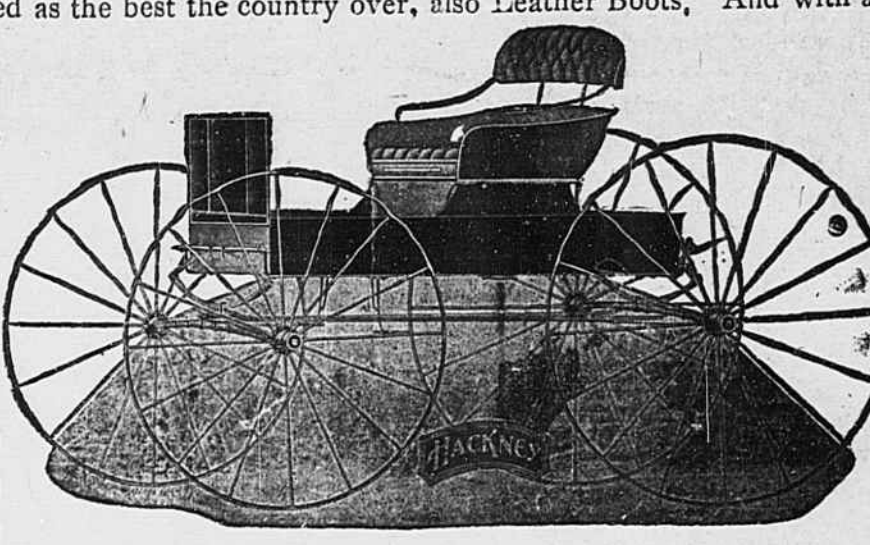

Our buggy and wagon department is complete. Amongst the lines we are handling you will find the "Old Hackney." The one of such wide reputation. We have the buggies in Side spring handy tops, side spring Moyer design, side spring Wood Bar construction also in end spring full Elliptic style oval pattern. This buggy is also equipped with Sheldon Ton-Don axles. The axle that doesn't wear out, a file will not scratch the boxing of the wheel, has phosphoric bronze lining—the stuff that automobile bearings and steamship propellers are made of. A metal that becomes smoother and tougher as the box turns on the spindle. This axle has a guarantee from the factory. They replace without charge or question any broken Sheldon Ton-Don axle no matter what the cause of breakage. Also one that develops any imperfection of material or workmanship. We also have put on our Hackney buggies the celebrated Bradley Couplers, recognized as the best the country over, also Leather Boots, And with all these good points we sell the buggy at $80.00 for steel tire, $100.00 for the best make rubber tire.

The Hackney wagon has grown in popularity where it has been offered for sale. It runs light and carries heavy loads. No better material goes in any wagon, no heavier irons. We know the wagon from actual test made by ourselves on Greenwood and Edgefield county roads. Frankly, no better wagon can be offered at any price. Our prices:
No. 218 one horse wagon $38.50
" 250 two " " 57.50
" 265 " " " 60.00

Our 250 wagon is as heavy and will carry as much load as such numbers of 275 wagons other makes.

In our harness department we have the well known Anchor line made by Montgomery-Moore Mfg. Co., of Nashville, Tenn. After looking over many we decided on their line. They having the best breast collars, traces, belly bands, stay straps we have been able to find. Prices range from $10 to $20 per set. Buggy whips and lap robes. We have a very complete line of whips from a 5 1-2 ft. Java to 6 1-2 ft. rawhide. Prices 10c to $1.25. Plush Lap Robes. We have the well known Stroock and Chase. "When you see these names on a Plush Robe it is equal to a sterling mark on silver." Our stock is very complete. Have a beautiful assortment of solid colors, floral and animal patterns.
