Edgefield Advertiser.

Centennial Celebration.

On Sunday next the members of Red Oak Grove church will celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of the church. Services will be held both morning and afternoon, dinner being served at the church. Several very interesting addresses will be made. Dr. M. D. Jeffries has accepted an invitation to speak of the progress made in mission work during the past century. All who attend the centennial celebration will spend a pleasant and profitable day.

For County Commissioner.

Mr. J. W. R. DeLaughter announces his candidacy this week for the office of county commissioner. He is no stranger to the people of Edgefield, having served several years ago for two terms as supervisor of registration. Mr. DeLaughter has never been defeated nor has he ever been a candidate for the office of county commissioner before. He is a successful farmer and good business man. Should the people elect him he will serve them faithfully and well.

First Election Over.

Notwithstanding the intense interest manifested, the municipal election passed off quietly last Friday. There were 195 votes polled for mayor. Of these Dr. J. G. Edwards received 105 and Dr. A. H. Corley 91. The following wardens were elected: E. J. Norris, B. L. Jones, L. L. Clipperd, E. S. Johnson and W. C. Lynch. In ward 5 a tie vote was cast, J. U. Rives and A. T. Samuel each receiving 26 votes. A second election will be held in this ward on June 10.

Two Timely Implements.

The advertisement of Stewart & Kernaghan, the progressive hardware merchants, should be of special interest to the farmers this week. They first call attention to Deere diverse cultivators which have proven so satisfactory to all who have used them. This implement can be used in cotton or corn, and not only does the work satisfactorily, but is also labor saving. Another implement that will soon be needed to harvest hay is the Dain vertical lift mower. Call and let Mr. Stewart point out the merits of this machine to you.

Hot Weather Goods.

Mr. Israel Mukashy, proprietor of the Mukashy Bargain House, announces this week in his advertisement that every department of his store is well supplied with summer goods, such as one needs for the heated term that is upon us. Mr. Mukashy guarantees his goods to be satisfactory and his prices reasonable.

Thoughtfulness Appreciated.

The Advertiser has received a box of golden Jersey butter from one of the bright little boys who has been sending in some splendid school letters. We are deeply grateful for the thoughtfulness of our little friend. The box was accompanied by the following little note:

Dear Mr. Mims: Will you please accept this little gift and prize it for your friend's sake.
Tee Bailey.

Flat Rock School.

An Advanced Step.

The Edgefield Methodist Sunday school has decided to support a native worker in Korea at $100 a year. Korea has lately had an old fashioned revival. The Korean Christians have the spirit of personal evangelism, and they are helping to evangelize Korea. Many are giving all their time at $100 a year, and thousands are giving days and weeks free.
J. R. Walker.

Long Branch School Closes.

Long Branch school closed very quietly on the 18th inst., with the understanding that we would have a school picnic later so that the candidates may attend.

Ellie Mae Herrin received first medal in writing, Lorine Scott received second medal. Myrtle Lee Clark received first spelling medal, Evelyn Scott second, and Pansy Lee Derrick received third.

A Sad Death.

Mrs. Ray Humphries of Union, formerly Miss Lillie May Bussey, of Modoc, died at her home in Union on Saturday the 18th of May.

Mrs. Humphries was well known in Edgefield, having been a student of the S. C. C. I. for several years and a graduate. She was gifted in elocution, and gave pleasure by her selections on many occasions. After teaching about two years, Miss Bussey was married to Mr. Ray Humphries, then superintendent of education of Union county, where they have since resided. Mrs. Humphries was buried at the family cemetery about twelve miles from Union beside the little babe that had preceded her several days. Mrs. Humphries was the daughter of Mrs. A. V. Bussey who was with her at the time of her death. Mrs. Hugh Wates her aunt, attended the funeral in Union and also Cadet W. T. Humphries of the S. C. C. I., the latter returning in time to receive his diploma at the graduating exercises on Monday the 20th.

Rev. G. W. Bussey Sends Invitation to Red Oak Grove.

Dear Advertiser: We moved in from Fountain Inn and set up house-keeping in our new home in Greenwood yesterday.

After spending the night with my old and strong friend, "Pony" Yeldell, we came in to begin straightening up.

We were loathe to leave our many friends in Fountain Inn, but I was too far from my work, and hence moved closer by, hoping to be more useful. Will you kindly change my paper from Fountain Inn to this place.

Have I written you that we are going to celebrate our 100th anniversary at Red Oak Grove church on 1st Sunday in June? We will have a sketch of the history of the church; then an address by your pastor, Dr. Jeffries, and also one by Dr. Cody of the Baptist Courier, and perhaps some additional reminiscences by others.

We will be glad to welcome our brethren from far and near, and especially all former pastors. Come and be with us on that day. There will be dinner on the grounds.
Fraternally,
G. W. Bussey.

Large Purchases.

We have just unloaded
One solid car of chairs,
One solid car of furniture,
One solid car of Hackney wagons,
One solid car of Hackney buggies, and are now ready to supply you with everything in these lines.

Mr. G. D. Mims Withdraws From Race for Senate.

Clark's Hill, S. C. May 22, 1912.

Dear Advertiser: I am so situated that I can't make the campaign without considerable sacrifice to my home and private business, which at this time counts far more to me than the time spent in the field, even though I should be successful.

Therefore you can take down my sign, and I will, with all dignity and grace within me, tip my hat to the whirling, whizzing throng and fraternity of candidates. Hoping that the whole "shooting match" will be overjoyed with success. I am,
Very truly,
G. D. Mims.

Furman University Commencement. Annual Banquet.

The Furman University commencement begins Monday, June 3, and closes Wednesday, June 5. On the evening of Tuesday, June 4, at 8 o'clock in the dining room of Montague Hall on the Furman University campus, will take place the annual banquet of the alumni, former students and friends of the institution. These occasions furnish one of the most attractive features of Furman commencement, and they serve both to stimulate and maintain interest in the institution. A good supper and abundant fellowship are promised all who are on hand. Music will be furnished by a Greenville orchestra and the Furman Glee Club. The committee and B. B. Geer, C. B. Martin, J. C. Keys and R. M. Mauldin.

The annual sermon will be preached Tuesday June 4, by Dr. C. E. Burts, Columbia, S. C. The annual address before the literary societies will be preached on Wednesday morning, June 5, by Dr. Charles W. Kent, Professor of English Literature in the University of Virginia.

No Filth, No Flies.

"Swat-the-fly" campaigns for 1912 are well on. The elimination of this filthy and dangerous insect is a desirable end. The house-fly, in addition to being a demonstrated agent in the spreading of typhoid, is strongly suspected, on more or less conclusive evidence, with relation to a large number of infections, including cholera, dysentery, infantile diarrheas, diphtheria, and contagious ophthalmia. About a billion flies were killed in various campaigns of 1911—a statement which seems impressive until one considers the number of flies which escaped the slaughter. In Washington, D. C., alone, some 7,000,000 flies were killed by the "swat," the trap, drowning, sulphur fumes and even by electrocution. Dr. Howard of the Bureau of Entomology, points out that in the congenial climate of that city seven generations of flies may be produced in a single summer. One female fly will lay on an average a batch of 120 eggs; and if all these eggs from a batch laid in April should hatch and reproduce their kind in like manner, there would be by autumn, from a single female fly, a progeny of nearly six thousand billion. And as each female may lay four batches of eggs, the figures for their unchecked development through a summer stagger the imagination. To "swat the fly" by the billion, therefore, means little, says The Journal of the American Medical Association, so long as those that survive have unchecked opportunity for breeding. There is even more weight, therefore, in Stockbridge's statement that during 1911 filthy breeding places were cleaned up, which, if left alone, would have given opportunity for the propagation of incalculable billions. Better than "swatting" the fly is the prevention of its breeding by cleaning up the places where it thrives—the unsanitary privy, the dead dog and horse allowed to lie unburied until putrid, the dung-heap, the uncovered garbage can and the spittoon. How this can be done, can be learned from the health departments of many states and municipalities, and from civic leagues and like organizations.

How They Ran.

A lawyer was cross-examining an old German about the position of the doors, windows and so forth in a house in which a certain transaction occurred.

"And now my good man," said the lawyer, "will you be good enough to tell the court how the stairs ran in the house?"

The German, for a moment, looked dazed and unsettled. "How do the stairs run?" he queried.

"Yes, how do the stairs run?"

"Vell," continued the witness, "after a moment's thought, 'ven I am oop stairs dey run down, and ven I am down stairs dey run oop.'"

Untwist It.

Fred and Jack, little brothers, hitched their goat to a new wagon their father bought them. Fred, the younger, got in to drive off, but "Billie" stubbornly refused to budge; whereupon Jack stepped up and gave the goat's tail a vicious twist or two, at which "Billie" made off at a lively gait, to the great pleasure of Fred, the driver. When the goat got started, he did not slow down, but went faster and faster to the great dismay of Fred, who, much frightened, cried to his brother: "Jack, Jack, untwist it, untwist it."
