Allen-Morrall.

The strong ties that have hitherto bound Edgefield and Trenton will be greatly strengthened by the marriage of Miss Earline Allen to Dr. Samuel Allston Morrall which will occur on the 19th of June as announced by the following invitation:

"Mr. J. H. Allen invites you to be present at the marriage of his sister, Earline, to Samuel Allston Morrall, M. D., on the evening of Wednesday the nineteenth of June at half after eight o'clock, First Baptist Church, Edgefield, South Carolina.

U. D. C. Meeting.

The last meeting of the Edgefield chapter U. D. C. for the season, was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bettis Cantelou, Mrs. N. G. Evans, presiding. As it was a meeting of importance, a large number of the members were present. The historical programme was centered around the life of Jefferson Davis, a poem being read by Mrs. R. A. Marsh and a short sketch by Mrs. P. P. Blalock. A report of the acting historian Mrs. Agatha Woodson was read, and by request she gave the names of all the boys who went out from Edgefield to the war, 18 years of age and under. There were about one hundred and fifty recorded.

After the historical programme was completed the election of officers took place, and resulted as follows: Mrs. J. D. Holstein, president; Mrs. N. G. Evans, vice-president; Mrs. R. A. Marsh, recording secretary; Mrs. J. B. Kennerly, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Lovick Mims, Registrar, Mrs. F. F. Moseley, recorder of crosses; Treasurer, Mrs. C. E. May and Mrs. Agatha Woodson, historian. A very interesting sketch of the local chapter was read by Mrs. N. G. Evans which had been prepared by Mrs. J. D. Holstein. Ices and cake were served.

The next meeting will take place on the third of September.

Lyceum for Edgefield.

Arrangements have been completed for a very attractive lyceum for Edgefield. The season will open early in October with a lecture by George R. Stuart of Tennessee. Unusually strong attractions have been engaged for the entire course. Many of the small towns are unable to contract for high priced attractions because of the comparatively small number who patronize the entertainments. The course has been made possible here by a committee of representative citizens who guaranteed the payment of the amount required for the course. Ernest E. Padgett is secretary and treasurer of the committee.

Electric Lights Turned On.

There will be no more dark nights in Edgefield, at least not unless some accident befalls the newly installed electric light plant. As the result of an election held early last fall, bonds to the amount of $15,000 were issued for the purpose of installing a plant to be owned and operated by the town. The unfavorable weather of the winter and frequent rains in the early spring so delayed the work that not until Monday was the work on the plant completed. The streets were all lighted Monday night for the first time. It appears now that the plant will prove to be entirely satisfactory. When the wiring is completed the town will be well lighted on the principle streets the lights being at close intervals. The work of wiring residences, stores and other business places is being carried forward as rapidly as possible, and in a short time the plant will be operated to its full capacity.

Bankrupt's Petition For Discharge.

A woman entered Cossitt library the other day and solicited the assistance of a desk clerk.

"I am searching for a book called The Dentist's Infirmary," she said. The president of our literary club told me to get it.

"The Dentist's Infirmary?" repeated the clerk with a rising inflection, vainly trying to associate such a book with a study class.

"Yes," replied the woman. "It's all about devils and angels and such like."

The light of understanding dawned on the puzzled face of the clerk.
"Oh, you mean Dante's Inferno."

Record of Happenings in and Around Trenton.

The following young ladies have returned from college: Misses Roseva Harrison, Sadie Long, and Lola Harrison from Limestone; the first two named have finished and received their diplomas; Misses Emma Bouknight and Fannie Miller, St. Mary's.

An item of much interest that we neglected to mention last week was the arrival of a young lady visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Swearingen. They are the happy recipients of many congratulations.

We note with much regret that two of our beloved women are away for treatment: Mrs. J. M. Wise at Knowlton's Infirmary, at Columbia, and Miss Alice Salter at Pinehurst, North Augusta. We hope that they will soon be back with us again much benefited.

These young teachers come very highly recommended and we welcome them to our midst with wishes for much success in our school.

A very handsome soda fount has been installed in the Hughes pharmacy.

We have had several heavy rains recently and as a result the farmers are getting behind with their work. They are in the midst of the harvest and it is feared that grain will be damaged. There is a general report of a poor crop of wheat, even where it was so promising a few weeks ago.

says a policeman to a street crowd, and whacks heads if it don't. "Move on now," says the big, harsh mineral pills to bowel congestion and suffering follows.
