

Edgefield Advertiser.

Celebration of Lee's Birthday.

As has been their custom for a number of years, the members of the Edgefield chapter, U. D. C., will hold appropriate exercises on the afternoon of January 19th in commemoration of the birthday of Gen. Robert E. Lee. The address will be delivered by Dr. M. D. Jeffries. The exercises will be held in the Baptist church. An interesting program is being arranged for the occasion.

Officers Elected.

Tuesday night Butler lodge, I. O. O. F., elected the following officers to serve for the ensuing six months: Rev. R. G. Shannonhouse, noble grand; Rev. P. P. Blalock, vice grand; J. S. Byrd, warden; W. H. Bee, outer guardian; R. L. Dunovant, secretary and treasurer. The appointive officers will be announced later. It was decided last night to hold the annual oyster supper Tuesday night, January 23rd.

Mr. Cheatham's Auction Sale.

Those who are needing household goods, farming implements, farm produce, cattle, etc., should bear in mind the auction sale that Mr. S. Cheatham is to conduct at his residence on Tuesday, January 30th. As Mr. Cheatham has purchased a farm in Georgia and will soon move there to reside permanently he will sell practically all of his personal property to save the trouble and expense of moving it. A complete list of the property to be sold will be found in his advertisement in this issue.

Annual Fraternal Feasts.

At this season of the year the lodges of the town hold their annual feasts. After the installation of the officers on Tuesday evening of last week the Knights of Pythias enjoyed their annual oyster supper.

Thursday evening last the Woodmen, a rapidly growing order, held their feast after the annual installation exercises. Appropriate short speeches were made by Mr. C. M. Mellichamp, Capt. John R. Blocker, Hon. B. E. Nicholson, Hon. S. McG. Simkins and Hon. M. P. Wells.

Week of Prayer.

The missionary society of the Baptist church will observe the week of prayer, beginning Tuesday afternoon, January 16th, at 3:30 o'clock. The subject will be Pagan Fields, Mrs. J. W. Peak, leader.

Wednesday afternoon will be devoted to mission work in Italy, Mexico and South America, conducted by Mrs. W. E. Lott.

The Silver Sunbeam Jubilee exercises will be given by Edgefield Sunbeams on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. M. D. Jeffries has arranged an interesting program on "The Baptist world" for the meeting on Friday. The Christmas offering envelopes will be collected at that time. All members and those interested in missions are cordially invited to attend all of the services.

Big Glosing Out Sale at Trenton.

On account of the recent death of Mr. Vann, the senior member of the firm, Vann & Leppard, under the management and direction of Mr. W. M. Leppard, will close out their entire stock, beginning Saturday morning next at 9:30 o'clock. See the full page advertisement on our third page and read of the marvelous price reduction. You will be convinced then that Mr. Leppard means what he says about the goods having to be moved out at once. The low prices at which this staple merchandise has been marked will cause it to be quickly converted into cash. Furthermore, at the prices named it will not require much cash to supply your needs. It will pay you to borrow the money in order to avail yourself of these bargains.

Saves Two Lives.

Neither my sister nor myself might be living to-day, if it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery writes A. D. McDonald of Fayetteville, N. C. RFD No. 8, "for we both had frightful coughs that no other remedy could help. We were told my sister had consumption. She was very weak and had night sweats but your wonderful medicine completely cured us both. It's the best I ever used or heard of." For sore lungs, coughs, colds, hemorrhages, lagrippe, asthma, hay fever, croup, whooping cough—all bronchial troubles—its supreme. Trial bottle free. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by Penn & Holstein, W. E. Lynch & Co., B. Timmons.

Revival Services.

Commencing with Sunday, January 21st, Dr. M. D. Jeffries will hold a series of special services at the Baptist church. He will do the preaching and the music will be conducted by Mr. M. J. Babbitt, a gospel singer from Atlanta. The time for holding the services and other details will be announced later.

School Claims to be Paid.

County Treasurer J. T. Mims informed The Advertiser's representative Monday that as soon as the matter can be brought before the legislature by the members of the Edgefield delegation provision will be made for paying the outstanding school claims at once. The holders of these claims should read a notice published by Superintendent of Education W. W. Fuller in this issue.

Mr. Floyd's Cannery.

The writer is indebted to Mr. Wiley Floyd of Red Hill for several large cans of delightful beans and peaches, the product of his home-cannery. Mr. Floyd is planning to put about 15,000 cans of fruit and vegetables on the market next summer. The output of his cannery for the 1911 season sold readily at good prices. In fact, Mr. Floyd was unable to supply the demand. He gives full measure and uses only fruit and vegetables of the best quality.

Death of Mrs. Nicholson.

Early Friday morning last Mrs. Nicholson, the wife of Dr. Walter Nicholson, passed peacefully away after a tedious illness that lasted through many months. Before her marriage Mrs. Nicholson was Miss Butler, a daughter of the late Mr. William Butler, being a descendant of one of the oldest and most cultured Edgefield families. Although a great sufferer during her long illness, Mrs. Nicholson exercised patience and fortitude that come only through reliance upon a higher source. Always gentle, thoughtful, kind and self-sacrificing, this good lady will be greatly missed in the home and by her friends.

The interment took place in the Nicholson cemetery Saturday morning, a short service being conducted at the grave. Mrs. Nicholson is survived by her husband, one daughter, Miss Lou Nicholson, and one son, Mr. Walter L. Nicholson.

Death of Mr. Robert H. Covar.

Mr. Covar's Edgefield friends were saddened by the intelligence of his death which occurred at his home in Augusta Wednesday afternoon last. He was born here and made Edgefield his home until about 10 years ago. Mr. Covar was an excellent printer and for a number of years was The Advertiser's foreman. The following notice of his death appeared in the Augusta Herald:

"Mr. Robert H. Covar, a well known printer of this city, died at his residence on Glover street at 4:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, after a lingering illness. The funeral services will be held from the Woodlawn Methodist church at 3:30 o'clock Friday afternoon, Rev. A. D. Echols and Rev. G. F. Venable officiating. The interment will be in the city cemetery. Mr. Covar was a popular member of Social Lodge, F. and A. M.; Woodlawn Lodge No. 29, Jr. O. U. A. M., and Typographical Union No. 41. Each of these lodges will be represented at the funeral and burial services and the rites of each order will be observed.

Deceased was born in April of 1870 in Edgefield, S. C. He had lived in Augusta for some time and was one of the best printers in the city. He was a prominent lodge man and had friends everywhere.

He is survived by his wife, who was, Miss Jennie E. Hendrix before her marriage to Mr. Covar in '96, and two daughters and one son. His sad death was a shock to the entire community.

Old Soldier Tortured.

For years I suffered unspeakable torture from indigestion, constipation and liver trouble, wrote A. K. Smith, a war veteran at Erie, Pa., "but Dr. King's New Life Pills fixed me all right. They're simply great." Try them for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Only 25c at Penn & Holstein's W. E. Lynch & Co., B. Timmons.

She Got Her Answer.

"George," she asked, "if we were both young and single again, would you want me to be your wife?" "Now, my dear," he absent-mindedly replied, "what's the use of trying to start a quarrel just as we have settled down to enjoy a quiet evening?"
